WOOL AND MANUFACTURES OF WOOL.

REPORT ON STATE OF THE BUREAU OF STATISTICS—A MARKED DECLINE BETWEEN 1884 AND 1887—OTHER TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The printed report of Col. W. F. Switzer, chief of the bureau of statistics, on wool and manufactures of wool, is now ready for distribution, and is considered by the bureau to be one of the most valuable documents it has ever put forth.

The value of our woolen product in 1850 was $25,000,000 in round numbers and of our imports $19,000,000, both together being about one dollar and ninety-five cents per capita of our population.

In 1880 the value of our woolen product was $23,000,000, and our imports $19,000,000, together being about two dollars and sixty cents per capita.

In 1870 the product reached one hundred and ten million dollars, and the imports thirty-five million, being three dollars and seventy-eight cents per capita.

In 1880 the product had grown to one hundred and sixty-four millions and the imports were valued at thirty-one million, being three dollars and ninety-one cents per capita.

Thus while our product of woollens has increased since 1850 nearly sevenfold, our imports have increased about 62 per cent, but the consumption per capita has doubled which, the statistician says, indicates in a striking manner the advancement of the living among the people of this country.

Italian Affairs. Turin, October 26.—At a political banquet given in his honor last evening, Signor Crispi, Prime Minister, replying to a toast, said that his government would be a government of liberty, both civil and religious, and that he would in return devote to law and respect for justice. After saying that there was no danger that peace would be disturbed abroad he returned to home affairs. He referred to the tolerance which the nation had shown to manifestations, often pronounced on the part of the Vatican and its partisans and said should fresh sacrifices become necessary the government will not hesitate to appeal to the people for support.

Our army avoids polemics and devotes its efforts to improving itself. Our workmen do not assemble and make violent speeches. They work and economize. Therefore there is nothing to fear in regard to peace at home. Referring to the fears caused in France by his recent journey, he declared that they were groundless.

He could never lend himself to the weaving of a plot against a nation which had so greatly contributed to Italy's redemption. War with France would be as deplorable in case of victory as it would be in defeat.

"While working for our good, we work also for the benefit and peace of all nations. In these efforts we are not alone. That man of genius Bismarck has also labored for peace. We will work with him. When I left him recently he said to me: 'We have rendered service to Europe. We wish peace with honor.'"

Referring to Italy's African policy, Signor Crispi insisted that the blood of the Italian soldiers slain by Abyssinia must be avenged, and that when the necessary positions were retaken Italy would be prepared to negotiate with Abyssinia and to open all her markets to that country.

As to the Eastern question, he said the Italian government's wish to favor the aspirations of nations desiring to be free while maintaining as far as possible respect for existing treaties. This policy was the most useful, insuring general peace.

OCEAN HORRORS.

LOSS OF A TRANSPORT AND DROWNING OF 285 PEOPLE.

A TYPHOON ENCOUNTERED—AND 25 MORE PEOPLE DROWNED—OTHER NEWS BY WIRE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 26.—The steamship Gaelic arrived this morning from Shanghai and Hong Kong and brings advice to the effect that on September 15th a Chinese transport was lost and 280 Chinese and five Europeans were drowned.

It is also reported that the steamer Anton encountered a typhoon, during which the second officer and 24 Chinese were washed overboard and drowned.

The Negro in the Church. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 26.—The missionary council of the Protestant Episcopal Church resumed its sessions today and was opened with prayers by Right Rev. Bishops Wilmer and Cox, assisted by Rev. Dr. S. O. Seymour, of Hartford, Conn.

The business of the day was proceeded with. The memorial read by Rev. W. V. Tennell yesterday relating to work among the colored people was read. It declared that a mistake to suppose that the colored people would take care of themselves and urged increased work among these people, who, it declared, had been stimulated and anxiously expected more care within a short time.

He spoke of the necessity of securing colored young men to take holy orders as they were needed to work among their own race, and it also spoke of the necessity of parochial and industrial schools in the South and West and denied the rumor that there was any idea of establishing an African Protestant Episcopal church.

A resolution providing that the commission on work among the colored people be instructed to inquire into the character and efficiency of theological schools for the education of colored people throughout the country was adopted.

A resolution providing that the council suggest to the commission the consideration of associating with its members representatives of the colored race, from whom information of importance might be obtained that was not obtainable from no other source, was presented.

Bishop Williams stated that the only persons who could be asked to consider that question are the board of managers of the General Missionary Society, which next meets in 1889. The resolution was thus referred.

The Trial of Sir Wilfrid Blunt. DUBLIN, Oct. 26.—The trial of Sir Wilfrid Blunt at Woodford was resumed today. Mr. Harrington, as counsel for the defense, applied to the court for an adjournment to decide the attendance of Mr. Balfour, Chief Secretary, as a witness in order to show whether information had been sworn to, as stated in the proclamation, that the proposed meeting at Woodford last Sunday would lead to a breach of the peace. Mr. Roman, counsel for the prosecution, denied the right of the defense to ask what had happened in the Council at Dublin. The magistrate said that Mr. Harrington's application was founded on the assumption that the statements in the proclamation were false and the court was not competent to decide the question. The hearing of evidence was thus resumed.

Russia Ready. BERLIN, Oct. 26.—An article printed in the Moscow Gazette referring to the recent manoeuvres of the Russian reserves excited a renewal of distrust. After declaring the entire success of the measure similar to a mobilization of the article concludes with the words "Russia as well as France can now say 'We are ready.'"

Another Challenge. LONDON, Oct. 26.—At a meeting of the Royal Clyde Yacht Club at Glasgow today it was resolved to challenge again for the America's cup in the name of Mr. Charles Sweet. The new champion will be a cutter.

All-Paper Cigars. From the Albany Express. Smokers will be interested to know that not a thousand miles from Albany there is a firm which makes large quantities of paper for this avowed purpose. The plan of operation is said to be this: The paper, on reaching the tobacco warehouse, is repeatedly soaked in a strong decoction of the plant. It is then cut up and pressed in moulds which give to each sheet the venation of the genuine leaf of tobacco. So close is the imitation that expert tobacco men and habitual smokers have been deceived. At a recent gathering in this city cigars made from this paper tobacco were handed around and declared excellent. Many of those present declared the cigars were made from rare brands, and so well was the imitation carried out that one man actually insisted that there could be no mistake about the cigars being genuine tobacco.

A Thrift Stronger Than Fire. From the Lincoln Journal. "What was that noise in your room?" "Oh, I had to break the neck off a bottle I found there, as I couldn't draw the cork." "Why, the only bottle there was a hand grenade." "That so? I thought the liquor was very mild."

Mrs. Edward Holske, wife of the well-known pedestrian and sporting man, entered the office of the Police News in Boston Monday and assaulted Capt. Cook, the editor, with a cowhide, administering half a dozen blows before she was overpowered.

The cause of the attack was an article printed in the paper attacking Holske, who is now in Europe.

BALTIMORE.

ELECTS A DEMOCRATIC MAYOR.

A MAJORITY OF 5,000 OR MORE—STAND THE INDICATIONS—OTHER NEWS BY WIRE.

BALTIMORE, Md., October 26.—The friends of the rival candidates for mayoralty honors were in the field early this morning, and when the polls were opened long lines of anxious voters were in readiness to deposit their ballots. The day is cloudy and cold, but the fall strength of both tickets is being voted and the contest seems remarkably close.

Both sides seem confident of victory. Some little fighting is reported in the southern section of the city, but nothing serious has yet occurred. No business house is closed, though the merchants generally are taking more than usual interest in the contest.

BALTIMORE, October 26.—The indications point to the election of F. C. Latrobe, regular democratic candidate for mayor, by 5,000 majority or more.

JEFFERSON DAVIS. Thirty Thousand Veterans Ascribe to Do Him Honor.

MACON, Ga., Oct. 26.—Thirty thousand veterans from all parts of the South assembled here today and were reviewed by Mr. Davis. It was arranged that Mr. Davis should not speak, owing to his feeble condition, but at sight of a latter Confederate flag in the procession he arose and said that he was like that flag, in that he was torn and riven by storms and trials. He loved it as a memorial of what had been done by fathers and sons. He was glad to see them again.

Short speeches were made by Gov. Gordon and Senator Calhoun. There were fifty thousand visitors at the State fair, where Mr. Davis again reviewed the veterans in the afternoon.

The city tonight is brilliantly decorated and illuminated, and is full of strangers.

The Anarchists' Case. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—While there has been no agreement among counsel for any order of the Supreme Court as to the time to be allotted for argument tomorrow on the application for a writ of error in behalf of the condemned Chicago anarchists it is the prevailing opinion that two attorneys will be heard on each side.

Oral arguments in support of the application will be made by Gen. Butler and Hon. J. Randolph Tucker, of Va., and Gen. Pryor will file a printed brief. Arguments in opposition to the application will be made by Attorney General Hunt, of Illinois, and State Attorney Grinnell of Chicago.

The court will probably make a ruling tomorrow morning just before argument begins as to the time which will be allotted to each side.

A DIABOLICAL CRIME. Dastardly Attempt to Burn Thirty Sleeping Italians to Death.

A Grand Rapids, Mich., dispatch of the 25th says: An attempt to burn thirty Italians sleeping in a building in the township of Paris, Kent county, was frustrated last night by the timely warning of one who awoke and found the building in flames. The building was one used by an Italian named Garfalo, who was keeping a sort of store, with rooms above for the sleeping Italians, Lansing and Detroit road, five miles south of the city. There have been hard feelings existing between this crew and a crew of fourteen at work near by and who lived in the city. About 10 o'clock last night an unknown man crept into a vacant room and set fire to the house and then joined a party on the outside, who barricaded the doors and used every effort to keep the inmates from escaping. They, however, managed to get out, many of them leaving all their clothing. An effort will be made to find the guilty ones and punish them. It was a narrow escape, for they had retired early and were sound asleep when the alarm was made.

UNWANTED SCENES IN OLD WEST-MISSTER ABBEY.

A Mob of Unemployed Workmen Take Possession of the Sacred Place.

Several thousand of the unemployed with a red flag at their head, marched in procession Sunday afternoon at London, from Trafalgar square to Westminster Abbey and, although no invitation had been extended, 1200 of the crowd were admitted. The flag was left in charge of the verger. Inside the abbey, many of the unexpected visitors remained covered and indulged in whistling, while others mounted the pedestals of the various statues or mingled with the decent people present, who mostly left the building.

The crowd was a rule showed tobacco and expectorated everywhere regardless of the surroundings until the first lesson was announced, when the reader was loudly jeered, completely drowning his voice. The second lesson was similarly received. Canon Prothro then preached a sermon, taking for his text Romans xii, 1. In his discourse he argued that the punishment of the law-breaker was necessary for the good of the community. This was received with cries of "Oh! Oh!" and "Bosh!"

The preacher earnestly appealed for order and exhorted his hearers to resist every evil and plant good instead. "That's what we are going to do," was shouted and received with cries of "Hear, Hear," and cheers. Canon Prothro now threw his notes aside and addressed himself directly to the congregation. He said: "Legislation could never provide remedy for hunger and suffering, but everybody could express sympathy." (Loud laughter followed by a voice: "That's all we can get.") Canon Prothro continued: "Charitable agencies do much good. We don't want charity; we want work." The reverend gentlemen enlisted the attention of the mob when he advocated State assistance in times of distress. At the close of his remarks the mob hissed and marched out of the abbey, cordially cheered by their comrades in waiting outside. The whole then proceeded shouting and hooting to Trafalgar square, where the leaders denounced the church and police. Several arrests were made of bringing persons and thieves.

Private advices by the last steamer from Havana announce the death of Beriben, the second in command of the United Revolutionary forces of the interior, who led an expedition, leaving Key West August 31 and landing at Bacunayagua, near Matanzas. Six days after landing they were surrounded in the Morjan mountains near Madruga by 2,000 soldiers and were compelled to cut their way out. Beriben made a charge, which was made in the face of a terrible fire, and was among the first seriously wounded, and the only one of the party fatally so. Believing that his first wound, which was in the abdomen and said to have dismembered him, would in a few moments prove fatal, and desiring to sell his life as dearly as possible, he decided to rally his followers to give combat to several forces, numbering as they did at least eight to one, and while advancing at the head of his brave followers he met in a single combat and killed a Spanish officer, late commander of the port of Chirinos, but only to be struck to the ground a moment later, killed by a Spanish sabre. Over 500 snots were exchanged and several soldiers killed, but no other filibuster was even so much as seriously wounded. After Beriben's death, his followers retreated further into the interior, where they are now under command of Colonel Manuel Garcia. A large number of the recruits are believed to anticipate leaving Key West as soon as opportunity offers, but the Spanish men-of-war are now and have been for the past six weeks closely guarding the island, and the ran Sanchez from Havana is in Key West harbor.

In Mr. Thurman's Farewell. In Ohio, Saturday last, ex-Senator Allen G. Thurman said: "My friends, this is probably the last political speech I ever shall make. I don't know. I am a pretty tough old fellow, and it may be that I will be wandering about here like a ghost on the bank of Styx ten years from now talking democracy to you. I swear you will never hear me talking anything else. But I am inclined to think that this is the last political speech I ever shall make. And if it is, in my parting words to you I beseech you to stand by the great principles that Thomas Jefferson laid down for the American people, that Andrew Jackson enforced, and that have made this country one of the greatest and freest and most lovable countries upon which the sun of God shines today. Be thankful that you have such a government, and never forget that, when you come to sift it down, to analyze it, to hold it, you will find that every principle that has contributed to your happiness is a principle of the democratic party."

"Thank you, thank you, but there's no need. The other side of the block will be round this way in a moment, and I'll just pop in when my door comes along. Thank you. Good night."
