TOWN AND OBCRUEK

An Old baw A dear little maid came skipping out

In the glad new day, with a merry shout; With dancing feet and with flying hair She sang with joy in the morning air. Don't sing before breakfast, you'll cry before night!" What a croak to darken the child's delight!

And the stupid old nurse again and again, Repeated the ancient, dull refrain. The child paused, trying to understand; But her eyes saw the great world rainbow spanned;

Her light little feet hardly toucked the And her soul brimmed over with innocent

'Never mind-don't listen-O: sweet little Make sure of your morning song," I said 'And if sorrow must meet you, why, all the more Be glad of the rapture that came before.

'O, tears and sorrow are plenty enough, Storms may be bitter and paths be rough, But our tears should fall like the dear Earth's showers

That help to ripen the fruits and flowers. So gladden the day with your blissful song, Sing on while you may, dear, sweet and strong! Make sure of your moment of pure delight, No matter what trials may come before -CELIA THAXTEE, in Wide Awake.
