After years of experience and of unparalleled success in the special treatment of OZENA, CATARRH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CONSUMPTION, and all diseases of the EYE, EAR, HEAD, THROAT and CHEST, I feel confident that I can render more aid than can ordinarily be procured in these diseases and their complications. In addition to the ordinary constitutional treatment I combine local treatment by the inhalation of medicated vapor, administered by the very latest modern appliances and upon the most approved principles. While the following diseases are generally considered incurable, my average of cures in N. C. has been about two cases out of every three in first and second stages of Consumption and Chronic Bronchitis; one out of two cases of Asthma and Ozena; while I have not yet failed in a case of Catarrh. That our readers may see with what favor our paper is received by our editorial brethren, we give below a few extracts embracing "what they say" of us:

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

[Newbern Times, Rep.]

The leading democratic paper in the state.

[Tolsnot Transcript.]

The Raleigh Sentinel under its new managers and proprietors is greatly improved, and is now one of our most valued exchanges.

[Richmond, (Va.) Whig.]

The Raleigh Sentinel publishes a six-page weekly, the largest and handsomest paper we have seen printed in North Carolina. It shows enterprise and thrift, the result of good management and live thunder.

[Goldsboro Messenger.]

The Raleigh Sentinel, under its present able management shows a decided improvement. Edited with marked ability, its general make up and typographical appearance is excellent. * * We wish the new management every success.

[From the Salem Press.]

The Raleigh Sentinel, under the new management has been much improved in manner and matter. We have been in regular receipt of the Daily Sentinel for a week or more, and hope its daily visits will continue. Specimen numbers can be seen at this office Price of the Daily $8 per annum.

[From the Fayetteville Wide-Awake.]

The Sentinel, the name of which has been a terror to radicalism since Holden pledged "the last dollar and the last man" to the support of the Confederate States government, has passed into new hands, and is assuming an attitude from which it will hurl many a destructive canister into radical ranks.

[Greensboro Masonic Journal.]

The Raleigh Sentinel came to us last Wednesday as a morning daily and decidedly improved. The new managers and editor promise to do better in the future, and present a better paper than the initial number. They may perhaps do it, but we can't see much chance for improvement. Gentlemen, we wish you success.

[Robesonian.]

The Raleigh Sentinel, under the present management, is very generally improved. It contains as much reading matter as heretofore, and is one of the very best daily papers in this state. In common with a great many people of this state we revere the name of the Sentinel, and will always learn of its prosperity with pride and pleasure. They have reduced the rates for the campaign, as will be seen in another column.

[Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald.

The Raleigh Sentinel needs no eulogy from us. Every one that reads it knows how it stands on all important topics of the day, and although some may differ with it, yet all can say that it is sincere in its course, and is working for the best interest of the people of North Carolina.

[Murphy Herald.]

The Sentinel is a living exponent of democracy, seeking, by the force of polished argument, to prove the necessity of restoring both state and national government to the guidance of the democratic party. Under its present able management it takes an enviable position among the best journals in the land, increasing the former prominence of its name, by maintaining the highest degree of efficiency. Every democrat in the mountains should take it, and every republican who does not desire an addition wrinkle to his brow, should shun it, for its persuasive arguments entail thought. With better mail facilities, Murphy would contribute to the support of the Daily Sentinel, and this assertion is based on the extensive circulation enjoyed by the Herald's copy.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Governor Chamberlain's Conspiracy to Carry the State.

THE SYSTEM OF ARBITRARY ARREST.

Hundreds of Democrats to be Imprisoned until after Election.

PREPARATIONS FOR A FRAUDULENT COUNT.

The Charleston Hampton Demonstration.

[New York Herald.]

COLUMBIA, Oct. 30, 1876.—The usual reticence prevails at military headquarters. An application this evening for news or information concerning the disposition of the troops throughout the state resulted in a decisive, but very polite, refusal, on the ground that the commanding general did not wish to make known the whereabouts of the troops until after the election. As the localities of the main forces of the army now occupying the state and the political proclivities of each have already been given to the readers of the Herald, the refusal did not occasion your correspondent much concern, but as a matter of information to the country in general and the army in particular. I wished to publish an official statement of the assignment of the forty companies now distributed throughout the state.

TROOPS FOR CHARLESTON COUNTY.

A company of the first artillery, commanded by Captain Frank, left this evening for Summerville, in Charleston county, but for what purpose has not transpired outside of headquarters. It is believed, however, that the ultimate destination of that company will be some point nearer the coast, where the negroes have been very turbulent, and where violence is constantly apprehended by the sparse white population, who are entirely at their mercy.

A STUPENDOUS PLOT.

I am in receipt of further information this evening, which not only confirms my previous predictions as to the wholesale system of arbitrary arrests to be inaugurated on the eve of the election, but develops a stupendous plot on the part of the federal attaches of the department of justice and the governor to intimidate white and colored democrats and defeat a free election. In Aiken county the plan is to rearrest large numbers of those already bailed by the United States commissioners on affidavits of negroes and warrants to be issued, this time by state trial justices.

CHARACTER OF THE CHARGES.

The affidavits upon which these warrants are to be issued charge the accused parties, not with intimidation of voters, but with unlawful shooting and being engaged in riots on or about the 17th, 18th and 19th of September last. Some of the charges are said to be for murder. These arrests are to be made on the 4th and 6th of November. The state law requires a notice of four days to obtain a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus for release before either two trial justices or a circuit judge. The result is that the parties so arrested will be

THROWN INTO JAIL,

and held there, if necessary, by the aid of federal troops until the election is over, This conspiracy is regarded as the most daring and highhanded yet attempted, and, even with the presence of the federal troops, it is not altogether certain that it will be submitted to. There are low mutterings and forebodings of a popular outburst, and such tyrannical acts as these may possibly precipitate the storm, notwithstanding the determination of peaceable submission under any and all circumstances. The alleged offences for which these rearrests are to be made occurred about the 17th of September. The affidavits on which the warrants are based have been in the hands of the United States district attorney and the governor for weeks past, many of them having been substantially published in a republican organ in New York sometime since, but they have been purposely held back until the eve of the election to defeat the will of the people, and, if possible,

PROVOKE A COLLISION

with the troops. On Saturday thirteen additional arrests were made in Aiken county by the United States deputy marshals, all of the parties, with two others already confined, being still in jail. The district attorney is reported to have 800 warrants upon which to make arrests on Saturday and Monday preceding the election in Aiken and Burnwell already prepared, and 600 to 700 for Edgefield and the surrounding counties. These arrests of course will include all leading citizens, and are intended to overawe the people and overcome the democratic majorities in the counties named.

GREAT EXCITEMENT

The plot creates great excitement among the few democrats to whom it has become known. As a further confirmation of the plot, an individual named Jim Canton, who combines the offices of state constable, under Governor Chamberlain, and deputy United States marshal, under Marshal Wallace, this morning said:—

THREAT OF A MARSHAL.

"I arrested Butler, by God, and I'll arrest 500 more democrats before the election."

This remark was dropped when the dual state and federal official had lost his temper during a personal controversy.

THE PROSPECTS.

With all the civil and military appliances of the federal government in his hands, together with the entire election machinery of the state, it is almost impossible to believe that Chamberlain can be defeated. The board of state canvassers is composed at present, with one exception, of candidates for re-election on the republican ticket. The names of the candidates on the electoral, congressional, legislative, state and county tickets are all placed on the same ballot, so that the canvassers, in deciding the election of any candidate, are practically giving judgment in their own case. The inferior boards are also largely made up of candidates for office or appointees of the governor. In Laurens, a doubtful county, one of the three commissioners is the republican candidate for senator, and another is republican candidate for the house. In Fairfield the chairman of the board is the republican candidate for the house, and one of the republican precinct federal supervisors is candidate for county commissioner.

A prominent republican says that a majority of all the commissioners in the state are either republican candidates or appointees of the governor. It will thus appear that under the present system the republicans would be the gainers by a contest. A number of the counties will be close.

IMMENSE HAMPTON DISPLAY IN CHARLESTON—VIOLENT AND INDISCREET CONDUCT OF NEGRO MEN AND WOMEN.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 30, 1876.

The Hampton demonstration in Charleston to-day was the largest political demonstration ever witnessed in the city. Business of every kind was entirely suspended, even to the loading and unloading of ships on the wharves. Every white man, woman and child in the city was out on the streets, and numbered fully 10,000 men. Clubs of mounted whites and blacks from the country rode on horseback fifty miles to join in the demonstration, and have to ride back home to-night. There was no distinction on account of race or color, the whites marching alongside of the blacks, and all wore Tilden and Hampton badges. Every house on the line of march was decorated with flags and flowers and every window and balcony crowded with women and children. Such an ovation has never been witnessed in Charleston. The citadel where the United States troops are quartered was decorated with the United States flag, encircling the monogram "T. H.," and several of the soldiers were in the procession.

THE PROCESSION

NEGRO TURBULENCE.

Along the line of the procession the colored democrats, as well as the white men, women and children, were submitted to the most abusive and vilest insults from negro roughs and women, particularly the women. They lined the streets and made indecent exposures of their persons and cursed the white and black democrats in the most foul and indecent language. It was all submitted to, under instructions from General Hampton. The entire police force was out, but could not put a stop to this assault. In some cases fairly performed an Indian war dance with clubs and knives, and in one or two instances attempted to pull colored men from the ranks and mob them. No disturbance occurred owing to the forbearance of the whites, several of whom were actually knocked down in the streets.

THE NEGRO WOMEN

AT NIGHT GENERAL HAMPTON

addressed a colored meeting of 1,500 in the Academy of Music, when he was presented with a handsome laurel wreath made by the colored people.

EVERY VOTER IN THE STATE SHOULD SEE THAT HIS NAME IS PROPERLY ON THE REGISTRATION BOOKS.

THE CHANCES.

[Lynchburg News.]

We do not believe there is a fair minded, well informed republican who does not regard the Hayes election lost. They placed their trust in the October elections, and have been defeated. They have disturbed and alarmed the north by the invasion of the south. They have excited the indignation of the foreigners and catholics by friendliness to and advocacy of proscriptive doctrines, sumptuary laws and fanatical secret organizations.
