CHIEF JUSTICE. THE NOMINEE OF THE PRESIDENT.

MELVILLE W. FULLER, OF ILLINOIS—ANOTHER OF CLEVELAND'S SURPRISES.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—The President has sent the following nomination to the Senate: Melville W. Fuller, of Illinois, to be Chief Justice of the United States.

Judge Fuller is a native of Maine, and is a grandson of ex-Chief Justice Weston of that State. He has, however, been a resident of Illinois for many years, and has attained a prominent place at the bar in Chicago.

Representative Springer said the appointment of Judge Fuller as Chief Justice was the very best one the President could have made.

Senator Callom says: I have known Fuller for twenty-five years or more. He is a scholar and is possessed of more than ordinary literary attainments.

Senator Farwell is not in the city. It is stated that Senators Callom and Farwell have assured the President that they will vote for the confirmation of Judge Fuller.

Supreme Court. Court met yesterday at 10 o'clock a. m., and appeals from the Eleventh District were disposed of as follows: Anderson vs. Long, argued by J. C. L. Harris for plaintiff, and D. G. Fowle for defendant.

3 Edwards vs. Cooper. 21 Etheridge vs. Hildard. 25 Packett vs. Alexander. 26 Owens vs. Owens.

44 Branch vs. Walker. 50 Grant vs. Hughes. 53 Knight vs. Rountree. 55 Howell vs. Hazell.

60 Parker vs. Sutton. 243 Cade vs. Davis. 250 Buie vs. Brown. 256 Comron vs. Stannaland.

388 Wiseman vs. Commissioners. 373 Latham vs. Wilcox. 384 Porter vs. Grimley. 385 State vs. Jones.

Decrease in the Debt. WASHINGTON, April 30.—It is estimated at the Treasury Department that there has been a decrease of $3 millions in the public debt during the month of March.

CONGRESS. PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY IN THE HOUSE.

THE ASHEVILLE PUBLIC BUILDING BILL GETS ON THE SENATE CALENDAR—MR. GROSVENOR HAS THE FLOOR ON THE TARIFF—OTHER NEWS.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, April 30.—SENATE.—Among the bills reported from committees and placed on the calendar were the following: House bill for a public building at Asheville, N. C.; Senate bill fixing the salaries of judges of the United States District Courts at $5,000 (Mr. Coke dissenting); Senate bill to increase the endowment of the Louisiana State University and Agricultural College; by Mr. Stewart, to require the purchase and coinage of not less than $4,000,000 worth of silver bullion per month.

Mr. Padlock offered an amendment providing that nothing in the act should be construed as limiting the rights granted to purchasers or settlers by the forfeiture act of the third of March, 1887, or as repealing, altering or amending that act.

Mr. Call opposed the amendment as one that would operate to the interest of large purchasers and speculators in railroad land to which the companies had no title.

The amendment was adopted—yeas 38, nays 7. Mr. Call offered an amendment providing that actual settlers on the forfeited railroad grant land in the State of Florida who made actual settlement after the time limited for the construction of the road may perfect their titles under the homestead or pre-emption law.

After discussion the bill went over without action on the amendment. The international copyright bill was taken up. The amendment heretofore offered by Mr. Morrill (as to the republication of magazines and newspaper articles) was withdrawn by his authority and another amendment was offered for him by the clerk who said he would accept it as a matter of compromise.

Mr. V. moved to strike out of this floor clause "from time to time" as to have the clause read "book or dramatic composition printed within the limits of the United States." This proposition elicited a good deal of debate.

Mr. Grosvenor suggested that if the internal revenue system was abolished the present tariff would not produce sufficient revenue to the government needed. If, when the internal system was repealed, it was found that the tariff brought in a surplus revenue there might be some point in the gentleman's argument.

He denied that any man on this floor could be a Democrat and remain in favor of the protective system. In a few months the Democratic party would go before the people. What did it propose to say in its convention? What account did it propose to render of its stewardship if it broke its promises?

Mr. Henderson of Iowa, said that the President had thrown the gauntlet at the feet of protection and stood boldly up as the champion of free trade. As an illustration of the manner in which the President's sentiments were received in Europe, he quoted a personal letter of a friend of his abroad in which he says that everybody there is friendly to the views expressed by the President and looks forward with joy to the day when the manufactured products of Europe can be placed upon our market.

Mr. Jones of Arkansas, moved to strike out all of section 2 (requiring as part of the conditions of copyright, printed copies of books and works of art to be sent to the Congressional Library, the books to be printed from type set within the United States).

This proposition caused another long debate. When a vote was taken it stood yeas 14, nays 19, no quorum voting. Adjourned.

COMMERCIAL EPIGRAMS. FRIDAY NIGHT, APRIL 27, 1888.

The occurrences affecting trade and commerce during the past week have been quite unimportant. The debate in Congress over the new tariff bill drags its slow length along, and the political intelligence from Europe is not decided feature.

Even in labor troubles there is nothing to call for special reference. The temperature early in the week was quite low, damage being reported to fruits by frosts. The close, however, is much warmer. Money is easy, but trade and speculation alike feel the absence of stimulating influences.

Lard on the spot was firmer and fairly active yesterday in the week, but declined yesterday and was again lower today, closing dull at 7 3/8c for prime city, 8 1/8c for prime to choice Western, 8 1/2c for refined to the Continent, and 9c for refined to South America. The speculation in lard for future delivery opened the week quite buoyant, but has lately declined somewhat, under sales to realize, and again fell off today, closing unsettled.

Pork is firm, but the close is dull; extra prime, $12 7/8; old and new, $13 1/8. Cut-meats are firmer and have been active, but close dull, including beef, $7 3/8; shoulders, $7 3/8; and hams, $11 1/4c, smoked shoulders, 8 1/4c, and hams, $12 1/4c. Beef is nominal at $7 1/2c for extra and $8 for pocket per cwt; India mess hams dull at $15 7/8c per barrel. Tallow steady at 4 3/8c. Suet is dearer at 9 1/2c, and oleoargaine is quiet at 7 1/2c. Butter is active and firmer at 22-27c for creamery. Cheese is unsettled; old State factory quoted at 10 1/2c; new do., 9 1/2c; and new skims, 8-6c.

Office on the spot has been much more active. Yesterday there were sales of Padang, March shipment, at 16 1/2c, and Government Java to arrive at 14 1/2c, and a full business was done in Rio at 12 1/2c for No. 7, the inside price on store terms. The speculation in Rio options has been dull, but at generally better prices, closing today barely steady.

Raw sugars were dull and drooping, and close somewhat nominal at 44 1/2c for fair refined Cuba and 5 7/8c for centrifugal, 9c for best. Refined sugars are also a trifle lower. Molasses fell back to 2 1/2c for 50 days test, and 2 1/2c for revival of trade. The tea sale on Wednesday went off at steady prices, Formosa Oolong doing a little better; yesterday 16,500 half chest Oolong sold at private sale. Sicily fruits have sold freely at auction, at prices covering a wide range.

Spirits turpentine declined to 38c, but was more active today at 38 1/2c. Rosins are quiet at $1 17 1/2c for common to good strained. Cruise petroleum certificates have been unsettled but less depressed, closing today at 85 1/2c.

The speculation in cotton for future delivery at this market was quite dull for the week under review. Neither bulls nor bears seemed to have the courage to act. The character of the foreign advices generally, the full movement of the current crop, and the better planting weather have favored the bears; but the large export movement, effecting a rapid reduction in stocks, has given the bulls a slight advantage in the run of values.

Liquidation is going on in the South with some urgency, but it is also evident that Europe wants cotton, and though taking only after a hand-to-mouth fashion, shipments promise to be well sustained for the remainder of the current crop. On Wednesday the bulls showed more confidence than for some time past. Yesterday a buoyant opening was followed by depression, under the full issue of short notices for May delivery, which were thrown upon the market, and a beseech by purchases for arrival to be exported. Today the market was depressed by unfavorable foreign advices. Cotton on the spot met with a fair demand for export and home consumption, and on Wednesday some speculation was reported. Yesterday quotations were advanced 1 1/2c. Today the market was quieter but steady at 9 13 1/8c for middling uplands.

The figures indicate a decrease in the cotton night tonight of 111,447 bales compared with the same date of 1887, a decrease of 66,313 bales as compared with the corresponding date of 1886 and a decrease of 23,924 bales as compared with 1885.

The totals show that the old interior stock has decreased during the week 16,481 bales and are bought 110,053 bales more than at the same period last year. The receipts at the same time have been 4,931 bales more than the same week last year, and since September 1 the receipts at all the towns are 53,349 bales more than for the same time in 1886-7.

French of a Prominent Young Priest. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. BOSTON, Mass., April 30.—A cable dispatch announces the death yesterday of Rev. Wm. H. Deasy, of Boston, vice-rector of the American College at Rome. Father Deasy was a graduate of the Boston Latin School and of Seton Hall College at South Orange, N. J. He was thirty years of age and had lived in Rome for the last eight years.

THE SOUTH WOULD SOON SEE THE PRICE OF COTTON (NOW 8 CENTS, AND WHICH HAD BEEN 14 CENTS UNDER THE TARIFF OF 1881) STILL FURTHER REDUCED.

At the conclusion of Mr. Gallinger's speech the committee rose and the House adjourned.

It was strange that the Democratic party was led by the statesman President of the United States in defense of the internal revenue system; that suddenly the Democratic party had become the champion of that system. For twenty years gentlemen representing the Southern States had not only denounced the general system of internal revenue, but had opposed all government effort to enforce the law, and so thoroughly inoculated the people of the South with the belief that the system was tyrannous that they had built up a great sentiment in the South that to defend and violate and destroy that system by fraud and violence and bloodshed and murder was but an assertion of the God-given right of rebellion against the tyrannous enactment of a tyrannous government.

Mr. Henderson of Iowa, said that the President had thrown the gauntlet at the feet of protection and stood boldly up as the champion of free trade. As an illustration of the manner in which the President's sentiments were received in Europe, he quoted a personal letter of a friend of his abroad in which he says that everybody there is friendly to the views expressed by the President and looks forward with joy to the day when the manufactured products of Europe can be placed upon our market.

Mr. Jones of Arkansas, moved to strike out all of section 2 (requiring as part of the conditions of copyright, printed copies of books and works of art to be sent to the Congressional Library, the books to be printed from type set within the United States).

This proposition caused another long debate. When a vote was taken it stood yeas 14, nays 19, no quorum voting. Adjourned.

Mr. Gallinger, of New Hampshire, said that the portentous struggle was one between England and America, and characterized by a wicked assault upon the industries of New England. It should, he said, be entitled a bill "to reduce New England to the position of a dependency of Great Britain." He confessed that the present tariff agitation alarmed New England manufacturers, but they had a fair reason for alarm. The New England platform was destined to be the platform of the South when its mines were opened, its furnaces in blast and its manufactories busy.

Let Congress strike down the domestic cotton industry; let it reduce the

A DEMENTED MINISTER CUTS HIS OWN THROAT WITH A RAZOR.

IN A DELICIOUS FEVER HE RISES FROM HIS BED AND ENDS HIS LIFE IN A TRAGIC AND HORRIBLE MANNER.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 30.—Rev. C. T. King, Pastor of the Miller avenue Methodist Church, committed suicide last night while delirious from fever. He arose from his bed, secured a razor, and before his landlady could reach him, had dashed into another part of the house and cut three frightful gashes in his neck and a most severed his head from his body. He died almost instantly. Mr. King was thirty years of age. He was a successful minister and well known.

A Peanut Trust Formed at Norfolk, Va. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. NORFOLK, Va., April 30.—A peanut trust has been formed in this city, embracing the firms engaged in the peanut trade in St. Louis, Cincinnati, New York and Norfolk, Petersburg and Smithfield, Va. In fact, the entire peanut industry of the country, with the exception of three small factories. A president and a board of directors have been elected.

The Emperor's Condition Unchanged. By Cable to the News and Observer. BERLIN, April 30.—The Emperor passed a quiet night last night. His fever has almost entirely subsided. His general condition is unchanged.

Henderson County Democrats. Special to the News and Observer. HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., April 29.—The Democrats of Henderson county today instructed delegates to vote for F. F. Jones for Governor, Alexander F. Leitch for Lieutenant Governor, Johnstone for Congress, Tom for State Senator, Judges of Supreme Court Sup. Avery and Graves.

Lombard Items. Cor. of the News and Observer. LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 30.—The vacancy in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county, caused by the resignation of A. W. Pearce, was filled Saturday by Judge Connor, by the appointment of Mr. J. King, of Caldwell county, an educated and intelligent man, and his appointment cannot but reflect credit on the wisdom and discretion shown by Judge Connor.

Mr. B. P. Clifton, prominent merchant of this place and treasurer of the county, was struck on the paralytic side last Saturday night. This is his second attack in a year, and he is now confined to his recovery. He married a sister of Col. A. B. Andrews.

A movement has been on foot here to make up a stock company and purchase the splendid water power at this place and build a cotton factory. It is very much to be hoped that the movement will be successful. The water power here is sufficient to run any kind of machinery that might be needed.

Crops are somewhat backward on account of the unfavorable season for seeding.

The name of Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, of Raleigh, is being prominently mentioned as the Democratic nominee for Governor. We believe Judge Fowle would make a good run, and, if elected, would make an executive officer that all North Carolina would be proud of. He is a pure, honest, able and good man, and has, undoubtedly, done more hard work for his party and had less recognition than any other man.—Person County Courier.

Among these, no man appears better fitted for the place or to deserve it more than Col. Jos. B. Batcher, of Raleigh, once the Attorney General of North Carolina. Col. Batcher is young enough to bear the fatigues incident to the office and old enough to have had long and broad experience at the bar. One of the ablest lawyers in the State, his mind is so essentially judicial in its character that he would honor the bench even more than he has gained the bar. His reputation as a scholar, learned in the law and sound in judgment, he lacks none of the qualities that make a great judge, while his courtesy is so uniform that the amenities of the bench would not escape his attention.—Shelby News Era.

The board of aldermen of Goldsboro publish an itemized statement of city expenditures. That's right, and all North Carolina towns and cities ought to let the people know to whom the public money is paid and what for. County commissioners are required to do so, why should not boards of aldermen do the same?—Charlotte Democrat.
