NEWS OBSERVATIONS.

-The United States government issues 4,000 different books a year.

-Senator-elect Daniel is to make the address at the unveiling of the Ben Hill statue at Atlanta.

-A petition has been presented to Congress from citizens of Arkansas, asking for the election of U. S. Senators by a direct vote of the people.

-French doctors are placing patients afflicted with gout on an entire milk diet, with success. The venerable French statesman. M. Barthelemy St. Hilaire, has lived for years on milk.

-The class of cadets which will leave West Point at the next commencement is declared to be the largest in number and highest in efficiency ever graduated from the institution. There are seventyeight members of the class.

-We cannot hope for paved streets generally in Raleigh soon, but a raising of the crossing above the street level and a sinking and paving of the culverts at the corners would help much toward comfortable pedestrianism

-The House coinage committee is not disposed to be hasty in fixing on a silver policy. They invite discussion on the subject, and will keep their doors open till February 10th to give all an opportunity to be heard. This shows that the committee are inclined to deal with the silver question openly, carefully and on its merits.

-With the French and German syndicate and possibly successful American bids for contracts, in due time no doubt China will be gridironed by railways. The Celestials at the court of Pekin are greatly encouraged by Li Hung Tchang, the Viceroy of Tchili, who solemnly declares that railways, though useless, are harmless. A Mystery.

How the human system ever recovers from the bad effects of the nauseous u edicines often literally poured into it for the suppositive relief of dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, rheumatism and other ailments, is a mystery. The mischief done by bad medicines is scarcely less than that caused by disease. If they who are weak, bilious, dyspeptic, constipated or rheumatic, would oftener be guided by the experience of invalids who have thoroughly tested Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they would in every instance obtain the speediest aid derivable from rational medication.
