The Great Election Fraud.

The Cameron conspiracy against the suffrage is not confined to Pennsylvania. A large number of the most desperate rascals of New York, who have had experience in election frauds and riots have been hired by the conspirators, and shipped to various points in the different states which vote October 10. Democrats in those states will watch for organized fraud and defeat it from whatever quarter it may come.

A Bully Nomination.

We congratulate his city, his state and the whole south on the nomination of Colonel A. W. Slayback, of St. Louis, for congress. As gallant a soldier as ever drew sabre in the south; a lawyer of profound learning; with the energy of a prairie whirlwind of integrity beyond all reach of taint or suspicion; a man of iron will and heroic courage, and with a tongue sharp as a two-edged sword; he will make the best representative Missouri has had in a quarter of a century. If Ben Butler is sent back from Massachusetts, Slayback will be, of all men in America, the one to teach the Boast good manners, if not good morals. His election, we trust, is sure beyond all peradventure.

Tilden Two to One.

The fall elections thus far give Tilden more than two electoral votes for every one Grant's appendix gets. The states that have voted and their respective electoral votes are: For Tilden—Arkansas, 6; Alabama, 8; Connecticut, 6; Delaware, 3; Georgia, 11; total 35. For Hayes—Colorado, 3; Maine, 7; Vermont, 5; total 15. Majority for Tilden, 20.

Why a Vote for Hayes is a Vote for Grant.

Because the men who nominated, elected and re-elected Grant are working for Hayes. Because the men whom Grant appointed to office are working for Hayes. Because Hayes has promised to keep in office the men whom Grant appointed. Because the Ohio state convention which presented Hayes's name ennobled Grant more than it praised Hayes. Because the national convention which nominated Hayes also ennobled Grant for his "immense services in war and peace." Because Chandler, one of Grant's worst secretaries, is at the head of Gov. Hayes's campaign. Because Don Cameron nominated him, and Simon Cameron is at the head of the congressional executive committee. Because Grant, Blaine, Belknap, Chandler, Robeson, Babcock, Porter, Williams, Creswell, Hising, Joyce, McDonald, Boss Shepherd, Schenck, Spencer, Butler, Famborn, Mullett, Cameron's father and son, Delano, Patterson, and all the thieves of the administration are supporting Hayes. A vote for Hayes is a vote for Grant, and worse than a vote for Grant, for Hayes has performed no such military service as Grant. Vote for the man whom thieves oppose, not for the man whom thieves support.

Will Powell Hang?

The Sentinel announced yesterday that the fiend who plotted, planned and helped to execute the most dastardly and horrible murder which has been perpetrated in North Carolina for years has been again respited by North Carolina's show governor, Curtis H. Brogden.

Col. Billy Henderson, of Lexington.

one of the most prominent and gaseous radicals in the state, was in the city Friday. In a conversation at the Sentinel office, he declared it as his opinion, from all the light he could obtain, that Indiana will go democratic by from 1,000 to 3,000. Ohio, he thinks, will go radical, though it will probably be close; and South Carolina is almost sure for Hampton. When Henderson admits so much, what must be the liberality of average rad knees and backbones?

The Future of Constantinople.

The London Economist says that Russia will never be allowed to take Constantinople. That depends upon circumstances. England might interfere, but unless she had Germany on her side, Russia will sweep the Turks out of Europe, an event for which Mr. Spurgeon lately prayed—a prayer to which there was a responsive amen from an immense congregation. The people of England do not side with their government in its apologetic course for the atrocities perpetrated by Turkey, and if they had their way the present ministry would not retain its place for an hour.

A Bear Hunt on a Steamboat.

is something of a novelty. While passing down the Ottawa recently the passengers of the steamer John Egan caught sight of a bear swimming across Quince Lake and induced the captain to send a boat after him. Bruin was captured with a noose, towed to the steamer and hoisted on board. When he reached the deck, however, he cut loose and made for the ladies' cabin. The ladies scattered out in wild confusion and fled to the lower deck. The engineer followed the bear into the cabin and drove him out on deck, where he was shot.

How It Stands.

Watchman tell us of the night, what signs of promise are. Good so far as human eye can see. In the elections of the past week, we have swept Georgia by a grand, thundering majority of from 50,000 to 75,000; and carried the local elections in Connecticut and Delaware, by increased majorities. While the radicals have barely managed to hold Colorado, never democratic but once in its history.

Late Dots.

Hayes is a light baritone. All Europe is mustering for war. E. A. Woodward, Tweed's partner, has been arrested. The Cuban insurgents have burnt the town of Las Tunas. Verzaout is out of debt and has $72,907 in clean cash in her sock. The yellow fever still rages in Savannah and Brunswick, Georgia. The Cincinnati gas company has reduced the price to $1.20 a thousand feet. Virginia, Maryland and Delaware all unite on Thursday, Oct. 19, as their day at the centennial.

Democratic Success in Connecticut.

The Hartford Times, of October 3, says: The town elections come in gloriously. The democrats are making net gains all over the state, and in most of the towns carried they give increased majorities over those of last year. Last year the democrats carried seventy-seven towns, the republicans sixty-five, and twenty-three were divided. So far as returns are received, the democrats gained on Monday eight towns, and the republicans two towns. Net democratic gain six towns over last fall's elections. So far the returns are: Democratic, forty-two towns; republicans, twenty-five towns; divided, two towns. This tells how the tide is running in Connecticut.

Windy Billy's Opinion.

Col. Billy Henderson, of Lexington, one of the most prominent and gaseous radicals in the state, was in the city Friday. In a conversation at the Sentinel office, he declared it as his opinion, from all the light he could obtain, that Indiana will go democratic by from 1,000 to 3,000. Ohio, he thinks, will go radical, though it will probably be close; and South Carolina is almost sure for Hampton. POLITICAL POINTS.

Rowan county reports herself all right and getting righter. Wilson has 33 Times and Vance flags in sight of her courthouses. Many republican sinners are flocking into the democratic ark of safety in Rutherford county. Nash county has no need of a speech from Vance, but wants to hear him just for fun. Governor, take notice.

Major Montgomery, Paul B. Means, Capt. R. P. Waring and Capt. B. A. Shotwell spoke at Ganderburg, Cabarrus county, Saturday.

J. C. Scarborough, our candidate for superintendent of public instruction, spoke in Charlotte in response to a serenade Friday evening. Oliver Dockery having backed out of running for congress against Col. Steele, the radicals have put up Allen Jordan, of Montgomery county, in his place.

A feature of the returns from Georgia is that which shows that the black man joined the white man in many instances to swell the democratic majority.

Ed. Lyon, who was nominated for the senate by the Granville county rada, and Jas. A. Bullock, ditto for survervay, have declined to accept the proffered dishonor. The Ohio democratic state committee has passed resolutions urging every democrat, liberal republican and friend of reform to observe Tuesday next, election day, as a holiday. Estimate the sum of mental endeavor and anxiety, of physical effort, of time occupied and money spent throughout the country in a presidential campaign, and then name the undertaking in which the percentage of wasted energy as compared with the total force exercised is as great.

LATE DOTS.

Hayes is a light baritone. All Europe is mustering for war. E. A. Woodward, Tweed's partner, has been arrested. The Cuban insurgents have burnt the town of Las Tunas. Verzaout is out of debt and has $72,907 in clean cash in her sock. The yellow fever still rages in Savannah and Brunswick, Georgia. Two men were shot by a derkey during a radical parade in Camden, New Jersey, Thursday evening.

Several persons were poisoned Tuesday, near Newark, New Jersey, by eating toaststools for mushrooms. Thirty years ago, in Hawkins county, Tenn., four brothers married an equal number of sisters. They now have 54 children, or an average of 13 1/2 to each family. Gladstone's pamphlet on the Bulgarian atrocities reached a sale of 70,000 within a few days of its publication, the gross receipts from its sale being about $8,750. Mrs. Victoria's second boy, Arthur, is to do India this winter, and they are already fattening a tame tiger with his teeth pulled out and his claws cut off, for him to hunt and heroically slay.

John Jarrett, one of the "six hundred" who made that wondrous charge at Balaklava, has just died. He had three wounds, and his horse was shot under him; he caught another horse and escaped.

RELIGIOUS SCRAPS.

Bishop John Freeman Young, of Florida, is on a visit to the north. There are in Europe and America about 50,000 women who belong to the order of the sisters of charity. Missionaries in Japan note the peculiar fact that it is the upper and not the lower classes who receive christianity. The archbishop of Canterbury proposes July, 1878, as the time for holding the next Pan-Anglican synod, at Lambeth palace. The Amsterdam Catholics have subscribed 22,000 florins for the German priests who have been deprived of their parishes. The Canadian Irish Catholics will make a pilgrimage to Rome next summer, and carry an offering of $10,000 to the pope.

Cardinal Manning's solicitor has run away with $150,000 which he held as trustee for Catholic charities and associations. The cardinal himself loses $40,000.

The Yale college faculty have spoiled to some extent the ancient practice of studying during the morning prayers by introducing congregational singing and compelling the students to sing.

Harvest home festivals are becoming attractive features in the east and west. The custom is to decorate the church building with flowers, fruit and grain, and hold a rural festival out of doors.

The first Protestant church in Constantinople was opened in 1846. There are now seventy-six in the Turkish empire, of which a third are self-supporting and independent.

Some of the choirs provided by undertakers in Brooklyn to chant at graves go to the cemetery in advance of the funerals to try their voices in the open air and to select their positions in order to avoid awkwardness and confusion at the time of the services. A Chicago dispatch, of Oct. 5, says of the Moody and Sankey revival in that city: A remarkably powerful religious impression was manifested at the noon prayer meeting to-day. Nearly every one of 1,500 ministers and members of churches arose to desire prayers that they might be personally fitted to work in the revival. The deepest feeling prevailed, and many were in tears. At the Moody and Sankey meeting at the Tabernacle to-night there were nearly 5,000 persons present in spite of rain.
