Whiskey a Medicine.

(From the Detroit Free Press.)

It is now a fact, established and unquestioned, that pure, unadulterated whiskey is a MEDICINE. PROF. WM. B. CARPENTER, M. D., F. R. S., F. S. G., Examiner in Physiology, University of London, Prof. Med. Jurisprudence, University College, says: "To put alcohol aside would be equivalent to denying our right to employ any substance whatever as a medicine—a doctrine that would deprive us of all the medicine in the pharmacopœia." PROF. H. C. WOOD, Prof. of Therapeutics, University of Penna., says: "In phthisis (consumption) and its congener, scrofulosis, there can be no doubt as to the great value of alcohol." PROF. AUSTIN FLINT, Prof of Principles and Practice of Medicine, Bellevue Hospital College, N. Y., says: "The judicious use of alcoholic stimulants is one of the striking characteristics of progress in the practice of medicine during the last half century." PROF. JOS. PARRISH, author of "Alcoholic Inebriety from a Medical Standpoint," Burlington, N. J., says: "We know that alcohol will steady the heart, slow the pulse, warm the skin, calm excitement, and we ought to use it." PROF. M. G. GREENFIELD, M. D., author of "Alcohol: Its Use and Abuse," "Appleton's Health Primers," says: "It is idle to ignore the results of experience with alcohol in disease. An intelligent comprehension of its action will have greater influence in promoting temperance than adhesion to a dogma. PROF. JOHN GARDNER, an eminent London physician, says: "The advocates of total abstinence, signally fail to produce evidence in support of their opinion that all stimulants are inimical to health and longevity. Science, common sense, Holy Scriptures and all experience testify to the benefits to be derived." PROF. WILLIARD H. MORSE, Westfield, N. J., in his "Notes on Amylism as a Factor in Diseases of the Cerebral Convolutions," says: "Putting preference upon malt, I submit that whiskey from malt is the whiskey to be preferred." PROF. ALBERT E. MENKE, D. Sc., F. C. S., F. I. C., Prof. of Organic Chemistry, Kentucky State College, late Chemist Dept. of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., says of Duffy's pure malt whiskey: "It is peculiarly fitted for medicinal or any other purposes where a carefully prepared and unadulterated whiskey is required." "THE WESTERN MEDICAL REPORTER," a monthly epitome of Medical Progress, Dr. J. E. Harper, A. M., M. D., publisher, Chicago, Ill., says: "Duffy's pure malt whiskey is meeting with special favor by many physicians. When an alcoholic stimulant is needed for the sick or convalescent, this famous malt whiskey should be given."

When combined with the healing mucilaginous principle in the mullein plant of the old fields, presents in TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN the finest known remedy for Coughs, Croup, Whooping-cough and Consumption, and so palatable, any child is pleased to take it. RELIEF

FORTY YEARS A SUFFERER FROM CATARRH

WONDERFUL TO RELATE!

"FOR FORTY YEARS I have been a victim to CATARRH—three-fourths of the time a sufferer from EXCRUCIATING PAINS ACROSS MY FOREHEAD and MY NOSTRILS. The discharges were so offensive that I hate to mention it, except for the good it may do some other sufferer. I have spent a young fortune from my earnings during my forty years of suffering to obtain relief from the doctors. I have tried patent medicines—every one I could learn of—from the four corners of the earth, with no relief. And AT LAST (at 57 years of age) have met with a remedy that has cured me entirely—made me a new man. I weighed 128 pounds and now weigh 146. I used thirteen bottles of the medicine, and the only regret I have is that being in the humble walks of life I may not have influence to prevail on all catarrh sufferers to use what has cured me, GUINN'S PIONEER BLOOD RENEWER. HENRY CHEVES.

"Mr. Henry Cheves, the writer of the above, formerly of Crawford county, now of Macon, Georgia, merits the confidence of all interested in catarrh.

Ananias—So to Speak.

Yes, his name is Ananias,
And he isn't over pious,
And his eyes are on the bias,
So to speak;
And his only aim and bent is
Nobby clothing—for this gent is
Just a bit non compos mentis
Like a d weak.

And this feather-weighted gent he—
Though not over one-and-twenty—
Has of knowledge quite a plenty,
So to speak;
For he'd rather be a-prancing,
And kicking at a dancing,
Than his stock of wit enhancing,
Learning Greek.

Though he apes the drawl and stammer
When he dons his sleek claw-hammer,
Yet he always shoots his grammar,
So to speak;
And he questions very rarely
(So his clothes are hanging fairly),
If his brain be fashioned squarely,
Or oblique.

No, he has no education,
And his beauty took vacation
'Bout the time of his creation,
So to speak;
And upon mature reflection,
Taking each distinct bisection,
I've decided his complexion's
Rather weak.

Though his shirt has not a rimple,
Nor his beardless chin a dimple,
Yet he boasts a chronic pimple
On his beak;
And his voice is not reliant,
For at times it is defiant,
And at times it is a pliant
Little squeak.

Now it seems to me so funny
That this half-demented sonny
Should be loaded down with money,
So to speak;
While the writer of this ditty,
Who you see is rather witty,
Has to scrub about the city
On his cheek.

Person Notes.

Cor. of THE NEWS AND OBSERVER.
ROXBORO, April 29, 1886.

The superior court of this county is in session this week. Judge Clark, as usual, promptly at 10 o'clock Monday had the court convened, and before 11 o'clock the grand jury had heard the terse and solid charge of the judge and retired to their room to enter upon the discharge of their duties. The State docket was called and in the absence of Mr. Strudwick, Mr. J. A. Long took charge of the docket in behalf of the State. The State docket was not a large one—about thirty-five cases. The prisoners, in jail up to Sunday night, having made their escape from the jail by securing one of the bars across the window of the room in which they were placed, and, using this bar for a pry, made a hole sufficiently large to permit their egress and let themselves to the ground by tying blankets together made good their escape, and by so doing reduced considerably the labors of the acting solicitor and the time of the court. By Monday evening at 6 o'clock the last jury case on the State docket was disposed of. There was only one person sent to the State penitentiary and he for an assault upon a woman to commit rape.

Tuesday was mostly occupied by the court in hearing motions on the State and civil dockets. Owing to a rule heretofore in force in this county, no civil cause could be called before Wednesday. The rule, by consent of the bar, was changed so that hereafter civil causes can be called Tuesday of the term.

The judge, upon application, protracted the midday recess one hour that a railroad mass meeting might be held. This was an adjourned meeting from the 12th of April; Jas. Holeman, Esq., in the chair, and J. S. Merritt, secretary. Delegates from Durham, South Boston, Halifax Court House and Halifax county, and a large delegation from Person county were present and manifested much interest in the proposed road from Lynchburg to Durham. Stirring speeches were made by Col. Bolding and Major Edmundson, of Halifax county; Capt. O. R. Smith and Alex. Walker, Esq., of Durham; Col. Winstead, Dr. Merritt and others of Person. The best of feeling and quite extensive enthusiasm was exhibited. I learn today that the organization of the Roxboro railroad company was perfected by the election of J. A. Long, A. J. Hester, Dr. Merritt, Jas. Holeman and D. W. K. Richmond, directors; Col. C. S. Winston, president; J. S. Merritt, secretary, and J. F. Terry, attorney of the road. The impression seems to be that in the near future this railroad will be under way. Then greater thrift and prosperity will be the good fortune of Person than has been for the past fifteen years, which has not been exceeded by any county in North Carolina that has not had the advantages of railroad communication with the outside world.

This morning was set to hear the case now pending in the court, removed from Durham, between the Blackwell Durham Bull Manufacturing Company vs McEllwee. A jury has been empanneled and witnesses are being examined. It is thought that this case will consume the remainder of the term, and involves the right of use to the device of the bull on the labels.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once, it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Many of the streams are very full.

THE BEST AND CHEAPDST

Corn Manure

—IS—

N C Lime Phosphate

Read the following formulas:

A compost of Lime Phosphate, 1,000 pounds; Kainit, 200 pounds, and 800 pounds of cow or horse stable manure, makes as good a general manure as can be found.

On land rich in vegetable matter, like bottom or new land, use 500 pounds of Phosphate mixed with 200 pounds of Kainit.

On thin, poor land, use 20 bushels cotton seed or equivalent in stable manure, 600 pounds of Phosphate and 200 pounds Kainit composted together on one acre.

FOR CLOVER AND GRASSES—Lime Phosphate is the best clover food known. It gives good stands, corrects the sourness of red lands of the middle and western counties. It will make clover grow on red hillside galls, which we consider the greatest triumph. Use 600 to 2,000 pounds per acre on clover and grasses. On very sandy land use Kainit with it. Use it for top-dressing.

The Best of Everything.

The best of everything is what sensible people want; especially in provisions; and especially when economy is necessary, for there is no economy in poor goods. The best Flour and Meal, to make the best bread; the best Teas and Coffees, the best Meats, Spices, Soaps, Starches; the best and most reliable Canned Goods, the best of everything. Take, for example, the essential article, Butter; I sell the choice Butter from the dairy farms of Dr. Richard Lewis, Mr. W. G. Upchurch, Mr. A. H. Green; and Mrs. D. W. Kerr and Mr. L. B. Holt, of Alamance, besides occasional supplies from other dairies of established reputation; also, at all times, the finest Northern Creamery Butter that can be bought, and good Northern Dairy Butter at a lower price.
