REST.

My feet are weary and my hand are tired—
My soul oppressed—
And with desire I long desired
Rest—only rest!

'Tis hard to toil—when toil is almost vain—
In barren ways;
'Tis hard to sow and never garner grain
In harvest days.

The burden of my day is hard to bear—
But God knows best;
And I have prayed, but vain has been my prayer.
For rest—sweet rest.

'Tis hard to plant in spring and never reap
The autumn yield;
'Tis hard to till—and when 'tis filled to weep
O'er fruitless field.

And so I cry a weak and human cry,
So heart oppressed;
And so I sigh a weak and human sigh
For rest—for rest.

My way has wound across the desert years,
And cares infest
My path; and through the flowing of hot tears
I plead for rest.

'Twas always so; when still a child, I laid
On mother's breast
My weary little head; even then I prayed,
As now, for rest.

And I am restless still. 'Twill soon be over;
For, down the west
Life's sun is setting, and I see the shore
Where I shall rest.

Charged the Enemy.

[From the Milton Chronicle.]
We don't know, but it rather occurs to us, here in the back woods—where people's notions and opinions are not much that we have commenced the state canvass too soon. The first of September would have been early enough. The danger is the excitement created now will die out before the election. We perceive that Gov. Vance has canvassed a portion of the east thus early, but will not the excitement he created die out before November? We think it would be advisable for Zeb. to canvass the east thoroughly in October. The conservative orators and papers should be a little too smart to let the radical party get them on the defensive, as they are trying to do by attacking Gov. Vance's war record. If they can keep the conservatives busy clearing up the lies they manufacture against Vance, they would be delighted no doubt. Gov. Vance's war record has nothing to do with the morality and villainy of Grant's administration. Assaulting Vance's record is not making the civil rights bill less odious to the white race. It is no palliation of the crimes and outrages—the rottenness and corruption—the stupendous extravagance, stonage and waste of the corrupt party in power. Judge Settle and Hayes are the champion advocates for continuing this corrupt party in power. They tacitly say civil rights is all right—extravagance and profligacy in office is all right—let them be continued. Let the government continue to oppress and outrage the people—let thieves be continued in office—everything is perfectly delightful—except Vance's war record.

If you ask a radical now why it is that Grant's radical administration has cost the government more than all the other administrations, from the foundation of the government up, they will grin and begin to talk of some radical lie trumped up against Zeb. Vance's "war record." If you ask a radical how many millions or billions Grant and his pet officials stole from the public treasury, he will answer by repeating a lie made of the whole cloth about "Vance's war record." If you ask, "Do you think a negro better than a white man; or are you in favor of the civil rights bill?" The answer will be, "Vance's war record!"

Well, what about Vance's war record? Nothing—nothing more than he did his duty while governor, and the radicals are trying to defeat his election by belittling his record.

What Gov. Hendricks Says.

A Saratoga letter says Gov. Hendricks, who is now stopping there, speaks not simply hopeful, but very confident, of the success of the national democratic ticket in November. He thinks Gov. Tilden is 30,000 stronger in New York for president than he was for governor. He has no fears of the result in Indiana, believing that Williams, the democratic candidate for governor, will lead off with the state in October, thus paving the way for Tilden and himself in November. Williams is a plain, solid, substantial man, not brilliant, but reliable and honest. He is tall and lean and lank, and is to the democracy of Indiana what Lincoln was to the republicans of Illinois. He is a granger, and will receive considerable strength from the agricultural interests of his state, and Gov. Hendricks thinks there is no doubt of his election. He is also hopeful of a democratic victory in Ohio.

All for Tilden.

[New York Express.]
"There are a good many republicans who intend to vote for Tilden," says a letter from Ulster county. We have the same news all along the line from little Richmond on the sea to Erie on the lakes.

A Noble Prince.

[Chicago Times.]
To see Lieutenant Grant walking down State street, switching a twenty-five cent coin, fighting Indians and saving his country, is one of the noblest and noblest sights under the sun.

The Coming August Meteors.

[New York Herald.]
The time for the annual display of the "August meteors" is fast approaching, and it behooves those who delight to gaze at these celestial fireworks to prepare for their appearance. These visitors from the inter-planetary regions commence to enter the earth's atmosphere about the 4th of August, and that time until the 13th are visible of varying numbers. The period of maximum display occurs generally on the night of the 10th of August. They do not come in such countless multitudes as the November meteors, but their appearance may be relied on with certainty. The August meteors very rarely miss their appointment on the night of the 10th of August in each succeeding year, and may be seen of all degrees of brilliancy from the globe of light, outshining Venus or Jupiter, and moving across the firmament in stately grandeur, while emitting a fiery train, to the hardly perceptible thread of silver light of the smallest shooting star. Their advent will doubtless be watched for by the astronomers with interest.

Gospel Dispensers in the West.

[Kansas City Times.]
There was no preaching in this town last Sunday, and all in consequence of a practical joke perpetrated by a lively young girl. The young girl, inspired by the world, the flesh and a little devil mixed, sat down late on Saturday evening and sent a note to each of the pastors. The missives were on lined paper, and written nicely. They each contained these words: "All is discovered—fy!" Nine of the preachers fled to St. Louis and three went west. There is a sensation in town larger than a man's hand.

This is Sad.

[Brooklyn Argus.]
Young men are so scarce at Long Branch this season that the girls have been known to hang a pair of pantaloons over the back of a rocking chair and gaze at them for hours at a time.

ELECTION LAW.

By chapter 237 of the public laws of 1874-75, the election in North Carolina has been changed from the first Thursday in August to the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, 1876. We publish below the amendments made to Battle's Revision and to the laws of 1873-74, by which the change was made, and would suggest to the press of the state the propriety of copying it: Secretary of state to furnish on requisition, registration books on the first Monday of September, 1876. Registrars of voters to be selected on or before the first Monday of October, 1876. Registrars to revise the existing registration books of their precinct, (or ward) or township, as heretofore, but instead of performing this duty in July and up to the day preceding the first Thursday in August, they will sit between the hours of sunrise and sunset on each day (Sundays excepted) from the first Tuesday in October, 1876, up to and including the day preceding the Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

Judges or inspectors of election to be appointed by county commissioners on or before the first Monday of October. Returning officers of senatorial districts composed of more than one county to meet on Tuesday, one week after the election, at places designated in Battle's Revision. When senatorial returning officers are prevented from meeting on designated day, as above, returns shall be waited for and received if they arrive on the following day, &c. Sheriffs to furnish certificates of election to members of the house of representatives and senators, where the district is not composed of more than one county, previous to Wednesday before the first Monday in November. Sheriff shall also, at least ten days before the first day of December, notify all persons elected in the county to meet at the court-house on the first Monday in December. Sheriff or other returning officer of every county to transmit by mail or otherwise to speaker of the house of representatives vote for state officers on or before the third Monday in November, 1876. Secretary of state, on or before the first Monday in October, 1876, to furnish county commissioners of each county copies of so much of chapter 52, of Battle's Revision, as relates to elections, as amended by chap. 237, laws of 1874-75. The above are amendments to Battle's Revision, Chap. 132, laws of 1873-74, as amended as follows: Strikes out the first Thursday in August as the day of election of members of the general assembly, county officers, members of U. S. house of representatives, and inserts Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, 1876. Changes time of election of state officers, from first Thursday in August to Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, 1876. State officers, presidential electors, members of congress, members of the legislature, and county officers are to be elected, and the proposed amendments to the constitution of the state are to be voted upon. The returns of the vote cast on the amendments to be made by the sheriffs to the chief justice of the supreme court, at Raleigh. All officers whose terms of office would expire did the election occur on the first Thursday in August will hold over until their successors, to be elected in November, qualify. Secretary of state to furnish copies of election act of 22d of March, 1876, to county commissioners, who will give three months' notice of election.

NATIONAL HOTEL,
CAPITOL SQUARE,
RALEIGH, N. C.
O. S. BROWN, PROPRIETOR.
The National is one of the best arranged, and the most perfectly ventilated Hotel in the State, and being delightfully situated by Capitol square, it is one of the best summer residences in interior North Carolina. The main portion of the building is constructed with the view to afford SUITS OF ROOMS and PRIVATE PARLORS to such guests as desire them. For Political Headquarters the National is the best adapted House in the city, having large Parlors on the ground floor connected with private apartments. Union or Capitol Square, with its shaded walks, grand forest oaks and beautiful shrubbery is one of the prettiest and most delightful resorts in the country, thus affording the guests of the National all the advantages of one of the handsomest little Parks in the United States. A magnificent double portico, fronting and overlooking Capitol Square, extends along the e. front of this really handsome building, rendering it the most desirable house in the city for ladies, children and sojourners of every class. The cool, shady and breezy location of the National, chiefly occupying one whole square, keeps it free from flies and mosquitoes through the entire summer. A row of single-story offices, suitable for business and professional gentlemen, is attached to the Hotel, and always at the service of such as desire them. Experienced and polite Porters attend all trains with good Coaches and Baggage wagons, and guests of the National may rely on good attention, good fare and excellent drinking water.

Bath Rooms and Water Closets ARE ON EVERY FLOOR.
In the basement is the best SALOON and BILLIARD ROOM in the city.
