Two fine observations have been obtained at the Harvard Observatory of the comet, which almost definitely established that it is one of a brief period. According to the present data it must have made the semi of the sun in two or three hours, or at the rate of 400 miles a second, and the fact that the sun's atmosphere offers no check to its progress proves it inconceivably unlike meteoroids.

At Utica, N. Y., on Monday Judge Wallace and Cox refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus in the Sergeant Mason case. The decision was rendered immediately after the argument of counsel and without the judges leaving the benches. Judge Folger, in his letter of acceptance of the nomination of Governor of New York, says that at this late day it would be impossible to call a new State convention, and he says somewhat mournfully that the result what it may, he will not take the responsibility of breaking up the Republican party. If it is to be defeated at the coming election, he will go down with the party, serene in the consciousness that he has wrought the ruinful result.

On Saturday night, while a train on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad was on a side track at Granda, Col., two men sprang on the locomotive, and pointing revolvers at the engineer's head compelled him to run the train a mile out of town. In the smoking-car they encountered a sheriff and two deputies, who drew their revolvers, and the intruders concluded not to molest the passengers. They then directed their attention to the express car and secured $5,500, after which they mounted their horses and rode away.

ATLANTA, October 4.—The election for Governor and State officers is progressing quietly. The election of Mr. Stephens is conceded by all parties, the amount of the majority being the only matter in doubt. In Atlanta, Garrett is receiving almost the solid negro and Republican vote.

The result of the star route trials, up to this time, is not encouraging to the friends of honest dealing with the government. The Washington cases, although not yet concluded, have been a miscarriage of justice. The rich and powerful ring-leaders have escaped conviction. The poorer culprits have gone to grief. While the public is yet amazed by the extraordinary verdict, the Philadelphia trials bring to pass a result very nearly similar. Of five defendants in the case just now concluded in Philadelphia only one, Joe R. Black, is found guilty, and even he has the benefit of the jury's recommendation to mercy. Yet Black is one of the least important and least responsible of all the rogues against whom indictments have been found. Black was a tool of shrewd men, some of whom have not even been brought into court at all. Much of the evidence against him was procured by his own testimony. Nevertheless, the principals escape while the agent suffers.

MUNDEN'S PUNISHMENT.

The Famous Criminal Goes Ten Years in the Penitentiary.

(Stenton Enquirer.)

Perquimans court held until Saturday last, and the closing of the noted case of the State against W. J. Munden, the noted church brother, Radical legislator, alias wife stealer, alias "T. J. Smith," alias "Swamp Angel," was the last scene of that drama.

This case came up for trial on Thursday evening. The prisoner was ably represented by Judge M. L. Euse and W. D. Pruden, while the State was assisted by Judge J. W. Albertson and T. G. Skinner. There never was, perhaps, more interest shown in any case in Perquimans county. The jury was soon selected, and consisted of twelve good men of more than average intelligence.

The most interesting feature of the trial was the evidence of Mrs. J. A. Johnson, the woman with whom Munden eloped. Mrs. Johnson is a brunette of medium height and size, and shows traces of abused beauty and refinement. She said: I was the wife of J. A. Johnson, and lived at Woodville, N. C., am 37 years of age, and have been married ten years. Johnson conducted business in my name, and I had $2,800, in cash, in my possession—it was his, and not my money. W. J. Munden was a married man, lived near by—came often as Johnson's friend, made love to me got me, "completely confused." Told me that Johnson was getting everything in his name and was going to leave me, and persuaded me to elope with him, afterwards he divorced and got married. I consented; Munden asked about Johnson's money and told me to take it with me. Johnson went to Norfolk. April 11th Munden came from the house, Munden asked if I had the money, I replied, yes. He added "I'm glad, for I arrived myself to give you." I only in Petersburg, Va., and took room as man and wife. I indorsed the checks I had, and Munden got and used the money. I went to Texas and Arkansas; we lived as man and wife, and had a child born unto us. Parties have approached me to know how I would testify, and for an affidavit in Munden's behalf. I refused to make an affidavit, and stated I would "be on the side of the truth."

The characters of both Johnson and Munden were proven to be bad.

The case was ably argued on both sides by counsel. At 4:30 on Friday it was given the jury, under a careful charge of his Honor. At 5 o'clock Saturday the verdict of guilty was returned by the jury.

His Honor Judge Gilliam reviewed the case, saying that under such aggravated circumstances as surrounded this case he could but feel justified in imposing a sentence of ten years in the Penitentiary.

"Father, you smoke too much," said an Austin boy of 16 summers, to his paternal ancestor.

"I don't see that it is any of your business," responded the father, impudently.
