That our readers may see with what favor our paper is received by our editorial brethren, we give below a few extracts embracing "what they say" of us:

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

[Newbern Times, Rep.]

The leading democratic paper in the state.

[Tolsnot Transcript.]

The Raleigh Sentinel under its new managers and proprietors is greatly improved, and is now one of our most valued exchanges.

[Richmond, (Va.) Whig.]

The Raleigh Sentinel publishes a six page weekly, the largest and handsomest paper we have seen printed in North Carolina. It shows enterprise and thrift, the result of good management and live thunder.

[Goldsboro Messenger.]

The Raleigh Sentinel, under its present able management shows a decided improvement. Edited with marked ability its general make up and typographical appearance is excellent. * * We wish the new management every success.

[Hickory Press.]

We are glad to herald the appearance again of that useful democratic journal, the Raleigh Sentinel. It has passed into entirely new hands, and there is evidently some one about who knows how to prepare something readable, for every issue teems with news and democratic soundness.

[From the Salem Press.]

The Raleigh Sentinel, under the new management has been much improved in manner and matter. We have been in regular receipt of the Daily Sentinel for a week or more, and hope its daily visits will continue. Specimen numbers can be seen at this office. Price of the Daily $8 per annum.

[From the Fayetteville Wide-Awake.]

The Sentinel, the name of which has been a terror to radicalism since Holden pledged "the last dollar and the last man" to the support of the Confederate States government, has passed into new hands, and is assuming an attitude from which it will hurl many a destructive canister into radical ranks.

[Greensboro Masonic Journal.]

The Raleigh Sentinel came to us last Wednesday as a morning daily and decidedly improved. The new managers and editor promise to do better in the future, and present a better paper than the initial number. They may perhaps do it, but we can't see much chance for improvement. Gentlemen, we wish you success.

[Robesonian.]

The Raleigh Sentinel, under the present management, is very generally improved. It contains as much reading matter as heretofore, and is one of the very best daily papers in this state. In common with a great many people of this state we revere the name of the Sentinel, and will always learn of its prosperity with pride and pleasure. They have reduced the rates for the campaign, as will be seen in another column.

[Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald.

The Raleigh Sentinel needs no eulogy from us. Every one that reads it knows how it stands on all important topics of the day, and although some may differ with it, yet all can say that it is sincere in its course, and is working for the best interest of the people of North Carolina.

[Murphy Herald.]

The Sentinel is a living exponent of democracy, seeking, by the force of polished argument, to prove the necessity of restoring both state and national government to the guidance of the democratic party. Under its present able management it takes an enviable position among the best journals in the land, increasing the former prominence of its name, by maintaining the highest degree of efficiency. Every democrat in the mountains should take it, and every republican who does not desire an addition wrinkle to his brow, should shun it, for its persuasive arguments entail thought. With better mail facilities, Murphy would contribute to the support of the Daily Sentinel, and this assertion is based on the extensive circulation enjoyed by the Herald's copy.

VALUABLE LOTS FOR SALE!

On MONDAY, THE 6TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1876, by virtue of a judgment of the Superior Court of Wake County, I will expose to public sale on the premises that valuable parcel of land situate in and near the North eastern part of the city of Raleigh lying between Person Street and Oakwood Cemetery, known as MORDECAI'S GROVE, including lots along said Person Street and Polk Street, containing in all about 30 acres, belonging to the estate of the late Henry Mordecai.

The land will be sold in several parcels, to suit purchasers. Terms one third cash; residue in nine and twenty-nine months, with interest at six per cent.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28.

A RADICAL LIE ANSWERED.

Mr. Tilden Defines his Position on the Payment of Confederate War Claims.

AS PRESIDENT HE WILL EXECUTE AND ENFORCE THE FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24, 1876.

To the HON. ABRAM S. HEWITT.

SIR: I have received your letter informing me that republicans high in authority are publicly representing that "the south desire, not without hope," to obtain payment for losses by the late war and to have "provision made for the rebel debt and for the losses of slaves."

As the payment of such losses and claims was not deemed important enough to deserve the notice of either convention at the time it was held, you also ask me to state my views in regard to their recognition by the government.

Though disposed myself to abide by the issue as made up already, I have no hesitation to comply with your request.

The fourteenth amendment of the constitution expressly provides as follows:

"The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States, nor any state, shall assume or pay any debt or obligation, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void."

This amendment has been repeatedly approved and agreed to by democratic state conventions of the south. It was unanimously adopted as a part of the platform of the democratic national convention at St. Louis, on the 28th of June, and was declared by that platform to be "universally accepted as a final settlement of the controversies that engendered civil war."

My own position on this subject had been previously declared on many occasions, and particularly in my first annual message of January 5, 1875.

In that document I stated that the southern people were "bound by the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth constitutional amendments; that they had joined at national conventions in the nomination of candidates and in the declaration of principles and purposes which form an authentic acceptance of the results of the war, embodied in the last three amendments to the organic law of the Federal union, and that they had by the suffrages of all their voters at the last national election completed the proof that now they only seek to share with us and to maintain the common rights of American local self-government in a fraternal union, under the old flag with one constitution and one destiny."

I declared at the same time:

"The questions settled by the war are never to be reopened. The adoption of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Federal constitution closed one era in our politics. It marked the end forever of the system of human slavery and of the struggles that grew out of that system. These amendments have been conclusively adopted, and they have been accepted in good faith by all political organizations and the people of all sections. They close the chapter; they are and must be final; all parties hereafter must accept and stand upon them, and henceforth our politics are to turn upon questions of the present and the future and not upon those of the settled and final past."

Should I be elected president, the provisions of the fourteenth amendment will, so far as depends on me, be maintained, executed and enforced in perfect and absolute good faith. No rebel debt will be assumed or paid. No claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave will be allowed. No claim for any loss or damage incurred by disloyal persons arising from the late war, whether covered by the fourteenth amendment or not, will be recognized or paid. The cotton tax will not be refunded. I shall deem it my duty to veto every bill providing for the assumption or payment of any such debts, losses, damages, claims or for the refunding of any such tax.

The danger to the national treasury is not from claims of persons who aided the rebellion, but from claims of persons residing in the southern states or having property in those states who were, or pretended to be, or who for the sake of aiding claims now pretend to have been, loyal to the government of the union. Such claims, even of loyal persons, where they are from acts caused by the operations of war, have been disowned by the public law of civilized nations, condemned by the adjudication of the supreme court of the United States, and only find any status by force of specific legislation of congress. These claims have become stale and are often tainted with fraud. They are nearly always owned in whole or in part by claim agents, by speculators or lobbyists, who have no equity against the tax-payers or the public. They should, in all cases, be scrutinized with jealous care.

The calamities to individuals which were inflicted by the late war are, for the most part, irreparable. The government cannot recall to life the million of our youth who went to untimely graves, nor compensate the sufferings or sorrow of their relatives or friends. It cannot readjust between individuals the burdens of taxation hitherto borne, or of debts incurred to sustain the government, which are yet to be paid. It cannot apportion anew among our citizens the damages or losses incident to military operations, or resulting in every variety of form from its measures for establishing its own existence. It has no safe, general rule but to let bygones be by-gones, to turn from the dead past to a new and better future, and, on that basis, to assure peace, reconciliation and fraternity between all sections, classes and races of our people, to the end that all the springs of our productive industries may be quickened, and a new prosperity created, in which the evils of the past shall be forgotten. Very respectfully yours,

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS!

Go and register. The books will be closed November 6, 1876, at sunset. The following are the places for registering and voting, and also the names of the registrars. Let every democrat or conservative be sure and register:

1st ward—Registering place, Alfred Upchurch's shop. Voting place, Baptist Grove. Registrar, Thomas Scarlett.

2d ward—Registering place, school-house near the grave yard. Voting place, Jenkins shop. Registrar, Robert W. Taylor.

3d ward—Registering place, court-house. Voting place, court-house. Registrar, R. B. Seawell.

4th ward—Registering place, gas-house. Voting place, Hargett street school-house. Registrar, Thomas Belvin.

5th ward—Registering place, W. M. Lowe's, Hillsboro street, near railroad bridge. Voting place, A. L. Moore's old store, south-west corner Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution. Registrar, W. M. Lowe.

Outside township box—Registering place, court-house. Voting place, north-west corner court house. Registrar, J. M. Carver.

Ask your neighbor if he has registered. If he says he hasn't time to see about it, take down his name and see that he has registered. Every democrat and conservative should examine the books and see that he is properly registered. If you have registered before, call and see that your names are on the books. Make no mistakes. Every vote is needed. Attend to these matters, democrats and conservatives, and all will be well.
