THE PENSION BILL.

Political Assessments Discussed - Navel Affairs.

WASHINGTON, December 8-SENATE. -Mr. Davis, of Illinois, presented the petition of the tobacco manufacturers of Chicago, asking that immediate action be taken on the tax question, as the continued agitation is depriving the operatives of subsistence. Referred.

Mr. Maxey, from the committee on military affairs, reported a bill to rectify and establish the title of the United States of the military post at El Paso, Texas. Passed. The President laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of War, received just before the adjournment of the last session, transmitting information as to the basis upon which the government settled with certain railroad companies in Tennessee about the year 1865. SENATE. -Mr. Beck stated that after conferring with the committee on pensions, he desired to modify his amendment to the resolution asking for a list of the of the persons claiming pensions. At the close of the morning hour Mr. Beck called up his resolution for an inquiry into the political assessments upon the government employees, and criticised the substitute offered by Mr. Hale yester-

pensioners, so as not to require the names

Mr. Hale said he had modified his substitute so as to call for the names of all employees dismissed since the election, for any cause. The Democratic party had placed wealthy men upon their committee in order to induce them to contribute money for a political purpose, and had levied large assessments upon the Liquor Dealers' Associations, and the investiga tion, if entered upon at all, ought to extend to both sides.

Mr. Beek again insisted that the substitute was designed to defeat the proposed investigation.

The discussion was continued by Messrs. Bayard, Hale and Beck until 3 o'clock, when the unfinished business, the bankruptcy bill, was taken up.

Mr. Jones, of Florida, offered an amendment, which was agreed to, giving the party sought to be thrown into involuntary bankruptcy the right to demand a jury trial as to the grounds of bankruptey.

Mr. Morgan offered an amendment making it an act of bankruptcy to deal in "futures" in certain articles of prime necessity, such as corn, sugar, cotton, rice, etc. Agreed to.

Mr. Hoar addressed the Senat at length in advocacy of the "Lowell bill," introduced by him, and had not finished his argument when the Senate adjourned. HOUSE.

Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, from committee on appropriations, reported the consular and dirlomatic appropriation bill. Referred to committee of the whole. (It appropriates $1,258,255, being $76,600 less than the appropriations for the current year, and $132,500 less than the estimates.

Mr. Burr we gave notice that he would ask action on the bill to-morrow. The committee on naval affairs reported back the resolution introduced by Mr. Hewitt of New York, on Monday last, calling on the Secretary of the Navy for copies of all the orders issued between the 1st of August and the 4th of December by virtue of which work has been done or discontinued, or workmen have been empleyed or discharged in any of the navy yards, besides other information relative to casualties to United States ships during 1882 Adopted.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the private calenter. The first bill was one to extend a patent on wagons, and its enacting clause was stricken

The next bill was that for the relief of the officers and crew of the United States Monitor, who participated in the action with the rebel iron clad, Merrimac, on the 9th of March, 1862. After a long debate or the enacting clause of this bill it was also stricken out. The committee rose but no action on the report was taken by the House. Mr. Biegham, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee on postoffices and pestroads, reported a bill reducing letter postage to two cents, and it was referred to committee of the whole. The House then adjourned until to-

For Speaker.

[Cor. of THE NEWS AND OBSESVER.] MECKLENBURG Co., N. C., Dec. 6. Soon the Legislature will convene; the Democrate are in the majority, hence have at their disposal a very high and honorable office, that of the assatership of the House. We have just emerged from the heat and dust of a great battle, one that involved the honor and prosperity of our loved State, and in which, upon one side, were arrayed the elements of negro ignorance, internal revenue corruption and a stream of gold flowing unceasingly from Washington City; on the other, intelli gence, integrity, wealth; in fact, the true manhood and honor of North Carolina. The latter proved triumphant and the State is saved. In accordance with the rule observed by all conquerors, both ancient and modern, it is now incumbent upon the representatives of the people to look around them and see who engaged in the late contest is most entitled to recognition. Several names have appeared in your paper, Geo. M. Rose, of Cumberland, and Thos. M. Holt, of Alamance, being the most prominent. We fully concur in the epinion that the first named gentleman would henor the position, being an excellent parlimentarian, as shown by the ability, elearness, decision and firmness with which he many times guided the deliberations of the House during last session. Nor do we wish to detract one iota from the well known character of Col. Holt. We think, however, neither of these gentlemen should be elected; first, because they are both from the East, and she has already enjoyed the honor in the person of her worthy son, C. M. Cooke; and secondly, because, when but recently eastern Carolinians sounded the shibboleth of county government, western men rallied to their aid and helped to save that threatened section from a condition of dire want and suffering, it is clear, then, that the West is entitled to the office. Now, who is the man? We wish to suggest the name of one who has worked faithfully for the Democratic party; who has torn down the black flag of Republicaniam and erected the white standard of Democracy by a large majority. A man who by his genial manners and solid worth wiss all who approach him; who being familiar with all parliamentary rules, will conduct to successful and happy termination all business that will come before the House, and his name is W. H. Bailey, of Mecklerburg DEMOCRATIC VOTER. county.

Shall North Carolina Advertise?

[Cer. of THE NEWS AND GREENYER.] THE NEWS AND OBSERVER of November 30th, heads an excellent editorial with the above query. We agree with every word of it, but it occurs to us that there might be a more impressive and successful method of advertising the resources and capabilities of our State than any yet sug-

"What constitutes a State?" The men and women, of course. Send abroad some of our best bred and best educated young people as a sample of what North Carolina is and can do. Let it be seen what impression they make, and what stand they take among their young cotemperaries of other States. We believe such comparisons would not fail to reflect honor and credit upon us all, showing not only that we have good raw material here, but that we know how to work it up. We need not be atraid at least for our North Carolina girls. They are safe to make us proud of them.

We have been very much delighted to hear of the high position accorded to one of them in that very city of Boston, which is so anxious to have North Carolina repsented at the Mechanies' fair. Miss Linda Rumple, of Salisbury, who received her musical education under Professor Bauman at Peace Institute, went to Boston this fall to continue her studies at the Boston Conservatory of Music. We learn that she at once entered the afth, or highest grade, with many compliments on her extraordinary proficiency as a pianist. At a public concert lately held in the same conservatory, she was the prima donna of the occasion, and her performances were repeatedly and enthusiastically encored. All this need not surprise any one who has ever heard Miss Rumple play, but it is not a little gratifying to find her superiority so promptly and cordially recognized abroad. Such a debut in critical Boston is a number one advertisement of the kind of girls we raise in North Carolina, and also of the kind of training afforded them here. We honestly believe that our schools for girls are not surpassed in any State in the South, St. Paul, but in the final dealing the list | (and we believe, too, that no school surpasses Peace Institute in the advantages it offers) Now as the greater includes the less, of course if we make our girls polished corner-stones, it must be inferred that we do not neglect our boys. Educational advantages for them also must be number one. And if North Carolina is found so wide awake in a matter of such supreme importance as education, it must be granted that she is also to be trusted in smaller concerns, and therefore she is in all respects a number one State, and presents number one inducements and attractions to number one immigrants. Gen. J. M Leach Assaulted.

[Greensboro Patriot.] From passengers on the Charlotte train

this morning we learn that Gen. Leach was assaulted on the streets in Lexington yesterday by Mr. Heitman, a lawyer living in that town. Leach and Heltman met on the street, when angry words passed between them about the compremise of the case of Garrett vs. the Richmond and Danville Ruilroad, mentioned a few days ago in the Patriot. It seems that Gen. Leach was not an attorney of record for Garrett, and the clerk of the court refused to accept the costs in the case when tendered by him. Heitman, who was Garrett's regular attorney, hearing of the transaction, was looking for Leach, when they met on the streets. In the course of a quarrel that ensued insulting words passed, when Heitman drew a pistol and was only prevented from using it by the interference of bystanders. Parties from Lex ington in town to-day think the affair has not ended and that bloody results may be looked for.
