TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS. Democratic Gains in New York and Wisconsin—Governor Elected Governor of Virginia, the Legislature in Doubt—Returns from Other States.

NEW YORK, November 9.—Flowers' majority over Astor in the eleventh Congressional district is over 2,600.

The total city vote on the State ticket is: Purcell 89,585, Carr 53,056, Davenport 51,991, Lapham 87,963, Husted 47,030, Maxwell 89,918, Russell 52,055, Parmlinter 88,713, Evershead 89,185, Seymour 51,878.

284 towns and wards outside of New York and Kings counties show a Republican majority of 14,158, a net Democratic gain of 15,094.

The result in the 10th Senatorial district is still in doubt. The election is a very serious defeat for Tammany, which has with difficulty held its own whenever it ran an independent ticket. The election of Rollins, Republican, for surrogate, is an overwhelming defeat for Tammany. Hardy, Democrat, in the 9th Congressional district, had a comparative walk-over over Ex-Collector Thos. Murphy, the Republican candidate. The contest for State Senators was closely fought.

Ex-Senator Hogan, county Democratic nominee in the 5th District, was beaten by Boyd by 1,000. Brady defeated Seebacher in the 6th District by nearly 2,000. Daly defeated Vas Camp in the 7th District by nearly 2,000. Brown was elected in the 8th by a small majority, and the Fitzgerald county Democratic nominee defeated Spinoia, the Tammany candidate, by a very small majority. The election of McKean for District Attorney is regarded as an anti-Tammany victory, the latter having nominated first, knowing that the county Democracy had intended to do so.

The World claims that the Democratic State ticket is elected by about 30,000 majority, and also claims a Democratic majority in both branches of the Legislature, as follows: Senate, 17 Democrats, 15 Republicans; Assembly, 68 Democrats, 60 Republicans.

The Sun's estimate is: The State is Democratic by 10,000 majority. 18 Democratic Senators elected, 14 Republican Senators elected; 67 Democratic Assemblymen elected; 61 Republican Assemblymen elected.

The Times this morning says: An unusually light vote was polled in this State yesterday outside of large cities. Returns thus far received show that the Republican State ticket, with the exception of Husted for State Treasurer, is elected by a small majority, probably not more than 6,000 or 8,000. The result as regards the Legislature is in doubt, the latest returns indicating that the Senate is a tie and that the Assembly stands 65 Republicans to 63 Democrats. The re-election of Talcott and Gibbs, Republican candidates for the Senate in this city, is in doubt, but they are counted as successful in the above estimate.

The Herald, this morning, says: The elections in New York and other States yesterday will be briefly summed up. There was no disorder here, although much subdued excitement existed in the Congressional and Senatorial districts. The State is somewhat in doubt, owing to imperfect returns, but the latest indications are that the Democrats have a small majority, the latest estimate being 5,000. Carr, the Republican candidate for Secretary of State, seems to have run ahead of his ticket so well that full returns may prove his election. As to the State Senate, the Democrats have made considerable gains, but it is doubtful whether they will have a majority on the final count. The Assembly appears to have been secured by the Republicans again. Hogan in the fifth, Seward in the twelfth, and Everett in the sixteenth Senatorial districts, have all been defeated. In this city both have encountered another Waterloo. Calvin, for surrogate, has been ignominiously defeated by Rollins, the Republican candidate. McKean is District Attorney by an overwhelming majority. The Democrats have elected six of the seven State Senators, and seventeen of the twenty-four Assemblymen. The indications are that the regular Democrats have secured six of the district aldermen; the Republicans securing seven and Tammany only three. The indications are that the Republicans have succeeded in electing their Marine Court Judges. Most of the Democratic candidates for Civil Justice have been elected, including Norton, Campbell, Clauch and McGowan.

ALBANY, November 9.—The Argus editor at noon to-day claims the election of the Democratic State ticket by 2,000 majority, though, owing to Carr running ahead of his ticket, he may be elected.

NEW YORK, November 29.—In Brooklyn to-day the Republicans are jubilant over their victory. They have elected their mayor, sheriff, supervisor at large, one senator, one assemblyman, and ten supervisors out of thirteen, and five aldermen. For mayor the vote was: Beth Low, Republican, 45,530; James Howell, Democrat, 40,937.

ALBANY, November 9.—The returns from the State, as far as received, together with the estimated returns, give Carr a majority of 4,546. The Evening Journal says the Senate is tied, and that the Democrats have a majority of three in the Assembly.

HARTFORD, November 9.—The Courant has complete returns from the State, making the following result in the House: Republicans 149; Democrats 98; Greenbacks 1. Last year the House stood: Republicans 166; Democrats 80; Greenbacks 1; Independent 1.

OMAHA, November 9.—Returns from the election are incomplete. The State is undoubtedly Republican by a large majority, and most of the counties are believed to have been carried by the Republicans.

LINCOLN, NEB., November 9.—The Republicans carry the State by the usual majority, from 15,000 to 18,000. Maryland.

BALTIMORE, November 9.—The returns are still incomplete, but sufficient to base an estimate of the general result have been received. The Republicans have gained unexpected victories in several Democratic counties. The next Senate will be Republican, according to present estimates, 16 Democrats and 10 Republicans. In the last Senate there were 7 Republicans and 19 Democrats. Based on the same estimates the House will stand, 59 Democrats and 32 Republicans.

JACKSON, MISS., November 9.—The returns are coming in slowly, owing to the length of the tickets and scratching. Lowery is largely ahead in Monroe, Montgomery, Lafayette, Yazoo, Grenada and Jackson counties. Marshall, Noxbe and Copiah are conceded to Lowery. Copiah is the home of King. This city gives King 1,610 majority, but Hinds county is conceded to Lowery. Lowery's majority in the State is estimated at 15,000 to 20,000. So far as heard from the election has been quiet throughout the State, except at Marion, Lauderdale county, Virginia.

PETERSBURG, VA., November 9.—Petersburg, Cameron's home, gives Daniel 1,167, Cameron 2,171, a Democratic gain of 287. At 1:30 a. m. 125 voting precincts give Daniel 18,324, Cameron 18,389, Cameron's majority 65. These precincts show a net Democratic gain of 2,982. 120 precincts, which only report majorities, give aggregated majorities of 6,628 for Daniel and 1,670 for Cameron. Daniel's net majority, so far as heard from, is 6,663. The Democrats claim to have gained 12 members of the legislature and lost 3, a net gain of 9. The returns received include nearly one-third of the vote of the State, assuming that the total vote is about the same as in the Presidential election.

RICHMOND, VA., November 9.—Further returns received at the Dispatch office, up to 2 p. m., reduce the Democratic gains in the Legislature to 11, which leaves the Democrats 4 short of a majority on joint ballot. The gubernatorial vote is still too meagre to justify a positive statement at the office of the Whip, the Readjuster organ. The full and estimated votes from forty counties and cities, which cover one-third of the State, indicate only 400 loss to the Readjusters, based on the last Presidential vote. The reported gains for the Readjusters in the southwest will overcome this loss. The Readjusters claim that their figures insure the election of Cameron by 12,000 to 15,000 majority.

The State, a Democratic newspaper, says this afternoon that Cameron will probably be elected by 8,000 majority.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 9.—Commissioner Baum received a telegram this afternoon from James D. Brady, at Petersburg, Va., which says: Reliable reports come in slowly, but all we have are very good. Our majority in Jorgensen's district is heavy, and we have carried all but Desford's district excepting Portsmouth. Unless all of our careful estimates of this morning are erroneous, we have elected Cameron by more than 10,000 majority and carried the Legislature.

PHILADELPHIA, November 9.—The Republican committee has some additional advices from the interior, from which they place Bailey's majority, Republican candidate for Secretary of State, at 1,000, but the Democratic campaign managers are not satisfied but that an adverse result has been achieved. Chairman Bogart, Democrat, instances the vote of 1862, when for three days the Republicans claimed a victory without substantial grounds. He admits, however, that the contest has been close, and is inclined to believe that Bailey, Republican, has a small majority.

PHILADELPHIA, November 9.—The Press publishes a table showing a plurality for Baily, Republican, over Noble, Democrat, of 7,263. Wolfe 600 plurality in Union and 400 in Snyder.

The Times estimates Baily's plurality at about 2,900.

NEW JERSEY, November 9.—The latest returns from New Jersey show the political status of the next Legislature as follows: Senate, Republicans 13, Democrats 8, a Democratic gain of 3; House of Assembly, Republicans 30, a Democratic gain of 4.

MILWAUKEE, November 8.—Returns up to 9:30 o'clock indicate a very light vote all over the State. Milwaukee city and county give Ruak, Republican, for Governor, 256 majority, while Falk, Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, runs over 3,000 ahead of his ticket, and there is a fair possibility of Falk's election. Eighty-two towns, comprising over two hundred precincts in the State, show a net Democratic gain of 2,450. The Republican State central committee, at this hour, claim the State by 10,000 majority.

DENVER, COL., November 8.—The election passed off quietly. The Republicans claim 500 majority on the mayor, while the supporters of the people's ticket, the only opposition, concede 100 majority. The returns from the other points in the State indicate that Denver is selected as the permanent capital.

BOSTON, November 9.—Later returns show that the Senate will stand 35 Republicans, four Democrats and one independent Republican.

MILWAUKEE, November 9.—The latest returns, comprising one-third of the State, indicate that the Republican candidates are elected by 3,000 majority, with the possible exception of State Treasurer.

ST. PAUL, November 9.—Returns come in very slowly. In all the larger places there has been much scratching, and the counties vote is light everywhere, falling off from last year and affecting the two parties nearly alike. In St. Paul, Johnston, Democratic candidate for Governor, is running ahead of the ticket, and Greenleaf Clark is defeated by Judge Van Aubrey. Canor, for Supreme Judge, is receiving a large vote. About half the ticket will be Republican and half Democratic. Hubbard, Republican candidate for Governor, runs ahead of the ticket in the first and second districts, and behind in the third. The probability is that his gains and losses will about offset each other, and that he and the whole ticket will be elected by a majority somewhat reduced from last year. At Minneapolis the whole Republican county ticket is probably elected.

CHICAGO, November 9.—The city complete shows that Gary, Republican, also nominated by the Democrats, for judge of the first Superior Court, has been unanimously elected. Stephens, Republican, for clerk of the county court, has 2,012 majority. Mattocks and Summer, Democrat, for county commissioner, each received over 1,700 majority. The total vote in the city is a little over 26,000, or less than half of the ordinary full vote. The falling off was not more of a surprise than the defeat of the Republican commissioners.

PEORIA, ILL., November 8.—In the municipal vote to-day Hitchcock, for mayor, received a majority of nearly 5,000, a Republican gain of 1,000. The Republicans also gain three aldermen. The council will be a tie, with a Republican mayor. This is the first time the Republicans have carried the city for several years.

NEW ORLEANS, November 9.—Telegrams from nineteen counties in Mississippi show that the Democrats have carried them all except Madison. The fusion gains were about 400. Every indication points to the success of the Democratic State ticket by 15,000 to 20,000 majority.

TOPEKA, November 9.—The election throughout this State excited less interest than usual, except in local contests. The Republican State central committee has not been advised of any Republican losses.

Democratic Gains in Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, November 9.—Towns and cities embracing two-thirds of the State give a net Democratic gain of 8,298. The Democratic State central committee claim a good chance of carrying the State, and say their State Treasurer, Folk, is surely elected, while the Republican central committee are positive their entire State ticket is elected.
