

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than ordinary kinds and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low cost, short weight, alum or phosphate powders sold only in cheap packages.

A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times: "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure every form of anemia?" The answer is: "By restoring to the system the iron which it has lost, and by acting upon the stomach, so that it will absorb the iron which is supplied."

RACKET STORE.

THE GREAT BARGAIN STORE OF RALEIGH.

I have just returned from New York, where I have purchased the largest and cheapest stock of goods ever brought to the Racket. Just as we have said all the time, goods cheap enough will sell themselves. This and this alone accounts for the tremendous trade at the Racket. Our goods are cheap and it is time that our sledge-hammer bargains may be hard hitters for those who buy and sell on time, but they are real blessings to those who can pay cash for their goods.

A GRATIFYING REPORT FROM THE MEMPHIS DISTRICT.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 7.—The cotton crop report for the Memphis district, which embraces west Tennessee, north Mississippi, north Arkansas and north Alabama, to be published tomorrow by Hill, Fontaine & Co., will say: The weather during September was fairly favorable. Heavy rains prevailed after the 15th, which did some damage and delayed picking in some localities. The season, however, has been more favorable than last year up to this period, excepting in Mississippi, where too much wet weather is complained of. Picking is progressing rapidly throughout the district and it is estimated that 15 per cent of the crop has been gathered up to October 1st. The damage to the crops from the drought, shodding and rust sustained in August has not been aggravated by unfavorable seasons, and the prospective yield of the district indicates an increase of fully 7 1/2 per cent, as compared with last year. Arkansas and Tennessee show the most favorable prospects. In the former State the increased yield is placed at 1 1/2 per cent; in Tennessee, at 13 per cent; in Alabama, at 24 per cent; while Mississippi shows a decrease of 1 1/2 per cent. The light frosts which fell in portions of the district the night of October 1 were not damaging, and the fair weather that has since prevailed gives assurance of favorable conditions, which adds to the bright prospects of the planter, and enables him to gather his crops in a clean and satisfactory manner. The staple is moving rapidly to market, and there is no disposition on the part of the planter to hold his cotton for higher prices.

The Roman Catholics and the Knights.

MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—The constitution of the Knights of Labor has been revised by members of the clergy of this city, under the auspices of archbishop Fabre, with a view of expunging provisions contrary to the rules of the Roman Catholic church. Powderly, grand master workman, when he promised the archbishop to support the passage of the amendments before the annual convention. Two delegates from the Knights of Labor organizations have left to attend the convention in Richmond, and have taken the revised constitution with them. It is stated that the archbishop delayed action until the present time because of the assembling of the Richmond convention.

New York Cotton Futures.

NEW YORK, October 7.—Greene & Co.'s report on cotton futures says: It was essentially a "Bear" market. On the influence of better advices from Liverpool a point or two was gained at the opening, with evident effort in a few quarters to hold the position, but the liberal supplies offering all along the line were too much. The bulk of trading was on a declining scale, prices closing 5 1/2 points off from the highest, with the tone easy. The South is still a free seller of parcels landed here and at Liverpool, at a shading from current quotations.

Marine News.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Anchor line steamer Kibiopia, which arrived at Glasgow today from New York, reports that the 29th of September she passed another steamer of the same line. The latter was probably the steamer Archoria, which left Glasgow September 16 for New York, and has not reached her destination. The owners of the Anchor line believe that the Archoria is safe, but is delayed by some accident to her machinery.

The Peabody Fund.

A NEW EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CHOSEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—At a meeting today of the trustees of the Peabody fund the following executive committee was appointed: Hon. A. H. E. Stuart, Hon. W. M. Everts, Hon. M. B. Waite, ex-Chief Justice, James D. Porter and chairman Winthrop. A resolution was adopted increasing the amount given to the State of South Carolina, in view of the devastation caused by the earthquake. The amount will probably be fixed at $10,000.

Ten Hours a Day's Work in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Notices were this morning posted in all stock yards and packing houses, to the effect that on and after Monday the hours of work would be ten, instead of eight, as is now the rule. The notices were signed by nineteen firms, comprising all the packers of consequence in Chicago.

Destructive Fire.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 7.—The Union furniture company's works, located at the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee junction, just north of this city, was burned last night. Loss $50,000; insurance $22,500. The surrounding lumber yards were also damaged.

What the Independent Bulgarians Say.

SOFIA, Oct. 7.—The new newspaper, the Independent Bulgarian, dignifies Gen. Kaulbars as "a rebel fermenting rebellion among the people and the army." It also urges the government to "bind Gen. Kaulbars and send him across the frontier."

The Big Price Demanded for the Hay.

FORT MONROE, Va., Oct. 7.—The Hayuga hotel was not sold today. The bidders fixed the limit at $450,000, but there were no bids.

Nominations.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 7.—The third congressional district republican convention nominated John Kean, Jr., by acclamation. The district is democratic, but Kean was elected over Miles Ross in 1882.

A GREAT PROJECT

THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD'S IMMENSE EXTENSION.

IT IS TO BUILD A LINE FROM PENNSYLVANIA TO FLORIDA.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 7.—It is pretty well understood in railroad circles, though the fact is not officially stated, that president Garrett, of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company, while in Europe perfected arrangements for securing the funds necessary for extending the Shenandoah Valley railroad south to Pensacola, Fla., and that the work is to be commenced within thirty days. The route is said to be over the old line direct into Salem, Va., via Buchanan; thence south to the famous Cranberry iron mines of North Carolina, Birmingham, Dalton, Ga., and to Pensacola. The object of extending so far South is to get an open and direct route to the Gulf of Mexico, which is now blocked to the Baltimore and Ohio by the Richmond and Danville syndicate. By agreement with large capitalists who are to locate fifteen or more blast furnaces at Birmingham, Ala., an extension of the road will run through the Cranberry iron mines, where the best ore is obtained for the manufacture of Bessemer steel. The new line, as is understood, is to be completed inside of two years, and is to have all the Northern iron traffic of Birmingham, Ala., to the eastern markets, which trade alone will be a large feeder to the line.

The Knights of Labor.

VERY LITTLE PROGRESS MADE AS YET.

RICHLAND, Va., Oct. 7.—Before the hour of 9 had struck, the delegates to the Knights of Labor convention in the several hotels and boarding houses had finished breakfast and groups of neatly dressed, intelligent looking men were seen proceeding toward armory hall, through every street leading to it. Fifteen minutes after the hour fixed for the beginning of the session even the latest stragglers had arrived and the work of the fourth day was under way. As to the details of that work, the four walls of the armory barred out the outer world into at least temporary ignorance and not until the close of the session could even such information as it was decided should be made public be looked for.

RICHLAND, Va., Oct. 7.—At the close of the morning session matters were exactly in the same position as they were last night. The discussion of the Morrison case, which had then been begun, was resumed immediately after the opening of the session and was continued until the adjournment for dinner. The hour of adjournment is 12 o'clock, but today it was nearly 1 o'clock before a recess was taken. When the afternoon session began the Morrison case was taken up and it was expected it would be disposed of within an hour and that the case of the St. Louis delegation would be proceeded with. It is not expected that this case will occupy much time, as no issues such as were presented in the Morrison case are involved.

At the afternoon session the discussion on the report of the committee on credentials on the case of the delegation from district assembly 126, of New York, headed by John Morrison, was continued and it was finally decided to admit the delegates from that district, with the exception of Morrison, who was rejected and his alternate substituted for him. This result was reached about 4 o'clock. As the committee on credentials desired further time for the consideration of the case of the contesting delegations from St. Louis, the rules were suspended and the convention proceeded to discuss the question of giving the support of the order to the locked-out cotton-workers of Augusta, Ga., the carriers and tanners of Peabody and Salem, Mass., and the journeymen plumbers of New York. There are three thousand men in each of the first-named bodies and about 1,400 in the latter. It was decided to support them. It was 5:30 o'clock when this business was concluded and a recess taken to 7:30, it being decided to hold an evening session to consider the action of the committee on credentials, which it was expected would be ready at that hour. During the session the following telegram was received by Mr. Powderly from Pittsburg, Pa., as follows: "The national amalgamated association of iron and steel workers pauses sufficiently long to send you and your noble knight, fraternal greetings. May success attend your every effort, and may the power and influence of organized labor march on uninterrupted until its aims and objects are fully attained."

ALL TO BE HANGED

THE LAST CHANCE OF THE CHICAGO ANARCHISTS LOST.

JUDGE GARY REFUSES TO GRANT A NEW TRIAL—THE DEATH SENTENCE.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 7.—Judge Gary in the criminal court this morning overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of the eight anarchists charged with the Haymarket massacre, and confirmed the verdict of the jury that Spies, Parsons, Fielden, Schwab, Engel, Fischer and Lingg should be hanged and that Nebe should suffer imprisonment for fifteen years in the State penitentiary. The court did not conclude his decision until 12:30 o'clock and owing to the intervention of counsel for the prisoners he deferred passing sentence upon them until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES HAVE A LARGE AND PLEASED AUDIENCE.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE NEWS AND OBSERVER.

Today the democrats spoke at township house, in Panther Branch township. The occasion was very gratifying to all the democrats, who were present in such numbers. The crowd was fully as large as in the notable campaign of 1884. Sheriff Nowell opened the ball, and in a short speech announced himself. He was well received, and the crowd rejoiced to see his portly figure and well known face. Treasurer A. D. Jones was the second speaker. His remarks were brief, but pointed. He was followed by register of deeds M. W. Page, who announced himself. Mr. Thomas H. Badger announced himself as the democratic candidate for clerk of the superior court. He made a very pleasant impression and it was evident that he was among friends. Mr. Rufus H. Jones, our candidate for the senate, spoke for half an hour. He made some telling hits, and showed how thoroughly practical and well informed a man he is. Capt. E. R. Stamps spoke for an hour, in a style at once vigorous and effective. Mr. Charles F. Lumsden made a speech which won the close attention of the crowd. He spoke for half an hour. His remarks were pertinent, well put and incisive. He made a good impression on all. Dr. Blanchard and Mr. Curtis T. Strickland announced themselves in a very practical way. Not one man was called out on the fence question and there is practically no difficulty on this score in the township. There is no doubt that we will give a better vote in Panther Branch this time than in 1884. All the indications give the greatest encouragement. M.

Western News.

SPECIAL COR. OF THE NEWS AND OBSERVER.

ASHVILLE, Oct. 6, 1886.

The damage by the recent frost in this section is not very great. Most of the tobacco had been out and corn was generally matured. But still the losses are serious and unfortunate for all.

Johnston and Malone speak here tomorrow. They spoke at Webster Saturday and Franklin Monday. The contest is animated and interesting, but hardly close enough to be exciting. The democracy of the mountains is impragable.

A company of Northern capitalists is establishing a furniture factory at the mouth of the Truckee river, in Swain county, on the W. N. C. R. R. This is the second business enterprise of the kind inaugurated in this section.

C. F. Clarke, a straight republican, has announced himself a candidate for superior court clerk. This makes five in the field for that office—one regular democrat, one independent democrat, one anti-stock law, and two straight republicans. The democratic nominee, a one-legged ex-Confederate soldier, will carry the county.

Mr. Hemphill Re-nominated.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 7.—The democrats of the fifth district have re-nominated John J. Hemphill for Congress.

"I see," said Stubbs, "that Dr. Michael Foster tells the British association that smoking tobacco produces defective vision; do you believe it?" "Oh, I'm sure of it," replied Mrs. S., "for I saw your friend Butts last evening puffing away, quite unconscious that there were several ladies in the room."—Boston Transcript.

"I should like to box your ears," said the Chicago girl to an audacious Detroitier, and then added reflectively, "if I could find a box big enough."

At the Fair Grounds.

SOME NOTES OF THE COMING EXHIBITION.

Yesterday a reporter spent some time at the fair grounds and was pleased at the progress being made in the preparations for the coming exhibition. The grounds are being put in shape; in fact are about ready. The grass is cut, the fields watered and the fences are white washed and the track is in capital condition. The buildings are now thirteen years old, yet are standing well and show no signs of age. The track has been neatly fenced and this fence is painted a light red color. Next year even more will be done to the track in the way of improvement, and the depression in the oval, on the west side, will be filled so as to keep it from being a pond, as it now is many months in the year. It is probable that the entire space within the track will be made absolutely level. It will be a great point to have it so graded. The view of the track is now much better than ever before. Persons standing near the grand stand can see all the way around. The depth of the cutting at the grand stand is over three feet. The track is a little lumpy in a few places, but as soon as it rains it will be planed entirely smooth. The authorities are only waiting for rain to do this. It will give very little trouble. The water supply will be ample. There are fourteen wells on the ground and two windmills. The stalls are in good condition, and the new cattle sheds are ready for use.

At the Theatre in Richmond.

A NEGRO SITS AMONG THE WHITES.

Richmond Dispatch.

Tuesday night just before the performance of "Hamlet" began at the academy of music sixty members of district assembly 49, of New York—the negro member (Farrell) being one of the party—and twenty other Knights of Labor, delegates to the general assembly, went in a body to that place of amusement; and, marching up to the box-office, the foremost man bought eighty tickets, for which he paid $40. These tickets admitted the party to reserved seats on the left-hand side of the body of the house, about eight rows from the stage. Thither they wended their way, the negro sitting between two of his white confederates, near the end of one of the rows. Here he remained undisturbed during the whole performance. A good-sized audience of ladies and gentlemen was present. Only a few left the hall. In fact, it was not generally known in the audience what had occurred and who the strange visitor was.

There was that night among those citizens who knew of the affair severe criticism of the management for allowing this violation of the long-established customs of this part of the country, but Farrell having been seated, no doubt the management thought it wiser and better for all concerned not to make any move which might possibly result in a disturbance.

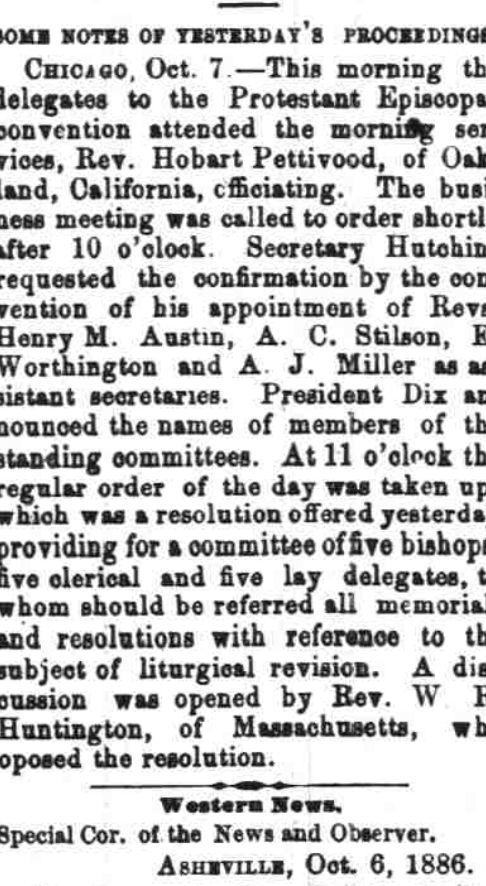

It is safe to presume that "Fortynine" marshled to the academy in a body last night, as it did, only to make a "test case."

Mr. Castine, the manager of the academy, states that he knew nothing of the presence of the negro until after his entrance into the hall. Mr. Castine then consulted several gentlemen as to the best course to pursue, and, upon their advice, rather than cause any excitement, he took no action, and allowed the man to remain.
