THE NEWS AND OBSERVED.

THURSDAY JULY 29, 1886.

Full summer, and at noon : from a waste bed Convolvulus, musk-mailow, poppies, spread The triumph of the sunshine overhead.

Blue on the shimmering ash-trees lies the heat: It tingles on the hedgerows. The young wheat Sleeps, warm in golden verdure, at my feet.

The pale, sweet grasses of the hayfield blink; The heath-moors, as the bees of honey drink, Suck the deep bosom of the day. To think of all that beauty, by the light defined, None shares my vision! Sharply on my mind Presses the sorrow—fern and flower are blind. -Michael Field in the Spectator.

Cabarrus county has instructed for B. F. Long, of Iredeal, for solicitor. Iredell and Randolph primaries have de-clared for him. Iredell primaries have endorsed Monigomery for judge.

The night of the 10th of August, the anniversary of the burning of the hotel at Haywood White Sulphur Springs will be celebrated by a grand dress ball. A band of (herokee Indians will be present that day and will play one of their celebrated ball games.

It is probable that there will be two capital cases for trial at Wayne court, instead of one. In addition to the negro murder case, there is a case in which a bill will doubtless be drawn for bur-

A species of moth, living in a cocoon, has made its appearance at Charlotte, and appears to be a parasite of the arbor-vitæ They are in different portions of the city, and the Chronicle says thousands of them may be seen hanging upon shrubbery of that kind, and totally destroying every sprig about this beautiful evergreen.

The altitude of the Pittsboro road at Moncure is 180 feet above the level of the ocean, and at Pittsbero it is 425 feet : a difference between the two points of 245 feet. The road climbs 230 feet in 41 miles, the distance between Moncure and a point just beyond Seymour's, where a young mountain stood to bar its way.

A petition is being circulated at Wilmington and is being numerously signed by those who signed the former petition for an election to decide on the question of a subscription by the city to the Onslow railroad, the effect of which will be to still further muddle an already sufficiently muddled matter. The Review says the object of this petition is to revoke the former one and send the matter before the county commissioners instead of before the board of aldermen.

-Lately "Dr. Vivian, of New York," appeared in Birmingham, England, and seemed to have plenty of money and a fair stock of brains. He wood and won Miss Emily Margaret Wilkes, a highly respected young lady, and they were married. The wedding was a brilliant affair; the floral decorations were elaborate, and the breakfast cost $500. The horeymoon was spent in London in rooms that cost $30 per day. One day a detective called on an aunt of Dr. Vivian and showed her a photograph, at the same time asking if it did not resemble the doctor. The aunt said it did and the detective remarked that the photograph was a picture of Jim Barnet, a notorious convict, who was wanted on both sides of the Atlantic. When the doctor was told of the story he swore roundly and started for police headquarters to dress somebody down. headquarters to dress somebody down. He got into the wrong road, however, and was making for a depot, when a detective gathered him in. The police recognize in the doctor the following distinguished individuals: Dr. Vivian, Dr. Grey, Dr. Buchanan, Dr. Barnet, Dr. Percy, Dr. Guelph and also Jim Barnet. The last named citizen was released from prison last February. The young wife is in a terrible state of mind. She will be slow to marry a stranger next time.
