NEWS OBSERVATIONS

—The steamer Servia was expected to take $5,000,000 of gold to Europe on yesterday.

—High prices have now reached the summit and a decline has set in. Iron is tumbling.

—The Khedive seems again to be the best man in Egypt, thanks to English and French iron-clads.

—The police are unsuccessfully searching steamers arriving from abroad for the murderers of Lord Cavendish.

—The prosecution in the Malley case is drawing to a close. The evidence is somewhat stronger against the Malleys than that developed before the coroner's jury.

—The Philadelphia Press turned over $3,542.62 to the wife of George Mason, who shot at Guiteau, that being the amount collected by that paper for Bettie and the baby.

—The Secretary of War is directed, at his discretion, to cause surveys and examinations of Edenton bay and the sound between Beaufort and New River, and White Oak River to Smith's mills, in North Carolina.

—The reporters are trying to marry off Princess Beatrice, Queen Victoria's youngest daughter, to Prince Frederick William, eldest son of the Landgrave of Hesse. But the young lady does not appear to have been consulted.

—In the English House of Commons Mr. Balfour spoke of the compact between the government and the "suspects" and the conspirators engaged in boycotting. He said the compact was unexampled in infamy, and that while Gladstone's statement denying the compact might be verbally accurate they were substantially inaccurate. Gladstone thereupon fell into a rage and declared that there was not a word of truth in what Balfour had stated.

—Mr. Bayard, from the Senate finance committee, has reported a bill refunding to a number of tobacco-men in various parts of the country taxes on manufactured tobacco, cigars and cigarettes illegally collected from them by the government. There are no Virginians in the bill. J. R. Pace & Co., of Danville, were in it as introduced with a claim of $236, but they were struck out by the committee. Among those in the bill as reported are W. T. Blackwell, Durham, N. C., $80; W. M. & C. W. Watkins, Milton, N. C., $22,100; P. Lorillard & Co., New York, $22,500.

—Mrs. Abbie Taylor, an estimable lady of Newport, Rhode Island, was buried Sunday afternoon. The deceased with her own hand wrote the telegrams to her friends in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Albany Park and other places which conveyed the intelligence of her death. Twenty minutes before she died she called for pen, ink and telegraph blanks, and in a trembling but legible hand announced to those whom she desired to attend the funeral the fact that she was dead. She signed the dispatches with her own name, but in the announcement simply said, "Mrs. Taylor is dead," following the premature intelligence with the request that they would attend the obsequies. She died, as above stated, twenty minutes after announcing her decease.

—A San Francisco paper describes how John Troy murdered his brother on Sunday, and says: When John saw that the stab was serious he ran back to him greatly excited. Stooping over him, he shook him by the shoulder, saying: "You ain't as bad as that, are you, Jim?" At that instant the prostrate man gave a final gasp and expired without having spoken a word from the time he left the corner. The wretched fratricide, instantly sobered by a realization of his terrible crime, threw himself on the inanimate form in a perfect paroxysm of grief. Hugging the bloody corpse to his breast he cried, in tones so appealing that anything but a corpse must have been aroused: "Oh, Jim! Jim! Wake up! Don't die; don't die; I didn't mean it, Jim. Don't die, Jim." Then turning to an officer he said: "I cut him; I done it. Run for a doctor."

—A little white, ringtail monkey has just arrived from his native land, the Malay Peninsula, and is at present on board the British steamship Oxfordshire, in New York. The animal's name in Malayan is "Joe," otherwise "Jack," and it is as pure an albino as the human beings of that species on exhibition in east-side museums. "Joe" is a pretty monkey as monkeys go. His hair is long and somewhat glossy, his paws are of a beautiful pink and his eyes, when the sun, or even daylight strikes them, emit a dazzling scintillating glare. He is exceedingly tame and when not imprisoned in his cage passes his time playing and frolicking with a Japanese poodle. The commander of the Oxfordshire, informed a Mail and Express reporter that "Joe" had been captured nearly a year ago on the western coast of the Malay Peninsula, about 300 miles from Singapore. He was brought down to the latter city, where his appearance made a veritable sensation, and he was sold for a high price to the captain. According to the latter, and to several clippings from Singapore papers shown to the reporter, there is only one other albino monkey known to be in existence, and he was purchased several years ago for the king of Siam, $35,000 being paid for him. The animal had been captured in farther India, and had been sold to a dealer in Calcutta for 500 rupees.

Congressional Proceedings.
WASHINGTON, May 18.—The Senate passed a bill appropriating $22,271 to reimburse certain citizens of Henderson, Tenn., for excessive assessments levied upon them by Gen. Grant in 1862.

The five per cent. land bill was taken up as unfinished business. Mr. Saulsbury's amendment prohibiting the States receiving money from applying any of it to pay agents employed to procure it, was modified by Mr. Beck by adding thereto the words, "except this be in accordance with the laws of the State passed after the passage of this act." Adopted.

Mr. Morgan offered an amendment, which was agreed to by the friends of the bill, requiring the payment of five per cent. to be made in cash instead of bonds. The bill then went over.

A bill appropriating $50,000 for a public building at Greensboro passed.

The Senate then went into executive session, after which it adjourned.

HOUSE.—On motion of Mr. Wise, of Virginia, the bill was passed changing the boundaries of the fourth collection district of Virginia, and making New Port News the post of entry.

The House then resumed the consideration of the bank charter extension bill, the pending question being on the amendment offered by Mr. Buckner, of Missouri, reducing the period for which the banks may extend their charters from twenty to ten years. The amendment was rejected—yeas 92, nays 116.

Mr. Robertson, of Louisiana, moved to reduce the period to two years, and stating that he would avail himself of the latitude allowed to debate, proceeded to make some remarks about the broken banks of the Mississippi, praising the patriotic message of the President on that subject. He then withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Hammond, of Georgia, offered his amendment, providing that jurisdiction for suits hereafter brought by or against any national banking association (except suits between them and the United States or its officers or agents) shall be the same as jurisdiction for suits brought by or against banks not organized under any law of the United States which do or might do banking business where such national banking association may be doing business when such suits may be begun. Agreed to without division.

Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, offered an amendment providing that in the organization of any banking association intended to replace any existing banking association and retain the name thereof, the holders of stock in the expiring association shall be entitled to a preference in the allotment of the shares of the new association in proportion to the number of shares held by them respectively in the expiring association. Adopted.

Mr. Holman, of Indiana, offered an amendment providing that every banking association which shall obtain the benefit of this act shall pay the cost of preparing the plates for such new circulating notes as shall be issued to it, and all other costs incident to the substitution of such new circulating notes for the old in addition to the tax now imposed on banking associations by law. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Crago, of Massachusetts, the following amendment was inserted at the end of section 7 of the bill: And the franchise of such association is hereby extended for the sole purpose of liquidating their affairs until such affairs are finally closed. (Section 7 has reference to banking associations which do not avail themselves of the provisions of this act.)

Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, offered the following amendment as an additional section to the bill: That national banks now organized or hereafter organized, having a capital of $150,000 or less, shall not be required to keep or deposit with the Treasurer of the United States, United States bonds in excess of $10,000, as surety for their circulating notes, and such of those banks having on deposit bonds in excess of that amount are authorized to reduce their circulation by the deposit of lawful money as provided by law. Adopted, yeas 102; nays 100.

Mr. Cannon moved to reconsider and to lay that motion on the table.

Mr. Randall demanded the yeas and nays on the latter motion, stating that he hoped that the House would traverse the action just taken.

The motion to lay the motion on the table was agreed to—yeas 111, nays 96. Without further action the House adjourned.

A Doctor Mysteriously Shot.
SYRACUSE, May 18.—The insensible body of Dr. Henry W. Kendall was found in a meadow near the county poor house cemetery, four miles from this city, this morning, with a bullet hole through the eye. A full kit of resurrectionists tools were found near the body. It is supposed that Kendall was engaged in body-snatching, and either shot himself or was shot by a companion. He cannot live.

Shot Dead in the Road.
MEMPHIS, May 18.—Levi Preston, a farmer living eight miles below Memphis, was shot dead last night. Suspicion points to one Clark, with whom Preston had a fight near the scene of the murder. Early in the evening Clark left for home at six o'clock. Preston remained until nine and was shot as he was riding along the road. The report of the gun was heard by several persons.

The Texas Greenback Convention.
GALVESTON, May 18.—A News Fort Worth special announces that the Greenback State convention has been called to meet in Galveston June 29.

The Episcopal Convention at Norfolk—Bishop Whittle Refuses to Entertain the Question of Dividing the Diocese.

NORFOLK, May 18.—At the session of the Episcopal convention Bishop Whittle refused to entertain the question of a division of the diocese. He claimed that under the canons he alone had the right to take the initiative in the matter. Considerable discussion ensued, when the Bishop stated that if the council decided to have a meeting of the parishes during the coming year and a majority of the parishes favored a division, he would not oppose such action, but until he was satisfied that a majority of the laity favored it, he assumed his prerogative. A plan will be offered to-morrow for ascertaining the wishes and views of the laity on the subject.

New York Cotton Futures.
NEW YORK, May 18.—The Post's cotton report says: Future deliveries, in consequence of many spot orders being acted on, had again declined at noon: May and June 4.00 and July, August and September 8 to 9.100. Later months were only slightly lower. A reaction of 3 to 4.100 was only of short duration, and, assisted by persistent hammering, prices dropped lower than ever before. At the third call May brought 12.11, June 12.13, July 12.24, August 12.35, 12.34, September 12.01, October 11.50.

Greenback Convention.
HARRISBURG, Pa., May 18.—The Greenback Convention met here to-day, with ninety-three delegates attending. Some districts were not represented. The platform was on the eight hour anti-monopoly greenback platform. A full State ticket was nominated, headed by Thomas A. Armstrong, of Pittsburg, editor of the labor Tribune, as candidate for Governor.

In Search of the Assassins.
NEW YORK, May 17.—When the steamer Scythia, of the Cunard line, arrived in the lower bay to day she was searched by a United States marshal for the parties suspected of being the assassins of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke, but no arrests were made. The steamer State of Indiana will also be searched.

Religious News.
NORFOLK, VA., May 17.—The sixth annual council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Virginia Diocese assembled to-day, Bishop Whittle presiding. The session is considered of unusual importance, as the question of division of the diocese is likely to be discussed, and a large majority are declared in favor of the project.

Chicago Tanners on a Strike.
CHICAGO, May 18.—The men in all of the principal tanneries struck at noon to-day, because those in the preparing department who asked for an advance of one dollar a week were refused it. They demanded twelve dollars a week. The employers will shut down. About 1,000 of the 1,200 tanners employed in Chicago are therefore out of work.

Cotton Crop Damaged.
CHARLESTON, May 18.—The News and Courier has advices from various portions of the State that the cold nights are having a most injurious effect upon the cotton crop, in some cases rendering replanting necessary.

Money to Plead Insanity.
NEW YORK, May 18.—On application of counsel the case of ex-Governor Franklin J. Moses was indefinitely postponed. A plea of insanity will be entered to-morrow.

Contested Election Case.
WASHINGTON, May 17.—The Democratic caucus this evening was devoted to the conclusion of the contested election case of Mackey against Dibble, from South Carolina. A number of speeches were made, expressing condemnation of the action of the majority in refusing a rehearing of the case on Dibble's charges of forgery of testimony in the interest of Mackey. A resolution formally expressing this sentiment was adopted. Beyond the adoption of this resolution no formal action was taken. The unanimous sentiment of the members, however, is very strong in favor of resisting, as far as practicable, the attempt to seat Mr. Mackey.

Apprehended Trouble with Indians.
WASHINGTON, May 17.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has just received the following telegram from Indian Agent Llewellyn, concerning apprehended trouble with the Mesquero Apaches in New Mexico: "Mesquero Agency, May 16.—In view of the failure of Congress to make appropriations for subsisting Indians, and in view of the fact that the beef and flour on hand will only last until about July 1st, and that these Indians have no means of subsisting themselves, it seems to me that it will be policy to transfer them to the War Department, who should take charge of them before starvation compels them to commit depredations, which will materially lead to a great loss of life and destruction of valuable property. As soon as the supplies are cut off the military will have to act. Therefore I think it advisable for the troops to take charge of the Mesquero Apaches at once. Nothing short of force can compel them to remain in the reservation and starve. The action of Congress in this matter simply means the Mesquero extermination."

Mr. Trevelyan, Chief Secretary for Ireland, has been re-elected member of Parliament for Hawick without opposition.
Never interrupt any conversation with a hacking cough; it crosses a bad impression. Better invest a quarter of a dollar in a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and cure it.

The Election of the Bishops.

The time having arrived for holding the election of Bishops, Bishop McTear appointed Drs. Pasco and Galloway and Messrs. Thornburg and Fulton as tellers, and in view of the importance of the work before them and the danger of illegal ballots being cast, suggested a plan for taking the vote, viz: That the call of Conferences be made and the chairman collect the votes of their respective delegations and deposit them in the hat passed around by the tellers. A substitute was offered which provided for the call of the roll of members, and each member stand and vote as his name was called. The substitute was lost. The original plan was adopted by a unanimous vote. Bishop McTear gave out a hymn, which was sung by the congregation. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Dr. Boswell, of the Memphis Conference. The first ballot was then taken, consuming an hour and a half; 241 votes were cast, requiring 121 to elect. The following is the result of the first ballot: A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore, 122; A. G. Haygood, of Georgia, 99; Linus Parker, of Louisiana, 96; J. C. Cranbery, of Virginia, 94; R. K. Hargrave, of Tennessee, 68; N. H. D. Wilson, North Carolina, 19; R. A. Young, of Tennessee, 42; E. R. Hendrix, of Missouri, 38; A. P. Fitzgerald, of Palestine, 35; W. M. Rush, of Memphis, 34; P. A. Peterson, of Virginia, 32; Young Allen, China Mission, 32; B. M. Messick, Louisville, 28; J. S. Key, Georgia, 26; W. T. Harris, Memphis, 25; G. G. Andrews, Mississippi, 25; Joseph Anderson, White River, 22; E. E. Willie, Holston, 20; W. B. Tudor, St. Louis, 18; John B. McFerrer, Tennessee, 15; J. D. Shaw, North Texas, 14; J. W. Hinton, Georgia, 14; C. W. Miller, Kentucky, 13; W. W. Bennett, Virginia, 11; B. Craven, North Carolina, 11; W. W. Duncan, South Carolina, 11; E. S. Rounds, 10. Dr. Wilson was declared elected Bishop, and the Conference adjourned until 4 o'clock. Upon the reassembling of the Conference the Rev. Linus Parker, the Rev. A. G. Haygood, and the Rev. J. C. Cranbery were elected Bishops on the second ballot, Mr. Parker receiving 146 votes, Mr. Haygood 146, and Mr. Cranbery 140. On the third ballot the Rev. R. K. Hargrove was elected Bishop, receiving 173 votes, the Rev. A. Young 18, W. H. Wilson 17, and E. R. Hendrix 9.

The Rev. A. W. Wilson, D. D., of the Baltimore Conference, is secretary of the Board of Missions. His scholastic training was conducted at Columbian College, Washington. Having left the college walls, his purpose was to engage in the study and practice of medicine, but very soon the conviction that he should devote himself to the work of the ministry led to a change of purpose and his consecration to that line of service, in which he has shown conspicuous ability. Dr. Wilson was born in Baltimore, was converted in early life, and in 1853 was admitted to probation in the Baltimore General Conference, of which he continues a member until this day. Dr. Wilson is a man of extraordinary vigor of mind and of learning of eminent ability as a preacher.

The Rev. Atticus G. Haygood is a clerical delegate from the North Georgia Conference, a minister of high character, and president of Emory College, Oxford, Ga. Dr. Haygood is about 42 years old. He is an eloquent speaker, a bold thinker and a fine writer. He has for four years, in addition to his duties as president of the college, edited the Wesleyan Christian Advocate. He is the author of a good book, that had immense sale, "Our Child's Friend." He has more recently published another book, which has created as much interest over the whole country as any book ever issued, "Our Brother in Black, His Freedom and His Future." He is a native of Georgia, and was graduated at 19 at the college over which he now presides, and was for several years a traveling preacher in the regular work. He has declined to accept the place of Bishop.

The Rev. J. C. Cranbery, D. D., a delegate from the Virginia Conference, has filled the chair of Mental and Moral Philosophy in the academic department of Vanderbilt University, and the chair of Practical Theology in the theological department of that institution since its organization in October, 1875. Dr. Cranbery was born in Norfolk, Va., December 5, 1829, and became a member of the church in 1844. He completed his education at Randolph-Macon College and became a graduate in 1848. Subsequently his Alma Mater conferred upon him the degrees of M. A. and D. D. In 1859 he was elected chaplain of the faculty of the University of Virginia and filled the position for two years with great acceptability. As a writer and scholar Dr. Cranbery has few if any equals in the church South.

The day after the organization of the Eleventh Virginia Infantry in 1861 Bishop Cranbery joined the command and continued with it until the fall of 1863, being known as the "fighting chaplain." He was at that time appointed by the church a missionary to the army of General Lee, and in that office he served until paroled at Appomattox Court House in 1865. A few weeks afterwards he became pastor of Market Street church, Petersburg, and remained until the fall of 1868. He was four years at Centenary church, Richmond, and nearly three years at Broad street. In September, 1875, he removed to Nashville, Tennessee, having been elected a professor in the Vanderbilt University. He is at this time Professor of Practical Theology and Acting Professor of Moral Philosophy in that institution.

Rev. R. K. Hargrave, D. D., of the Tennessee Conference, is about fifty years of age—a man of high character as a preacher, thoroughly devoted to his church, and in every way in high repute among those who know him most intimately.

Rev. Linus Parker, D. D., of the Louisiana Conference, now and for years editor of the Christian Advocate, is about fifty years of age, in firm health, weighs about 190 pounds, and is a preacher of note in his section. Bishop Parker is a Christian of profound convictions, and as an editor has had no superior as a writer on this line. He may be classed among the old line Methodist preachers.

The Granger Murder Trial—Damaging Evidence Against the Malley.
NEW HAVEN, May 17.—In the Malley trial to-day several witnesses testified to having recognized in the dead girl, on the 6th, one whom they had seen alive at Savin Park the night previous. The telegraph operator at Stamford, Conn., was then placed on the stand and testified to having delivered to Walter Malley, on the evening of August 4th, the following dispatch, dated New Haven:
"Blanche O. K., found her at the dress-makers."
[Signed] J. MALLEY.
Walter Malley had arrived on the train and inquired for this dispatch. When he received it he returned to New Haven on the next train.

Another witness, named Brady, who recognized the dead girl as having been at Savin Park, testified that he had been offered money to leave the State and not testify. Still another witness testified to having seen James Malley and Jennie Cramer together near the beach between 8 and 10 o'clock on the night before Jennie's body was found.

Miscellaneous Telegrams.
MARSEILLES, May 18.—The case of the municipality of Marseilles against the Empress Eugenie, to recover the possession of the chateau presented to the late Emperor, has been decided in favor of the Empress, who has been awarded costs.

NEW ORLEANS, May 18.—Governor McEnery has offered a reward of $2,000 for the arrest of the persons engaged in the hanging of Jenkins and Azar, near Breaux bridge.

PORT ROYAL, S. C., May 18.—The hotel building, in the course of construction, was burned last night. Loss $15,000; no insurance. The cause of the fire was incendiary.

The steamer Rio Grande, from New Orleans with cotton, on fire at Delaware Breakwater, has been scuttled. The fire was discovered at 5 p. m. Tuesday, when the vessel was off Cape Henlopen.

A Hancock (Mich.) special says that Autory Schveemper, a brewer, shot his wife as she lay asleep with her mother on Wednesday and then shot himself. Both are dead. Jealousy was the cause.

An Opelousa (La.) special says: Simon Woods, charged with horse stealing, was shot and killed by Deputy Sheriff McKinny, while resisting arrest. McKinny saved his own life by being an expert shot.

President Folwell and Professors Pike and Meyer, of the State University of Minnesota, were arrested Wednesday in connection with the shooting affair with students mentioned in these dispatches. Professor Pike was held in a bond of $500 to answer to a charge of assault upon Asa Paine with a deadly weapon. President Folwell and Professor Moore were released on their own recognizance to answer a charge of assault and battery.

Twenty Years a Sufferer.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.: Dear Sir—Twenty years ago I was shipwrecked on the Atlantic Ocean, and the cold and exposure caused a large abscess to form on each leg, which kept continually discharging. After spending hundreds of dollars, with no benefit, I tried your "Golden Medical Discovery" and now, in less than three months after taking the first bottle, I am thankful to say I am completely cured, and for the first time in ten years can put my left foot to the ground. I am yours, WILLIAM RYDER, 87 Jefferson St., Buffalo, N. Y.
