A Governor Addresses the Strikers. One more word to the people who are Sr. Louis, Mo., April 2 .- Gov Oglesby, of Illinois, spoke to a crowd hunting credit and buying from credit some 2,000 strikers and others in East St. Louis last evening and was lishouses The tax on credit is taken from tened to very attentively. The speech was a general elaboration of his remarks the producers of this country and is just to the representatives of the merchants' exchange in the morning and the emabout onc-half of what they grow. It phasizing of his purpose to preserve the peace and to put the wheels of comtakes from them every other hill of corn merce in motion by the running of trains or tobacco or cotton to keep up the bills owed by men who never pay. Now ho do you like that system ? The facts are that any system that detracts from the prosperity of the country is a curse to it, and believing as we do the system of mortgaging a crop for the means to raise it is deleterious to the interest of the masses, we say it is better to till a small crop with a hoe than to plow up great fields with mortgages. We say the credit system is full of disasters and defeats and you know it to your sorrow. Maud S., the pride of the American trotting turf, is daily being jogged by John Murphy, the trotting trainer. After achieving the great feat of trotting in 2.082 last year she was bronght to her owner's city stable and almost any afternoon last autumn Mr Bonner could have been seen taking a spin behind her through the Park and along Seventh avenue, as far as McComb's dam bridge. The last time he drove her was December 23. From then until February 22 whole. she had only walking exercise. On that day, however, Mr. Bonner concluded to have Murphy drive her, and he has been giving her good road work every fine lay. As soon as Mr. Bonner's private track at his farm in Westchester is fit to drive upon she will be sent there, though Murphy will still train her.
