PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY IN THE HOUSE

THE TARIFF BILL AGAIN TAKEN UP-THE THE FALT PARAGRAPH UNDER CONSID. EBATION-OTHER NEWS.

(There was no session of the Senate resterday.)

WASHINGTON, June 8—House.— THE JUDGE PLEASED BUT NOT EXCITED The tariff bill was taken up in committee of the whole, the salt paragraph being under consideration. A dreary debate followed, not always confined to the salt paragraph, but wandering off to prunes, plums and grain sacks.

Finally a vote was taken on a motion offered by Mr. Burrows to strike out the paragraph and it was re-

An amendment offered by Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, to exclude balk salt from the free list, admitting only dairy and table salt, met with a simi lar fate. This concluded the consideration of the salt paragraph.

Mr. Bayne offered an amendment to insert rice, cleaned and uncleaned in the free list. Rejected. The four lines relating to flax were read, and Mr. Browne, of Indiana, moved to strike them out of the free list. Pending debate the committee

On motion of Mr. Davidson, of Alabama, a bill was passed authorizing the Birmingham, Selma & Northern Railroad Company to construct a bridge across the Tombigbee River in Alabama. The House then at five o'clock took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be for the con-sideration of private pension bills.

In 1824, when accomplished French emigrant, Emil Gregorie, who subsequently became known as the "Professor." He had been intended for the Catholic priesthood, but while in his studies for holy orders be fell desperately in love with a young girl below him in all thoughts of the priesthood and finally married the girl. He had means, and under the advice of American agents in Paris he concluded to invest in West Virginia lands. Like the ill-fated Blennerhassett, who bought an interest in the Ohio River, he thought to establish an Oriental

The grateful Parisian gave young Thurman most assiduous attention, but among other accomplishments taught him the habit of taking snuff and the French use of "the handkerchief."

At first Thurman could speak no French and Virginia no English But they soon acquired a vocabulary of common phrases, and became con stant companions and firm friends Thurman's first grief came when M. Gregorie received a favorable offer to go to Louifiana, then a province of pain. Much to the regret of both the young people, he accepted the in-vitation; and left Chillicothe for "the Spanish territory." For a while Thurman was disconsolate, and even gave up "snuff.". But on coming to Congress afterward he found the habit prevailing, with "snuff" on the Congressional free list, and so he fell into the habit again.

Death of a Prominent Citizen. MOORESVILLE, N. C., June 8 .- Mr. W. S. Rankin, a very prominent citizen of this place, after lingering for the past three months with that fatal disease consumption, died at 8 o'clock this morning. Mr. Rankin in his youthful days sought his fortune in the west and remained fifteen or more years engaged in the cattle business where he doubtless cantracted his death disease from exposure. He came home about two years ago and has been in a very bad state of health since his return. The deceased was a single man about thirty-five years of age. He leaves a mother, two sisters and other relatives to mourn his departure. His remains will be inte red at this place tomorrow morning. Fowle, Our Lender,

And so our magnetic and glorious leader-the silver tongued orator of the State-has all the elements of a cogent and forceful and fascinating and impressive debater, for conviction bows to the majestic sway of his imperial logic, delight hangs in dreamy rhapsody upon the entrancing witchery of his thrilling rhetoric, and enchantment drinks to sweetest intoxication the rubiest wines of the me'lowest and most luscious grapes that ever grew and ripened upon the luxuriant vines of the richest poetic fancy.

- Wilson Mirror. A Widow's Weeds

Why is a widow like a gardener? She tries to get rid of her weeds. If she was trying to get rid of that hacking cough and pains in her chest she would use Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein.

Her Von Puttkamer Resigns, Cable to the News and Observer. Berlin, June 8 .- The Post and Naional Zeitung both state that Herr Von Puttkamer has resigned from the ministry.

The disposition of the Surplus in the U.S. Tressury engages the attention of our statesmen, but a more vital question has our attention, and that is the reduc-tion of the surplus consumptives. Since the discovery and introduction of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, there has been a marked decrease in the mortality from this dreaded disease, and it is possible to still further reduce the number of consumptives. How? By keeping constantly at hand a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and using according to directions, upon the appearance of the first symptoms, such as a cough, a cold, a sore throat a chest or side pain. Taken thus early a cure is guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Lee, Johnson & Co's drug store.

Daniel Webster and Henry Cl. y both died in 1852.
