SUNDAY, OCTOBER 8.

SPLENDID REPORTS FROM INDIANA -DEMOCRATIC GAINS OVER THE VOTE OF 1872.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 2.—We are coming, uncle Jimmy, 210,000 strong. Cerry the news to every democratic household in the country that Indiana will elect blue jeans Williams governor to morrow week. The democrats have got the republicans of this state by the throat, and they are giving them a terrible shaking up. Every single county in the state has reported from twenty to two hundred gain over the vote of 1872. There is no use talking now; the jig's up, the day is ours, the child is born, and his name is Williams. E. V. Smalley, the intelligent correspondent of the New York Tribune, left for home Saturday. Mr. Smalley has been making a thorough canvass in the state for his paper, and speaking occasionally for the kid-gloved Harrison, but now he has gone. Captain Thompson, of the New York Herald, met him at the depot in Columbus, Ohio, last night, and accosted him with, "Halle! Smalley, whither goest thou?" "Me? I'm going to New York." "Well, how's Indiana?" "The democrats will certainly carry it," was the flat footed answer. Good-bye, Smalley. Morton is as mad as a March hare, and says that the campaign has not been properly managed. Foster and Brady are at onts, and there is the devil to pay is, the only cry, the only hope. Ohio is cursed for being so close. I have met a dozen gentlemen from there to slay. They are enthused all over at the bright prospects. The Germans everywhere all over the state are flocking to the ban-S) e fal Correspondence Courier-Journal.]

They are enthused all over at the bright prospects. The Gormans everywhere all over the state are flocking to the banner of Tilden, Hendricks and reform.

Fifty, able democratic speakers left Indianapolis this morning for various points in the state to fill their appointments. The campaign this week will be boiling hot. Northern Indiana never was aroused like it is now. The democrats of that section are doing noble and boiling hot. Morthern Indians never was aroused like it is now. The democrats of that section are doing noble and effective work. Leading men in the party have quit their business and gone out among the people to work for the ticket. They are fearfully in earnest and very confident. The democrats of Lafayette have got a tremendous bulge on the republicans, and are working unceasingly, day a d night, to carry the district. Brown, republican, carried it in 1873 by 608 majority, and the democrats this year hope and claim to give it to Blue Jeans by that much. The democrats of Fort Wayne are making a grand fight, and adding new recruits to their ranks daily. They claim that Allen, the banner democratic county of Indian, will give an increased majority, and they are betting their money on the twelfth district giving Williams over 5,000 majority. The democrats of Evans. majority. The democrats of Evans-ville, Crawfordsville, Logansport, Rich-mond, and South Bend are putting in their best licks. From every city, town, and county in the state comes the news that the democrats are active and vigilant. There is a strong probability now that the democrats will elect ten congressmen out of the thirteen to be hosen, as the republicans will swap off their congressmen and everything for Harrison. This "awapping" business will beat Sexton in the fourth district. Chambers in the sixth, and seals the fate of Brown in the fifth. Poor Tom Brown, they ascrifice him every time. Morton swapped him off four years ago when he ran for governor so that he when he ran for governor so that he could obtain the legislature to elect him-self to the United States Senate. "Give two votes for one for Harrison" is the word sent out, and many a poor devil on the radical state and county tickets will be snowed under by the cruel and des-perate command. But it is "politics."

SALE OF A NEWSPAPER.

[Wilmington Star.]

The Richmond Enquirer, which sus The Richmond Enquirer, which suspended publication a few weeks since, was sold at anction Tuesday last; and, notwithstanding the fact that the auctioneer announced that the sale was positive and without reserve, that venerable landmark of Virginia journalism was "knocked down" at $3,100.

No doubt the presses and material of the office were worth more than the sum for which the whole establishment, insteading aroutwill sold; but the impress-eluding good-will, sold; but the impres-sion seemed to prevail that the purchase of the Enquirier was only one step to-wards its rehabilitation.

During the twelve mouths preceding its suspension, the Enquirier was an ex-cellent newspaper, fully up to the re-quirements of the times. In fact, eigh-teen thousand dollars in excess of its re-ceipts had been expended to make it a good paper. So it did not die of dry-rot or of incompetency in its manage-ment.

The trouble seems to have been, that the newspaper business was overdone in Richmond The supply exceeded the demand; and whenever this is the case, it matters not what particular branch of iness may be involved, it is absolutely essential that the productive power be reduced.

GEORGIA'S NEXT GOVERNOR.

Gen. Alfred H. Colquist, the democratic sominee, who was Wednesday elected governor of Georgia, is a native of that state, and was educated at Princeton college, N. J., where he graduated in 1844. From 1853 to 1855 he served as a presidential elector. At the outbreak of the late war he entered the Confederate service as a colonel, and was quickly promoted to be a brigadier general. He was in command of the Confederate forces which won the battle of Clustee, Fig. 18 February, 1854. The platform on which Gen. Colquitt was elected promise reform and economy in the state administration.

BYTERIANS.

[St. Louis Times.]

Among the other beautiful and elo-uent things said by Bob Ingersoll in is Philadelphia speech recently was the

"In 1861 the great Presbyterian cburch met in general synod and opened the shebang with prayer, and when they opened it with this oyster-knife of prayer, they passed two resolutions. The first made

Resolved, That slavery is a divine in

Resolved, That God raised up the Presbylerian church south to protect and perpetrate that institution.

He never chose a more infamous instrument to carry out a more diabolical

A Presbyterian writes to a paper at Peoria, the home of the infamous and dasphemous Ingersoll, to defend the church against the charge that it had de-clared slavery a divine institution. There is not one word of rebuke for the foul-mouthed infidel who could insult every member of a christian church by his shang reference to the Presbyterian general synod.

THE OUTLOOK AT HOME.

[Wilmington Star.]

North Carolina will go democratic Of that there is scarcely any doubt. Al Of that there is scarcely any doubt. All the signs promise victory for Tilden and Vance. The news from nearly every section of the state is encouraging. Our friends are very hopeful, and judging from every indication we shall earry the state by a very handsome and gratifying majority. Unless defeat overtakes us in Indiana and Ohio, we think it safe to count on a large majority in North Carolina for both state and national tickets. But in the event of defeat in the October elections, whilst it will reduce our majority, it will not imperil our chances of success.

We have not the slightest doubt that we will elect seven members of congress, earry both branches of the legislature by large majorities, and get the amendments safely through.

But work has to be done. Without thorough organization these greatly desired results may not necessarily follow. It will be too late to bestir yourself when the election is over, and the die is cast. Work now.

In answer to a call from the Unit States senate, the treasury departmen sent to that body a list of the public de faulters, and the amount stolen. It ap pears that about One Hundred Millions of Dollars of the people's money has been stolen by the republican party officeholders! The republican majority in the senate refused to publish he list.

A Scene in a Chunch.—There was a indicrously sudden descent from the sublime to the ridiculous in a country church, not a thousand miles off, when a clergyman, preaching on the miseries entaile! by sin, suddenly exclaimed, "Thank God, I am not a sufferer; my miseries have all been healed, and what did it?" The change of type started one did it?" The change of tone started one of the deacons from a drowsy mood, and springing to his feet, he cried out, "Turr's Lavan Puna." The deacon was right in his estimation of this celebrated machine. They will certainly cure your "miseries" if they result from Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, hills, Headache, Loss of Appetite, Nervousness, Despondency or General Debility. The Raleigh Sentinel under its new mana-gers and proprietors is greatly improved, and is now one of our most valued exchanges.

[Richmond, (Va.) Whig ]

The Raielgh Sentinel publishes a six page weekly, the largest and hands mest paper we have seen printed in North Carolina. It shows enterprise and thrift, the result of good management and live thunder.

[Goldsboro Messenger.] The Raleigh Sentinel, under its present able management shows a decided improvement. Edited with marked ability, its general make up and typographical appearance is excellent. * We wish the new man-

[Hickory Press.]

We are glad to here again of that useful democratic journal, the Raleigh Sentinel. It has passed into entirely new hands, and there is evidently some one new hands, and there is evidently some one about who knows how to prepare something readable, for every issue teems with news and democratic soundness.

[From the Salem Press ]

The Raicigh Sentinel, under the new man-agement has been much improved in manner and matter. We have been in regular receipt of the Da'ly Sentinel f ra week or more and hope its daily visits will continue. Spec-

[From the Fayetteville Wide-Awake.] The Sentinel, the name of which has bee "the Sentinet, the name of which has been a terror to radicalism since Holden pledged "the last dollar and the last man" to the support of the confederate States government, has passed into new hands, and is assuming an attitude from which it wil hurl many a destructive canister into radical

[Greensboro Masonic Journal.] The Raleigh Sentinel came to us last W.d, nesday as a morning daily and decidedly improved. The new managers and editor promise to do be ter in the future, and present a better paper than the initial number. They may perhaps do it, but we can't see much chance for improvement. Gentiemen, we wish you success. wish you success.

[Robesonian.]

The Raleigh Sentinel, under the present management, is very generally improved. It contains as much reading matter as heretofore, and is one of the very best daily papers in this state. In common with a great many people of this s ate we revere the name of the Sentinel, and will always learn of its prosperity with pride and pleasure. They have reduced the rates for the campaign, as will be seen in another column.

[Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald.

The Raleigh Sentinel needs no eulogy from us. Every one that reads it knows how it stands on all important topics of the day, and although some may differ with it, yet all can say that it is sincere in its course, and is working for the best interest of the peopl of North Carolina.

[Murphy Herald.]

The Sentinel is a living exponent of democracy, seeking, by the force of polished argument, to prove the necessity of restoring both state and national go eroment to the guidance of the democratic party. Under its present able management it takes an enviable position amo g the best journals in the land, increasing the former prominence of its name, by maintaining the highest degree of efficiency. Every democrat in the mountains should take it, and every republican who does not desire an addition wrinkle to his brow, should abun it, for its persuasive arguments entail thought. With better mail facilities, Murphy would contribute to the support of the Daily Sentinel, and this assertion is based on the extensive circulation enjoyed by the Herald's copy.
