after it had bitten Mr. Hoover's son and also about twenty-five dogs. A wholesale slaughter of dogs is now the order of the day at Stanley Creek. The Waynesville News says the Murphy branch of the Western N. C. railroad still goes westward. The new convict quarters are one and a half miles beyond Jarrett's station, the present terminus of the road. Grading is unished some distance west of this point. Capt. Dewey is superintendent of the convicts, and now has 147 at work. The telegraph line has been completed to Jarrett's.

Mr. John G. Aston, of Asheville, has just completed a drawing of the location and surroundings of the Joyce tragedy. which occurred last April, and on which indictments are now pending in Buncombe superior court. The plat is intended to facilitate the investigation which is likely to be had at the approaching term of court, the Advance says. The entire Joyce family was murdered and the case is a very exciting

The work of "finishing up" the Asheville and Spartanburg railroad between Asheville and Hendersonville, with the view of placing, early, a regular schedule of traits on the road, is being proceeded with as rapidly as the weather will permit. From the present appearance of things the Asheville Advance thinks it reasonable to expect that regular pas-senger and freight traits will be runting by the first of April.

Monroe Skidmore, near Mt. Holly, Caston county, the Current says, made a peaceable departure, amid tears and great grief, from his wife, and last Tuesday left for Florida with a woman named Nancy Hogan. Skidmore had been living with his wife in prace and quietude and in good circumstances for over thir-teen years, but his love for another woman conquered him and he has gone to the "Land of Flowers" to dwell in bliss and happiness with his new love.

A day or two since Capt. C. M. Good-son, in charge of a squad of hands on the work of railroad extension beyond Jarrett's, in the Red Marble Gap, met with a painful accident. A blast was resdy to be fired, and all hands secured themselves as best they could behind trees or rocks. Capt. G. was behind a tree when the explosion took place. The Asheville Citisen says the air was filled with flying and falling fragments, one of which fell on his head, inflicting a severe and painful, though it is believed not a No Justice of the Peace can afford to fatal wound. Jimmie Stinson, a little orphan boy, died at Davidson College Saturday of injuries received by being ground under the wheels of a box-car. The Charlotte Observer says the car was moving rather Fist and was about to pass the point at which it was desired that it should sto,, when young Stinson attempted to mou t the car to reach the brake wheel on t p of it, but in doing so his foot slippes and he fell to the track in front of the moving car. Wednesday Col. J. A Pemberton, deputy revenue collector for the Fayetteville district, received at 4 o'clock a message by telegram saying that certain parties in a wagon were retailing brandy at Manchester without license. Thinking that the accused parties were certain others whom he has been watching, he took extraordinary steps to arrest them as they were making off to another point, and securing a special locomotive engine he made a flying trip to Spout Springs and taking a buggy there, he rair up on the parties at 11 o'clock in the night. The Evening News says he secured six barrels of brandy and brought two men back with him the next day
