Mrs. Jones Hosts UDC

The Joseph J. Davis Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met October 21 with Mrs. Linda Perry Jones.

Receives Ribbons

(Frk. B.W.) Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Haskins attended the meeting of the American Rose Society in Norfolk, Virginia during the weekend.

The Haskins had entered 21 of their roses for judging. They received 4 blue ribbons, 4 red ribbons, 3 yellow ribbons and 2 white ribbons.

For their collection of three hybrid roses Mr. and Mrs. Haskins received a silver award.

Mrs. Jones attended the State U.D.C. Convention in Salisbury, October 7, 8, and 9. This chapter was awarded a Superior Certificate of Award for reports of activities of the chapter during the past year.

The chapter has donated $5.00 to the Norman V. Randolph Relief Fund. This fund provides pensions to women who are descendants of Confederate veterans who live in states which do not provide state pensions for these eligible women.

Mrs. J. W. Mann presented a program on the State of Arkansas during the War Between the States. The programs during the 1969-70 year are to be on the states which made up the Confederate States of America.

Epsom Supper Huge Success

More than 1,000 persons were fed hotcakes, sausage and beverage by the Epsom Lions club when that group sponsored its annual pancake jamboree Thursday night in the fellowship hall of Liberty (Vance) United Church of Christ.

The affair is held each year by the club as a major fund-raising drive to benefit the blind, a major project of Lions.

As early as 6 p.m. the fellowship hall was filled to capacity, with many standing in line to be served. In the kitchen at all times was a crew of 10 or more Lion "chefs" preparing the meal. A number of Lionesses assisted in the serving and cleaning of the tables to make room for additional pancake eaters.

The Epsom club noted at the supper a good representation from the Henderson, Louisburg and Oxford Lions clubs. As in similar past events, the supper drew a good response from visiting club members and the general public.

Bobby Moss serves as president of the Epsom club.

Bunn Seniors Take Test

Throughout the schools of Franklin County, the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test was given Tuesday, October 21 to College bound eleventh grade students. This test is just another tool used by Guidance counselors to help determine the best direction for the college bound student.

The above group was tested by Aubrey L. Hancock at Bunn High School.

THANK YOU

Franklin Christian School, Inc. would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank each individual and organization for their wonderful response and support displayed October 11, 1969.

We, the people of the School, appreciate your excellent participation which made our Fund Raising Campaign a complete success.
