The President's Case Growing Hourly More

Washington, July 11.
Executive Mansion, 9 a. m.—The President continues to improve. He passed a very comfortable night and feels much refreshed this morning, though his actual number of sleeping hours was less than those of the night before. He took an unusual amount of nourishment during the night and has suffered no inconvenience from it. His pulse is down to 96. The Jennings machines are now working well, and the temperature of the room can be reduced to

Bulletins will be issued daily at 8 a. m p. m. and 8:30 p. m. until further notice. The following was sent this morning: WASHINGTON, July 11, 1881. To Lowell, Minister at London:

At the beginning of the 10th day since he was wounded, the symptons of the President are all hopeful and favorable. Suppuration goes on with no higher pulse or emperature than should be expected. His milk diet of from a pint to a pint and a half per day is relished and digested. His phys-ical strength keeps up wonderfully, and his mind is entirely clear and active without showing excitement. His physicians do not count him beyond danger, but general confidence in his recovery is strengthened every hour. BLAINE, Secretary. (Signed)

EXECUTIVE MANSION, 1 P. M.—The fa-vorable progress of the President's case continues. Pulse 106, temperature 99.8, respiration 24. (Signed) D. W. Bliss, J.K. Barnes, J. J. Woodward and Robert Reyburn.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, July 11 .- The following telegram was sent by the attending surgeons this afternoon to the consulting surgeons, Drs. Agnew and Hamilton: IP. M .- During the past twenty-four hours the favorable progress of the President's case has continued. He has taken and retained twenty two ounces of milk and one ounce of rum. This mo ning at 9 a. m. he ate a slice of toast soft-ned in milk, and at 11:15 took fifte n grains of bisulphate of quinis. There has been no irritability of the stomach at any time. Last evening at 7:15 he received one-quarter of a grain of morphia sulphate hypodermically, and slept well during the night. The wound was again dressed antisept cally yesterday evening and this morning, and continues to discharge a small quantity of healthy pus. Last evening, at 7 p. m., his pulse was 108, temperature 101.9, respiration 24. This morning, at 8 o'clock, his palse was 98, temperature 99.2, respiration 22. At 1 p. m. his pulse was 106, temperature 99.8, respiration 24. Signed, D. W. Bliss, J. K. Barnes, J. J. Woodward and Robert Rey-

The Roof of a Church Falls in and Kills Fifty Persons.

CHICAGO, July 11 .- a dispatch dated City of Mexico, July 10, says: Dispatches received from Oaxaca announces the falling of a church roof in San Mateo, killing over fifty people. The church was being rebuilt, and at 5 o'clock on Tuesday morning a workman fell from the reof. All of the others rushed to get off at the same inan hour previous to service, and there were not over thirty persons in the church. These are reported all killed.

CURIOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

"I would like this advertisement translated into French," said an American in Paris, handing to a clerk in the American Register office the following curious admented upon by the Saurday Review a few months ago. The Irish World copies an item: "Purse lost by a poor widow woman who has a sick child containing 13s. and a letter." No wonder the child was unwell. The next item in the column is the World's own and is as follows: Robert Taylor, aged 83 years, is the father of twenty-five children by three wives seventeen of whom are living." Robert should be tried for bigamy. The Chicago Tribune not long since copied the advertisement of a widow who intended to succeed her husband in the management of a hotel: "The hotel will be kept by the widow of the former landlord, Mr.

"Twenty francs reward will be paid for he recovery of a cameo brooch which represents Venus and Adonis lost on the Boulevard des Italiens about 10 o'clock last evening." But the literary p.oductions of advertisers who have axes to grind and who pay liberally for the privilege of occupying space, have before now proved very interesting bits of reading in the columns of a well edited paper. H. II. Brown & Co., of No. 1 Centre street, kept standing for several weeks in a leading New York daily: "Soldiers who have lost their discharges, and those who did not receive pension from the date of their discharge or death, please apply." In the "Wants" department of a country ex-change a resident advertises for "a woman to wash, iron and milk one or two cows; wine merchant asks for bids for "sixty dozen of prime port, lately the property of a gentleman 40 years of age, full in body, and with a high bouquet." A livery-stable keeper offers cheap "a mail phæton, the property of a gentleman with a movable head as good as new," and "a splendid gray horse, calculated for a charger, or would carry a lady with a switch tail and warranted kind." It is easier for some people to determine what they want than to ask for it. Words are bugbears to them and language takes terrible shapes.
