

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED

BITTERS
STOMACH

The reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a preventative of epidemics, a stomachic, an invigorant, a general restorative, and a specific for fever and ague, indigestion, bilious affections, rheumatism, nervous debility, constitutional weakness, is established upon the sound basis of more than twenty years' experience, and can no more be shaken by the cheap nostrums of unscientific pretenders than the everlasting hills by the winds that rustle through their defile.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

FLOUR!!

And Some Other Things.

EDWARD J. HARDIN
GROCER.

Housekeepers should take note of the fact that some leading articles in family supplies are very low.

FLOUR

Has declined of late, and the very finest brands can now be bought at prices lower than ever before. I offer a full line of the best brands of the Fairmount Mills, from "superactive" down, at inside prices.

The market fluctuates so that it is impossible to advertise prices, but customers can depend always upon getting the best possible figures.

NORTH CAROLINA FLOUR

AT VERY LOW PRICES.

SUCARS

Also continue very cheap, and there can be no better time to buy them. I shall be pleased to quote prices when wanted in quantity, for preserving and other purposes.

It is only necessary to say that I keep only the best and purest Sugars, Spices, Mustard, Celery and everything necessary for pickling.

IMPORTED GINGER ALE!

This delightful summer drink, of finest quality and fresh importation, Apollinaris Water, Soda Water, Beer, Foreign and Domestic Claret, Brown Stout, Fine Wines and Liqueurs generally, Choice Teas and Coffees, Meats, Fish and Provisions generally, of best quality and promptly delivered.

Sole Agent for C. D. Buss & Son's Lanch Milk Biscuits, the best of all plain crackers, 10c per pound, close prices to the trade.

THE NEWS AND OBSERVER
WEDNESDAY.....SEPTEMBER 10, 1884.

The Way of the World.

A youth would marry a maiden,
For fair and fond was she;
But she was rich and he was poor,
And so it might not be.
A lady never could wear—
Her mother held it firm—
A gown that came of an Indian plant
The -verlasting hills by the winds that rustle through their defile.
And so the cruel word was spoken;
And so it was two hearts were broken.

A youth would marry a maiden,
For fair and fond was she;
But he was high and she was low,
And so it might not be.
A man who had worn a spur,
An ancient battle won,
Had sent it down with great renown,
To good and future son,
And so the cruel word was spoken;
And so it was two hearts were broken.

STATE NEWS.

The Goldsboro Messenger says: The heart of this entire community is full of inexpressible sympathy for our bereaved townsman, Mr. W. H. Borden, is the loss of his estimable wife, who died at her home here, on Thursday last, in the 33rd year of her age, after a short illness.

The Morganton Mountain says: We are reliably informed that Col. G. N. Folk, who was two years ago the Liberal candidate for Supreme court judge, after seeing how York behaved at Lenoir, wrote Gen. Soles a letter condemning the course pursued by York, and saying that he would not support York at the polls. Col. Folk was one of those who assisted in restoring order, and after order was restored he insisted on York's proceeding with his speech.

The Asheville Citizen says: Jarvis, Robinson, Vance, Coke, Soles, Buford, W. H. Andrews and hosts of others will be at Charlotte at the grand railroad celebration and barbecue on the 12th, Friday. Among the guests at the Eagle hotel... Miss Mary Davis, of Mississippi, a niece of Mr. Jefferson Davis, and the Misses Cromwell, of Halifax county, this State, grand daughters of Oliver Cromwell.

The Wilmington Star says: Mr. E. S. Warrock, publisher of the Sunday Mail, purposes issuing a trade edition of that paper every day during the exposition at Raleigh. Eliza Conner, colored, died very suddenly on Friday night. She went to the well, and then returned to the house, sat down in a chair, summoned her two children—a boy and a girl—to her side, kissed them fondly and then told them to go and call some one to her. The children asked whom they should call, but before the mother could answer the question she was dead.

The Rutherfordton Mountain Banner says: Fruit drying has been on a boom in this county, and if the market is anything like as good as last year Rutherfordton will get many hundreds of dollars from this source. An immense quantity has been sun and kiln dried, in addition to the very large quantity dried by evaporators. Canvassing is now going on in the counties of Grayson, Carroll and Floyd, Va., for subscriptions to extend the Virginia Valley railroad to the North Carolina line in Ashe or Watauga, which will enable our people to extend it through Ashe, Caldwell, Burke, Rutherford and Polk to Greenville, S. C., and thus make the shortest line from Lynchburg to Atlanta.

The Wilmington Star says: Messrs. Ross & Lara and G. Z. French were awarded the contract for supplying stone for the further closing of what is known as "Corksack Inlet," at the mouth of the river, the former to furnish 9,000 tons and the latter 21,000. These gentlemen are already delivering upon their contract and the work of closing the inlet will go on. Parties well acquainted with the mouth talked of Polkney Sneed say they saw and talked with him Thursday night, in the vicinity of Fourth and Nixon streets. He said he supposed there was a crowd out looking for him, but he didn't seem to be at all afraid that he would fall into their clutches, but walked around picking his banjo with as much nonchalance as if he were in a land where outlawry and sheriff's posse had never been heard of.

Messrs. J. S. Westbrook & Co., of Faison, Duplin county, prominent farmers and fruit growers, have purchased what is known as the Grant property, about six miles below this city, which is traversed by the tarpike to Wrightville, with the view of growing peaches and other fruit.

Dr. J. L. Willis, Eliot, Me., says: "Herrdorsford's Acid Phosphate gives most excellent results."

The astronomer's business is looking up.

Advice to Mothers.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by acting on the child from the bowels, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button. It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for all the ailments, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

THE METHODIST ADVANCE,
[VOLUME V.]

An unofficial organ of Southern Methodism, edited by W. M. Robey, D. D., of the North Carolina Conference. In order better to meet the wants of the people and to enlarge its sphere of usefulness, the price of the Advance has been reduced to One Dollar and Fifty Cents a Year, or eight months for one dollar, payable always in advance—making it one of the cheapest papers in the South. The Advance is an independent journal, acknowledging allegiance only to Southern Methodism, but depending for favor entirely on its merits. It is in harmony with all the official journals of the church and is indebted to them for many courtesies. It antagonizes none of them, but seeks to cooperate with them in giving to the people an unexpensive literature. Sample copies furnished free on application. ADDRESS: METHODIST ADVANCE, Goldsboro, N.
