-It is a mooted question whether there will be an adjournment of Congress for the Christmas holidays. The members from the States at a distance are reported as indifferent, and those from the acjacent States generally have their families with them. The number of Senators and Representative who are buying homes in Washington is increasing, and there is a consequent indisposition in a short session to take two weeks cut of it for purely festive purposes. Some of the Senators who own gorgeous Washington establishments are drifting away from their local ties, and are not as close to the people as the average member.

It is openly charged against one distinguished Senator that he has no local habitation or residence in the State he otherwise represents, and that in the next election the opposition will make the point that, as his intercourse with his people is confined to an occasional brief visit, he is not in that close sympathy and familiarity with his consutueacy necessary to a knowledge of the wants of the State.

-Mr. Hewitt resents the charge made by the New York limes that he has abandoned his efforts in the direction of tariff reform and is now addressing himself to the discovery of other expendients for reducing the revenue. The Times' reference is to the bill introduced by Mr. Hewitt on Monday, proposing the payment in advance of the itterest on the 4 and 44 per cent bonds. I am still an earness savocate of tariff reform," said Mr. Hewitt today, "but in view of past experience it is just as well to have a me other plan formulated for the rablic relief, in case tariff reman in Congress who has striven harder to forward a revision of the tariff than ! have, and no man is more carnest today to accomplish such a result."

-It is generally cenceded that s deadtock in the Texas senatorial election is a foregone conclusion. The friends of Hon. Unn Weilborn, the presnt member from the district in which lightes, one of the most important towns in the State, is situated, are marting under his defeat by the Knights of Labor tollowing and are waiting to mear from all parts of the State to permit the use of his name in the senatorial contest. Mr. Wellborn has fairly won his spurs by several terms of industrious and efficient service in the House of Kepresentatives. He is the present ensumen of the committee on Indian affairs. His ability and parliamentary experience are admitted, while his per sonal character and freedem from entanglement or political commitment to any one of the candidates now mentioned, Maxey, Ireland, Reagan and Terrui, leave his friends free to present his name, if he should consent to the use of t, before the legislature in the event of a deadlock. The Catholies and the Enights.

Philadelphia, Dec 17 -The Record this morning says: An important conference bearing on the relation of the Catholie church to the Knights of Labor in the United States is believed to have taken place in this city yesterday between Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, and Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, at the residence of the latter. From noon until 5 o'clock in the afternoon the three prelates were eleseted, and at the latter hour Cordinal Gibbons and Archbishop Corrigan departed for their homes Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati, was demning or approving them, according as they appear to be in conformity with the church or not; also that any action that might be taken should be uniform throughout the country It is believed the action of Archbishop Corrigan in suspending Dr. McGlynn formed a leading subject of deliberation.

A prominent priest said last evening in referring to the meeting, that the labor question was certainly assuming such proportions and drifting into such channels that the church could not very long ignere it. He referred to the interest taken in labor movements; as exemplified by the heavy vote polled for Henry George, and thought Catholies should be advised by their spiritual superiors whether or not it was dangerous to support such movements 'Of course' he concluded "no action will be taken by hierarchy without deliberation and care, and if any change is made it will only be for thebest interests of the church and the spiritual welfare of its adherents.

Putures at New York. NEW YORK, Dec. 17 .- Greene & Co.'s report on cotton futures says: Business has been conducted as if all hands were more or less apprehensive, and a very irregular tone prevailed. Generally, however, the tendency was toward easier position, and after several fluctuations the final rates were 4.5 points under last evening, with the tone only about steady. The Southern markets were slow and a little tame. Port receipts were full and interior town movements in excess of estimates. Liverpool, too, was weak and disappointing, while the continued unfavorable condition of sterling exchange seriously impeded the action of exporters, and has led to the cancellation of many pending negotiations. Some indication of a desire to sell long cotton could be noted, but it did not reach the point of

our Washington Letter,

WASHINGTON, D. C. Dec. 16 On Monday, Mr. Morrison gave notice that on Saturday he would move to go into committee of the whole to consider revenue measures; so if his mois carried the great expected tariff debate will begin. There is much speculation as to the success of the motion. though I believe the best opinion is that Mr. Morrison will succeed by a very small majority. Mr. McKinley, Republican of Ohio will lead the opposition. He says the result is in doubt, but thinks the Republicans will stand as last year. Gov. Long, Republican of Massachusetts, thinks the motion will carry. The republicans in their conference have decided to oppose all action, but they are like the democrats, divided. Mr. Milo White, from way off Minnesota, who boards where I do, though a republican, is strongly in favor of tariff reduction.
