KU HLUX KLAN

JIM BOYD KU KLUXES STEVE DOUGLAS.

The Radical Party in the Fifth District is Captured by the Vance for Cieromam-signalin

[Reidsville News.]
It will be recollected that the radical party under the leadership of Governor Holden, organized the militia to arrest and punish the ku klux, and that Stephen A. Douglas, was made aid to the governor, and acting adjutant general. That many arrests were made and among the number one James E. Boyd.

of Alamance county.

It o happened as our memory serves as at present, that the same Jas. E. Boyd, was the only one who confessed his guilt "square out." In the late convention assembled to nominate a candidate to represent the radicals in congress, it so happened that Gen. Douglas, the gentleman commissioned to capture the ku klux and this same Jas. E. Boyd, the captured and confessed ku klux, were the oppo-

By counting one vote from Caswell improperly for Boyd and by giving the vote of Randolph for him by proxy of a federal o belat, when the delegates from that county, were instructed to vote for Douglas, this aworn confessed ku klux James E. Boyd, was nominated over Gen. Douglass, the man who captured

When we state the further fact that the whold "Official Ring," both State and federal, from Greensboro to Ralcigh were arrayed against Douglas and for Boyd, the only wonder is that S. A. for Boyd, the only wonder is that S. A. Douglas, having the honored name he does, could come so near receiving the nomination as he did. But there is a greater wonder still, and that is. Why was James E. Boyd, the confessed ku klux, nominated over S. A. Douglas, the man who captured him, and a true republican who has always been opposed to the kn klux. to the kuklux.
Remember this was done by a simor pure republican convention.

Gen. Scales would have had no difficulty in carrying this district by a large majority over Douglas or any other person the republicans could have placed in the field, but with confessed ku klim James as his opponent, there will be no race at all, and when the returns come in from Rockingham and Stokes, I am now willing to wager that kn klux James will deny that he ever was a candidate.

[Lincoln Progress,]

This colored man was, a few years ago, a senator of the United States from the state of Mississipp, elected by the republican nerty, to which he belonged. He is well known among the older citizens of Lincolnton as Rhodes Revels; he lived in this town until he was about eighteen years old, and then re-moved to Ohio, we believe, where he received a liberal education and became a Methodist minister. After the war he was sent as a presiding elder to Mississippi and was elected by the legislature as United States senator. He was always a worthy and truthful man and

The Hon, J. Brown Smith, of Podunk Centre, Me., a leading democrat, has come out for Hayes and Wheeler.

We are gratified to know that in the last election in Mississippi he voted and acted with the democratic party on the ground that his own party had become so thoroughly corrupt in that state that no honest man could act with it, and that the safety and peace of the state power. The so thoroughly corrupt in that state that no honest man could act with it, and that the safety and peace of the state required that it should be put out of power. The consequence of his exerting his influence in this way was that the democrats carried the state by a large rejective requires the state by a large rejective rejective requires the state by a large rejective reje the democrats carried the state by a large majority notwithstanding there is a negro majority in the state. The negroes followed and voted with him. 1

The time is not far distant when the negroes here will be set free from radical slavery and act like the negroes in Alabama and Mi sissippi and come out for honest government instead of the corrupt misrule which now brings shame and disgrace to the nation. Let the negroes "ponder these things in their hearts."

REPUBLICAN LEADERS LAY ING PLANS TO COERCE THE SOUTH.

CHANDLER TO BE THE REAL GEN ERAL OF THE ARMY DURING ELECTION TIME

markable Conference of Represen tative Stowell and the Secretary of the Interior.

[Special dispatch to the World, ] WASHINGTON, August 20.—Chand-ler, Taft and Morrill are running the government alone now, the president and the balance of the cabinet having departed. Chandler is the busiest of the three left. He is already beginning to receive applications from southern republicans who want troops, and the pressure promises to be very great, Yesterday Congressman Stowell, of the Petersburg (Va.) district, the only republican congressman from the state of Virginia, had quite a long consultation with Chandler, in which Stowell de-clared that a republican successor to himself could be elected from the Petersburg district if a company of troops were stationed there. Chaudler list ened attentively to Stowell's presentation of the necessities of the case, and the troops will probably be furnished. The significant part of the interview is the positive proof it furnishes that Chandler and not Sherman, is to be the real general of the troops at the south, and general of the troops at the south, and will have full power to place that per-tion of the army where it will do the most good for the republican party. Attorney-General Taft's opinion and the accompanying order instructing the United States marshale that they have

Zach Chandler's Masterly Manner of Conducting the Campaign,

The Observations of a Shrewd Observer at the National Capital.

[From an occasional Correspondent.] Washington, August 18 .- Some incidents of the campaign may prove of interest to your readers. Accordingly I send you the fruits of my observations at the capital during the past week.

UPERING FOR HAYES AND WHEELER At the republican headquarters all is confidence, and the reports from differ-ent parts of the Union speak the hearty determination of the people everywhere to elect Hayes and Wheeler in Novemondent writes from Jefferson City, Mo., that the penitentiary is solid for the Cincionati ticket. Mr. Furschtaugler, one of the most promipent democrats of Illinois, has written a letter stating that though he has voted the democratic ticket early and often for forty years, he now sees the danger of intrusting the reins of government to unrepentant rebels, and will take the stump for Hayes and Wheeler if the president will pardon him out. (He is under sentence of three years' imprisonment for embeszling government funds.)

From Minonk Precinct, Sage Brush From Minonk Precinct, Sage Brush, Nev., a correspondent writes: "The ticket is received with great enthusiasm, and Hayes and Wheeler will sweep the precinct next November like a prairie fire. Last year the democrats carried it by 6 to 5, but this year we shall have the assistance of a tried (and convicted) republican whose term for horse-stealing expires in October and expect to poll a much larger vote."

The Hon. J. Brown Smith, of Podunk Centre, Me., a leading democrat, has

"Yes," I said, "he would like to come out—of jail."

"Hem!" said Chandler, with some embarrassment, and changed the subject.

They took a vote in the Black Maria last week while it was going up to the city prison. It stood 9 for Hayes and 1 for Tilden.

THE INDEPENDENT PRESS.

It is singular what broadened views and keener perceptions of men and things a man will acquire by a brief residence among the great incu of the country; how much juster become his appreciations and judgme ts. For instance, about two mouths ago the correspondent of a paper up in Connecticut came here and wrote back to his journal that a saturnalia of corruption reigned supreme at Washington, while like gibbering ghowls the foul hyenas of nepotism and fraud stalked supreme through

Grant or Rabcock will be put into his place. It reminds me—the war department does—on a busy day, of a restaurant about 1 o'clook, with clerks and messengers running in and out and yelling: "Troops for one for Okeecheebee, Ala," "United States marshal and some infrantry for Hamburg," "Hurry up them roast niggers for Selma—two companies to follow!" and so on.

Mr. Chandler this morning received while I was with him a telegram from Indiana, as follows:

Send some more campaign notes, or

Send some more campaign notes, or we're gone up. "Campaign notes?" said I; O, that's

"Oh, no!" responded the secretary, "our people out there can't read. Cam-paign notes are of all denominations from $1 up."

"Peace, good pint-pot; peace, g LOOK ON THIS PICTURE.

In answer to a call from the United States senate, the treasury department sent to that body a list of the public de faulters, and the amount stolen. It ap-pears that about One Hundred Millions of Dollars of the people's money has been stolen by the republican party officeholders!! The republican ma-jority in the senate refused to publish he list.
