

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness.

DARBY'S Prophylactic Fluid. Use it in every sick-room for Safety, Cleanliness and Comfort.

Vanderbilt University, Tenn.: As a distinctive and delicious Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is superior to any preparation with which it is acquainted.

Woolcott & Son, 14 East Main Street.

NEW BARGAINS In all kinds of WHITE GOODS. Lace, Flouncings, Hamburgs, Swiss Embroidery, White and Colored Laces, Oriental and Dental Laces, Summer Dress Goods, Lace Curtains, White Spreads, Ribbons, &c., &c.

60c, Cheap at $1.00.

30 per cent Less than their value.

$500 Reward! We will pay the above reward for any case of diphtheria, typhoid, cholera, etc.

FOWLE Nominated on the 23d Ballot.

Patriotic Speeches by Him and Major Stedman. ALEXANDER FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

He Declines the Nomination—Other Nominations. The State Democratic Convention reassembled yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and was called to order by Chairman Cox.

On the 20th ballot Judge Fowle fell off to 373, Stedman was steady at 336 and Alexander rose to 251. The changes in this and other ballots were various.

On the 21st ballot Judge Fowle rose to the highest vote he had ever received, scoring 437. Stedman received 317, while Alexander fell back to 205.

The balloting now came to be unusually interesting and developments were expected, and the delegates were eager for the next trial of strength.

When the roll was being called, as some new changes were made from one column to the other, the excitement increased and occasionally there was a fervor of applause. When the result was announced it was realized that Fowle had risen still higher and Stedman as well, while Alexander had fallen away.

As the long continued cheering for Fowle reverberated through the hall, while the clerks were counting up the count, a telegram was handed to Mr. F. Bravard McDowell, Mayor of Charlotte, chairman of the Mecklenburg delegation, which it soon came to be understood was from Capt. Alexander, and expectation was high when he asked leave for the Mecklenburg delegation to retire for consultation.

It was now apparent to all that the end was nigh, and that the protracted struggle was near its close—but no one could predict on whom the good fortune would fall. Both the supporters of Stedman and of Fowle were hopeful and anxious.

The agony was now certainly about to close, and hopes and fears were mingled on every face. Delegation returned, and Mr. McDowell taking his place on the stand announced a telegram from Capt. Alexander, under the direction of which he withdrew his name from the consideration of the convention in connection with the nomination for Governor. In the breathless suspense of the moment, a delegate shouted out, "How about Lieutenant Governor?"

As to that, replied Mr. McDowell, I say nothing now, with the hope that Capt. Alexander will still be on the ticket, aiding to secure the success all so ardently desired.

On the 23d ballot, changes favorable to Fowle continued to be made. Anson, Buncombe, Davidson and Transylvania as they were reached in the roll call asked to be passed over, and Wayne was not ready. But the ballot proceeded so favorably to the Fowle ticket when Wake cast her 32 votes that the convention realized that the contest was closed in his favor, and the building shook with cheers. When the counties that had asked to be passed over had voted, Melville E. Carter, Esq. of Buncombe, obtained the floor and said: As a friend of Major Stedman he moved in his name make the nomination of Judge Fowle unanimous, which motion was at once put and carried with great applause from the vast concourse of people. The final vote was then announced as follows: Fowle, 523; Stedman, 436; Alexander, 205.

Upon the announcement of the vote the convention rose bodily to its feet and the scene which followed was grand to behold. Thousands of men leaped into the chairs and thousands of hats waved in the air while cheers went up long, loud and deafening. When quiet was restored a motion was made by R. S. Huske, Esq., that a committee be appointed to wait on Judge Fowle and inform him of his nomination and invite him to address the convention. The chair appointed Messrs. R. S. Huske, F. B. McDowell and Geo. H. Brown. A motion was made by D. C. Cronin, Esq., that a committee be appointed to wait on Lieut. Gov. Stedman and invite him to address the convention. The chair appointed Messrs. J. B. Sawyer, R. B. Peebles and J. S. Carr.

has always shown. His speech was unflattering, clear as a bell, and his words were distinctly heard in the farthest corner of the building. He began by saying he was for the nominees of the convention whoever they might be, and pledged the faithful service in their behalf all know is forthcoming from Charles M. Stedman at the call of the Democratic party. He said he could not find words to express his thanks for the hearty, enthusiastic and long and ardent support he had received while at the same time he had no unkind feeling and no thought of reproach for any who had preferred to him another.

It matters not who the Democracy nominated so he was a Democrat tried and true. He charged the noble array of the grand old Democratic party of North Carolina before him assembled to lay aside common differences and present an unbroken column and acquit themselves in a manner to realize the traditions, the hopes and the prophecies of their ancestors.

It is safe to say that he won the admiration of every man in the hall. He has been very generally admired, indeed, by the Democracy of the State for the sterling qualities he possesses, but we venture to say that after his superb bearing and his address, this admiration had been increased a hundredfold and widened throughout the whole extent of North Carolina. As he made his adieu to the audience he was most enthusiastically applauded and friends of all ways of thinking crowded upon him and expressed their appreciation of his noble sentiments and admirable bearing. Three cheers were given him most heartily and one prominent member of the convention called for three cheers for "Senator Stedman" which were given with a will.

Shortly after he had taken his seat Judge Fowle appeared, accompanied by his committee of escort, and it seemed as if the roof would be raised by the tremendous cheering that greeted his entrance. He made his way with difficulty to the platform, every hand he met being stretched out in cordial congratulation. Finally reaching the speakers stand, however, he was introduced by Maj. Stedman in the handsomest manner possible and proceeded to speak of his appreciation of the high honor that had been done him, of his readiness to go to work in behalf of the cause of Democracy and Constitutional government and of his determination to write another great victory on the Democratic banner. He was eloquent and forcible, and while disclaiming any purpose to make a political speech to men every one of whom he expected to meet again at the home of each before the end of the campaign, he made some most telling points against Radicalism, just by way of a starter, let us say. He contrasted the extravagance and plunder of Radical rule with the efficiency, the economy and the credit a just tribute to the present administration of public affairs and to those in the lead of the agricultural and industrial interests of the State.

He stood before the Democracy of the State of North Carolina to signify his willingness and intention to do all in his power for the honor and success of that party. He paid the glowing tribute to both Stedman and Alexander. He was thankful to the Great Ruler of the universe that the State of North Carolina was under Democratic control and said we ought to be proud of the Constitutional party under whose banner we stood. He paid a glowing tribute to Judges Smith, Davis and Merrimon as among the great men whose names would go down to illuminate the pages of our State's history. He then turned to the Democracy of the State and farmers, whom he termed the backbone of the State. He said that he had been nearly beaten by the gallant Stedman, but the farmers had come nearer beating them all, and he believed if they had ninety days more for the fight they would have swept the field. He referred to the great leader of the Democratic party, Grover Cleveland, and the great reform inaugurated by him. He wanted the internal revenue law re-wrote that did not drink whisky, whatever his appearance might be. He closed by assuring the Democrats of the good old North State that he would find an Oliver for every shaft that "My son Dockery" might send in. His address elicited the most enthusiastic applause and was thoroughly appreciated. He spoke to men who know what they want in a candidate for Governor and who know also that they have it in Daniel G. Fowle. He went down with dear personal friends. He had sat there both when a youth in the halls of the university of North Carolina, and knew what kind of stuff they were made of. The Democratic party could not have three more gallant sons from among whom to choose a leader than Fowle, Stedman and Alexander, and with Fowle as the leader the whole Democratic force would rally to the fight.

Capt. F. N. Strudwick spoke warmly endorsing Alexander for Lieut. Governor. He said there was but one thing to make success overwhelmingly assured, and that was the name of S. B. Alexander on the gubernatorial ticket.

Hon. Kope Elias, of Macon, endorsed the nomination and said it would be his pride to battle for the Fowle and Alexander beyond the hills of Western North Carolina. It was then moved that the nomination of S. B. Alexander be made by acclamation, Chairman Cox put the motion and the convention responded with an "aye" which fairly rocked the air.

The convention then at 2 o'clock took a recess of one hour. AT 4 O'CLOCK the convention reassembled and was called to order by Chairman Cox. J. C. Buxton, Esq., of Forsyth, moved that all nominating speeches be limited to five minutes. The motion prevailed.

Hon. John L. King, of Guilford, moved that a committee of five be appointed to inform Hon. S. B. Alexander of his election as Lieutenant Governor. The motion prevailed.

The convention proceeded to the nomination of candidates for Supreme Court Judges. Hon. W. L. Steele, of Rockingham, nominated Judge J. J. Davis, the present incumbent appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Ashe. Hugh S. Scott, Esq., of Rockingham, moved that the nomination of Judge Davis be made by acclamation. The motion was unanimously carried.

The convention then proceeded to nominate candidates for the places provided for in the proposed amendment adding two Associate Justices to the present number. R. B. Glenn, Esq., of Forsyth, nominated Hon. James C. MacRae; W. B. Glenn, Esq., placed in nomination Hon. J. F. Graves; Capt. B. H. Bunn placed in nomination Judge James C. Shepherd, of Beaufort; Wm. Day, Esq., of Halifax, nominated Hon. Thos. N. Hill, of Halifax; J. C. Buxton, Esq., nominated Hon. Wm. D. Pruden, of Chowan; Capt. F. N. Strudwick nominated Hon. John Manning; Hon. L. C. Latham nominated Judge A. C. Avery, of Morgan; Thos. W. Strange, Esq., seconded the nomination of Hon. Thos. N. Hill; L. L. Smith, Esq., seconded the nomination of William D. Pruden, Esq.; Capt. C. M. Cooke seconded the nomination of Judge Shepherd; P. J. Sinclair, Esq., seconded the nomination of Judge Graves; Mr. Theo. F. Klutz, of Rowan, seconded the nomination of Judge Avery; S. J. Pemberton, Esq., placed in nomination Platt D. Walker, Esq., of Mecklenburg.

As the ballot was about to proceed some commotion was caused by the appearance on the rostrum of J. J. Laughinghouse, Esq., of Beaufort county, who, it was learned intended to make a personal attack upon Judge Shepherd. As soon as his purpose was known there was a decided sensation, and there was great confusion and uproar and the convention refused to hear a personal attack, whereupon Mr. Laughinghouse, amid much feeling, retired from the rostrum. In a few minutes a note was sent to the secretary by a friend of Judge Shepherd, who is not in the city, saying that it was Judge Shepherd's wish that charges which might be desired to be made against him, also stated that as the personal friend and on behalf of Judge Shepherd, he hoped Mr. Laughinghouse would be heard. Mr. Laughinghouse then came forward and spoke. He charged that Judge Shepherd, then a practicing lawyer, had been guilty of subornation of perjury in the trial of the murderers of Gen. Bryan Grimes, he being counsel for them. During his remarks he became very excited and appeared to lose control of himself. As soon as Mr. Laughinghouse had retired, the stand was immediately taken by Mr. C. B. Aycock, of Goldsboro, a talented and prominent young lawyer of that place, who made a reply that was entirely convincing. He read affidavits from Judge David Schenck, who was the presiding judge at the trial, and also from Hon. John A. Gilmer and others who were present at the trial. Mr. Aycock completely vindicated the honor and integrity of Judge Shepherd and was warmly cheered with applause. Mr. Laughinghouse said that he would not waste his time in making a personal attack upon Judge Shepherd, and that he would withdraw his name. The ballot then proceeded.

Paul B. Means, Esq., of Cabarrus; W. E. Ashley, Esq., of Wake. The ballot resulted in the election of Richard Battle, Esq., J. S. Carr, Esq., Hon. Paul B. Means and T. W. Strange Esq. The alternates were the following: Col. Frank Cox, Hon. W. R. Cox, Hon. W. L. Steele, A. B. Galloway, Esq. Mr. F. Bravard McDowell announced that he had just received a telegram from Capt. S. B. Alexander from which after consultation with R. H. Battle, Esq., he deemed it proper to say to the convention that it would be best to nominate another Lieutenant Governor. It was inferred from this that Capt. Alexander had declined the nomination. Mr. McDowell said that Mecklenburg would support Fowle with solid front.

The nomination of a Lieutenant Governor was postponed till the other State officers should be nominated. After some random discussion as to adjournment the convention proceeded to the nomination of the State officers.

Hon. Paul B. Means, of Cabarrus, moved that Col. W. L. Saunders be nominated for Secretary of State by acclamation. The motion was carried amid enthusiastic applause. The convention re-nominated Messrs. Saunders, Bain, Finger and Davidson for the offices they now hold, and at 12:30 this morning was adjourned. Auditor, Messrs. Roberts, Sanderlin, Melver, Darras, Bourne and Cahoon being in nomination.

The roll call for Auditor then proceeded. With the following result: Gen. W. P. Roberts 250, Sheriff T. F. Cahoon 130, H. C. Bourne 119, W. A. Darden 60, Duncan E. McIver 276, Geo. W. Sanderlin 219.

There being no election the convention proceeded to a second ballot. At the second ballot the names of Cahoon, Darden and Sanderlin, at 12:45 Gen. Roberts withdrew, and Rev. G. W. Sanderlin received the nomination.

Mr. Sanderlin accepted the nomination in eloquent terms. THE PLATFORM. The report of the committee on platform was here read by J. P. Caldwell, Esq., of Statesville, and enthusiastically adopted. It was as follows: We again congratulate the people of North Carolina on the continued enjoyment of peace, good government and general prosperity under Democratic administration of the State.

The affairs of the State which has now been unbroken for so many years, upon the just and impartial enforcement of the law, upon the increasing efficiency of our common school system, and the progress made in popular education, upon the improvement and enterprise manifested in all parts of the State. We again challenge a comparison between this state of things and the outrages, crimes and scandals which attended Republican ascendancy in our borders. We will ourselves to exert in the future as in the past our best efforts for the benefit of all sections of the State.

Mr. Sanderlin accepted the nomination in eloquent terms. THE PLATFORM. The report of the committee on platform was here read by J. P. Caldwell, Esq., of Statesville, and enthusiastically adopted. It was as follows: We again congratulate the people of North Carolina on the continued enjoyment of peace, good government and general prosperity under Democratic administration of the State.

The affairs of the State which has now been unbroken for so many years, upon the just and impartial enforcement of the law, upon the increasing efficiency of our common school system, and the progress made in popular education, upon the improvement and enterprise manifested in all parts of the State. We again challenge a comparison between this state of things and the outrages, crimes and scandals which attended Republican ascendancy in our borders.

We will ourselves to exert in the future as in the past our best efforts for the benefit of all sections of the State. Mr. Sanderlin accepted the nomination in eloquent terms. THE PLATFORM. The report of the committee on platform was here read by J. P. Caldwell, Esq., of Statesville, and enthusiastically adopted. It was as follows: We again congratulate the people of North Carolina on the continued enjoyment of peace, good government and general prosperity under Democratic administration of the State.

The affairs of the State which has now been unbroken for so many years, upon the just and impartial enforcement of the law, upon the increasing efficiency of our common school system, and the progress made in popular education, upon the improvement and enterprise manifested in all parts of the State. We again challenge a comparison between this state of things and the outrages, crimes and scandals which attended Republican ascendancy in our borders.

We will ourselves to exert in the future as in the past our best efforts for the benefit of all sections of the State. Mr. Sanderlin accepted the nomination in eloquent terms. THE PLATFORM. The report of the committee on platform was here read by J. P. Caldwell, Esq., of Statesville, and enthusiastically adopted. It was as follows: We again congratulate the people of North Carolina on the continued enjoyment of peace, good government and general prosperity under Democratic administration of the State.

The affairs of the State which has now been unbroken for so many years, upon the just and impartial enforcement of the law, upon the increasing efficiency of our common school system, and the progress made in popular education, upon the improvement and enterprise manifested in all parts of the State. We again challenge a comparison between this state of things and the outrages, crimes and scandals which attended Republican ascendancy in our borders.

ment, our pro rata share of the surplus in its treasury. Provided, that it be disbursed through State agents and the bill for the distribution be free from objectional features.

Resolved, That the United States being one government and ours a national party, we denounce the efforts of the Republicans to force sectional issues in Congress and elsewhere, and to promote dissension and ill-will between the people of the different sections of our common country.

Resolved, That it is due to the people of our eastern counties, who have so cheerfully borne their share of our common burdens, that the present or some equally effective system of county government shall be maintained.

Resolved, That the Democratic party is opposed to any further extension of the "No-fence" law, unless such extension shall have first been authorized by a majority of the qualified voters within the territory to be affected thereby.

Resolved, That the Democratic party has ever been the party of the workingman, and has never fostered monopolies, nor have "trusts" or "combinations" or "pools" ever grown up under laws enacted by it. The contest in this country being between aggregated capital, seeking to crush out all competition, and the individual laborer, the Democratic party is, as it has ever been, against the monopolist and in favor of a just distribution of capital, and demands the enactment of laws that will bear equally upon all.

Resolved, That as all taxation bears most heavily upon the laborer, it is the duty of the legislator, as a direct benefit to the workingman, to keep the expenses of our public institutions at the lowest limit consistent with wise and efficient management. The Democratic party opposes any competition between free and convict labor, but it insists that convicts shall not remain idle at the expense of honest labor.

Resolved, That ours being an agricultural State it is our duty as well as our pleasure to promote any and all legislation that is best calculated to advance the interests of agriculture, and that in so doing we will most effectually advance the interests of mechanics, manufacturers and laborers.

Resolved, That the Democracy of North Carolina cordially approve the administration of Hon. Alfred M. Scales as honest, patriotic and conservative.

Resolved, That the ability, wisdom, honesty, patriotism, independence, faithfulness to duty and manly courage of President Cleveland have won the admiration of all good men, and the interests of the country demand his re-nomination and his re-election.

Col. Paul B. Means placed Hon. A. M. Waddell of New Hanover in nomination for elector for the State at large and Col. Waddell was chosen by acclamation. Mr. Geo. S. Bradshaw placed in nomination F. N. Strudwick, Esq., of Orange, and Mr. Wm. H. Skinner, Esq., of Currituck, were also placed in nomination as well as Col. Henry Skinner, but both these nominations were withdrawn, Mr. Glenn's at the request of R. B. Glenn, Esq., and Col. Skinner's at the request of Col. Skinner himself.

On motion of E. Chambers Smith, Esq., Mr. Wm. E. Ashley, of Wake, was elected alternate delegate to St. Louis in place of Hon. Wm. R. Cox, who had found that it would be impracticable for him to attend.

C. B. Watson, Esq., of Forsyth, then placed in nomination for the Lieutenant Governorship A. Leazar, Esq., of Iredell, and T. B. Womack, Esq., of Chatham. Hon. T. M. Holt, of Aitah, placed in nomination for the State at large and Col. Skinner was elected. The first ballot resulted as follows: Holt, 519; Leazar, 408, and Womack, 276. The election was made unanimous. Loud cheers were then made for Col. Holt, who appeared in response upon the platform and said the convention had heard so much speaking, much of it eloquent, that he would not make a speech. He desired simply to return thanks for the high honor that had been done him in nominating him for the Democratic gubernatorial ticket of the State. He held that the issue was the white man against the negro. He had always stood up for the protection of the east from negro domination. He had been in the Legislature when the county government law was passed and he had never been sorry and never expected to be sorry for the position he then took. He said he was opposed to the internal revenue system, absolutely and unconditionally. In National politics he stood upon the platform of the Democratic party and would stand upon any platform that the party would frame in the State or country at large. He had not sought the nomination. He was present in the convention simply because of the deep interest he ever felt in State politics.

Mr. Leazar then, in response to calls, arose and said he was in accord with his very soul with every sentiment that had been uttered in the convention in behalf of the continuation of Democratic ascendancy and the white man's rule. He could not find words in which to thank those who had given him their votes. He closed in an eloquent outburst, calling upon Democrats in county, State and country at large to stand together and to place again upon the capitol here and in Washington the standard of victory. A committee of three to notify the nominees for judge of their nominations was on motion appointed, consisting as follows: E. J. Bryant, Esq., Dr. W. T. Ennett and Mr. C. G. Luke. On motion of Mr. Small a vote of thanks was tendered the officers of the convention and on motion of Mr. King of Stokes a similar vote was tendered to the citizens of Raleigh for the many courtesies and attentions received by the convention at their hands. At 12:30 a. m. Chairman Cox declared the convention adjourned sine die and the grand political party gathering ever seen in North Carolina came to an end.

NOTES. A very amusing incident occurred during the convention. Mr. H. C. Irvin, of Mecklenburg, and for many years clerk of the court of that county, appeared on the rostrum at one time and acted as teller. Mr. Irwin bears a most singular and a striking resemblance to Hon. R. T. Bennett, of Anson. Many supposed it was Judge Bennett taking the stand to make a speech, and enthusiastic cries of "Bennett Bennett" were heard all over the hall. Mr. Irwin smiled and proceeded with the roll. In the mean time one gentleman in the house laughed, and said Mr. Irwin certainly bore a remarkable resemblance to Judge Bennett. Another gentleman near by said it was Judge Bennett and offered to bet $500 on it. The bet was promptly taken and the money was put up. A jury of gentlemen in the crowd were chosen to decide the question and the decision was unanimously given that it was Judge Bennett.

With such a host of splendid men forming the local leaders of Democracy, there is no wonder that the affairs of our grand old State are properly administered. Turn where the eye would, it fell on splendid specimens of manhood, and one saw on every side men already notable in our State affairs. It looked as if all of the men of influence in North Carolina were present. It was indeed a grand assembly, worthy of the occasion and worthy of the Democratic party.

When the Catawba delegation entered bearing the beautiful banner presented by Mrs. Vance to the Banner County in the State—it looked as if Caesar's tenth legion of untamed Democracy was marching into the hall. The banner is of lovely silk, richly ornamented and on it is inscribed: "To the Banner Democratic County of 1884"—while on the reverse is the defiant challenge, "Take it from us who can." The fine appearance of the delegation brought down the house, and ringing applause greeted them. We don't know what counties have enlisted in the friendly contest—but we suppose Catawba will have to be up and doing to keep the banner she has won. It was borne by F. L. Cline and C. M. Turner as the standard bearers.

THE FIRST AND LAST BALLOTS. In the Contest for the Governorship. THE FIRST BALLOT.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

Table with 4 columns: Counties, Fowle, Stedman, Alexander. Lists candidates and their vote counts.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER. FULL WEIGHT PURE. Its superior excellence proven in thousands of homes for more than a quarter of a century. It is used by the United States Government.