Weekly Sentinel, one year, postage p'd, 2.00 For the campaign, That our readers may see with what favor our paper is received by our editorial brethren, we give below a few extracts embracing "what they say" of us:

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

[Newbern Times, Rep.] The leading democratic paper in the state. [Toisuot Transcript.]

The Baleigh Scutinel under its new mana-ters and proprietors is greatly improved, and a now one of our most valued exchanges.

[Richmond, (Va.) Whig.]
The Raleigh Sentinel publishes a six page weekly, the largest and hands mest paper we have seen printed in North Carolina. It shows enterprise and thrift, the result of good management and live thunder.

[Goldsboro Messenger.]
The Raleigh Sentinel, under its present able management shows a decided improvement.* Edited with marked ability its general make up and typographical appearance is excellent. * * We wish the new management every success.

[From the Salem Press]

The Raleigh Sentinel, under the new management has been much improved in manner and matter. We have been in regular receipt of the Daily Sentinel for a week or more, and hope its daily visits will continue. Specimen numbers can be seen at this office rice of the Daily $8 per annum.

[From the Fayetteville Wide-Awake.]
The Sentinel, the name of which has been a terror to radicalism since Holden pledged "the last dollar and the last man" to the support of the opfederate States government, has passed into new hands, and is assuming an attitude from which it will hurl many a destructive canister into radical ranks.

[Greensboro Masonic Journal.]
The Raleigh Sentinel came to us last Wed, nesday as a morning daily and deciredly improved. The new managers and editor promise to do better in the future, and present a better paper than the initial number. They may perhaps do it, but we can't see much chance for improvement. Gentlemen, we

[Robesonian.]

The Raleigh Sentiants and improved. It contains as much reading matter as heretofore, and is one of the very best daily papers in this state. In common with a great many people of this s ate we revere the name of the Sentinel, and will always learn of its pro perly with pride and pleasure. They have reduced the rates for the campaign, as will be seen in another column. will be sayn in another column [Vict sburg (Miss.) Herald. The Raleigh Senticel needs no eulogy from us. Every one that rends it knows how it stands on all important topics of the day, and although some may differ with it, yet all can say that it is sincere in its course, and is working for he best interest of the peopl of North Carolina.

[Murphy Herald.]

The Sentinel is a living exponent of democracy, seeking, by the force of polished argument, to prove the necessity of restoring both state and national go ernment to the guidance of the democratic party. Under its present able management it takes an enviable position amo g the best journals in the land, increasing the former prominence of its name, by maintaining the highest degree of efficiency. Every democrat in the mountains should take it, and every republican who does not desire an addition wrinkle to his brow, should shun it, for its persuasive arguments entail thought. With better mail facilities, Murphy would contribute to the support of the Daily Sentinel, and this assertion is based on the extensive circulation enjoyed by the Herald's copy.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 12,

AFTER THE BATTLE.

Morton's Good Night Song. O Chandler, I am tired, now, I do not care to hear you blow, Just pour same camphor on my brow And turn the gas down very low; I hear the mighty Tilden-trend; Now stir some nervine in my cup, And put me in my little bed.

Cho) - Come, Chandler, come, kiss me good night.

I'm sorry now for what I've said,
They've whipped us fairly in the fight,
So put me in my little bed.

Do you remember, Chandler dear,
You said we must wake up the war!
We've overshot the mark I fear,
And pushed the business quite too far:
The fighting men have left our ranks,
With Hooker, Sigel, Farnsworth, Corse
We've only Butler, Schenck and Banks,
And things have gone frem had to worse

Chorus)-

O drop the curtains, Chandler dear, The bonfires make my eyebal's ache, And stuff some cotton in each ear,

Those victory-notes my heart will break
An awful ghost is in my room.
With horrid blue jeans breeches on,
I see the shadow in the gloom, Oh! bla the haunting thing begone. Cho.)-Come, Chandler, come, bid m good night,

I hear the mighty Tilden-tread,
They've whipped us fairly in the fight,
So put me in my little bed.

HOW FAR WE MISSED IT.

To show how accurate the Sentinel is a a prognosticator, we republish the appended article which appeared in our editorial columns, Thursday, October 19-nearly a month ago. It is not wide of the mark to-day :

[From the Sentinel, of Oct. 19.]

PLAY FAIR OR FIGHT. For weeks past, or ever since it bewhole south had unanimously resolved to spew out Grantism and go for reform. the press and the telegraphic wires have been burdened with dark hints of the revolutionary views and intents of high and unscrupulous government function aries, Fragmentary snatches or vague as to what the trailorous potenants of our thug dynasty purpose to do with South Carolius and perhaps other sout, ern states. It has even been charged that the chief conspirators have resolved to count out or cast out, by force or fraud, enough southern votes to secure the continuation of pirate and pickpocket rule, with a mere change of name from Grantism to Havesism. The most corrupt and infamous administration that ever cursed and dis graced any civilized land beneath the sun, in its desperate straits, reads its coming doom on its Belshazzar walls of debauchery and crime—"Mene, mene, tekel, upharsin." It knows it has been weighed and found wanting in every acweighed and round wanting in tribute of patriotism, virtue, honor and common decency. It beholds the south-ern states which, for sixteen years, have been wholly or in part denied a participation in their constitutional right of assisting in the election of a president, now fully reconstructed under all the pains and penalties of its villainous laws; all its ruthless conditions complied with, and every state of the south at last occupying a position of nominal equality in

But the governmental faction which 'reconstructed" them upon the bayonet principle, now finds them piling up ma-porities mountain-high against a perpet-uation of its arbitrary and brutal rule. What is to be done? The arch-conspirators assemble in many a "cabinet meeting" and midnight conclave. A thousand false pretexts for more "reconstructing" are hatched up. And le Taft's pronunciamento, Cameron's Taft's pronunciamento, Cameron's orders, Chamberlain's mad edicts, and now Grant's ruffian proclamation. The devil's-work is begun, and troops are tramp, tramping, down toward the sea again. The vote of South Carolina, is to be carried by the bayonet for Grant and Hayes, or to be thrown out it it goes against them—if the people will

But they will not. This last strain will be too much for the spirit of Ameriean freemen, north or south, to bear The south has been reconstructed to every radical's vile heart's content, and we are much mistaken if either republicans or democrats will tolerate any further violence against those states have complied with the last condition and letter of a partiean and oppressive

The vote of the south will elect Samnel J. Tilden president of the United States, and the vote of the south must be cast unhindered and counted fairly to the very last ballot, or there will be a popuhar volcanic upheaval that will make radical teeth clatter from Cape Cod to Corpus Christi. And in that uprising, come when it will and as it may, there will be Fraternity and Union. The Blue and the Gray will stand side by side in the same ranks and beneath the same binner. The struggle will be for the life of republic; the battle-cry, "Justice and Equality to All Men and Every State;" and the watchword, "Down with Usurpers and Thieves—Down with Grantism!"

This is the temper of the hour. Liet those who play with firebrands expect to get singed.

At Atlanta two lines were formed at the polls of white and colored, and they were veted alternately. This plan work ed admirably, and the day passed without disorder. One zealous colored man at Atlanta voted no less than ten white men for Tilden and Candler. He was cheered every time he brought up a vote, and when at last he came to the polls arm in arm with Hon. B. H. Hill, there arose a loud and long shout of enthusiasm. Mr. Hill remarked to some friends that he was glad to be voted by a colored democrat. The same colored man conducted Colonel E. Y. Clark, chairman of the state executive democratic committee, to the polls amid loud cheering. A lively race and a bet took place at Atlanta between a colored democrat and a white republican, the former out-stripping the latter and making him vote the democrat ticket.
