early, she has since devoted her life to aiding the sick and distressed in her neighborhood. She never owned land, and for many years never had a particular place as her home, but, like a good angel, has been going about doing good. When she dies humanity will mourn the loss of a friend.
SIMPLE ANTIDOTE FOR POISON-OAK.
 The Hillsboro Recorder furnishes what, if reliable, is valuable in this paragraph: "Our venerable friend, Mr. Alexander Anderson, has handed us the following cure for the intolerable annoyance, poison oak, which he says is infallible." Try it. The remedy is within easy reach.
 It is simply rub the parts affected with a tomato cut in two, ripe or green. Or a piece of the vine, if the fruit has not formed, will be almost as efficient. Two good applications will be sufficient.

LONG-LIVED PEOPLE IN IREDELL.
 [Charlotte Democrat.]
 There lives near Cool Spring, Iredell county, in what is known as the Dutch or German Settlement, nineteen persons, the sum of whose ages is 1510 years. They nearly all live within a radius of one mile. To-day they reside on their respective farms, most of which they have owned and cultivated for the past half century. One of the number was a soldier in the war of 1812, and is now a pensioner of the United States.
 Franklin Steele, aged 87, has lived on the same farm 35 years.
 Frederick Garner, aged 84, has lived on the same farm 60 years.
 John Luckey, aged 85, has lived on the same farm 60 years.
 Samuel Folker, aged 85, has lived on the same farm 60 years.
 Wilson Turner, aged 84, has lived on the same farm 40 years.
 Peter Saffers, aged 77, has lived on the same farm 40 years.
 Levi Nubbick, aged 81, has lived on the same farm 51 years.
 William Smith, aged 78, has lived on the same farm 70 years.
 Thomas Little, aged 72, has lived on the same farm 40 years.
 Elizabeth Little, aged 70, has lived on the same farm 40 years.
 Jane Smith, aged 77, has lived on the same farm 77 years.
 Eliza Smith, aged 75, has lived on the same farm 50 years.
 Sarah Kinder, aged 84, has lived on the same farm 50 years.
 *Marg ret Hollebaugh, aged 83, has lived in the vicinity of her present residence 50 years.
 Elizabeth Turner, aged 78, has lived on the same farm 40 years.
 Catherine Saffret, aged 73, has lived on the same farm 40 years.
 Sena Folker, aged 77, has lived on the same farm 50 years.
 Rebecca Luckey, aged 84, has lived on the same farm 60 years.
 Mary Nubbick, aged 81, has lived on the same farm 50 years.
 *Note—Mrs. Margaret Hollebaugh, one of the ladies mentioned in the above list as 83 years old, and having lived in one vicinity for 50 years, has been remarkable for her kindness toward people and all others in distress. We are told that she was married in her youth, had one child, and child and husband dying

That our readers may see with what favor our paper is received by our editorial brethren, we give below a few extracts embracing "what they say" of us:
NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
 [Newbern Times, Rep.]
 The leading democratic paper in the state.
 [Totopot Transcript.]
 The Raleigh Sentinel under its new management and proprietor is greatly improved, and is now one of our most valuable exchanges.
 [Richmond, (Va.) Whig.]
 The Raleigh Sentinel publishes a six page weekly, the largest and handsomest paper we have seen printed in North Carolina. It shows enterprise and thrift, the result of good management and able execution.

Wilson Advertiser.]
 The Raleigh Sentinel under its new management fulfills the promise previously made that as a newspaper it should be made equal to what it ever was before. It is in good hands as the new columns testify, ably edited and on the right track.
[Goldboro Messenger.]
 The Raleigh Sentinel, under the present able management, shows a decided improvement. Edited with marked ability, its general make up and typographical appearance is excellent. We wish the new management every success.
[Hickory Press.]
 We are glad to herald the appearance again of that useful democratic journal, the Raleigh Sentinel. It has passed into entirely new hands, and there is evidently some one about who knows how to prepare something readable, for every issue teems with news and democratic sentiments.
[From the Salem Press.]
 The Raleigh Sentinel, under the new management has been much improved in manner and matter. We have been in regular receipt of the Daily Sentinel for a week or more, and hope the daily visits will continue. These fifteen numbers can be seen at this office. Price of the Daily $8 per annum.
[From the Fayetteville Wide-Awake.]
 The Sentinel, the name of which has been a terror to radicalism since Holden pledged "the last dollar and the last man" to the support of the Confederate States government, has passed into new hands, and is assuming an attitude from which it will hurl many a destructive canister into radical ranks.

[Greensboro Masonic Journal.]
 The Raleigh Sentinel came to us last Wednesday as a morning daily and decidedly improved. The new managers and editor promise to do better in the future, and present a better paper than the initial number. We may perhaps do it, but we can't see much chance for improvement. Gentlemen, we wish you success.
[Robesonian.]
 The Raleigh Sentinel, under the present management, is very generally improved. It contains as much reading matter as heretofore, and is one of the very best daily papers in this state. In common with a great many people of this state we reverse the name of the Sentinel, and will always learn of its prosperity with pride and pleasure. They have reduced the rates for the campaign, as will be seen in another column.
[Murphy Herald.]
 The Raleigh Sentinel needs no eulogy from us. Every one that reads it knows how it stands on all important topics of the day, and although some may differ with it, yet all can say that it is sincere in its course, and is working for the best interest of the people of North Carolina.
[Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald.]
 The Sentinel is a living exponent of democracy, seeking by the force of polished argument, to prove the necessity of restoring both state and national government to the guidance of the democratic party. Under its present able management it takes an enviable position among the best journals in the land, increasing the former prominence of its name, by maintaining the highest degree of efficiency. Every democrat in the mountains should take it, and every republican who does not desire an addition wrinkle to his brow, should shut it for its persuasive arguments entail thought. With better mail facilities, Murphy would contribute to the support of the Daily Sentinel, and this assertion is based on the extensive circulation enjoyed by the Herald's copy.

HILLSBORO RECORDER.
 ESTABLISHED 1820.
 THE OLDEST PAPER IN NORTH CAROLINA.
 The RECORDER, apart from its political merits, offers superior inducements to the merchants of Raleigh as a medium of advertising. It has a large and increasing circulation in the counties of Orange, Alamance, Person and Caswell and especially in those sections of Orange and Alamance, most closely connected by the interests of trade with the city of Raleigh. The merchants of Raleigh will find it vastly to their advantage through this medium to build up a metropolitan wholesale trade, and center upon Raleigh the business that goes to other states. Manufacturers will also profit by the growing spirit of agricultural improvement, and the tendency to the adoption of labor-saving machinery, to reach the ears and eyes of a large and intelligent class of readers through the medium of the Recorder.
