FOETRY.

From the London Athenæum. THE JEWISH PILGRIM AT JERUSALEM. Are these the ancient, holy hills, Where angels walked of old ? Is this the land our story fills With glory not yet cold ! For I have passed by many a shrine, O'er many a land and sea. But still, oh ! promised Palestine, My dreams have been of thee.

I see thy mountain cedars green, Thy valleys fresh and fair, With summers bright as they have been When Israel's home was there ; Though o'er thee sword and time have passed And cross and crescent abone. And heavily the chain bath pressed, Yet still thou art our own !

Thine are the wandering race that go Unbless'd through every land, Whose blood hath stained the polar snow, And ouenched the desert sand : And thine the homeless hearts that turn From all earth's shrines to thee, With their lone faith for ages borne In sleepless memory.

For thrones are fallen and nations gone Before the march of time, And where the ocean folled alone Are forests in their prime ; Since Gentile ploughshares marred the brow Of Zion's holy hill-Where are the Roman eagles now ! Yet Judah wanders still.

And hath she wandered thus in yain A pilgrim of the past ! No ! long deferred her hope hath been, But it shall come at last; For in her wastes a voice I hear, As from some prophet's urn, It bids the nations build not there, For Jacob shall return.

Oh ! lost and loved Jerusalem-! Thy pilgrim may not stay To see the glad earth's harvest home In thy redeeming day; But now resigned in faith and trust, I seek a nameless tomb ; At least beneath thy hallowed dust-Oh ! give the wanderer room !

REWARD OF WIT.

"You blundering scoundrel," said the owner of a crockery store to one of his assistants yesterday, "what did you knock over that China sett for? You have broken at least twenty dollars' worth of dishes.'

"Blessed are the piece-makers," said the boy, "that's the only excuse I've got.'

"Give the rascal a dollar for his wit," said the man, smiling, "and let him get a pair of tighter shoes for his clumsy feet, at my expense."

OBEY ORDERS.

A brave veteran officer reconnoitering a battery which was considered impenetrable. and which it was necessary to storm, laconically answered the engineers who were dissuading him from the attempt: "Gentlemen, you may think what you please; all I know is that the American flag must be hoisted on the ramparts tomorrow morning, for I have the orders in my pocket."

sharp that, be shaves with it.

From the Greensborough Patriot. Trial Of Edward Boling.

Edward Boling, the story of whose villainy has for some time filled the surrounding country, was tried last Friday on an indictment for Bigamy, at the Superior Court of Rockingham county, before his honor Judge Nash. The rare occurrence of the crime with which he was charged, the respectability of the parties suffering from it, and the novel character of the circumstances attending the commission of the offence, conspired to draw together an unusually large crowd of spectators. But the trial, in detail, turned out to be comparatively uninteresting. A very small portion of the train of minute but strange par ticulars, marking the steps of the criminal towards the accomplishment of his crime, was elicited on the examination of evidence. For the conviction of the prisoner it was only necessary to prove his identity, and that he had a wife living before and at the time of his second marriage; consequently the principal developements of the trial consisted in the proof of these barren facts. The case was submitted to the jury upon the charge of the Judge, and a verdict of "Guilty" returned after an absence of a very few minutes.

As time will not now permit us to attempt a circumstantial narration of the affair, we subjoin a brief statement of the facts, as we heard them from the trial and from other sources.

Edward Boling, the son of a worthy Methodist minister of Caswell county, was married to Miss Harriet Parks, of the same county, in July, 1838. He was 19 years gravation of your crime. Your parentage, of age in May preceding his marriage; his wife between 16 and 17.

About the last of September or first of October, 1840, a young man of genteel appearance and pretty good address arrived in Greensborough, gave his name as Sidney T. Smith, and said he was from Perry county, Alabama, He went immediately to the office of one of our lawyers and delivered a letter which purported to be from James Smith, of Ala., the writer stating that he wished his son Sidney, the bearer, to prosecute the study of the law to a certain extent, so that he might be enabled the better to manage a large property that would eventually fall to him. letter contained some other fatherly suggestions relative to the guidance of son Sidney, just as one would suppose an easy old planter to write. Young Mr. Smith secured boarding in a respectable family; paid about as much attention to Coke and Blackstone as is generally looked for in a rich young hairbrained student; and commenced "cutting the gent" in prosperous fashion. In the most natural way in the world he mentioned, upon suitable occasions, the vast possessions of the venerated Mr. James Smith, of Perry county, Ala., and passed among his new acquaintances with all the ease of "heir presumptive" to an Alabama fortune. In December he left the place on a pretended visit to certain wealthy relations in until February, 1841. In the mean time a letter was received by one of his creditors from a pretended uncle of young Mr. Smith, stating that his return was prevented by the illness of his servant. After his return from this jaunt, some time in the month of March, he received outraged humanity and the avenging laws the astounding and grievous intelligence of demand. How painful it is to contemplate the disthe death of his father in the southwest. He exhibited a letter containing this infornation with marks of most sincere grief; estroyed by your criminal conducttied crape around his hat; mourned as a You have inflicted wounds too deep for Warning .- A man was knocked down dutiful son for the sad event that had thus the hand of time to cure ; caused misery early in life burdened him with the care of which nothing but the grave can cover up, a fortune;-and forthwith began to "surge and eternity alone can obliterate. Thin his credit" in the stores, tailor shops, &c. of the parents who gave you being;-your In the mean time he had formed an ac- father an exemplary man-a religious min quaintance with the family of Mr. Bran- ister. Kneeling night and morning at the nock, of Guilford county, and an intimacy I mily altar in prayer and praise to your with his daughter, which, on her part, ricommon Maker, how often has he petitionpened into affection, and he asked her hand ed heaven, with the yearning earnesiness in marriage. Mr. B. prudently inquired of a father's heart, for blessings upon into the character and circumstances of his your head. And when he hoped and exproposed son-in-law; the investigation turnpected, as he had a right to do, that you ed out satisfactory; and the marriage was would be a solace and a stav to his decliconsummated in May, 1841-Mr. Smith ning years, and smooth with the gentle being auxious to have it over, and go with hand of duty and affection his passage to the tomb,-your conduct pierces his bosom During the summer he concluded to setwith the most poignant grief, will embitter tle in Caswell, N. C., having the offer of the few remaining years of his existence, a valuable tract of land from Edward Boand bring down his gray hairs with sorrow ling, and induced Mr. Brannock to assist to the grave. Think of that mother who him with his name in procuring a loan of nursed you upon her lap, who sustained money, until he could realize some of his you at her breast, and watched over the Alabama fortune. The land trade continweakness and way wardness of your infancy in the New Boston Exchange, said that it used to be canvassed until Mr. B. began to with an anxiety felt only in the materna suspect that all was not right, asked an exbreast. Call to mind the situation of her planation of Smith, who confessed that who should be your bosom friend, the wife Boling had managed to swindle him out of of your youth, whose confidence you have a large part of his money, without giving so basely abused,-and your child who him a title to the land .- Mr. B. finally had will inherit any thing but honor from its Boling arrested at Caswell courthouse, and father. Neither are these all the individascertained to his astonishment and dismay uals who feel the ceaseless pangs entailed that he was the same man who had marby your crime. The more painful, beried his daughter under the name of Sidney T. Smith. The villain continued up to the time of Brannock. A blooming young girl has his arrest to pass in Caswell as Edward been sacrificed by your calculating villany; Boling, and in Guilford as Sidney T. her hopes in life-those hopes so delicately Smith. His last wife, the daughter of Mr. yet so fondly cherished by a female-cut B., at one time becoming uneasy at the off forever; though still pure in mind, her protracted absence of Mr. Smith, went to prospects are blighted irretrievably .the house of the eider Mr. Boling, expecting to find there her husband in company together by the story of your crime, who have listened to the disclosures made duwith young Mr. Boling, of whom he was purchasing land. But young Mr. Boling, ring the investigation of your case, stand on seeing her carriage, was taken suddenly aghast to think that their own familiesill, could see no one, and passed the night their own daughters and sisters-are liable in a room with his true wife .- no one but to be ruined in the same way. himself suspecting the strange connexion "What then ?" "Getting his father's roof. existing among the company then under Such are the prominent occurrences of murder, and treason, and all these unnatu-

A man in Richmond has vinegar so this strange affair. We have no space for ral and ferocious acts which are evidence more at this time: but if not done by a more competent hand, we shall attempt a full and circumstantial detail, when we can procure the numerous letters by which the infamous deception was kept up.

Boling is now beginning to reap the bitter reward of his deception and villapy. He was sentenced to be branded with the letter B on his left cheek, (which was carried into execution in presence of the Court;) to be imprisoned three years; and to receive thirty-nine lashes at three several times before the expiration of his imprisonment. His abode has been assigned pared with the quiet of the grave ?- Your him in Guilford jail.

We attempt to give below the substance of the Judge's remarks to the prisoner, on the occasion of pronouncing his sentence. The faults in the language are all our own; -whatever of beauty, justness or sternness of sentiment there is, are his:

There is scarcely any duty more painful ever devolved upon an individual than that which falls to the lot of a judicial officer in apportioning the punishment which the law awards to a convicted criminal. In the present case and under the present circumstances it becomes doubly so, on account of your youth and the atrocity of the crime of which you stand convicted. You are yet a very young man-in that period of life when we naturally look for the more ingenuous feelings and honorable sentiments of our nature to prevail: yet the evidence against you, respecting the recent nefarious transactions of your life, discloses a tissue of deception unparallelled by any case ever before known in the judicia ry of North Carolina.

Every circumstance connected with your life and with your recent offence is an agnot only highly respectable, but your fathe a minister of the gospel, blameless in his social relations and in his walk before the world ; yourself moving in a circle far from the lowest in society; with a wife who looked to you with all a woman's confidence for love and protection; and a tender child whom it was your province to sustain and cherish and fit for an honorable station in society,-you had the daring effrontery to go but a short distance into a neighbor ing county, pass yourself in society there under another name, persevere in your deception until you ingrafiated yourself into the good graces of an unsuspecting family, secure the affection of a young and innocen girl, and consummate a second marriage ! It has been said by some writer that truth is stranger than fiction, and the case before me proves the correctness of the remark. Romances and novels furnish relations similar for marvellousness and atrocity; but such realities I have never before met within all the observations of my life .--Human villany, in the various shades in which it has been painted to our view, has hardly furnished a parallel to this.

It is my solemn conviction that you are not the only sinner-that you are not the only individual who has been engaged in this work of crime and wretchedness. It is difficult to believe that one so young is imbued with sufficient depravity of heart, connected with the possession of that cal-Notioway, Virginia, and did not return culating villany to enable him to design and carry out a plot so complicated, and so disastrous to the peace of two virtuons and extensively connected families If you have accomplices, it is my wish and prayer that they may yet be detected and delivered over to that punishment which > grace involved, and the peace of mind cause not to be mitigated or repaired, are the outraged leelings of the family of Mr. And this vast concourse of people, drawn Until the year 1829 the crime of which you stand convicted was punished with death. It was ranked with arson, and of a depravity of heart unfitting the individual to live in society. I am at a loss to conceive the reasons that operated upon the legislature to induce them to extend the benefit of clergy to the crime of bigamy. The man who bares his arm in the face of heaven and stabs his neighbor to the heart, forfeits his life to the offended laws .---Your crime entails upon society an amount of misery as great, and I cannot see why the punishment should be less. What are the feelings of all the parties involved, and above all, those of your fair victim, comcrime deserves the full punishment provided by law, and a proper regard to the safety of the community requires it. It

The Philosopher and the Rustic .- Anthony Collins, who was a Freethinker, one day met a plain countryman going to must therefore be severe and exempla-church. "Where are you going !" said the Philosopher.

"To church, Sir," answered the Rustie.

"What to do there !" "To worship God, Sir."

"Pray tell me, is God great or little ?

"He is both, sir."

ry-

"How can that be ?"

"He is so great that the Heaven of Heavens cannot contain him, and he is so little that he can dwell in my heart." Collins afterwards declared that the sim> ple observation of the Countryman had more effect upon his mind than all the volumes he had perused, written by the learned doctors.

Vegetable Serpent .- No curiosity of the vegetable world, that we ever saw, equalled that shewn us a few days ago, at the store of Messrs. Hogan & Lyon in this City. It was a vegetable, resembling the gourd or Squash species, 5 feet 5 inches long, and 6 3-4 ihehes in circumference, at the largest swell. It was green, except the ten greyish horizontal stripes that run taperingly from the head to the tail; and had the exact appearance of a snake of that size, even the contortions and lumps of the oody, with the curled and sharpened end. We understand that it grew suspended from a post, which accounts for its general straightness; but that other vegetables on the same vine, that rested on the ground, assumed curling attitudes, with head erect, as if to strike. It was raised in the gar-den of L. G. McMillan, Esq. of Elyton, Jefferson county, and is said to resemble in its interior, with perfect exactness, the organization of a snake. Hundreds of persons have seen it, and all express their wonder at this serpentine freak of nature.

THE DOWER, BUT NOT THE

Mr. Walsh writes from France that James Abernathy Madame Bretot, a thriving blanchisseuse, Steward Abernathy of the Rue de Bievre, had a fair daughter, who like all her sex of the same age, G. W. Adderholt which was tempting 18, was very fond of balls and other gaiettes. The good mother was indulgent but prudent, and while David Bolick she permitted her lively damsel to attend these scenes of amusement, always took Rachal Cline 2 care to accompany her. At a Sunday's John Carpenter dance, about a month ago, at the Quartre Henry Cansler Saisons, Mile, Eugenia met with a part- John or G. Clodfelter Mrs. Mary Miller ner so genteel and gallant that he won the Miss J. A. Crouse Caty Norman hearts of both mother and daughter, and Jonas Carpenter the favored youth was received into their Coroner of Lincoln co G. W. Ortrich domestic circle as a suitor. The prelimi- Jacob Carpenter naries were at length so far arranged for John S. Dockery a marriage between the lovers, that Mme. A. C. Dreher Bretot drew 1,000 francs from the Sav- Peter Deck ings' Bank to purchase a suitable outfit James C. Elliott for the young couple. Alas! for the un Miss Lavina Acre certainty of human projects ! Two eve- Gen. B. M. Edney 4 nings ago, when the expecting bride and Caroline M. Fry her mother returned home, after a day Susanah Flanegan spent on their knees-not at church, but in J. C. Fairar their washing-barge, near the Pont de Andrew Fry l'Archeveche-they found that their dwel- George H. Henley ling had been broken open, their locks Jacob Hause forced, and not only the 1000f., but every Rev. Allen Huckabee Lewis Sides other article of value, carried off. This John T. Hauser was indeed a dire disaster, but the severest John J. Herndon cut of all was a sheet of paper, conspicu- Eli Harwood ously affixed to the chimney-glass, on which was written, in too legible charae-E. & S. Hovis Abram Houser ters-"I might have taken both your Joseph Houser daughter and her dower, but I content Peter Houser 2 myself with one, and leave you the other." Col. J. G. Hand

Moffat's Vegetable Life Medicincs.

THEE medicines are indebted for their name to their manifest and sensible action in pu-rilying the springs and chainels of life, and endu-ing them with renewed tone and vigor. In many hundred certified cases which have been made pubfic, and in almost every species of disease to which the human frame is liable, the happy effects of MOFFATS LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BIT-TERS have been gratefully and publickly acknowl-edged by the persons benefitted, and who were precaged by the persons benefited, and who were pre-viously unacquainted with the beautifully philo-sophical principles upon which they are compoun-ded, and upon which they consequently act. The LIFE MEDICINES recommend themselves in diseases of every form and description. Their first operation is to loosen from the coats of the stomach and howels, the various impurities and crudities constantly settling around them; and to remove the hardened faces which collect in the convolutions of the smallest intestines. Other medicines enly partially cleanse these, and leave such collected masses behind as to produce habitual costiveness, with all its train of evils, or sudden diarrhora, with its imminent dangers. This fact is well known to all regular anatamists, who examine the human howels after death : and hence the prejudice of those well informed men against quack medicines—or medicines prepared and against quark the public by ignorant persons. The second effect of the Life Medicines is to cleanse the kidneys and the bladder, and by this means, the liver and the lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends up in the regularity of the urinary organs. The bladder which takes its red color from the agency of the liver and the lungs before it passes into the heart, being thus purified by them, and nourished by food coming from a clean stomach, courses freely through the veins, renews every part of the system, and triumphantiy mounts the banner of health in the blooming cheek. Motfatt's Vegetable Life Medicines have been thoroughly tested, and pronounced a sovereign rem-edy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, Heart-burn and Headache, Restlessness, Ill-temper, Anxiety, Languor and Melancholy, Costiveuess, Diarrhea, Cholera, Fevers of all kinds, Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsies of all kinds, Gravel, Worms, Asthma and Consumption, Scurvey, Ulcers, Inveterate, Sores, Scorbutic Erup-tions and Bad Complexions, Eruptive complaints.

Sallow, Cloudy, and other disagreeable com-ions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Common Colds complex-Influenza, and various other complaints which af-flict the human frame. In Fever and Ague, par-ticularly, the Life Medicines have been most eminently successful; so much so that in the Fever and Ague districts, Physicians almost universally rescribe them. All that Mr. Moffatt requires of his patients is to particular in taking the Life Medicines strictly be particular in taking the Life Medicines strictly seconding to the directions. It is not by a newspa-ber notice, or by any thing that he himself may say in their favor, that he hopes to gain credit. It is a-one by the results of a fair trial, MOFFAT'S MEDICAL MANUAL; designed as a domestic guide to health .-- This little pamph-let, edited by W. B. Moffat, 375 Broadway, New-York, has been published for the purpose of explain-ing more fully Mr. Moffat's theory of diseases , and will be found highly interesting to persons seeking health. It treats upon prevalent diseases, and the causes thereof. Price 25 cents—for sale by Mr.

Moffat's agents generally. These valuable Medicines are for sale by D. & J. RAMSOUR, Lincolnton, N. C. September 2, 1840.

List of Letters REMAINING in the Post Office, at

Lincolnton, Lincoln county N. C., on the 1st October, 1841. Logan H. Lowrance Messrs. McKensey Seward Abernathy and Parks Fagan E. Martin M. Massles Daniel Avery James E. McKee Gideon Anthony

George W. Moroson Daniel Mosteller John G. Bynum George W. Mull Jonas Mosteller M. E. McCulloch

Wm. or E. Neil Silas H. Philips Samuel Potter 2 Margaret Price Michael Proffit Sterling Richards 2 Mary E. Ramsour Elizabeth Rhine 2 Mary E. Rhine John Roberts Asron S. Robeson Miss H. L. Ramsonr Miss A. Reinhardt James M. Smith

PROSPECUTS OF THE

LINGCLN BEFUEL ICAN T was the intention of the undersigned to issue a Prospectus some time previous to the commencement of the present (the 5th) Volume of this paper; but some arrangements becoming preessary, and which could not be effected at an earlier day, this Prospectus was unavoidably delayed until the present time. The undersigned has now the gratification of being able to assure the friends of the paper, and of the cause in which it is engaged, that the Lincoln Republican is now placed on a sure foundation ; and that nothing is wanting to ensure its long continuation, but the exertions of its friends : and he would take this occasion to call upon them to bestir themselves in its behalf.

He cannot deem it necessary to say more than that the Lincoln Republican will continue to pursue the course it has heretofore marked out. Its doctrines are, and will be, the doctrines of the Republican School of '98 & '99; and it will, as heretofore, endeavor to shew; that every departure from them, in the administration of the affairs of the Government, is subversive of the rights of the States and of the liberties of the people; and therefore, it is orly by a strict adherence to them, that those rights and those liberties can be preserved. These are the opinions of the undersigned; and so long as the paper remains under his control, such shall be the doctrines it will endeavor to inculcate.

Though not personally interested, the undersigned cannot refrain, from calling on the opponents of a National Bank', a high and ruinous Tariff, a Distribution of the proceeds of the Public lands, an assumption of the State Debts by the General Government, and of Abolitionism and all its horrors-on the friends of State Rights Republicanism, the uncompromising opponents of all the dangerous doctrines of Federalism, to rally around and sustain the Republican presses of the country. For, it is obvious, that to the supineness of the Democracy in this respect, and to the vigilance of the Federalists, may be traced the defeat of the Republican party at the late elections; and in a change of conduct and in that only, may the Democracy hope for a change of power.

733M3.

Two DOLLARS and FIFTY CENTS, if paid in advance; three dollars if payment be withheld three months.

No paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid.

A failure to order a discontinuance, will be considered a new engagement.

POSTAGE in all cases must be paid. ROBT. WILLIAMSON, JR., Editor. Lincolnton, July 14, 1841.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS, AND PHCE NIX BITTERS.—The perfectly safe, un-erring, and successful treatment of almost every species of disease by the use of MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES, is no longer a matter of doubt, as a reference to the experience of many thousand pa-tients will extend to the construction of the second tients will satisfactorily prove. During the present month alone, nearly one hundred cases have come to the knowledge of Mr. Moffat, where the patient has, to all appearance, effected a permanent cure in the state of the state by the exclusive and judicious use of the Life Medi-cines—some eight or ten of these had been con-sidered beyond all hope by their medical attendants. Such happy results are a source of great pleasure to Mr. M. and inspire him with new confidence to recommend the use of his medicines to his fellowcitizetta

The LIFE MEDICINES are a purely VEG-ETABLE preparation. They are mild and pleasant in their operation, and at the same time thor-ough-acting rapidly upon the secretions of the system-carrying off all acrimonious humors, andssimilating with and purifying the blood. this reason, in aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, the Life Medicines will give relief in a shorter space of Life Medicines will give relief in a shorter space of time than any other prescription. In Fever-and-Ague, Inflammatory Rhenmatises, Fevers of every description, Sick Headache, Heart burn, Dizziness in the Head, Pains in the Chest, Flatulency, impaired appetite, and in every disease arising from an impurity of the blood, or a disordered state of the stomach, the use of these Medicines has always proved to be beyond doubt greatly superior to any other mode of treatment. All that Mr. Moffat asks of his patients is to be particular in taking them strictly according to the directions. It is not by a newspaper notice, or by any thing that he himself may say in their favor, that he hopes to gain credit. It is alone by the results of a fair trial. Is the reader an invalid, and does he wish to know whether the Life Medicines will suit his own case? If so, let him call or send to Mr. Moffat's agent in this place, and procure a copy of the Medical Manual, designed as a Do-mestic Guide to Health, published gratuitously. He will there find enumerated very many extraordina-ry cases of cure; and perhaps some exactly similar to his own. Moffat's Medical Office in New York, 375 Broadway. These valuable Medicines are for sale by D. 4 J. A. RAMSOUR. Lincolnton, January.

Tuscaloosa Monitor.

DAUGHTER.

stairs the other day at New Orleans, for asking another to pay a bill !

"J understand," said a deacon to his neighbor, "that you are becoming a hard drinker." "That is a slander," replied replied the neighbor, "for no man can drink easier.

A fellow, by the name of Pollock, broke jail in Boston, some day last week. We suppose some information respecting him will be obtained in the "Course of Time.'

The works of old Mr. Homer are making quite a stir in Europe. His Illiad is his lady out to his bereaved mother. said to be a great poem.

The modest young lady in Richmond swooned away, when Ephraim remarked to her that he saw several trees entirely stripped a few days ago.

Ephraim, reading about the big stones might well be called the cradle of liberty, if it was rocked in that way.

Always save your best joke for the last, and then you may be able, as the late lamented Finn used to say, to go off, like a lobster, with a claw, (cclat) and when you have uttered it, take leave.

The Richmond Star says: "Fanny Elssler's reappearance at the Park, produced an effect like the arrest of Grogan, especially along the frontier."

A Georgia paper mentions a baby in that State, only "one year old, weighing seven-ty pounds."

"Why don't your father take a newspaper !" said a man to a little boy whom he eaught pilfering his paper from the door 'Con he sends me to take it," anstep. swered the urchin.

"Where is your father !" said an angry master to the son of his habitually tippling domestic. "He is down stairs, sir."-

A. S. Jones THOMAS DEWS & SON. CABINET-MAKERS,

SFORM the public that they are prepared to execute, with despatch, all orders in the various branches of which, in neatness, excellence of workmanship, and cheapness, will not be surpassed by any in the State. They are determined, in their prices, to accommodate themselves to the times, and to sustain fully the reputation which their work has already acquired for its superior excellence.

CABINET WARE:

They are furnished with the latest patterns of the different articles of furniture in usual demand, and have procured a supply of MAHOGANY to satisfy all orders they may receive in their line of Coffins of various descriptions made on the shortest notice. All orders from a distance will be faithfully and quickly attended to.

Produce, Scantling and Plank, taken in exchange for work.

Lincolnton, No. Ca. 4th month, 19th, 1841. 6 mo.-48

Blanks! Blanks!! Constable Warrants, Ca Sas, Appearance bonds and Witness Tickets, Sc.

Jesse Saunders Philip Shuford Wm. P. Swanson Thos. N. Steward Ezekial Sullivan David Smith Miss D. Steward 2 Wm. Summey Leander E. Tipp J. F. Tucker John M. Jacobs Daniel Tucker 2

Henry Ingoli H. S. Kerr Peter Wyont Daniel Reel and Lyman Woodford Elvina Wilson Thomas Keevar Messrs. Bivens and Margaret Wilson Logan Lowrance Col. John O. Waller

C. C. HENDERSON, P. M. Lincolnton, October 1, 1841.

Assignce's Sale.

Negroes, Horses, Mules, Cattle, Hogs,

Terms made known on the day of sale.—All per ons indebted to be said John Fulenwider, will please to inect us on the said 17th Novem-ber, in order to selle the demands against them.

WILLIAM WRIGHT, JOSEPH ADAMS, G. W. WILLIAMS, October 27, 1841.

JOB PLINTING Done at the Republican Office at short notice.

Lincolnton Female Academy.

HE Trustees of this Institution take pleasure THE Trustees of this institution take preasure in announcing to the public that they have succeeded in procuring the services of Miss A. Mason as an instructress, who they feel assured will give universal satisfaction. Miss Mason is re-cently from the city of Philadelphia, and is recom-mended in the most flattering terms by persons •Assignce's Sale. O^N Wednesday 17th November next, we will the property, assigned to us by the said John Ful-enwider, consisting of Sale Certify Hand Certi charge.

The first session will be opened about the mid-urer of the Board. The rates of tuition have been reduced to the lowest possible standard.

CARLOS LEONARD.	Trustees.
SAMUEL P. SIMPSON.
C. C. HENDERSON.
BENJ. S. JOHNSON,
M. HOKE
THO'S B. SHUFORD,
H. W. GUION.	Sectors.
Sept. 22, 1841.	no. 17 tf.