White Bible Ceremony Honors Miss Wiggins

Sunday night, November 16, 1969 at seven-thirty in the evening was the time when the Nora C. Layton Young Women's Auxiliary of Flat Rock Baptist Church honored Miss Jenny Wiggins at a White Bible Presentation Service.

Miss Rhonda Strickland played the prelude after which members of the Y.W.A. formed a candlelight chain down the aisle. Mrs. Floyd Benfield sang "Walk Hand in Hand" as Miss Wiggins and her fiancé, Tommie Lloyd, passed through the candlelight walkway. Reverend Floyd Benfield then led the invocation.

The members of the Y.W.A. sang "Holy Bible, Book Divine". JoAnn Frazier then made the welcoming speech.

The Y.W.A. members formed a semi-circle in front of the altar of the sanctuary which was adorned with two candelabras of blue and white flickering candles. The communion table, covered with a blue cloth, was accented by a burning candelabra, a white Bible, and ivy.

Miss Wiggins joined the other Y.W.A. members. Darnell Holmes, president of the Y.W.A.'s, began the program by telling of the different qualities of the diamond. Other Y.W.A. members told of the significance of the Bible being used in a Christian home. They were Janet Lloyd, Debbie Woodlief, Nancy Cooke, Judy Murray and Elaine Holmes.

Prior to the ceremony Linda Paschall and Crystal Catlett lit the candles.

Mrs. Mattie Woodlief presented Miss Wiggins a white Bible from the Y.W.A.

The Reverend Floyd Benfield led the benediction. Mrs. Floyd Benfield concluded the prayer by singing "The Lord's Prayer". As Rhonda Strickland played the postlude, the Y.W.A. members formed an impressive chain along the aisle through which Miss Wiggins and Mr. Lloyd walked.

Miss Wiggins will marry Tommie Lloyd December 6.

Luncheon

Mesdames C. H. Roberts, Jr., James Ivett, Nick Johnson, James Macon, Booster White and Miss Debbie Roberts were hostesses for a luncheon honoring Miss Jenny Wiggins, bride-elect. It was given Saturday, November 15, in the Bickett Room of The Murphy House. Upon her arrival, Miss Wiggins was presented a peppermint carnation corsage by the hostesses.

Centering the head table was an arrangement of red and white carnations intermingled with red and white ribbons which fell to the table below. The arrangement was accented by a pair of wedding bells.

Approximately fifteen guests were served fried chicken, Brunswick stew, pork barbecue, potato salad, slaw, hush puppies, rolls, tea, coffee, and dessert.

The hostesses also presented Miss Wiggins a gift in her chosen crystal pattern.

When athletics become more important than studies, the tail is running away with the dog.

Surprise Shower

On Friday, November 14, immediately following Y.W.A. White Bible ceremony rehearsal, Miss Jenny Wiggins was honored with a surprise kitchen shower in the Flat Rock Baptist Church social hall.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Riddie Wheeler, Misses Sandra and Vickie Wheeler. Upon her arrival Miss Wiggins was presented a red checked apron by the hostesses.

The old-fashioned kitchen theme was carried out in decorating the church social hall. Arrangements of red Nadina were used in completing the red and white color scheme.

Centering the gift table which was covered with a white cloth was an old-fashioned Aladdin lamp. The counter was accented by an arrangement of Nadina in an old milk churn and by two oil lamps.

The serving table was covered with an old-fashioned red-checked oil cloth. It was centered with an antique bowl and pitcher. Strands of ivory ran from the bowl and pitcher set to each end of the serving table. Mrs. Haywood Wiggins, mother of the bride-elect, poured apple punch from an old white water bucket with a dipper. Mrs. George Lloyd, mother of the groom-elect, served ham biscuits from a breadbox.

Approximately twenty guests were also served vanilla and cinnamon cookies from white platters. Pickles were served from a china plate over a hundred years old. Red-checked plates and napkins were used to continue the kitchen theme.

The hostesses presented Miss Wiggins a cookbook for future use.

ON DECK - Delightful attire for a brisk morning walk along the deck is this handsome ensemble of cotton corduroy. The Count Romi outfit is completed with a matching hat and a doggie coat.

It's a good rule, when driving an automobile, not to take every green light for granted.

Cotton wears a new face

DASHING NEW COTTON—Soft and supple cotton suede with pony-markings gives a luxurious leather look to stylish separates. In Wamsutta's new fabric, the separates include a high-shaped tunic jacket with wide cutaway lapels, bell-bottoms, an ultra-long sleeveless cardigan, and a back-zipped miniskirt. The fashionable four were designed by Young Victorian for Arpeja.

PARTY-FAIR—Two ways to dress for the holidays: in a black cotton velvet dress edged with white lace and ribbon sash (left) or in a deep red cotton velvet dress and pants trimmed with wide lace. Both by Johnston of Dallas.

RIGHT FOR FALL - For the dapper little chap, a toasty warm sweater of crocheted-knit cotton wards off fall's cool breezes. Easy to don and doff, it has mock-turtleneck styling and contoured raglan sleeves. By Rob Roy, it comes in buff - one of the season's favorite neutral shades.

SLINKY - Ruby red cotton fashions a stylish jumpsuit with the look of the 30's. By Parkland of Dallas, it's accessorized with a long, trailing paisley scarf.

DOTS WITH DASH - French Designer Madeleine de Rauch shapes a smashing duffie coat from polka-dotted cotton pique. Styled with large patch pockets, the hooded coat tops black vinyl pants.

The intelligence of the nation, we presume, will rapidly increase now that school has begun again.

T & C Garden Club Wins District Awards

Mrs. T. Allen Gardner and Mrs. J. David Allen were hostesses to the Town and Country Garden Club at the Gardner home Wednesday night.

The living room where the meeting was held was beautifully decorated with Fall and Thanksgiving arrangements. On a chest was a gold horn of plenty with wax fruit, two pilgrims, a church and a candle in a brass holder all placed on an attractive underlay of burlap. On a drum table was a gold mesh basket filled with pine branches, pine cones and a stuffed bird. The basket was edged with red satin ribbon and caught at the top by a large red satin bow. An end table held a lovely arrangement of wine and white chrysanthemums with several cattails in a green glass container. On the drop leaf dining table was an array of wine chrysanthemums accented with dried foliage in a brass compote arranged by Mrs. Allen.

Mrs. Walter B. Jones and Mrs. N. F. Freeman, Jr. gave a very interesting and informative report on the District X Garden Club meeting held in Raleigh October 31. It was reported that the Town and Country Garden Club won a blue ribbon for the current Yearbook. The book has now been entered in the State competition.

Mrs. Conrad B. Sturges, Jr., Chairman of the Civic Committee, announced plans to conduct an anti-Litter Poster contest and an Anti-Litter Essay Contest at Franklin Academy.

Mrs. N. F. Freeman, Jr. was appointed Scrapbook Chairman. The Club voted to participate in the Operation Santa Claus Program in December.

Following discussion of a float for the Louisburg Christmas Parade Mrs. William H. O'Neal, president, presented Mrs. Conrad B. Sturges, Jr., who gave a very interesting lecture entitled, "How to Put Your Garden to Sleep." She included informative pointers on proper treatments for lawns, shrubs, flowers, mulch, compost, trees and tools in preparation for the winter.

Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Allen served delicious pecan pie; and, coffee was served buffet from a silver service to Mesdames Conrad B. Sturges, Jr., Frank A. Read, Jr., N. F. Freeman, Jr., William H. O'Neal, Paul Brewer, Felix H. Allen, Jr., James R. Grady, Robert B. Fleming, Thomas A. Riggan, Walter B. Jones, Charles E. Ford, Jr., Richard Smith.

Mrs. Taylor To Be Club Speaker

The Louisburg Woman's Club will meet Wednesday night, November 19, at the home of Mrs. Janie Tippett at 6:45 p.m.

Speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Virginia Taylor, an outstanding member of the local garden club. Mrs. Taylor will speak on Christmas decorations and help get the busy members of the club off on a good start for the holiday season.

All members are urged to attend.

County Beta Club Has Board Meeting

(Frk. B.W.) On Wednesday night, November 12, the executive board of the Franklin County Beta Club met at the home of Mrs. Gladys Bailey in Louisburg.

President Charlie Hobgood of Louisburg called the meeting to order.

Ellen Evans, Youngsville, gave the treasurer's report. All clubmembers were reminded to have their dues of 40 cents in by December 1.

Plans for the county convention to be held at Bunn High School Friday, March 13, were made. Registration will be at 1:00. The theme chosen was Realities Require Responsibility. Mr. Russell Stott, assistant professor at Louisburg College, will be the guest speaker.

Each school was given jobs to help prepare for the convention. The schools that are to run candidates for offices are: President, Youngsville, Franklinton; Secretary, Gold Sand, Youngsville, Epsom; Treasurer, Franklinton, Bunn, Louisburg; Reporter, Epsom, Gold Sand.

Mrs. Haskins Mrs. Whitaker Entertain

(Frk. B.W.) Mrs. Woodrow Haskins and Mrs. Joe Whitaker entertained their bridge clubs at the home of Mrs. Whitaker Tuesday evening.

Arrangements of chrysanthemums decorated the Whitaker home.

Ben Whitaker gave the tallies to the club members and guests as they arrived.

Mrs. Herb Smith received high score prize for one club while Mrs. C. H. Weston received second high.

Recipients of high and second high for the other bridge club were Mrs. W. F. Miller and Mrs. T. J. McGhee.

Mrs. Ollie Jenkins received high score prize for guest while Mrs. Fred Blount received second high.

The hostesses served a dessert course with coffee at the conclusion of the last progression.

Special guests were Mesdames Ollie Jenkins, Fred Blount, W. H. M. Jenkins, T. H. Pearce, W. P. Pearce, Jr., W. A. Shearon, John Gonella and Gordon Patterson.
