Heart to Heart.

What is it sinks deeper into memory than man's sympathy with his fellow man. We live to forget faces and forget names, but the heart that ever beat a single throb for ours is never, no never forgotten.

A Sunday Letter.

Senator Liles, the editor of the Wadesboro Herald wrote a Sunday letter to his paper from this city in which he says: "A rainy, raw disagreeable day. Rev. Tho. Whitehead, 'Shy' we have called him 25 years ago at Chapel Hill—pastor of the Baptist church at Charlotte, preached a very able sermon to-day in the splendid church building which stands as a lasting testimonial to the taste, liberality and good sense of Thomas E. Skinner."

The Penitentiary.

The report of the board of directors of the state penitentiary will be laid before the general assembly in a few days. It is already in the hands of the printer. The report contains a condensed history of the establishment for the current year.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The fight against the sheriff was renewed with increased vigor in the senate yesterday. The sheriff of Beaufort was able to bubble through but ran the gamut amid a fire of words, shot at on one side by lawyer Scales and on the other by Justice of Beaufort and others.

Justice of Beaufort: Bill to preserve election returns, and secretary of state ordered to preserve them as he would any other state papers. Rules suspended and bill passed. The bill to be in force from and after its ratification.

Some half dozen bills in the house favoring the repeal of the usury law have popped their heads up and been referred. It seems unanimously gone forth that the usury law must be repealed.

The public printing was set up in caucus Thursday night to the Raleigh News. The result was received by the other papers with the blandest smile of equanimity.

SENATE BRANCH JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE ON ENROLLED BILLS.

Moore of Mecklenburg, Bennett and Dockery.

BILLS, &c.

Latham explained merits of his bill for relief of Sheriff Satchwell of Beaufort and it was put on its readings.

Justice of Beaufort thought it was a matter for the county commissioners unless the legislature meekly gives them the right to relieve him.

Latham was satisfied no harm could be done. Scales wished to know if it was a private law, if so it required 30 days notice.

Stickney contended it was a public law. Chair held it affected a public officer and was a public law.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FIFTH DAY. The house assembled according to adjournment. Prayer by Rev. G. W. Spake, member from Jackson. Journal read and approved.

Shackelford, of Onslow, was granted leave of absence. Leave was also granted to Wilson, of Burke.

A message came from the senate announcing the adoption of joint rules, and ordering that 200 copies be printed. The house concurred.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Abbott, resolution for relief of Camden county for maintenance of a lunatic for the year 1875. Finance committee.

By Troy, of Richmond, resolution relating to Battle's Revisal. Judiciary.

By Hartsell, of Stanly, resolution for relief of William H. Hearse, sheriff of Stanly. Propositions and grievances.

BILLS.

By Henderson: Bill to prohibit sale of intoxicating liquors within two miles of certain churches in Davis county. Calendar.

By Carter, of Hyde: Act to fix the standard height of lawful fences in N. C., at four feet instead of 5 feet. Committee on agriculture.

By Cary, of Caswell: Act to submit question of building a railroad from Danville, Va. to Yanceyville, Caswell county, to the qualified voters of that county. Internal improvements.

By Galtzer: An act in favor of Madison county. Propositions and grievances.

By Troy, of Richmond: Bill prescribing 10 hours for a legal day's work. Calendar.

By Gentry, of Stokes: Act for relief of tax payers of Carter county. Finance.

By Wilson, of Transylvania: Act for relief of J. H. Laning, sheriff of Transylvania. Judiciary.

By McRae: Bill for the better enforcement of the criminal law of the state. Judiciary.

By Farnell, of Wake: An act for the relief of the tax payers of Wake county. Propositions and grievances.

By King, of Stokes: Bill for relief of W. H. Gentry, sheriff of Stokes. Propositions and grievances.

By Baxter: Bill for the relief of John F. Frost, sheriff of Currituck. Judiciary.

By Jarvis: Bill for the relief of F. J. Satchwell, sheriff of Beaufort county. Judiciary.

By Hosck, of Caldwell: Bill for relief of R. R. McCall, sheriff of Caldwell county. Propositions and grievances.

By McClure, of Clay: Bill to authorize the sheriff of Clay county to collect arrears of taxes. Propositions and grievances.

By Cooper, of Cherokee: Bill to amend sec. 1, chap. 97, Battle's Revisal, to reduce the price of public printing. Committee on public printing.

By Carter, of Buncombe: An act to restore silver as a legal tender. Judiciary.

A message was received from the senate informing the house of the adoption of the report of the joint committee on rules. Concurred in.

Carter, of Buncombe, offered a resolution providing that 100 copies of Battle's Revisal be furnished by the secretary of state for the use of members of the house.

Farnell stated that there were 140 copies of Battle's Revisal in the state library for the use of members of the legislature.

The rules were suspended to take up the resolution.

Farnell proposed to amend by striking out the words "secretary of state."

Galtzer saw no necessity for the resolution and any member could obtain a copy of Battle's Revisal upon application, and therefore moved to table the resolution. Tabled, 55 to 36.

A message came from the senate informing the house of the passage of senate bill No. 17, relating to assistant clerks and other subordinates and their compensation, and asking concurrence. The house concurred and the resolution was adopted.

A message was received from the senate asking concurrence in the house in an amendment to the act ratifying previous election returns. Concurred in.

Also a senate message asking concurrence in an amendment to house bill No. 3. Concurred in.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Raleigh Sentinel.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY. Subscription Rates—In Advance.

Daily Sentinel, one year, postage paid, $5.00. Six months " " " " 3.00. Weekly Sentinel, one year, postage paid, 1.00. Six months " " " " .50. For the campaign, " " " " .50.

That our readers may see with what vigor our paper is received by our editorial brethren, we give below a few extracts embracing "what they say" of us:

NOTICES OF THE PRESS. [Newbern Times, Rep.] The leading democratic paper in the state.

[Tolant Transcript.] The Raleigh Sentinel under its new managers and proprietors is greatly improved, and is now one of our most valued exchanges.

[Richmond, (Va.) Whig.] The Raleigh Sentinel publishes a six-page weekly, the largest and best of its kind. We have seen printed in North Carolina. It shows enterprise and thrift, the result of good management and live thunder.

[Goldsboro Messenger.] The Raleigh Sentinel, under its present able management shows a decided improvement. Edited with marked ability, its general make up and typographical appearance is excellent. * * * We wish the new management every success.

[From the Salem Press.] The Raleigh Sentinel, under the new management has been much improved in manner and matter. We have been in regular receipt of the Daily Sentinel for a week or more, and hope its daily visits will continue. Specimen numbers can be seen at this office. Price of the Daily $8 per annum.

[From the Fayetteville Wide-Awake.] The Sentinel, the name of which has been a terror to radicalism since Holden pledged "the last dollar and the last man" to the support of the confederate States government, has passed into new hands, and is assuming an attitude from which it will hurl many a destructive canister into radical ranks.

[Greensboro Masonic Journal.] The Raleigh Sentinel came to us last Wednesday as a morning daily and decidedly improved. The new managers and editor promise to do better in the future, and present a better paper than the initial number. They may perhaps do it, but we can't see much chance for improvement. Gentlemen, we wish you success.

[Robesonian.] The Raleigh Sentinel, under the present management, is very generally improved. It contains as much reading matter as heretofore, and is one of the very best daily papers in this state. In common with a great many people of this state we revere the name of the Sentinel, and will always learn of its progress with pride and pleasure. They have reduced the rates for the campaign, as will be seen in another column.

[Wicksburg (Miss.) Herald.] The Raleigh Sentinel needs no eulogy from us. Every one that reads it knows how it stands on all important topics of the day, and although some may differ with it, yet all can say that it is sincere in its course, and is working for the best interest of the people of North Carolina.

[Murphy Herald.] The Sentinel is a living exponent of democracy, seeking by the force of polished argument, to prove the necessity of restoring both state and national government to the guidance of the democratic party. Under its present able management it takes an enviable position among the best journals in the land, increasing the former prominence of its name, by maintaining the highest degree of efficiency. Every democrat in the mountains should take it, and every republican who does not desire an additional wrinkle to his brow, should shun it, for its persuasive arguments entail thought. With better mail facilities, Murphy would contribute to the support of the Daily Sentinel, and this assertion is based on the extensive circulation enjoyed by the Herald's copy.

HILLSBORO RECORDER.

ESTABLISHED 1820. THE OLDEST PAPER IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The RECORDER, apart from its political merits, offers superior inducements to the merchants of Raleigh as a medium of advertisement. It has a large and increasing circulation in the counties of Orange, Guilford, Person and Caswell and especially in those sections of Orange and Alamance, most closely connected by the interests of trade with the city of Raleigh. The merchants of Raleigh will find it vastly to their advantage through this medium to build up a metropolitan wholesale trade, and center upon Raleigh the business that goes to other states.

Manufacturers will also profit by the growing spirit of agricultural improvement, and the tendency to the adoption of labor-saving machinery, to reach the ears and eyes of a large and intelligent class of readers through the medium of the Recorder.
