THE BAPTIST CONVENTI N.

Third Day of the Proceedings at Rich-RICHMOND, Va., May 14 .- The third day's session of the Southern Baptist Convention opened this morning with devotional exercises, after which T. W. Sydnor, of Virginia, presented a report on missions to the colored people. The committee expresses its profound conviction of the importance of fostering friendly relations be-tween the whites and the blacks of the South, and of encouraging the home board to work on a larger scale and with more effectiveness by placing increased funds at their disposal. The Southern Baptists were represented as not doing as much for the religious instruction of the negroes now as before the war, and in some respects the religious condition of

By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

WASHINGTON, May 14 .- Proposed amendments to the tariff bill continue to flow in upon the ways and means committee. Another batch was received this morning and it is known that many others are in course of preparation. The Democratic members of the committee have already held several meetings to discuss the amendments, but up to the present time final action has not been taken in the case of a single amendment. Hearings have been given to half a dozen Representatives upon the subject matter of the amendments proposed by them, but the effect has not been o simplify the labors of the commitof views expressed by representatives upon identical clauses of the bill. One Democrat, for instance, proposes to put finished building stone on the free list while placing a high blocks and protection for the dressed product.
