VIENNA, August 24 -The Political Correspondence (newspaper) of this city prints a dispatch from Giurgevo, in Roumania, on the Danube, opposite Rutschuk, saying that the Bulgarians in Kistern Roumelia have issued a pronunciamento in favor of Prince Alexander. The dispatch further says that the Roumelian troops have proclaimed Col. Mutkieroff head of the previsional government which they have organized to oppose the government of Kara-veloff, and adds that the inhabitants of Shumla and Tirnova have publicly deslared for Prince Alexander and the movement for his restoration is spread-CONSTANTINOPLE, August 24 -A second provisional government had been set up in Bulgaria, with headquarters at Tirnova, the former capital of the country. This government is in opposition to that of Karaveleff and in favor of Prince Alexander. Stambuloff has been made president of the Tirnova government. He is one of the gentlemen whose names were printed in a ciroular issued yesterday by Karaveloff's government to convince the people that all the prominent men of the country supported the revolution.

BUCHAREST, August 24 .- A yacht supposed to have Prince Alexander on board, a prisoner, passed Giurgevo without stopping. It was expected to touch there. ihe yacht was signaled this morning near Silistria. It is supposed that the revolutionists are to land Prince Alexander on Russian soil.

The Roumelian government has taken all necessary steps to protect Alexander if he be landed in Roumania. The yacht was last reported at Reni, in Bessarabis, at the junction of the Preth and Danube rivers. This is Russian t rri-

A Flood in Burmah.

MANDALAY, August 24. - One of the in early in May, bankments of the Irrawaddy river burst in this city yesterday. The break was 300 yards in length and so rapid was the flow of the w ter that in a few moments the whole district was flooded for four to two feet deep. The engineers at once cut the dam south of the city to allow the waters to subside, but the result of this man œuvre is as yet unknown. Fifty thousand persons are today homeless in the city, their houses and pos-sessions having been either submerged or destroyed. The number of pers na were drowned by the sudden rush of the waters. How many it has not as yet been ascertained. The flooded district had within its territory many of the food supply stores and all of these were swept away. The result will be an approach to famine among the homeless population. The river will not fall sufficiently to permit any attempts at the reconstruction of the broken embankment until November. The British military operations are seriously interfored with by the overflow.

Brewers vs. Knights.

A-BITTER STRUGGLE BEGUN AT MILWAUKER CHICAGO, August 24 .- A special dispatch from Milwaukee says a new phase in the brewers' boycott was developed yesterday when the best Brewing company served notice on Gambrinus assembly, Knights of Labor, that unless the boycott declared against the brewery was ordered off before Friday next the company would discharge every Knight of Labor its employ. The boycett commenced some weeks ago. Previously the assembly had made a demand on the brewers to discharge certain workingmen, to the number of twenty altogether, who were either members of the central labor union (a socialist organization), or non-union men. This demand was refused. Then was formed a boycott against Best's, Falk's, Gettiman's and Miller's breweries, Little attention was paid to the boycott at first, which led to further efforts on the part of the Knights to make it a success. Usrds were procured and posted in conspicuous places and all sorts of persussion used to prevent the saloonists from purchasing beer from the boycotted breweries. Now the breweries are beginning to strike back. It is customary in broweries to issue to each workman so many checks daily, each of which is good for a glass of beer at the brewery saloon. This is done to prevent constant drinking, which would be indulged in if some such check was not imposed. Friday the Best Co. abolished the check system and gave money instead, whereby men could purchase such beer as they wanted. The same company began the system of discrimination by giving no tickets to the members of Gambrinus assembly, which is backing the boycott. This was not very well received but the company persisted and followed it up by yesterday's notice. As the brewery employs about 500 or 600 men and its lead will be followed by other boycotted concerns, it is likely that 1,000 or more men will be looking for employment Friday night unless the Knights back down. The breweries are in good shape to carry out their threats, as the Central labor union has denounced the boycott as unjust. In case the Knights are discharged union men will be put in their places. It looks very much now as though the brewers are on the eve of a more bitter struggle than they engaged

The Apaches Again Escape.

CHICAGO, August 24.-A dispatch from Tombstone, Arizona, says: The president of Sonora arrived last evening and brings further particulars of the Iudian situation. He was at Cuchuta ranch when Geronimo and twenty-three bucks came in. Six bucks came forward with a white a flag to five Mexicans at the ranch and stated, as already reported, their desire to make peace with the Mexicans for their raid into Arizona and New Mexico. A couple of days afterward Capt. McDonald and two companies of United State stroops arrived from Rucker, by forced marches, with a view of surprising the Indians. They, however, had become aware of the movement and skipped away several hours before the arrival of the troops, in two bands, one of ten coming north aud the other of thirteen going east. This shows how extremely difficult it is to surprise the Apaches, who are as alert as weasels. Part of Capt. Lawton's command come in while the informant was at the ranche. Some men were wounded. Lawton, who is uninjured, was expected daily. Gen. Forsyth, who went down to Huchachuca, is on his way back.

Mrs. Cleveland on the Temperance

Mrs. A. M. Crow, of Littleton, W Va., recently wrote to Mrs. Cleveland, asking her advice as to joining the Good Templars and signing the temperance pledge. She received the following response: "EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON.

But if by placing ourselves under the obligations of such an organization we can better help our fathers, brothers, lovers and friends, I think there should be no hesitation in the matter. I know something of the Good Templars, and that they do much good work. It is quite certain you can do no harm by casting your lot on the side of temperance, and you may do much good. I do not consider it a small matter, by any means, and I am glad you asked me the question. Vessels Destroyed by the Late Storm

GALVESTON, Tex, August 24.—The recent storm proved very destructive to small vessels off the Texas coast, and it will doubtless be months before a full list of the casualties is known. The sloop Katie J. W. went to pieces on Pelican island; the crew was saved. Lying near her, bottom up, is the eloop Eliza; her crew of two men is supposed to be drowned. An unknown vessel is reported bottom up at Red Fish bar. The schooner Livonia Perkins is now lying bottom up in a bay near Pelican island; two of her crew were lost. The schooner Lottie Mayo is reported ashore near Indianola; all hands are now supposed to have been lost. The schooner Lake Austin is near her, but the crew of the latter was saved. All small craft in the bay from the shoal to Edward's point are reported to have been lost. The chooner S. W. Perry has gone to pieces in the gulf and her cargo of lumber, valued at $3,000; is strewn along the beath for seven miles. Her captain and cook were drowned; the remainder of the crew were saved. It is roughly estimated that the damage to shipping in this vicinity during the storm will approximate $100,000. village of Quintarts, at the mouth of the Brazos river, was entirely swept sway and the schooners Rosa Lee and Nettie were driven ashore. No lives were lost so far as is known. A special to the News from Victoria says: Indianola is a complete wreck, not more than three or four houses having escaped destruction by a heavy storm which swept over the town last Friday morning. Dr. Fisher, quarantine effi-cer, with his wie, Mr. Mahone, Capt. Adolf. Sternbrook and a negro woman named Martha Ellis had a narrow escape from drowning. The quarantine station was washed away early Friday morning and they were forced to take refuge in a large grove of cedars that grew near the quarantine hospital. For nine hours they clung to the frail support before relieved. Every house on the upper end of the island was swept away Beatie Wood, a negro woman, and two children were drowned. No other lives were reported lost. Nearly all the sheep and cattle on the island were drowned and the remainder will probably perish for want of water. There is no provisions on the island except meat. None of the survivors saved anything besides what they had on and much suffering will ensue unless aid is August 23, 1886 The Democratic convention of Warren county was held Saturday, the 21st. It was a large, intelligent and active working body of men. Mr. Hunter was made chairman. Mr. W. A. Montgomery was re-elected chairman of the county executive committee, and resolutions of a very flattering character, endorsing fully his management of the political affairs of the county, were unanmously adopted. Twelve other gentlemen, one from each township, were selected for the county executive committee. It was a wise selection; men noted for their faithfulness and fidelity to the democratic party, and who will do their whole duty by maintaining and standing by its principles, and as far as possible protecting it from its open ene-mies, spies and traitors.

Resolutions fully endorsing President Cleveland's administration, the tariff and silver questions and condemning the practice of democrats going on the bonds of republicans, were adopted. Delegates to the judicial and senatorial conventions were appointed, after which the convention was eloquently and ably addressed by Mesars. W. A. Montgomery and Tasker Polk.

A Raleigh Man in Alabama.

WHAT HE SEES IN MONTGOMERY

Correspondence of the NEWS AND OBSERVER

Montgomery, Ala., August 20. I see with much pleasure that the people of Raleigh have at last determned to have all the conveniences that a city of its size and importance should possess. Here in our town we have all the improvements suggested and l thought the Raleigh folk would like to hear how they are conducted. In the first place, our street cars are run by electricity, in the following manner There is an electric machine somewhat like the machine used in generating electricity for electric lights, and wires run from that machine to the different car tracks and are run bove the tracks high enough to be out of the way of the car. Two wires run along this wire and convey the electricity to the machine in the car. There are cogs on the axles of the car and a flat chain, which is endless, runs over them and connects with the machinery in the car and in that way the car is propelled. When the conductor wishes to stop, he puts on the brake and the same motion that applies the brake cuts off the electricity. The cars run at a speed of eight miles an hour and with the full current on can attain a speed of horses and mules. It can run as fast up hill as down, and it is cheaper. The first day the cars started to run by electricity, Quong Wah, the Chinese laundryman, said: "No pushee, no pullee, but run allee samee." I suppose Montgomery has as fin a system of water works as any tow n the country. It is a city of artesian wells, there being about fifteen or twenty. Its artesian water has a great reputation for healthfulness, and many people come from a great distance to drink it. The writer of this can using it a month. All the water used is artesian. There are several wells (I suppose you all know artesian wells are self-operating) that throw on an average day apiece. That water is forced into a large reservoir what is situated on the highest hill in town. The reservoir itself is one hundred and eighty feet high and the water comes from it through the hydrants (of which there is that a hose put on a hydrant will throw water over any building in the city could tell you a good deal more about Montgomery's prosperity in the way of selling forty-five millions of dollars worth of goods last year, about its new

Railroad Rumors.

THE MICHMOND AND DANVILLE EXTENSION Knoxville Tribune.

The Tribune was the first to publish the report that certain St. Louis capi talists are to furnish the money to build the Richmond & Danville connection from Knoxville to Unaka. It is well known that St. Louis capitalists are large owners in the Walden's Ridge railroad and adjacent property. St Louis capitalists also own several thous-

General Hood, Colonel Andrews and other gentlemen connected with the B. & D. and interested in the new extension were in corference several hours yesterday at Hot Springs, N. C.

General Hood returned to Knoxville yesterday evening, accompanied by Col. Andrews and other gentlemen. They declined to be interviewed, but left last night for St. Louis. It is of course presumable that the object of their visit to St. Louis is a conference with the capitalists who propose to furnish the cash to construct the road from Knoxville to

From another source we hear the rumor that the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia railroad company has offered to sell to the Richmond & Danville company the railroad from Morristown to Unaka, the forty mile branch known as the "Buncombe road." This is not at all improbable, for when the direct line is built from Unaka to Knoxville the branch from Morristown to Unaka will be almost valueless to the East Tennessee road. Should the R. & D secure the Morristown branch it is probable that the French Broad route would not be built, and the Richmond & Danville would not come to Knexville, but would push on North from Morristown and connect with the Louisville & Nashville at Cumberland Gap.

A company of engineers sent out by the Louisville & Nashville railroad have just completed a preliminary survey of the route from Knoxville to Cumberlard Gap. This was done with a view to extending the Louisville & Nashville railroad to Knoxville to meet the Richmond & Danville here. But the distance from Cumberland Gap to Morristown is shorter than from Cumberland Gap to Knoxville, and if the R. & D. goes to Morristown the L. & N. will go to that point in preference to coming to

VIRGINIA BEACH --- THE RAILROAD --- THE

HOTEL AND THE BATHERS Correspondence of the NEWS AND OBSERVER. The Virginia Beach railroad is a narrow-gauge road, which runs from Norfolk to Virginia Beach, an attractive summer resort, situated immediately on the Atlantic ocean, six miles south of Cape Henry and eighteen due east of Norfolk. It is one of the busiest little roads in the South, and has a local business in Princess Anne county. Capt. T. O. Troy, its efficient superintendent, informed us that the road paid during the entire year. Princess Anne county, like most of eastern Carolina, is of a very fertile soil, produces fine crops of corn, wheat, oats, clover; mutton, beef, chickens, butter, etc., in abundance. In company with Mr. Thomas Latham and Capt. Chas. Elliott, we glided through this eighteen miles in forty minutes.

The railroad and hotel belong to one corporation, of which Capt. Chas. G.

Elliott is the general manager. The hotel, with the pavilion, is over six hundred feet long by one hundred and fifty eet wide, has all the modern improvements, is lighted with gas and is provided with excellent sewerage and an abundance of fresh cistern water. It is under the management of Chas. H. Johnston, Esq., and chief clerk Jos. W. Hinton, son of Col. Hinton, of the old -regiment N. C. T. This is the only place on the coast, I am told, where the red clay comes down to the sea. The beach therefore is of clay, covered with sand, and slopes out gradually for about one sixteenth of a mile.

Capt Drinkwater, (good name), formerly superintendent of the life-saving station, which is in gun-shot, says, "It is the safest beach and has fewer mosquitoes than any other beach on the coast." Although you can run and plunge from your room door into the cean, there is but little dampness. This is due to there being first no marshes, and secondly to the forest coming down to the very water's edge. There is one unbroken drive from the hotel to Nag's Head, a distance of sixty
