

TO SUBSCRIBERS.
In answer to numerous and daily applications from new subscribers for back numbers of the Raleigh Sentinel, we are compelled to announce that owing to the unprecedented popularity of our publication, the demand for the past four or five weeks, and the consequent demand for back numbers of our paper, the large supply provided to meet the expected demand has been entirely exhausted. Owing to this fact, we will hereafter only be able to furnish the Raleigh Sentinel from the date at which the subscription is received.

The Daily Sentinel.
TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1876.

WEATHER REPORT.
THE WEATHER yesterday was cloudy with wind from southwest to northeast. YESTERDAY the range of thermometer at Thomas H. Briggs & Sons hardware house was: 6 A. M., 78; 9 A. M., 79; 12 M., 80; 3 P. M., 80; 6 P. M., 80.

LOCAL MATTERS.
Cinquapias are selling at $1 per bushel.
St. John's Society meets this evening at the usual place.
The register of deeds issued two marriage licenses yesterday.

The Raleigh Light Artillery Company meet in the Mayor's office to-morrow evening.

Two hundred bales of new cotton were shipped Saturday from this city over the Raleigh & Gaston railroad.

Messrs. Weir & Hamill have completed the front of the new Mahler building. The work reflects credit upon their skill.

The weather Sunday was propitious for piety, consequently those churches that were open for services had, numerically speaking, good congregations.

The republican county convention yesterday had the effect of making a large number of Anglo-Africans of the country quit the crop and come to town.

A patent double-spring, back-action, link-motion, high-pressure time-piece could not keep up with our city clock for the past few days. Down brakes, Thomas.

A. C. Sanders & Co.'s "Welcome" Family flour will beat Patapsco. Try it. They have granulated sugar, "A" and yellow, Java coffee and Rio cheap, and elegant green tea.

The regular meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association this evening is postponed until next Tuesday evening on account of the absence of a number of members of the association.

In his account of the terrible accident on the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern railroad, the night of the 5th of September, the St. Louis Times reports the name of Mrs. Mattie Bell, of Raleigh, N. C., among the slightly wounded.

A friend of ours was talking agriculturally the other day and he said he couldn't understand why the agricultural papers were always urging people to grass their lands, as for his part he could hardly make a crop of anything else for the grass.

The water-works commission couldn't get a quorum last evening at their meeting on account of there being too much water in the shape of rain, and adjourned over subject to the call of the chairman, Mayor Manly. W. W. Holden has declined to serve on the commission.

Owing to the delay in getting from the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line railroad will not be completed to Hamlet, on the Carolina Central railway, six miles east of Rockingham, Richmond, county, until sometime during October. The iron is now being received by every freight train.

Raleigh is the only professedly civilized city on the globe in which scavengers are allowed to trod their hideous night-stench round in broad daylight, scattering stench and pestilence at every step, and compelling 12,000 asphyxiated people to carry their noses in a sling.

Christian existence is not made manifest by dropping a nickel in the contribution box on Sunday and then growling on Monday over having to give 30 or 40 dollars to the support of the church. When you give stingily to the Lord don't let the devil spoil it by making you think a ten cent stamp is a ten dollar bill.

The silver instruments of the new cornet band arrived yesterday, and are now in the express office. It will require about $70, with the funds now in hand, to pay the O. D. to get them out. If those who have placed their names on the subscription list will pay up, the deficiency will be made up. Pay up, gentlemen, and let us have a first-class band.

Fabius H. Daboe, democratic candidate for elector in the fourth congressional district, will address the people at the following times and places:

Louisburg, Tuesday, Sept. 12.
Oxford, Saturday, Sept. 16.
Pittsboro, Tuesday, Sept. 19.
A complete list of appointments will be published in a few days. Mr. Strayhorn, the republican candidate, has been invited to attend and participate.

The firm of D. S. Wait & Bro. have leased for a term of years Jas. M. Towles' front store, No. 33 Fayetteville st., and are having the same fitted up entirely new. They will move from their old place about the first of October.

Wants to be a Commissioner.
Jay E. Russell, of San Francisco, Cal., has applied to Governor Brogden to be appointed commissioner of deeds for North Carolina in that state. Appoint him, Brogden!

Marriages.
A couple of fashionable marriages take place in this city this morning, and the contracting parties leave for the centennial. Names and particulars will more gracefully appear in the next issue of this paper than in this.

Alleged Embroiderers.
Yesterday Willis Martin, col., took charge of a pair of boots belonging to a brother (name) to sell for him, under a solemn promise to account for the proceeds of the sale. The sale took place but the owner did not reap the benefit thereof. The matter will be investigated by his honor, the mayor, this morning.

Meeting at Eagle Rock.
The democrats of Mark Creek township, the county just in connection last Saturday at Eagle Rock, and appointed delegates to attend the county convention. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. W. P. Batchelor and E. H. Battle, Jr., of this city. After the regular meeting was over a Tilden and Vance club of about fifty members was formed.

Bob and Zeke.
The centennial year has dawned upon the county of Cumberland with two full sonnets. A countryman whose wife has yielded him a fine boy every year regularly for the last six years, went to Fayetteville Thursday to get Sheriff Hardie to name two at a time for him. They were just born the day before—a brace of fine boys. The sheriff named one Bob Vance and the other Zeke Vance.

The County Convention.
The democratic convention for this county meets here next Wednesday. We must all work together in harmony and agree not to disagree. Like Sid Dunn, when he lost his leg at Spotsylvania, and four men, holding the litter, were bearing him from the awful shower of shot and shell, he raised his head and sang, "out, 'elp! 'elp! keep the step, men! keep the step!" That's the idea. Let us all help together and give the ticket an easy ride to victory.

A Sad Report.
The sad report comes from Philadelphia that one of the daughters of the late Rev. J. Brinson Smith, who a few years ago met such a terrible and mysterious death, at his residence near this city, from poison, committed suicide by cutting her throat some days ago. There are several daughters in the family, but the report does not specify which one was the victim of this sad affair. We heard the rumor last week but did not give it credence, but as it has been reiterated we fear that there is some truth in it.

Meeting at Millburne.
The democrats of St. Matthew's township, this county, held a meeting at Millburne last Saturday for the purpose of appointing delegates to the county convention, which meets in this city to-morrow. J. A. Temple presided and W. H. Powell acted as secretary. The list of delegates chosen: Dr. H. M. Powell, Dr. W. W. Jones and N. W. Smith, Messrs. J. A. Temple, J. E. Watson, Walter Jennings, A. W. Sator, Sidney Branch, Jas. Upchurch, Jo. Francis, B. B. Buffalo and Samuel Jeffreys were appointed alternates. The meeting was well attended and every one seemed hopeful of a good result in November.

ELECTORAL VOTE.

W. Tilden and T. Hendricks	204
E. Hayes and W. Wheeler	165

Tilden's majority. 39
We publish the alphabet with the numerals under each letter beginning with figure 1. We take the first initial letter and name in full of each candidate in the presidential ticket. We then take S. Tilden's name first and put under each letter of his name the number we find under the same letter in the alphabet; for example, under the letter S in the alphabet we find 19 and under T we find 20, and so on through the entire name and the names of each candidate likewise. Then we find the number that each name will add up; then add the whole together and the total gives us the electoral vote; 269; then add the number opposite Tilden's and Hendricks' name, which gives us 204, and those of Hayes and Wheeler, and we have 165; then deduct the latter from the former, which leaves 39 electoral votes, Tilden's majority.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

Ticket Nominated—Tim Lee Snowed Under—Mr. Nigger in the Background for the Present.
The Wake county republican convention convened in this city yesterday, at Metropolitan hall, at 12 m.

The convention was called to order by W. W. White, chairman of the county executive committee, who nominated Albert Magnin for chairman.

Stewart Ellison, colored, nominated M. D. Barber for the position.
A vote by township was demanded.
The roll was called and Magnin received 45 votes and Barber 16.

Magnin was declared duly elected and took the chair. He returned thanks for "high honor," &c., &c.

Jas. H. Harris, colored, wanted a committee on permanent organization and credentials.

Magnin said that the organization as far it had gone, i. e., the election of himself as chairman, was permanent.

Harris said that the election of the present chairman was temporary, and to say otherwise was contrary to all precedent.

After some squabbling, Harris withdrew that portion of his motion in reference to permanent organization for the present, but insisted upon that portion in reference to credentials.

The chair upon announced a committee on credentials, consisting of one from each township and one from each ward in the city. The committee then retired to examine the papers.

In response to some scattered calls, J. K. Bledsoe, a prospective nominee for a seat in the lower house, came to the front and launched out into a stream of school-boy declamation. His speech was of the same character that he has been sporting ever since he took off his pinafore and appeared before the public. The whole thing was as ridiculous as a superabundance of check and lack of ability could well make it. Trifle tropes and figures, high-sounding words, without sense in their application, shouted out with all the vim of lung power, helped on with maniac-like gesticulation, formed the staple of the "speech." The niggers were delighted, but the few persons of sense present struggled between amusement and disgust.

At the conclusion of Mr. Bledsoe's worse than sophomoric effort, A. W. Shaffer, from the committee on credentials, submitted a report, stating that all the townships were represented by regularly appointed delegates except one, which was represented by alternates. The report was adopted.

Osborne Hunter, col., W. F. Debnam, col., Alpheus Sorrell, Thomas Hampton and J. C. Gorman, were elected secretaries.

On motion of J. B. Harris, a committee of five on platform and resolutions was appointed, who retired to incubate.

Nominations for sheriff was announced as being in order.

C. L. Harris nominated J. J. Nowell for that position. A long-lanterned jawed, red-eyed nigger, Arnold Flemming by name, of Rolesville, nominated Major General Willie D. Jones, as a man who the democrats were afraid of and didn't want.

Here the row broke out and terrific shouts for Jones and Nowell drowned Flemming's voice.

Stewart Ellison, col., rebuked the turbulence as disgraceful. Flemming went on with his speech. Nowell had been in office for eight long years and the democrats would charge Nowell with the same things that they did the "Hon." Tim Lee. He thought it extremely impolitic to nominate J. J. Nowell.

Henry C. Jones, col., enthusiastically supported the claims of J. J. Nowell.

There being no further nominations the roll of townships was called and Nowell received 34 votes and W. D. Jones 7.

Nowell was declared duly elected.

On motion of Hamilton Jones, son of the defeated, the nomination was declared unanimous.

A committee was appointed who waited on Mr. Nowell and conducted him to the stage. He didn't say a word, but the language to express his feelings on this occasion. The brevity of his remarks bore ample testimony to his poverty of language. He got through in something of a hurry.

The election of a candidate for register of deeds was next gone into.

The names of W. W. White, the present incumbent, and J. F. H. Adams, of Cary township, were placed in nomination.

The roll of townships was called, and White received 52 votes; Adams 10.
White was declared nominated.

Adams moved to make the nomination unanimous.

Hamilton Jones, son of Gen. W. D. Jones, opposed the motion.

A vote was taken and the nomination declared unanimous.

White was dragged upon the stage. He returned thanks. He said the nomination was not unexpected. He had been looking for it and working for it, and was glad of it. The captain then bowed himself behind the scenes.

The election of five county commissioners was gone into.

There were a multiplicity of nominations made. Out of the crowd J. R. Whitehead, of White Oak township, John Massey, of Swift Creek, Geo. H. Keith, of St. Matthews; J. J. Perrell, of Oak Grove; Oliver Hoan, of Raleigh, colored, were each nominated by acclamation.

The nomination of a candidate for senator was gone into. Jas. H. Harris nominated E. W. Wynne.

Henry Lane nominated T. B. Parzell. He was surprised that the name of such a man as E. W. Wynne should be presented to this convention.

Fletcher Lockhart, col., of Middle Creek, nominated A. W. Shaffer, of Raleigh. He hadn't forgiven E. W. Wynne for running as an independent candidate two years ago. He was a weak man and would be beaten. He (Lockhart) would not vote for him and knew others that would not do so.

After various speeches seconding the above nomination a ballot was had, which resulted, Wynne 51; Parzell 9; Shaffer 300.

On motion of Feggar Ellison, colored, the nomination was made unanimous.

R. W. Wynne, in response to calls, took his place on the stage, accepted the nomination and returned thanks therefor.

Nominations for candidates for seats in the lower house of the legislature were next made.

T. N. Parzell, Stewart Ellison, col., and J. E. Bledsoe, of Raleigh, and James Ennis, of Buckhorn township, were nominated by acclamation.

Ellison came forward and declined the nomination. He did it because he thought it best that no colored man should be on the ticket. He did not say that he was in favor of colored men always keeping in the rear, for he looked forward to the day when all the prejudices against color would be swept away; when men would be respected and honored irrespective of color, &c., &c. He would nominate in his place Gen. W. D. Jones.

Mr. Jones' son said that his father would not accept, whereupon J. P. H. Adams, of Cary township, was nominated by acclamation.

The chair announced that one of the nominees for county commissioner, Oliver Riser, col., could not accept on account of ill-health.

A. W. Shaffer, of Raleigh, was nominated in place of Riser.

J. H. Harris, col., from the committee on platform and resolutions, offered, as his report, a motion that the platform adopted by the national and state conventions be reaffirmed. The motion was adopted.

The convention then adjourned sine die.

Personal.
J. M. Gray, of Louisville, Ky., is at the Yarrowood.

Woodburn, of the newly and prosperous little Durham Herald, and Beams of the great New Chicago tobacco warehouse, were in the city yesterday, looking satisfied with themselves and all the rest of the world.

Capt. T. C. Evans, special agent and correspondent of the Sentinel, will join Gov. Vance at Shelby, in Cleveland county, next Friday.

W. H. Bagley, of this city, representative of the L. O. O. F. grand lodge of this state in the grand lodge of this fraternity of the United States, leaves for Philadelphia Thursday, to attend the session of that body.

B. T. Wheeler, a prominent citizen of York county, South Carolina, is in the city. He came to place his granddaughter at St. Mary's school.

We regret to learn that indisposition had prevented Messrs. J. B. Batchelor and T. P. Doreux from attending their respective offices during the past two or three days.

R. B. Andrews, Major R. E. Petty, Mid. Leach, C. B. Root, Sr., Dr. T. D. Hoger and daughter, Major Seaton Gale and daughters, Mrs. A. C. Sanders and Miss Eliza Blount, W. C. McMeekin and wife, Miss Mary Bragg and W. A. B. Branch, leave this morning for the centennial.

C. B. Edwards and William Adams left yesterday for a pleasure trip to Beaufort.

Col. C. O. Sandford, chief engineer of the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line railroad, is in this city.

A. M. Dowling, of Indianapolis, is in his way to visit a brother in Fayetteville, in his way to the Exchange hotel with typhoid fever. Mr. Dowling had been suffering with this disease before he left home, but was taken with a relapse on his arrival in this city.

Broke His Leg.
John Wesley McAllister, a lad about twelve years old, went to sleep Sunday night in one of the galleries of the Elitont Street Methodist church and did not awake until long after the congregation had dispersed and the doors had been locked. When the seal of slumber was taken from his eyes, about 1 o'clock in the morning, he arose very much surprised and alarmed to find himself alone in a dark, still church. Finding that he could not make his exit by the door, he leaped from one of the windows to the ground, a distance of about fifteen feet, and in so doing broke his left leg just above his ankle. He dragged himself to the fence, and by his cries attracted the attention of some persons on the premises of W. J. Hicks, who carried him to the residence of E. B. Thomas. Dr. W. L. Royster was summoned to his relief, and as soon as the limb was properly attended to, he was removed to the residence of his parents. Yesterday morning we heard that his condition was as comfortable as could be expected under the circumstances. The moral of all this is, that none but grown people should go to sleep in church.

Meeting in Moore County.
The democrats of Moore county met in convention, at Carthage, last Saturday, J. D. McIver was nominated for the house of representatives; J. J. Wicker for sheriff and Dr. Wilcox for register of deeds. The convention was a large and enthusiastic one, and everything passed off most harmoniously.

The Tilden and Vance club at Cameron road number 254.

Meeting in Buckhorn Township.
A meeting of the democrats of Buckhorn township was held at Lashley's X Roads last Saturday, to appoint delegates to the county convention to be held here to-morrow. M. E. Boyer was called to the chair and Thaddeus Ivey elected as secretary. The chairman, on motion, appointed the following delegates: W. H. Burt, Y. P. Lashley, S. Y. Wilson, W. B. Allen, J. J. Edwards, W. B. Jones, W. W. Wheeler, J. C. Hunter, T. B. Rollins, J. C. Balfour, H. A. Womble, W. T. Jones, W. P. Horton, Robert Norris, N. G. Barnes, Marsh Barker, A. C. Burt and B. B. Freeman. The chairman and secretary were added to the number, and all democrats in good standing, who may attend from the township, are to be considered as delegates.

The Graded School.
The trustees of the graded school held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the law office of Battle & Mordecai. Messrs. R. H. Battle, Jr., C. M. Bashee, W. H. Pace, M. Gramsman, W. W. Holden, P. Thiem, and W. J. Young, trustees, were present.

A committee, consisting of W. H. Pace, M. Gramsman, P. Thiem, W. W. Holden and R. H. Battle, Jr., were appointed to solicit contributions from the citizens generally in behalf of the school. W. J. Young, the secretary of the board, was appointed to wait on the present patrons of the school and solicit such contributions as they may be disposed to make in the way of paying for the tuition of their children.

The salaries of the various teachers were designated, but the amounts were not given to the reporter. We understand that 438 pupils are on the roll of the school.

Hotel Arrivals.

Chamberlain, Richmond, Va.; J. N. Bount, E. C. Kirby, N. Y.; W. M. Oldham, J. M. Gray, Louisville, Ky.; S. W. Whiting, N. C.; A. M. Noble, Norfolk, Va.

Disorderly.
Jack Pool, a country darkey, full of benzine and the dignity of a delegate to the republican convention, yesterday morning raised a row at Ellis' store, on Hillsboro street, by wanting to try his muscle with everybody who came along. A policeman came up and tried to reason with him, but Jack wouldn't harken unto him and showed fight, but after having his head combed with a billy, he grew more reasonable and came to the station-house like a little man. He will have a hearing this morning.

HILLSBORO.
T. & V. Club at Ridgeville—Hillsboro—Durham—Chapel Hill—Cedar Grove, &c.

[Correspondence Raleigh Sentinel.]
September 9, 1876.

Mr. Jas. W. Graham addressed the citizens of Ridgeville, Caswell county, and vicinity Friday, and assisted in the formation of a Tilden and Vance club.

HILLSBORO.
don't afford an item. It is taking, just now, a goodly amount of the county fathers are going to have the court-house yard enclosed. Perhaps the noise incident thereto may make it up.

DURHAM.
never says, but is just a little indisposed occasionally. At the present writing she is somewhat like Ellizabeth said, on a certain interesting occasion, to Henry Ward: "No 80."

CHAPEL HILL.
is making a noble effort to be itself again. It will be a proud day for the old North State when it is. May the day soon come.

CEDAR GROVE.
rejoicest and is exceeding glad that she has a doctor, W. S. Walker, who can cure cancer, a new Methodist church and a big protracted meeting which is to commence to-morrow.

For Sheriff.
The republican convention has been held, and J. J. Nowell has been elected as their choice for sheriff. I, as a democrat, looking to the success of the party offer for the consideration of the convention to assemble in this city, on the 19th inst., the name of one who has been acknowledged to be the best organizer, one that can carry Wake county in the next election, and that man is Jos. A. Haywood, of Raleigh township, Democrat.
