The mayor had two or three trivial cases to try yesterday. A man named Coover, one of the persons who one Baturday night three weeks ago assaulted officer Hogue, came in and surrendered himself. He was fined $20, which he paid and departed.

The Lenoir, Caldwell county, "Topic" gives the following ac ount of the recent scoident to Mrs. Ransom : "As Mrs. M. W. Ransom, ber daughter, Miss Esther Ransom, and her two cons, Messrs Robert and Thos. Ransom, were driving in their carriage up a hill near Valle Crucis fails, the horses shied and the pole of the carriage broke. The shock precipitated Mrs. and Miss Ransom from the vehicle and the former sustain d a serious sprain of one ankle. They are now s opping at Mr. Morris', at Biowing Rock, and we are glad to know that Mrs Ransom is much improved.!"

The reception held at St. Mary's school last evening for the entertainment of strangers visiting the city was most enjoyable. Music, elocation, calisthenics by the little folk, and pleasant converse all lent their charms to the occasion, and every one who was "received" came away de-lighted with St. Mary's manner of re-ceiving.

Wake Superior Court.

Court met yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock, his honor Judge Walter Clark presiding. The argument of Judge Strong, begun yesterday, was concluded and he was followed by Sterwood Haywood, Esq., in behalf of the State. Msjor Gatling opened the argument for the prisoner Gooch at 11 o'clock a. m. There was an hour and a half recess for dinner. Major Gatling closed his argument at 5 o'clock p. m., when W. N. Jones, Esq., began his argument in behalf of Gooch and spoke for an hou , when court took a rece a for supper.

Sherwood Hayword, Esq, followed Judge Strong for the State, in a clear and forcible prosecution of the Gooch-Smith care yesterday. It was his first effort at the bar, and it is the opinion of all who heard it, including his honor, that he did himself great credit.

The Theatre.

At Tucker hall last evening the "Streets of New York" was presented by the Huntley-Gilbert company, to one of the largest and most fashionable audiences that has ever graced that hail, and the interest was maintained from the rise of the curtain to ts final fall. Mr. Huntley as "Badger." the bank clerk, in the prologue, and as the return ed Californian in the succeeding acts, carried everything before him and was a reigning favorite throughout the evening. Miss Gibert had a most dissgreeable part to play; a part that was not in favor with the audience; but so e egantly did she appear in her magnificent tonets, and so wail did she p ay that it was only another test of her artistic ability. Raleigh seldom sees so good a company as Mr. Gilbert has brought this season, and it was most gratitying to see the house packed to its utmost capacity. "Peril" will be produced this even-ing. It is noped the audience will be as large as that last evening.
