

Unidentified Elm City defender attempts to bring down Louisburg fullback Neill McDonald in Friday's action. Mc-Donald scored two touchdowns and a two-point conversion as the Bulldogs won, 40-0.

Bulldog halfback Randy Seidel (44) squirts out of the pile on a muddy rain-soaked Viking field Friday night. Blm City defenders pictured are: Bill Batten (72); Dennis Dixon (62) and John Joyner (40). Seidel scored a TD and a two-point conversion in the opening win.

Louisburg defender Robby McDonald (11) grabs John Joyner (40) in Friday's game at Elm City as Jerry Riggan (83) and Steve Roberson (74) move up to assist. Dan Hayes (73) is shown in the background. McDonald scored a Bulldog touchdown on a 44 yard pass reception.

THE BLA

Louisburg quarterback Larry Fuller (12) pulls away from Viking Jerry Peques in Friday's action as unidentified official eyes the whole play. Fuller scored two Bulldog touchdowns and tossed to Robby McDonald 44 yards for a third.

Rams Fall To Oxford

Bulldogs Bop the final moments of the

Louisburg		Elm City	1
First Downs	13	6	4
Rushing	144	68	1
Passing	158	14	1
Passes (comp/att)	8-14	2-11	i
Passes Intercepted	by 3	1
Fumbles lost by	0	4	ľ
Penalties (Yards)	60	70
Punts	2-36	1-25

Neither rain nor fog nor dark of night or even a muddy field stayed the Louisburg Bulldogs from their appointed task Friday. They traveled to Elm City seeking an opening win and they brought a very satisfying one back.

Sophomore quarterback Larry Fuller scored twice on quarterback sneaks and tossed a 44-yarder to Robby McDonald for a third Bulldog TD. Fullback Neill McDonald was the game's highest scorer as he rushed for eleven yards and 1 yard accounting for two TD's and plunged over for a two-point conversion. Randy Seidel, flashy halfback transfer from Rocky Mount, Va., tallied a TD on a 1-yard romp and also accounted for a wo-point running conver-

Fuller, who has been dubbed an All State and All Conference candidate by one daily sportswriter, completed eight of 12 passes for 158 yards and averaged 36 yards per punt. Neill McDonald gained 44 yards on 11 tries in the rushing department and Seidel mustered 48 yards in 13 carries. Defensively, sophomore Mike Leonard was a standout as he intercepted one Elm City pass and recovered two Viking fumbles. Carey Wrenn and Eddie Ed-

Wiggins Is Golf Champ

Youngsville - Dewey Wig-gins of Youngsville, new golf club champion of the Paschal Golf Club in Wake Forest captured the title in the final tournament match staged Sunday, September seventh. His opponent in the championship game was Mr. Doug las Bunn.

The championship was determined Sunday afternoon when with three holes to go Mr. Wiggins had four up.

In tournament flight, the champion defeated Mr. Ted Janes. And then in a significant game, Mr. Wiggins won a victory over his older brother, Mr. M. O. Wiggins of Youngsville. In semi-final play Mr. Oscar T. Barham was elimi-nated, leading Mr. Wiggins to with the trim fit boys like. Luxurious exford fabric of 65% Decron® Polyester, 35%

WRIGHT.

SLACKS

the championship match with

Dewey Wiggins is pictured holding the championship trophy. The trophy was presented to him on Sunday after the championship match Douglas Bunn. The smaller medal trophy was also presented to him.

and Edward Pergerson made a key fumble recovery in the opening moments of the game. Jimmy Wrenn gained 13 yards in three tries and Phillip Redmond ran one time for 14 yards. Freshman

Tony Tharrington added three yards to the Bulldog offense in one try.

Louisburg was forced to kick early in the first quarter after holding the Vikings on the first series of play. Fuller booted a coffin corner put booted a coffin corner punt to the Elm City five. Perger-son recovered a fumble two plays later and on fourth down, McDonald ran over for the TD. He also ran the extra points to give the Bulldogs an 8-0 lead.

In the second period, Fuller gambled on a fourth down, long yardage situation and tossed a 29-yard pass to end Steve Perdue which took the ball to the Viking 11 yard

To Meet

The Franklin Wildlife Club will hold a meeting in the basement of the Agriculture building in Louisburg, N. C., Thursday, September 11, 1969, beginning at 8:00 p.m.

The order of business will be to make plans for bird dog field trials, membership and elect new officers. A 30 minute color film on bird hunting will be shown.

THE NOW MOOD

line. From this point Neil McDonald carried into the end zone and converted the two-extra points to give the Bulldogs a 16-0 edge. With about one minute with about one minute left in the first half Fuller hit Robby McDonald on the 44-yard pass play for the third Bulldog tally. The point-after pass from Fuller to Seidel was batted down by an Elm City defender. As the half ended Carey Wrenn intercepted a Viking pass and car-ried for 19 yards before being hauled down. The Bulldogs led at the half, 22-0.

Early in the third period, Leonard recovered a fumble on the Elm City thirty. Seidel dashed for 19 yards to the Viking eleven; Neill Mc-Donald carried to the six; Seidel rammed to the one and on a first and ten carried to the six; Seidel rammed to the one and on a first and ten carried in for the score. Ful-ler's pitch-out to Seidel failed among those completed.

and the Bulldogs held a 28-0 |

Ed "Boo-Boo" Pergerson recovered a Viking fumble at midfield in the third period and Fuller tossed 35 yards to Perdue on the Viking twelve to set up the next Bulldog tally. Fuller carried to the five on a busted play. On a reverse Jimmy Wrenn was thrown for a loss to the Viking 12: Seidel carried to the one and Fuller sneaked in for the score. The PAT pass was no good and Louisburg led Charlie Hobgood recovered a fumble on the Viking 40 in the fourth frame. Fuller tossed a 29-vard pass to Jerry Riggan on the Viking one-foot line and the sophomore quarterback sneaked for his second TD of the night. A run for the conversion was no good and the Bulldogs had their 40-0 victory. Eddie Edgerton returned an intercepted pass for 15 yards in

First downs Rushing Passing 35 Passes (comp/att) 4-14 Passes int. by Fumbles lost by

Penalties (yards)

Oxford - Gaining life after ed in the rain. a scoreless first quarter, the Red Devils of Oxford Orphanage plastered a 28 to 0 thrashing on Franklinton's Red Rams here Friday night. The winners scored in each period after the scoreless first

45

8-12

85

Coach Tommy Twitty had high praise for the "entire team effort." He declined to single out any particular player but he was obviously pleased with several performances. His and the team's attentions now turn to Friday

Franklinton

Tim Jones cracked over from the one for the first 6-0 counter. He added two points after his TD.

Danny Warren, taking a 45-yard pass from James Earp, scored the second TD the winners. The kick after the TD was no good. It was Jones' turn to score again, and he did - twice. J ones pulled in an eight-yard pass from Earp for the

In Conference Tilt

night's home opener against a long-time foe, the Norlina came out of the opener with few injuries. About the only one of note was a nose injury

to All Conference Johnny

Pernell. It is not expected to prevent the veteran from being ready Friday night.

The Bulldogs

Orph. | third Orphanage score, Again Oxford | the kick after the TD was no Oxford good. Jones finished his scoring brilliance for the night by 110 going five yards for another > Orphanage added two points after the score when Jake Dew ran the mail over. Half of the game was play-counter. This time Oxford

Franklinton moved to within the locals' 30-yard stripe one time, but then Kenneth Bass fell on a fumble to halt the threat.

Danny Haynes played out-standingly on defense for the victors. Score by quarters:

Franklinton 0000-0 08614-28 Oxford 00-Tim Jones 1 run (Tim Jones ran).

00-Danny Narron 45 pass from James Earp (kick fail-

00-Tim Jones 8 pass from James Earp (kick failed). 00-Tim Jones 5 run (Jake Dew ran).

of the contemporary male . . . a slightly longer two-button coat with wider lapels, shaped waist and deep center vent.

Orphanage as they fell in the conference tilt, 28-0. This gives the Red Devils a jump on Louisburg and Wakelon in the conference race. Wakelon was walloped Friday night by Whitley, 46-0. The Bulldogs won last year. Depending on Whitley's strength-Wakelon might not yet be up to preseason expectations. Raleigh Times Sports writer Caulton Tudor wrote last week that Louisburg quarterback Larry Fuller is an All State candidate and more recently referred to the 6'1 letterman as an All Conference candidate. Writing of Fuller and receivers Steve Perdue, Robby McDonald, Jimmy Wrenn and others, he predicts Louisburg may have "the strongest passing game in the entire 1-A East." Tudor says that "The result should be happier days for young (Coach Tommy) Twitty . . . as he flies the friendly skies of Fuller." He also predicts a 5-5 record for the Bulldogs this year but doesn't say which five is which.

By CLINT FULLER

Louisburg fans didn't seem to mind sloshing in the mud and being smothered in dampness and fog Friday night at Elm

City. The Bulldogs took their mines off these miseries. Bulldog supporters had to be pleased with the showing by every

Bright spots in the game was the development of a strong ssing game and an equally strong running game. The locals kept the home team off balance all night. Louisburg gained 144 yards running and 158 yards passing. Sophomore quarterback Larry Fuller hit eight out of twelve passes. Two missed were for extra points and he tossed a 44-yarder for a TD to Robby McDonald and listed a 35 yarder and a 29 yarder

..................

member of the team as they downed Elm City, 40-0.

48 yards in 13 tries and accounted for 8 points.

was a team effort and a very good one.

Louisburg is tied for fourth place among all classifications including 4-A Raleigh Enloe in this week's Prep Ratings, Both have 40 points. Goldsboro (4-A) leads with 60 points but has played two games.

Neill McDonald is second to Tim Jones of Oxford Orphanage in points scored. Jones has 20; McDonald has 14 in the Franklin Area Conference, Franklinton's Bobby Kearney and Louisburg's Larry Fuller are tied for third with 12 points each. Fuller is second to Oxford's James Earp in TD passes. Earp has two, Fuller has one. Robby McDonald of Louisburg is in a three-way tie for TD receptions. Randy Seidel is fifth among the conference scorers with 8 points.

......

The Louisburg Jayvees-a team made up of ninth and tenth graders-will open their season Thursday afternoon at Millbrook. A slate of games for the Jayvees will be announced soon. Louisburg Coach Tommy Twitty says that there are no plans at present for fielding a seventh-eighth grade squad this

BURNISHED BRONZE TARTAN GRAIN

The plain-toe buckled oxford made a bit "dressier" with perforations. Color and style are excellent with current mensus. Flexlite permagnain polymeric sole, hard heel, Thaxton last.

