

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

DARBY'S Prophylactic Fluid.

Use it in every Sick-room for Safety, Cleanliness and Comfort.

It will purify the air and render it wholesome.

Vanderbilt University, Tenn.

J. Barton Sims, N. D., New York.

WOOLCOTT & SON.

14 East Martin Street.

Our New York buyer has sent us a lot of

NEW BARGAINS

In all kinds of

WHITE GOODS.

Laces, Flouncings, Hamburgs, Swiss Embroidery, White and Colored Lawns, Oriental and Dental Lawns, Summer Dress Goods, Lace Curtains, White Spreads, Ribbons, &c., &c.

It will pay to examine these goods; they were bought at less than their value.

60 very large Damask Towels

60c,

Cheap at $1.00.

30 per cent

$500 Reward!

We will pay the above reward for any case of...

Notes by the Way. Cor. of the News and Observer. GOLDSBORO, June 6, 1888.

Considerable excitement was caused here yesterday afternoon by the appearance of a pair of horses being brought to town completely frazzled and badly injured by a runaway, which occurred seven miles from here, near the residence of John I. Herring.

Meeting of Plaid Makers at Charlotte, Charlotte Chronicle, 6th. The Southern Plaid Manufacturers Association held a meeting in Charlotte yesterday on the question of curtailing the production of plaids and maintaining the prices.

The following fashion points for ladies were cabled over from Paris on last Saturday: Keru guipure lace has appeared, delicately traced in gold.

—The following fashion points for ladies were cabled over from Paris on last Saturday: Keru guipure lace has appeared, delicately traced in gold.

THURMAN, THE NOBLEST ROMAN OF THEM ALL.

THE NOMINEE FOR VICE-PRESIDENT. CLOSING SCENES OF THE GREAT CONVENTION—OTHER NEWS.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. St. Louis, June 7.—Notwithstanding the fact that a number of the visiting organizations and individual strangers left the city last night on the early morning train, and in spite of the further fact that the sun burst forth this morning, with all its summer vigor, rendering the atmosphere in the hall extremely close and sultry, there was little appreciable reduction in the attendance of spectators in the galleries and in the vast area of chairs in rear of the delegates' seats.

The decorations, which were rudely handled during the stormy demonstration following the nomination of Cleveland yesterday, were restored, and the bust of the President flanking the chairman's desk still wore a wreath of laurels jauntily coiled on the side of the head for the decoration of the audience, which assembled long before the delegates began to arrive.

The New York delegation was the last to enter, she pinned the Thurman colors to her standard and the assemblage rose on foot and gave her hearty cheers. But Indiana was not dismayed and answered with defiant shouts and for some moments confusion, noise and excitement reigned.

The convention was called to order at 10:30 a. m., and prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Brankfield. The chair then stated that he was advised that the committee on resolutions was ready to report, and he introduced Mr. Henry Waterson, chairman of the committee.

Secretary Thos. Pettit, of the convention, during the reading of the report of the committee on resolutions, was frequently compelled to stop for several seconds while the convention applauded the significant passages in the platform. There was an enormous volume of applause referred to the utterances of the tariff plank of the platform of 1884 were read; but when these were followed by the sentences endorsing the President's message and declaring that it correctly interpreted the plank, the convention fairly rose to its feet and cheered widely for a full minute.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

GROVER CLEVELAND. ALLEN G. THURMAN.

administration of executive power which, four years ago, was committed to its trust in the election of Grover Cleveland President of the United States, but it challenges the most searching inquiry concerning its fidelity and devotion to the pledges which then involved the suffrages of the people during the most critical period of our financial affairs, resulting from over taxation, the abnormal condition of our currency and public debts unliquidated. It has, by the adoption of its policy, not only averted disaster, but greatly promoted the prosperity of the people. It has reversed the improvident and unwise policy of the Republican party touching the public domain, and has reclaimed from corporations and syndicates, alien and domestic, and restored to the people nearly one hundred million acres of land to be sacredly held as homesteads for our citizens.

The Republican party, controlling the Senate and resisting in both Houses of Congress the reformation of unjust and unequal tax laws, which have outlasted the necessities of war and are now undermining the abundant prosperity of a long peace, deny to the people equality before the law and the fairness and justice which are their right. The cry of American labor for a better share in the rewards of industry is stifled with false pretenses; enterprise is fettered and discouraged by the tariff and the duties on raw materials, which are imposed on the people of our land, the immense majority, including every tiller of the soil, gain no advantage from the excessive tax laws, but the price of nearly everything they buy is increased by the favoritism of the unequal system of taxation. All unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation.

It is repugnant to the creed of the Democracy that by such taxation the cost of the necessities of life should be unjustly increased to all our people. Judged by Democratic principles the interests of the people are betrayed when by unnecessary taxation trusts and combinations are permitted to exist, which, while unenriching the few that combine, tend to the robbery of our citizenry and depriving them of the benefits of natural competition. Every Democratic rule of governmental action is violated when through unnecessary taxation a vast sum of money, far beyond the needs of economical administration, is drawn from the people and accumulated in the hands of a few.

The money now lying idle in the federal treasury resulting from superfluous taxation amounts to more than one hundred and twenty millions of dollars. It is a sum which is reaching the sum of more than sixty millions annually. Debauched by this immense temptation the remedy of the Republican party is to meet and exhaust by extravagant appropriations and expense, whether constitutional or not, the accumulation of excessive taxation. The Democratic policy is to enforce frugality in public expense and abolish unnecessary industries and enterprises which should not and need not be endangered by the reduction and correction of the burdens of taxation. On the contrary a fair and careful revision of our tax laws, with due allowance for difference between the wages of American and foreign labor must promote and encourage every branch of such industries and enterprises by giving them assurance of an extended market and steady and continuous

JOY IN CONGRESS.

THURMAN'S NOMINATION ANNOUNCED IN THE HOUSE. A SCENE OF WILD ENTHUSIASM AMONG CONGRESSMEN—OTHER PROCEEDINGS OF THE DAY.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, June 7.—SENATE.—Mr. Morgan asked leave to offer a long preamble and a series of resolutions on the subject of the pending fishery treaty and Mr. Vance moved to refer them to the committee on foreign relations. The preamble recites that the report of the committee on foreign relations on the treaty raises the question whether the President had authority to negotiate such a treaty, and to appoint plenipotentiaries without the previous consent of the Senate and the resolutions declare that the treaty has been duly negotiated and is lawful and valid.

Mr. Morgan insisted that he had a right to speak on the motion to refer and in spite of the objection of Mr. Sherman and the ruling of the chair that he (Morgan) was out of order. Mr. Morgan proceeded, announcing that he intended to make this morning the speech which he made in executive session, or, if the Senate would give leave to have it printed he would do so without delivering it in the Senate. The presiding officer, while ruling Mr. Morgan out of order, said that he had no means of enforcing his ruling. That was for the Senate, not the chair.

Mr. Morgan, with apparent indifference to the ruling, proceeded with the reading of printed slips of his speech in the secret session. One of the sentences of his speech was, "The Senate may make war necessary, as I am very much afraid we are doing here today."

In an allusion to the Republican Senators, Mr. Morgan said that the only preparation which they were making for war was an attempt to enlist the sympathies of disaffected subjects of Her Majesty. Their action, he said, was doubtless with the view of exciting and antagonizing voters to the President because of his alleged subservience to British influences. That the charge rankled wide injustice. Congress, he said, had given to the President the power which all Presidents had possessed since 1850 to wage a paper war on British commerce and for that purpose to see whether the President would push that paper war into the category of real war. If he had done so the country would have cried out for his impeachment, but having failed to do so, he was charged in the report of the majority of the committee on foreign relations because he had sought to find a peaceable way to get the rights claimed by the United States. And a threat had been made by the committee of future dealing with the President, held in reserve for a time.

Mr. Morgan finished his reading at 1:50 and the resolutions went over without action. After some routine business the Senate, at 2 p. m., adjourned till Monday.

THE TICKET DELIGHTS WASHINGTON.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, N. C., June 7.—The nomination of Cleveland and Thurman is received here with delight by Democrats. It is generally conceded that Thurman will greatly strengthen the ticket. Bandwagons are to be seen flying on the streets, worn around the necks or projecting from the pockets of enthusiastic Democrats. The platform gives universal satisfaction to Democrats.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Sanford township on Tuesday a Young Men's Democratic Club was organized with a large membership. Fowle is the man and Fowle we will have.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Columbia on Tuesday a Young Men's Democratic Club was organized with a large membership. Fowle is the man and Fowle we will have.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Sanford township on Tuesday a Young Men's Democratic Club was organized with a large membership. Fowle is the man and Fowle we will have.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Columbia on Tuesday a Young Men's Democratic Club was organized with a large membership. Fowle is the man and Fowle we will have.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Sanford township on Tuesday a Young Men's Democratic Club was organized with a large membership. Fowle is the man and Fowle we will have.

HERSHMAN.

PASSES A SOMEWHAT RESTLESS NIGHT—HIS MIND LESS CLEAR. By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, June 7—9 A. M.—Gen. Sheridan passed a somewhat restless night. His tongue is heavily coated and his mind is less clear. The kidneys are doing their work. Pulse 114. Respiration 32. No return of hemorrhage.

There has been a pronounced tendency to heart failure in Gen. Sheridan's case this evening, and it has been difficult to ward it off. This is his condition at the present writing, and Dr. Pepper, of Philadelphia, was again sent for and will be here tonight.

The annual Soiree Musicale at the school of the Misses Nash and Miss Kollock, at Hillsboro, took place on Wednesday evening. As usual, the audience was large, the decorations beautiful, the young ladies charming and the music perfect. The entertainment was under the direction of Miss Kanouse, who has under her charge the musical department of the school, and reflected great credit upon her proficiency and her capacity as an instructor. She is a thoroughly well-equipped musician and possesses the rare art of imparting knowledge to her pupils. The following was the programme of the evening:

- 1. Chorus—(Selected).
2. Sextet—"Polka." Misses Graham, Booth, Howard, M. Strudwick, Thompson and N. Strudwick.
3. Solo—"Op. 82" (Rubinstein), Miss Julia Horner.
4. Quartet—"Marche Joyeuse" (Jeffery), Misses Horner, Booth, Millen and Graham.
5. Trio and Chorus—"Pizzicati," Sylvia (Delibes), Misses M. Strudwick, Graham, Millen and Class.
6. Solo—"Grand Valse de Concert" (Tito Mattei), Misses Horner and Kirkland.
7. Duet—"Grande Valse de Concert" (Tito Mattei), Misses Horner and Kirkland.
8. Chorus—"Down in the Dewey Dell" (Selected), Singing Class.
9. Solo—"Impromptu Op. 29" (Chopin), Miss Hallie Kirkland.
10. Quartet—"Overture a Guillaume Tell" (Rossini), Misses Horner, Cunningham, Kirkland and Jones.
11. Sextet—"Trovatore" (Verdi), Misses Cunningham, Horner, Howard, Millen, Jones and Kirkland.
12. Duet—"Valse Brillante" (Schubert), Misses Cunningham and Kirkland.
13. Quartet—"Galop." "Haunting Eyes," Misses Horner, Kirkland, Cunningham and Jones.
14. Chorus—"Flowers of Spring," from "Mikado."

Where all played so well it would seem invidious to discriminate, but the rendering of the trio and chorus of Delibes, solo from Chopin and the overture to William Tell are deserving of especial commendation. The concert was a rare treat to lovers of fine music, and the audience were charmed and delighted. We are glad to know that this excellent school continues to prosper. It fills a place in the educational enterprise of the State, peculiarly its own. Presided over by three ladies whose strength of character and charm of manner is proverbial throughout the State, and whose daily lives exemplify all that is true and beautiful in womanhood, it goes along the quiet current of its way, in the old historic town of Hillsboro, moulding the character of its pupils and making them noble, Christian women. It is doing a great work in a quiet, unobtrusive way.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer almost instantly, and produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain. It is the little child's best friend, as it soothes the inflamed gum, softens the swollen parts, relaxes the bowels, and restores the child to its natural state. It is the best remedy for colic, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER. FULL WEIGHT PURE. NOT PERFECT MADE. Its superior excellence proven in millions of homes for more than a quarter of a century. It is used by the United States Government. Entombed by heads of the Great Authorities as the Strongest, Purest and Most Perfect Full Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Ammonia, Lime Alum. Sold only in Cases. PRICE BAKING POWDER CO. NEW YORK. CHICAGO, ST. LOUIS.