FORTY YEARS A SUFFERER FROM

CATARRH WONDERFUL TO RELATE! 'FOR FORTY YEARS I have been a victim to CATARRH-three-fourths of the time a sufferer from EXCRUCIATING PAINS ACROSS MY FOREHEAD and MY NOS-TRILS. The discharges were so offensive that I hate to mention it, except for the good it may do some other sufferer. I have spent a young fortune from my earnings during my forty years of suffering to obtain relief from the doctors. I have tried patent medicines—every one I could learn of—from the four corners of the earth, with no relief. And AT LAST (at 57 wears of age) have met with a remedy that has years of age) have met with a remedy that has cured me entirely—made me a new man. I weighed 128 pounds and now weigh 146. I used thirteen bottles of the medicine, and the only regret I have is that being in the humble walks of life I may not have influence to prevail on all catarrh sufferers to use what has cured me, GUINN'S PIONEER BLOOD RE-HENRY CHEVES.

The Kinston correspondent of the New Berne Journal writes: Capt. Robt. E. Fisk, of Montana, and Lieut. A. P. Haring, of New York, accompanied by A. J. Yeomans, of New Berne, were in town Saturday. They came to visit the battle grounds about Wise's Fork and other points Capt. Fisk was in command during the fighting. Some daring Southerner climbed a hornbeam, and taking deliberate aim, shot the captain. The ball entered his mouth and knocked out a number of his teeth. One of the captain's men saw the smoke of the rifle, took aim, and shot the Southerner dead. He dropped his rifle, lodging on a lower limb of the tree. These gentlemen found the very spot and the tree, and cut several sticks from its branches, to take home with them that they may not forget this little incident of life.

Spirit of the State Press.

It is not the law of our country that a man may write or say what he wills and most of all is it true that the government should be so careful of self-protection that no class of men ought to be allowed to wantonly demolish the very plinth on which it is reared. Let the strong arm of the law be unlifted and fall with a weight on effenders that will be as protectively deadly as the dynamite bombs they throw. The great freedom our institutions provide for, the maximum of liberty they secure, must not be transmuted into a license whereby our social order is to be perturbed and subverted and the government itself overthrown. The sooner this lesson is taught the better both for this class of offscourings from foreign countries and the peace, safety and prosperity of all the people of the government. - Monroe Enquirer and Express.

The crying need of the times is men who will faithfully perform the duties of their position without considering whether or not they will be re-elected. And this applies to public officials generally, whether they be Governors or not. How many of our State legislators, members of Congress and others, really work for the public good as they do for public favor? We suspect there be few But it is time we were putting men into high places who regard "public office as a public trust"-men who would eccasionally lose sight of self in the effort to well and faithfully discharge their duty for the public weal .- Henderson Gold Leaf.

The President Catching It All Around. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The President is peculiarly happy in his reception of newly-married people. But a young St. Louis bridegroom knocked the great man out completely the other day. Mr. Thomas A. Bell, of St. Louis, a clerk in collector Sexton's office, was in Washington with his bride, and his brother, Nicholas M. Bell, took the couple to the White House. Mr. Cleveland was in the best of humor, and he chatted most amiably, asking them what they had seen and how they had enjoyed themselves. "We've had a splendid time," said the young Missourian, with hearty emphasis, "and we only hope you will have one just as good." The President gasped, blushed violently, and tried in vain to rally. He was done for.
