NEWS OBSERVATIONS.

-The French Chamber of Deputies has decided to investigate the decoration scandal forthwith.

-Cardinal Taschereau absented himself from the Premier's reception at Quebec because he learned that the ladies' costumes would be decollete. -The erection of a temporary building in Louisville capable of seating 5,000 persons has been agreed upon for the Moody meetings in that city, and it will be ready for occupancy by January 1. The meetings will continue for one month. -On account of the scarcity of coal, caused by the strike of the coal miners, the public schools at Spring-field, Ill., have been compelled to close. The price of anthracite coal per cent advance in bituminous coal s predicted.

-A telegram brings the news that Stanley has advanced about seven hundred and eighty miles since he was last heard of, on August 25. He was in excellent health. He had met with a friendly reception from the natives in hitherto unexplored country through which he had to pass. As a precaution the explorer has had entrenched camps constructed at all the halting places. This news was brought from Stanley Pool by the steamer OCT. 27, 1887 Florida
