NEWS OBSERVATIONS. The London Post's Berlin correspondent says: "The truth is now becoming known regarding the rumor of the betrothal of the Princess Victoria to Prince Alexander of Battenberg. The story was invented by the court party in conjunction with some members of the imperial household in order to prevent Prince Alexander from coming to Berlin to enter the army, and also in order to excite a popular feeling against the Emperor."

CONGRESS. PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

THE TARIFF BILL AGAIN IN THE LATTER—MR. SPRINGER AGAIN IN THE CHAIR—OTHER NEWS. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, April 26.—SENATE.—Among the bills reported from committee and placed on the calendar were the following: To provide for the enlargement of the dimensions of the wharf at Fortress Monroe; appropriating $35,000 for an equestrian statue of Gen. Zachary Taylor in the city of Washington.

Mr. Ingalls gave notice that on Tuesday next he would submit some remarks in reply to the speech of Sen. or Voorhees of yesterday, in which he would touch upon some points omitted by that Senator. The Senate then took up the land forfeiture bill, and was addressed by Mr. Palmer in opposition to all amendments affecting lands granted to the State of Michigan for railroad purposes by the Governor of that State, and also to the Lake Superior Ship Canal Co.

Mr. Dolph followed in a speech upon the general land policy of the government. At the conclusion of Mr. Dolph's speech the land bill was laid aside and a number of bills taken from the calendar and passed, among them a House bill for the relief of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Alabama, and the Senate bill appropriating $150,000 for a public building in Norfolk, Va. Adjourned to Monday.

Mr. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, from the committee on ways and means reported the resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for information as to the number of persons in the United States engaged in manufacturing and agricultural pursuits who are subject to competition from foreign countries. Adopted.

The House then went into committee on the whole, (Mr. Springer of Illinois in the chair) on the tariff bill. Mr. Buchanan, of New Jersey, criticized the composition of the tariff and means committee and the method in which it had formulated the pending measure. He arraigned the committee for its refusal to grant hearings to the industries of the country or to consider the petitions against the measure which poured into the committee room from all parts of the country.

Mr. Hemphill, of South Carolina, contended that as the Constitution conferred upon Congress the right to tax the people for public purposes only, every time it went beyond that limitation it violated in a flagrant manner the privilege which it had been granted. A tariff for protection was illegal and unjust. Under the entire people were subjected to monopoly. The only difference between home monopoly and foreign monopoly, (admitting that there could exist such a thing as foreign monopoly,) was that the people had to pay a heavy additional percentage for the privilege of having their wares on this side of the water.

Mr. Perkins, of Kansas, inquired whether the gentleman believed that American citizens should be permitted to buy where they pleased. Mr. Hemphill replied in the affirmative, and expressed his belief in freedom in all things, and called attention to the fact that high protectionists had never attempted to protect the labor of the country from the importation of the so-called pauper labor of Europe. In arguing against high tariff he said that according to the theory of the protectionists nothing in the heavens above or the earth beneath or the waters under the earth so satisfied the cravings of the soul and body of the hungry laboring man as to see his employer luxuriating in the money gathered from the long suffering and patient people under the pretense that it was for the benefit of the laborer. He contrasted the periods between 1850 and 1860 and between 1870 and 1880 to show that in the low tariff era the wealth of the farmers of the country had increased 100 per cent, while in the high tariff era it had only increased 9 per cent.

THE EMPEROR. HAS A SOMEWHAT BETTER NIGHT.

QUEEN VICTORIA PRAYS AT THE LATE EMPEROR'S MAUSOLEUM—OTHER NEWS. By Cable to the News and Observer. LONDON, April 26.—A dispatch from Berlin says that the Emperor rose at noon and walked in the room adjoining his bed room. The doctors are in hopes that he will be able to drive out by Monday. Queen Victoria visited the mausoleum this morning and spent some time in prayer at the tomb of Emperor William. The Empress and her daughters accompanied the Queen.

Machine Works Burned. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. BOSTON, April 26.—The Atlantic Machine Works, corner of Border and Mowing streets, were burned this morning causing an estimated loss of $150,000. The fire started in the pattern shop and the supposition is that it caught from the wires from an electric light. Assistance was asked from the city proper, but it arrived after the flames had made great headway. The rear portion of the building was quickly destroyed and a scene of great excitement was caused when the walls fell in, carrying with them all the machinery and completely destroying the engine room. It required the greatest energy to prevent the fire from spreading to adjoining buildings. Four workmen were injured. One of them, Robert Cassidy, will die. The loss is probably covered by insurance.

Change of Officials. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, April 26.—The District Commissioners today removed Tax Collector John T. Cook and District Auditor Isaac S. Tichenor. E. G. Day, formerly a dry goods merchant in Washington, was appointed to succeed Cook and J. T. Petty, assistant of Washington, to succeed Tichenor. Petty has been book keeper in the Auditor's office for many years. Cook is a colored man, very popular, and has held the office since 1876. The reason given for these changes is "administrative expediency" and he retiring officials are complimented in the notices of removal.

PEASANTS' DAMAGE TO TRUCK FARMS AND FRUIT—DISCOURAGED TRUCKERS—HEAVY LOSS ESTIMATED. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. NORFOLK, Va., April 26.—There was a heavy frost in this section last night and damage to truck farms is said to be from 1 1/2 to 2 million dollars. These figures were given, however, by some truckers who were completely discouraged by the damage to their fields. The most careful estimate puts the damage at a half to three quarters of a million dollars. The wind was from the South and farms situated on the water so as to get salt air experienced small damage, but in the back country, in Norfolk, Princess Anne, and Nansemond counties, potato vines were cut down to the hills, beans, cucumbers, watermelons and tomatoes were entirely destroyed and peas and strawberries put back a week or ten days. The seed stores here were entirely exhausted of stock for replanting today.

APRIL CROP REPORT. PRESENT PREPARATION, CONDITION, PROSPECTS, &c., OF CROPS. Through the courtesy of Secretary Blyden, we have been furnished with the crop report for April, which will appear in the monthly Bulletin now in press. For the most parts of the State, the rainfall since last report, has been the chief cause of complaint; other wise the conditions favorable to farm operations have been all that the farmer could desire. It is yet too early to gain specific information in regard to most crops and injuries have been of a general nature, yet the reports prove encouraging in all directions. The prospect is good for a full apple crop, peaches damaged by frost and only half crop expected. The question of home-made manures was again enquired into, and the responses from the various counties are given in brief below.

CONDITION OF WHEAT. The condition of the wheat plant is reported more than two points ahead of the March estimate, the rain has not damaged the plant and the mild weather has been favorable to its development. The estimated condition of the growing plant is 97 1/2 in the whole State. CONDITION OF OATS AND RYE. In some parts of the State there is complaint of failure of oat crop from rain and over flow, while in other parts the reports are enthusiastic. The average condition of the plant at date is 93; that of rye is 94 which is an improvement over the last estimate.

CONDITION OF ORCHARDS. The condition of orchards in the State is gratifying, as in most all parts of the fruit growing sections, reports are favorable. The estimate for the State is 89; apples, 89; peaches damaged by frost, 54. PREPARATION FOR ALL CROPS. In response to the question, "Remarks on preparation for general crops," the only cause of complaint was wet weather which has delayed work in many sections, otherwise all is moving well. The average condition of preparation in the State is 90, which means that the farmers are from a week to ten days in getting lands ready for the reception of seed.

CLOVER, MEADOWS AND PASTURES. The condition of clover fields, meadow and pasture lands, is reported at 92 for the State. This is sufficiently good to indicate that these crops will be up to the average, if not better. The harvested crops will be in excess of former years because there is a larger area seed than ever before in the history of the State.

In a certain reference suit in London the cost on one side has already amounted to half a million dollars.

THE CARDINAL. As Cardinal Gibbons stepped from the platform of his special car, yesterday evening, and entered a carriage for a drive through our city, he was the cynosure of all eyes.

As Cardinal Gibbons stepped from the platform of his special car, yesterday evening, and entered a carriage for a drive through our city, he was the cynosure of all eyes. His manner, as he shook hands with numerous friends, was genial, wholesome and pleasant. The colors of a Cardinal, which he wore, attracted all eyes to him and marked him as "the Cardinal," even in the hands of those unacquainted with the emblems of the Catholic religion. He was attended by two dignitaries of the church of Rome.—Asheville Sun.

A London dealer in orchids employs sixteen collectors in South America, Africa, Asia and the Pacific Islands. A Warning. The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that every one, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing consumption and to the heart, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, Lungs or Nerves, obtain a bottle of Bosche's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.
