Grange Presbytery. Cor. of the NEWS AND OBSERVER. WILSON, N. C , April 15.

Orange Presbytery met this morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. W. R McLelland, of the Presbytery of Eastern Texas, and Rev. J. R. Brooks, of the Methodist Episcopal church, and Rev. J. M. Mc-Mannaway, of the Baptist church, were invited to sit as visiting brethren and were introduced by the moderator to the presbytery. A good many more delegates arrived and were eurolled.

The moderator announced the committees. These will make their reports during the present session.

A letter from the Women's Christian Temperance Union was received and referred to a committee consisting of Rev J. Henry Smith, Rev. A. L. Crawford, and R. F. Robertson, Esq., to recommend a suitable response.

Communications were received from Rev. C. N. Morrow, a former member of the presbytery; one also from the presbytery of Mecklenburg, and from the faculty of the Union Theological Seminary, on all of which suitable action was taken.

It was ordered that a called meeting of the presbytery be held at Greensboro Tuesday, May 11th, next. At 11 o'clock a recess was taken, to hear a sermon from Rev. S. M. Smith, who preached most acceptably from the 12th verse of the 51st Psalm. A communication from the assembly's committee on the Sabbath was referred to the presbyterial committee, of which Rev. Dr. J. S. Watkins is chairman. A call by Haywood church, for the services of Rev. Mr. McPherson as stated supply, was received and appropriately referred. The report of the treasurer of the presbytery, Mr. Jesse H. Lindsay, was received and found correct. On motion, the presbytery adjourned until 2.30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The sessional narratives on the state of religion were taken up as the special order and the reading of them occupied the whole afternoon session. The reports today give most gratifying statements as to the spiritual growth, contributions and additions to the churches.

The Rev. Dr. B. F. Marable, of Wilmington presbytery, being present, was invited to sit as a visiting member. The last presbytery appointed a committee, of which Rev. L. C. Vass is chairman, to report on the new directory of worship, sent down by the general assembly for the suggestions and recommendations of the presbyteries. Rev. Mr. Vass made a most able report, recommending that the new directory be not adopted, but that the whole matter shall be put in the hands of a new committee by the assembly. The report was unanimously adopted. After devotional exercises the pres yeary adjourned untill 7.45 to hear the regular presbyterial sermon by Rev. Dr. John S. Watkins, who was appointed by the last presbytery to deliver it. NIGHT SESSION.

A very large congregation meet with the presbytery to hear Dr. Watkins. His subject was 'Parental Responsibility,' and his text was 1st Samuel, 3d chapter and 13th verse. It was a discourse of great power and eloquence and riveted the attention of the large audience throughout its delivery. After the sermon the presbytery gave a vote of thanks for it, after which the presbytery adjourned until tomorrow morning
