Cancer of the Tongue. Cancer of the Tongue.

If wife, some three or four years ago, was fromided with an ulcer on the side of her tongue near the throat. The pain was incessant, rausing lock of sleep and producing great nervous prostration.
Accompanying this trouble was rheumatism. It had passed from the shoulders and centered in the wrist of one hand, she almost losing the use of it.
Between the suffering of the two, life had grown burdensome. By the use of a half dozen smallsized bottles of Swift's Specific, she was entirely relieved and restored to boath. This was three years ago, and there has been no return of the distass.

The Way to Fairy-Land.

What is the way to fairy-land?

which is the road to take?

They must be listening and whispering | Andover, Me. With the fairy-folk, I know : for what but this is the sound in the air ally eloped with his mother-in-law. So sweet, and soft, and low?-

The sound that floats o'er the misty hills, And runs with a little shiver, As of a thousand musical trills, Over the running river.

O hills that stand so lofty there, Listening night and day, Listen to me and show me where The fairy-folk do stray!

And river, river, whisper low, whisper me low and sweet, Tell me the secrets that you know Of the fairy-folk's retreat. -[Noah Perry, in St. Nicholas.

Shelby Aurora: At the cotton platform of the three C's in Shelby there was a small fire on Thursday, which enveloped twelve bales of cotton in the flames. The fire was extinguished after burning about $100 worth of cotton belonging to Mr. J. Rush Oates and the cotton factory. ... Harvey Friday, a mulatto, on Saturday night at Brooks' Chapel, while drunk accidentally shot himself in the palm of the hand with a pistol, calibre 44. The ball penetrated the hand and made a large hole, and the surgeon is fearful that the forefinger and thumb will have to be amputated. Statesville Landmark: A turtle with two heads was caught recently near Jonesville, Yadkin county. It was provided also with two mouths and when fed ate with both of them. ... There was a little frost last Friday night and a much heavier one Saturday night. The first did no damage; the second was quite damaging to tobacco. It is estimated that about three-fourths of the crop in this county had been cut and housed, and that of the one-fourth which remained standing at least half, or so much as stood upon lowlands. was hurt.

Wilson Advance: Mr. J. H. Narron caught his hand in Mr. C. F. Finch's gin while at work there, last Thursday evening and had it fearfully injured. The bone was cut all to pieces almost ... John Eatman, a fifteenyear old boy who was feeding Mr. Condary Boykin's gin, last Saturday had his hand caught in the gin. His hand was cut to pieces fearfully and his arm very much cut with the saw. So deeply did the saw cut into the quivering flesh that the gin was stopped. It was necessary to turn off the head of water and break the brush wheel hefore he could be taken from off the saw....On Tuesday last two Johnston county men came to Wilson with a negro securely tied. They took him to the court house as Cæsar Wooten, about whom so much has been said and for whom so many have been arrested. As soon as Deputy Sheriff Snakenberg let his eyes rest upon the negro he knew that he was not Cæsar. He was released and the two men and the negro returned

Queer Origin of Cuff Buttoms. Persons of observant turns of mind have noticed two or three buttons on the cuffs of military coats, but few know the origin and reason of this custom. They were first worn by soldiers in the English army. The first uniform coats of the English army had no buttons on the cuffs, and the soldiers used to draw the cuffs of their coat across their nose and mouth on every occasion when a ocket handkerchief or napkin might have been called into requisition. As a matter of course the cuff became shiny and defaced. Punishment and reprimand were tried, but they did not stop this habit, and at last a board of officers met and they suggested the buttons on the sleeve, which was adopted. They were first, worn on top of the sleeve, but they have moved

NOTICE OF SALE .

OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

By Virtue of authority given in a decree of the Superior Court of Wake county in the special pro-ceedings entitled Mary A. Leigh, Adminis'trix vs C. W. Williams et als, we will sell on Tuesday, the 1st

Attorneys for Commissioner

At the same place and time as the above sale of the Leigh lands, we will sell by order of court for partition among the heirs of the late D. J. Justice a tract of land in said county of Wake, lying near Neuse Depot, adjoining the lands of W. O. Allen, J. D. Allen and others and countying 390 acres more or less, and known as containing 250 acres more or less, and known as part of the land of the late David Justice. Terms cash and balance in one year with 8 per cent interest from day of of sale.

It is invaluable for the polishing of Scales, Show Cases, Musical Instruments, and especially Metals with rough surface, where it is difficult to apply liquid or powder polishes.

It will polish Gold, Silver, Copper, Brass, Tin, Nickel-Plate or any other Metal.

It will not scratch or injure the linest gold. It will polish quicker than any other article. It will polish caser than any other article. It makes all metals shine brighter than any other polish. It produces a polish that stays very much longer than that produced by any other article. It is the best polish you can use. It is the cheapest polish you can use. It is the cheapest polish you can use. It is the best pound.
It is truly a wonderful polish.
