TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19.

BEHIND THE SCENES.

[Special Cor. of the Philadelphia Times.]

NEW YORK, November 17. I said to myself yesterday, "I will go the rounds—the mazy heights, the giddy depths explore, of those who blindig seek or righteous soar." And first I met Governor Cadwallader Washburne, "Governor, the democrats claimed your state for weeks !" "Did thoy? Well, we carried it by several thousand. Nothing but the hard times befriended the democrats. I may add the existence of old rings and abuses in our party. My district, La Crosse, gave 7,000 republican majority." Next I meet Almy, of Norwich, Con-necticut, editor of the Financial Something -a very good paper I know, because it compliments me sometimes.

"How's Wall street, thou battler of the Almy?"

"Quiet. Only two men are operating large—Sam Mills and Charley Osborne. Even Gould is out of the street, short of money."

"Then how could be give the Candler committee anything?"

"Oh! when I say he's short I don't mean hundreds of thousands. He has formerly computed his ready money by millions," "Will he break?"

"He's certain to break if they over drive into Union Pacific. You see that is all he has to hold up. It's sixty to-day. If that is budly raided Gould's gene."

"Perhaps you can tall me another version of why Gould contributed to Hayes' election?"
"Why, he owes seven or eight millions back and accrued interest on his Union Pacific bonds to government. If Tilden is inaugurated, that amount will be collected, or Gould will break. That's all there is of it."

get their money?"

"Sam Mills is the son of a captain of one of the clipper ships that formerly sailed to Liverpool. He's been broke three times. He's a sailor. His word's respected in the street. I may say that he's the only respected person there. New Sam's only worth $800,000, or about that. Charley Osborne's failed and squatted, and all that, several times. He's got a million."

"Do you mean to tell mathet"

These candles of a dazzling whiteness, had been strongly impregnated with arsenic during their bleaching process, and the arsenic becoming volatilized by the combustion, poisoned the air of the bedroom.

TRICKSTERS OVERREACH THEM-SELVES.

"Do you mean to tell me that less than two million runs Wall street, or the made here, and the republicans are at exchange?"
"I do, Didn't Eugene Robinson run it with one million?" "Where is he?" "Well, he tried to be a big bull. He used to be.

"Don't they sell each other out?" "Mills is square. Some time upo he was in that Lake Shore bull puddle. He said: 'Boys, I must go to sea. I must sell out. Now I don't want to unload on you and break yeur market. You take my slock - twenty thousand shares-at five per cent, under market rates to-day.' They said: 'Sam, you're an angel. But don't peril your life on the raging main in mid winter.' Said Sam: Boys, I must. My fader was a sea

"Gath," said the journalist, "den't reflect on the sheep."

I met James Goodsell, of the Graphic. Well, how is Old Suspense?"
Said he: "I've supported Hayes right through. But I'll swear I'd rather see Tilden counted in that this uspense. I rather think Tilden will president. We want no conflict. And waiting in suspense is war without

I met big Barrett, once congress-man from St. Louis. "Sah," he said, the keyuntry is in a dreadful state. Conflict is threatened. Combustion! Hell, sah !" GATH.

INCOMPETENT GOVERNMENT END-ED. Dr. Redfield, in a late letter from South Carolina to the Cincinnati Commercial, (republican,) says that the whites of South Carolina are deternined to gain control of their own af fairs, and that if Chamberlain is elected, he will be as harmless as a cornstalk to six dollars. Weekly two dollars a year. command respect or enforce law unless he does it through the federal power. Though a republican, the writer express-es his candid belief that Hampton's election will be better for the colored people. His word is law in South Carolina; he has promised to protect them and can do it; one word from him would quell any riot in this state. "The days of black government here are ended," adds Dr. Redfield, "and the rext thing is to secure peace and protection of life and property."

THE FINAL SETTLEMENT OF THE PRESIDENTIAL QUESTION.

A special from New Orleans to the Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Gov. Curtin and Hoo. Samuel J.

Randall, of Pennsylvania, are of the opiniou that the matter will eventually be settled by the house of representatives, and they believe, with Ben. Butler, that it will have final jurisdiction in the case."

INTIMIDATION IN VERMONT.

'Discharge any of Your Subordinate Who vote the Democratic Ticket."

The fellowing letter was sent by the superintendent of the Howe sewing machine company from Rochester, N. Y., to their agent at Rutland, Vt., just before the late election. In its bias and intent it is a disgrace to any civilization, and deserves the righteous indignation of all levers of fair play and justice:

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 3, 1876. To the Rulland Office:

We wish you to discharge any of your subordinates who vote the democratic ticket. We believe that the success of the democratic party will be the ruin of our country and business, and will not support any one who will not stand by us in this. This is a struggle between the intelligent and respectable portion of the community and the ignorant and roughs and rowdies of the cities.

HOW A WOMAN WAS POISONED.

A very curious case of arsenic poisoning has just occurred in Paris. A rich lady residing in the Faubourg St. Honore found herself grewing very ill, and the doctor pronounced her to be suffering from slow poison. Madame X. rejected this idea as absurd, but, on rising one morning, found a glass of water, which was usually placed by her bedside, to be discolored by a white, filmy powder. On showing this to the doctor, he at once declared it to be arsenic. All inquiries failed to detect the culturit, and he at once declared it to be arsenic. All inquiries failed to detect the culprit, and the next night madame filled the glass herself, and kept careful watch that no one meddled with it. Nevertheless, in the morning the white powder again made its appearance, and the doctor was fairly at his wits' end to find the cause. Finally, he discovered that his patient was in the habit of reading in bed, and for that reason candles were kept burning all night in her room. These candles of a dazzling whiteness, had been strongly impregnated with arsenic dur-their wits' end to know what to do. The democrats are in high glee and greatly encouraged. It seems that in the five parishes of Iberville, Iberia, St. Martin, Concordia and West Baton Rouge five took up Lake Shore as a patron. He dropped it, tosing $1,200,000."

"So Mills and Osborne run the street?"

"Yes; their capital chiefly consists of the commissions they received from Gould. So you can see what Gould to be."

Concarda and West Baton Rouge nve Hayes electors have been omitted from the ticket, three only being placed on it, resulting in the loss of over two thousand votes for Hayes. This cannot be gotten over. Anderson has written a letter asking for five northern democrats. and five republicans to be present at the count by the returning board.

SETTLE GIVES UP MAYES.

[Richmond Whig.] That Gov. Tilden has been elected is admitted by all fair men in the United States. The leading republicans of this city concede it, and Judge Settle, of North Carolina, with whom we traveled north a few days since (the statements of captain of a clipper. Settle up.' They settled with Sammy, and Rebinson bust of too much steek. Now Sam Mills is abandoned all hope of Hayes' election the leader of the street."

"And they're doing ther like rotten statements to the contrary.'

ESTABLISHED 1820. THE OLDEST PAPER NORTH CAROLINA.

The RECORDER, apart from its political merits, offers superior inducements to the merchants of Raleigh as a medium of advertising. It has a large and increaring circulation in the countles of range, Alamance, Person and Caswell, and especially in those sections of Orange and Alamance, most closely connected by the interests of trade with the city of Raleigh. The merchants of Raleign will find it vastly to their advantage through this medium to build up a metropolitan wholesale trade, and center upon Raleigh the business that goes to other states.

Manufacturers will also profit by the growing spirit or agricultural improvement, and the tendency to the adoption of labor-saving machinery, to reach the ears and eyes of a large and intelligent lass of readers through the medium of the Recorder.
