NEWS OBSERVATIONS.

Secretary Manning is eager to get back to his work, and will report for duty to-morrow.

Refugees are rapidly returning to Charleston, and the city is fast resuming its normal condition.

A shrewd milliner has complimented, perhaps offended, the president's wife by naming a new style of headgear for women the "Cleveland bonnet."

The papers make a great deal of talk because young George Gould works ten hours a day. Huh! If we could make as much at it as he does we'd work till after midnight.

"Jobbaws" and "jawsmithe" are the last products of American hot-house politics. A jobbaw is understood to be a man who thinks with his jaw, while a jawsmithe is merely a thoughtless mouth-worker.

Besides a lot of other things you can get an $800 out of Martha Washington for a $1 silver certificate. It cost all of that to engrave the vignette of the mother of her country which her progeny now squander for beer.

The Knights of Labor sent the New Jersey operatives who were carried to Augusta, Ga., back to their homes. The situation in Augusta is still as uncertain as ever, with no evidence of a settlement.

Clearly shaven faces have gotten to be quite the thing nowadays, a fashion which is said to be due to its introduction by Col. Ingersoll. It is as popular as that other fashion of wearing a single red flower in the buttonhole.

The bad news comes that the Queen of Madagascar has sent Mrs. Cleveland a genuine Madagascar present, presumably an extinct volcano or a native savage run to seed. Congress will have to assemble if this goes on much longer, and pass a law drawing a line somewhere.

A temperance paper says that "a bird's-eye view from Trinity spire, New York, would disclose 16,000 saloons in sight—12,000 in New York and 4,000 in Jersey City, Newark and Paterson." But does it suppose for a moment that anybody would climb to the top of that steeple to look for a saloon?

The New York World's Washington correspondent is authority for the statement that Col. Nicholas Smith, of Kentucky, who has been posing for several years as the handsomest man in the United States, whose first wife was a daughter of Horace Greeley, is soon to marry a Blue Grass heiress, a relative of Gen. Cerro Gordo Williams.

People who wonder where house flies come from may be interested in knowing that they are to be met with on the plains two hundred miles from any house, and that they buzz around the highest peaks of the Andes as well as elsewhere. They have been known since the days of Adam and Eve, and they propose to stick right by and see the show out.

Death comes in all manner of ways. Here is a curious Baltimore case: Daniel Wilhelm's little daughter died of diphtheria several days ago, and the ice in the casket where she had lain was emptied into the road. The son of Frank Harper, of Hampden, picked up some of the ice and ate it, from the effects of which, it is said, he is now lying dangerously ill with the same disease which carried off his little playmate.

In a Brooklyn court Wednesday a Chinaman named Man Lee was called on to testify. A fellow countryman, who rejoices in the name of Hung Yet, acted as interpreter. The judge asked Mr. Lee what kind of an oath Man would like to take, and received the following answer: "Our religion is a little different from the American religion. We swear by the supreme heaven; we believe in a God but not in Jesus Christ. We have a very solemn oath in China; we believe that if we don't tell the truth a thunderbolt will come down from heaven and strike us dead." Mr. Lee was accordingly sworn in the Chinese fashion and proceeded with his testimony.

Among new white toilets for evening dress are those of ivory and cream-white faille Francais, and also of plain white satin, with corsages V-shaped, or slightly rounded front and back. Dresses in this fashion are exhibited as the latest expression of elegance. The garnitures upon these beautiful gowns vary considerably, some being made up with trimmings of costly white lace on the bodice and short sleeves alone; others magnificently decorated with panels, veils and short sleeves of a network of pearl and opal beads. These all-white dresses will be as much worn by young girls as by their elders, though made of simpler fabrics, like white corded silk, mervilleux and India veiling. This is but just, as white is now considered the best form for all, and adapted to all ages, forming the most refined and dressy evening toilet that can be desired. In a word, white toilets have lost none of their prestige, and will continue to be worn, not only at balls, but for grand dinners, full-dress weddings, parties and evening receptions where there is no dancing.

A New York Business Failure. New York, Oct. 9.—The suspension of F. P. Schmidt has just been announced on the stock exchange.

CLUVERIUS

THE INFAMOUS MURDERER RESENTENCED.

THE TENTH OF DECEMBER FIXED FOR THE DAY OF HIS EXECUTION.

RICHMOND, Oct. 9.—Thomas J. Cluverius, convicted of the murder of Fannie Lillian Madison, was re-sentenced to-day to be hanged the 10th of December next.

The time set for his execution had long since passed. But few persons (about thirty) were present, as it was not generally known that he would be re-sentenced to-day. Cluverius appeared to be somewhat careworn and nervous, and it was evident that he was under a heavy strain to maintain his composure. When asked by the judge if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, he in a low tone replied: "No, sir; nothing more than I said before." Judge Atkins, without any preface, pronounced the death sentence and the prisoner was remanded to jail.

The War is Over at Last.

THE CRADLE OF SECESSION AND THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 9.—The city has been quiet all day, with no recurrence of disturbances. The shock at 2 o'clock this evening was generally felt in the lower and middle counties of the State. It is reported to have been felt at Camden, Sumter, Beaufort, Augusta and Summerville. No damage was done at any place and the people are taking things easy.

The committee on subsistence have closed their public commissary, all cases of destitution having been supplied. The committee on relief have received 1,818 applications for money to repair houses. The amount called for is over $800,000, or about $200,000 more than the subscriptions received. The Palmetto Guard, which was the first to open fire on Ft. Sumter, twenty-five years ago, and which has been an active organization ever since that time, has elected Gen. Lucius Fairchild, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, an honorary member. Gen. Fairchild has accepted the honor and the war is over at last.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 9.—There have been three slight shocks here since midnight, the first at 1.48, the second about 4 and the third at 5.20 this morning. No damage was done, and all the shocks were so slight that many persons did not feel them.

New York Cotton Futures.

New York, October 9.—Greene & Co.'s report on cotton futures says: "The opening was weak, with a rather free offering, and a further decline of two and three points. The posting of the official report, however, showing a much less favorable condition than expected, changed the whole tenor of the market and on a general scramble, to repurchase recently sold 'long' contracts and to cover on 'shorts,' there was a rapid advance of about 12 points, with a large business transacted. Many bears, however, refused to look upon the change as more than a temporary flurry and with the more anxious buyers supplied there was a 2 1/2 points set back and easy feeling at the close."

Baseball Yesterday.

At Cincinnati, Cincinnati 4, Baltimore 8, at St. Louis, St. Louis 9, Brooklyn 4, 7 innings; at Louisville, Louisville 6, Athletics 9; at Boston, Boston 3, Chicago 12; game called at the end of 8th inning on account of darkness; at New York, New York 4, St. Louis 2, game called at the end of 5th inning on account of darkness; at Washington, Washington 2, Kansas City 0; at Pittsburg, Pittsburg 4, Metropolitans 2.

Steamship Men on a Pleasure Trip.

New York, Oct. 9.—Representatives of fifteen steamship companies, members of the produce exchange, who accepted an invitation of the Old Dominion line for a pleasure trip to Old Point Comfort, Newport News, Richmond, Washington and Baltimore, sailed from this port on the steamer Guyandotte today. They will return Wednesday.

No Tidings of the Missing Ancharia.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The steamer Ancharia has not yet been heard from and the number of callers at the office of the company is daily increasing. The officials still hold their original theory that the vessel has broken her shaft and that the canvas which she carries is not sufficient for her to keep her course. She was in good condition when she left Scotland, they say; or she would not have been allowed to sail, as by the English law a government survey has to be made of every ship before she leaves her dock, on every occasion.

The Latest from the Chicago Strike.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Advices from the stock-yards report the situation unchanged there this morning, and no disturbance of any kind has occurred. Armour & Co. say the report that their beef killers had also joined the strikers is a mistake; that part of their establishment is running as usual, the strike being confined to the hog killers.

A Long Name Town Destroyed.

PRESBURG, Pa., Oct. 6.—Presburg, a mining town in the western part of the State, was visited by a disastrous conflagration this morning. The fire started in the St. Elmo hotel, about 2 o'clock, and spread so rapidly that by daylight thirty-five buildings in the business part of the town were in ashes. The loss will reach $165,000; insurance about $100,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Agricultural Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The report of the department of agriculture says: The cotton season has been too variable in temperature and precipitation for the best development and largest fruitage. It was too dry in September on the Atlantic coast, resulting in the further shedding of the bolls. The boll worm has wrought local injury in the Gulf States, and the caterpillar in a less degree. The weather has been comparatively favorable for picking, except for excessive heat and for rains in the Mississippi valley and Texas. The season is late and the risks of early frosts are therefore greater than usual and liable to discount the present apparent condition.

In Georgia and Alabama the condition is reported the same as last month. Tennessee makes a slight improvement. The Carolinas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas show a small reduction. The averages are: Virginia 72, North Carolina 87, South Carolina 31, Georgia 81, Florida 85, Alabama 80, Mississippi 79, Louisiana 79, Texas 74, Arkansas 86, Tennessee 96. The average of condition is 79.8, against 80.1 last month and 78 in October of last year. It is six points below the October average of the crop of 1879. Local estimates of the yield per acre in fractions of a bale are made by correspondents, subject to the vicissitudes of the later season, and especially lateness of a killing frost. They must not, therefore, be cited as official predictions of the result of the harvest.

State averages are as follows: Virginia, 32; North Carolina, 37; South Carolina, 31; Georgia, 30; Florida, 27; Alabama, 29; Mississippi, 40; Louisiana, 49; Texas, 37; Arkansas, 51; Tennessee, 35—general average, 36. As a summary of the situation, the average of condition is a point higher than last year; the area is one per cent. more, and the season later. The difference between a long and short season may easily be half a million bales.

Supreme Court.

Court met at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Cases from the first district were disposed of as follows:

Bush vs. Hall, from Pasquotank; argued by Griffin & Temple for plaintiff and Grandy & Ayldett for defendant.

Baxter vs. Wilson, from Currituck; argued by Griffin & Temple for defendant. No counsel for plaintiff.

Moore vs. Alexander, from Washington; continued by consent.

Dare county vs. Currituck county, from Currituck. Argued by Grandy & Ayldett for plaintiff and Griffin & Temple for defendant.

Chamblee vs. Baker, from Hertford; argued by Winborne and W. Griffin for the plaintiff and John Gatliff and J. E. Bledsoe for the defendant.

Eaton vs. Chowan county, from Chowan county; argued by Head, Busbee & Busbee for the plaintiff. No counsel in this court for the defendant.

Spence vs. Baxter, from Camden; argued by Grandy & Ayldett for plaintiff and Edward C. Smith for the defendant.

Bresid vs. Luken, from Pasquotank; argued by Grandy & Ayldett for the plaintiff; no counsel for defendant.

Appeals from the second district will be called tomorrow.

Tucker Mail.

Tomorrow evening "The Stranglers of Paris" will be presented. The Detroit Post and Tribune says of it: "Viewed simply as a spectacle it ranks among the best. The company playing the piece is composed of actors thoroughly capable of presenting the drama in all its force, and consequently the good sized audience last night had only one expression to make regarding it, and that was that it was a great success. The story wrought out in the drama has already been given in these columns. It is replete with strong situations, giving the wildest scope to the whole gamut of the human passions. The stage setting throughout was admirable, no hitch or jar occurring during the whole evening. Of the actors, Frank A. Tannehill represented Jagon the Strangler with a force that will last in the memory for a long time. Miss Edna Courtney as Mathilde, although her part is comparatively brief, produced a good impression, and Sophie Blanchard was especially well impersonated by Eva Munford."

New Advertisements.

J. R. Farrell & Co. have purchased a very large stock of goods and will, for the next two weeks, receive daily novelties in the grocery line.

Capt. J. B. Burwell offers for rent a very desirable six-room dwelling on N. Blount street.

Mr. A. B. Stronach, who succeeds the well known firm of W. C. & A. B. Stronach, has something special to say to-day.

Reputation is certainly maintaining the barkly of its oyster house and restaurant. He enjoys a large patronage, which he deserves.

Mr. J. P. Gully, so long known as a dealer in reliable goods, makes a special announcement in this issue.

A Notice to Northern and Foreign Born. At the last meeting of the Wake county association of Northern and foreign-born citizens, held October 6, a resolution was unanimously adopted, inviting all ladies of Northern and foreign birth now living in the State to join this and kindred associations in helping to make our State fair, to be held in this city, October 26 to 29, inclusive, a success. All information in regard to space, etc., will be cheerfully furnished by the Secretary, WM. C. CRAM, Raleigh, N. C.

State papers are asked to copy.

DOOMED.

THE ANARCHISTS ARE ALL SENTENCED.

THE DEFIANT WORDS OF ONE AUDACIOUS SCOUNDREL.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 9.—As the concluding scenes of the great trial of the anarchists approaches more interest is taken and the supposed excitement becomes more marked. Hundreds of people wended their way toward the criminal court building, each one desirous of listening to the conclusion of the speech of the anarchist Parsons, and with the expectation of hearing the death sentence pronounced. Parsons resumed his speech as soon as the court was opened. He created something of a sensation by declaring in a very dramatic and impressive manner that they had positive proof that the bomb which created such destruction at the Haymarket meeting was thrown by an agent of New York capitalists and monopolists, who sent a man out here to take this message of breaking up the eight-hour movement.

The K. of L. Convention.

GETTING INTO SHAPE FOR THE TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS.

RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 9.—This is the sixth day that the general assembly of the Knights of Labor has been in session here, and the first to begin with matters in such shape that business can at once be taken up and carried through.

Each delegate, as he passed through the doors when entering the convention hall this morning, was presented with a bundle of printed pamphlets and circulars. One of those was a supplementary report, written by Ralph Beaumont, chairman of the committee on legislation, in which he proposes to institute a congress of workmen at Washington, to sit while the United States congress is in session. Another was the proposition of C. M. Dewey, of Detroit, Michigan, to establish a weekly journal as the organ of the order. The purpose of this was that each member should be fully acquainted with the several subjects when brought up for discussion.

The committee on distribution was set to work even before the convention met, disseminating the various pamphlets, etc., including Powderly's address, and distributing portions of them to the committees charged with the duty of considering the subjects of which the respective portions treated.

Of committees to be appointed, only a portion were named yesterday, and when the convention met the work of completing the list was at once resumed. Even to-day the work being done is mainly preliminary.

Doubts are expressed as to the possibility of the convention completing its work within the two weeks for which Army hall is engaged; but Powderly says he thinks it can be done.

It is the present intention of the committee and delegates to carry the work through as expeditiously as possible, and make every endeavor to be ready for adjournment a week from to-day.

Telegrams were sent to Cohoes, to urge a settlement of the trouble between employers and operatives there, and to Washington, to protest against the employment of convict labor on public buildings in Baltimore. Two delegates were ordered to Chicago, to aid in bringing about a settlement between the packers and their employees. Fifty or sixty resolutions were introduced and referred, as were also reports of committees and those of the secretary and treasurer. The roll of districts was called and occupied the remainder of the session.

Total Visible Supply of Cotton. New York, October 9.—The total visible supply of cotton for the world is 1,337,333 bales, of which 973,353 are American; against 1,320,212 and 1,013,812 respectively last year; receipts at all interior towns 138,121; receipts from the plantations 236,087; crop in sight 701,614.

Rescued from the Perils of the Sea.

BOSTON, Oct. 9.—The steamer Bulgaria, Capt. Hart, from Liverpool, arrived here to-day, having on board the captain, crew and one passenger, Thos. Evans—eleven all told—of the bark Antwerp, of St. John, N. B., lost at sea September 28, in a hurricane.

A Religious War.

HINDOOS AND MOHAMMEDANS AT RAGGER'S POINT. DELHI, India, Oct. 9.—The situation, which has grown out of religious rioting between the Hindoos and Mohammeds, is extremely critical. Reinforcements have been sent here from Meerut to preserve order. The Mohammedans last evening attacked a small Hindoo temple. The Hindoos defended it and a desperate fight ensued, in which the Mohammedans triumphed. The victors besmeared the temple with blood, smashed the idols and destroyed the building. Twenty Hindoos were so badly wounded in the battle at the temple that they had to be removed to the hospitals, where they lie in a critical condition. The troops are sustaining order today.

Fire in Winston.

THE BUXTON-LEMLEY BLOCK BURNED. Special Dispatch to the NEWS AND OBSERVER. WINSTON, N. C., Oct. 9.

The Buxton-Lemley block, consisting of five stores and a large boarding house above, was almost entirely destroyed by fire last night. The building was insured. No insurance on the contents above or below. Loss between six and seven thousand dollars.

Round About Town.

CASUAL ITEMS FROM A REPORTER'S NOTE-BOOK.

The cotton receipts for the week ending last Thursday were 2,935 bales, against 2,046 for the corresponding week last year. The total receipts for September 1 to Thursday were 6,866 bales, as compared with 6,609 to the same date last year; an increase of 257 bales. The shipments were 2,571 bales and the stock on the platform Thursday was 743 bales.

Yesterday was another lively day in the cotton market and the scenes of previous days were renewed, in long lines of wagons, piled high with cotton, busy buyers and a general air of animation in all departments of business. The receipts were liberal, being 602 bales, and buying was spirited, though prices fell off slightly on the higher grades. The tone of the market was steady.

The number of country people here from distant points is noticeable; some of them have not been here before in several years. But they renew their "first love" with a feeling of great pleasure, and are glad to be back in Raleigh.

Many farmers remain over night and they certainly appear to enjoy themselves. Of course there are many things to see. The large and very varied stock of goods offered and the capital opportunity to make purchases. It is a fact, by the way, that people from all the towns near by trade here largely. People from Durham shop here regularly for fine goods, and Raleigh's trade in this special line amounts to a great deal in the course of a year.

The draymen report that they have a great more to do this season than in some years past. The freight receipts have been very large; much larger, in fact, than last year, and of course they get the benefit of this. They handle a good deal of cotton, too.

There are many visitors to the cotton compress daily, and of course much interest is felt in it.

Mr. Farnach yesterday occupied his very handsome new store, 110 Fayetteville street. The front is nearly all glass, with the iron work painted black and gold. The designs are very graceful and yet simple. The interior fittings are all black and gold. The windows are fitted with velvet cushions for the display of jewelry and silver ware. The effect is at once striking and pleasing. No jewelry store in the East is more attractive.

Barnum's Circus and Hippodrome.

Memphis Appeal, Oct. 8. Barnum's great combination gave two performances yesterday, one in the afternoon and the other at night, and to immense crowds of people. It was estimated by competent judges that at least fourteen thousand people attended the afternoon entertainment and about the same number in the evening. It was the largest crowd ever seen under one tent in Memphis. The street parade in the forenoon was quite an imposing affair, excelling in every particular and completely dwarfing all other displays of like character. The immense tent contained three rings and three entertainments were continuously progressing at the same time. The herds of elephants, camels and dromedaries were particularly attractive. In the museum the great Jumbo was seen in life-like proportions and looking as natural as life. In the circus there were a succession of excellent exhibitions and displays, continuing for over two hours.

The hippodrome races were among the strongest attractions, and they created intense excitement and enthusiasm. They were real races, honestly and stubbornly contested, as follows: Gentlemen's English and American thoroughbred jockey race, pony and monkey race, race between a man and a running horse, ladies' foot race, cattle race, fast foot race, Arabian camel race, double team bareback Roman standing race, wheelbarrow race, pony sulky race, and the electrical four horse Roman coliseum chariot race. Take it all in all, Barnum's is the biggest and grandest show in the world. Too much praise cannot be given to the management for the polite and business-like manner in which the immense crowds were handled and seated. The arrangements as to all details were perfect, and everything moved along like clock-work.

The Raleigh Cotton Market and High Prices. COR. OF THE NEWS AND OBSERVER.

I notice an article in the Weekly Bud. of Smithfield, which is evidently meant to disparage Raleigh as a cotton market. The editor admits Raleigh pays more for cotton than other points, and accounts for it by intimating that a "pool" has been formed by the business men of Raleigh, and money put in the hands of the cotton buyers to aid them in buying above the regular market "and by thus placing a fictitious price upon cotton, bait the farmers for the first two or three hundred bales sold." In answer I would say that Raleigh has received since September last some 10,000 bales of cotton, and has paid all along from 1/2 to 1/3 cent per pound more than competing markets. This does not look like a fictitious price for two or three hundred bales as a bait, does it?

Again, the editor says he is sure there is some "monkey business" going on somewhere. At the suggestion of a friend I agree with the editor about the "monkey business," and would say that if the monkey at the other end jumps every time the business men pull the string at this end, then it is the look-out of the monkey and not of the business men of Raleigh.

Farmers, bring your cotton to Raleigh and get the best price, as heretofore. CORTEX.

The tobacco crop will be short.

A California Visit to the Sufferers.

RACKET STORE.

THE GREAT BARGAIN STORE OF RALEIGH.

I have just returned from New York, where I have purchased the largest and cheapest stock of goods ever brought to the Racket. Just as we have said all the time, goods cheap enough will sell themselves. This and this alone accounts for the tremendous trade at the Racket. Our goods are cheap and it is time that our sledge-hammer bargains may be hard hitters for those who buy and sell o time, but they are real blessings to those who can pay cash for their goods. Gathered up from the slaughter-pens of credit and laid at your doors with but one profit, you get a dollar in real value in every dollar's worth you buy, measure for measure, dollar for dollar, at the Racket Store. The credit system is a system of sleepless nights of deferred hope, of blasted expectations, of bad debts, of disputed ledger accounts; a system which makes an honest man, who pays and intends to pay, support and pay for those who never pay.

The merchant who sells goods on time never knows how much he ought to charge to bring him a reasonable profit on his goods, for the reason he never knows what his losses will be.

The Racket is cutting to the right hand and to the left, knowing no law but the greatest value for the least money.

This week we will offer some good bargains in umbrellas just from the manufactory, good bargains in gold and silver watches, some big drives in clothing, hats, shoes and boots; also in ladies' and misses' and children's shoes, and all kinds of notions.

Most respectfully submitted to the cash trade only.

VOLNEY PURSELL & CO., No 10 East Martin Street.
