PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY IN SENATE AND HOUSE

UP IN COMMITTEE -OTHER NEWS

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, June 18 - SENATE -The Sena'e could hardly have pre sented a more listless, and languid appearance or shown more utter in-difference to ordinary legislative business than it did today. On the Rewere not half a dozen seats occupied at any one time and generally only two or three. Three of the possible presidential candidates -Sherman Allison and Hawley-constituted one third of the Republican Senators present, but they did not remain long in any one place, moving around in and out of the chamber as if their thoughts were elsewhere. There were about a score of Democratic Senators in their seats but they objection was made were passedamong them the following: House bill to authorize the construction of a wagon and foot passenger bridge scross the Noxubee river near Gainesville, Ala.; Senate bill granting to the city of St. Augustine, Fla., the post- Court. office and custom house lot for a pub-lie park. The conference report on the Indian appropriation bill was presented and agreed to.

Mr. Frye gave notice that he wou'd ask the Senate to take up the river and harbor bill next Monday.

The Senate then, at 2.40 p. m., ceeded to executive business, and at 3.40, when the doors were reopened, adjourned. During the hour that the doors were closed the Senate ratified the long-pending treaty providing for an adjustment of the Venezuela claims. HOUSE. Mr. Townshend, of Illinois, moved joint resolution appropriating $25,000 for the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg. Mr. Browne, of Indiana, refused to give consent to a second being considered as ordered, and the vote on the second reading resulted 56 to 11. Mr. Burrows raised the point of no

Mr. Townshend finally withdrew his motion, saying it was apparent that no quorum was present. On motion of Mr. Randall, the House then went into committee of the whole on the sundry civil appropriation bill. Rapid progress was made with the bill. An amendment of interest was made at the instance of Messrs Farquhar and Reagan, providing that there shall be extension of the use of steam presses in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. A general de-bate, however, arose on the paragraph relating to the new Congressional library building. Mr. Holman, addressing the House, said that the lowest estimate now given of the cost, of the building was $7,000,000, while other estimates reached $12,000,000. He went into a detailed history of the legislation and progress of the work, saying that the Senate had sent an architect to Europe and had not honored the House by consulting it in the matter. Without concluding the debate the committee rose. Mr. Peel, of Arkansas, presented the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill, which was agreed Mr. Herbert, of Alabama, from the committee on naval affairs, reported the naval appropriation bill. Mr. Townshend, of Illinois, asked consent to pass the resolution authorizing the loan of tents and tent equip age to the society of the Army of the Potomac at the Gettysburg re-union. Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, said that he would object until he had an opportunity to examine the resolution. Thereupon Mr. Townshend moved four and a halfs at 107a107g. its passage under a suspension of the

But Mr. Burrows made a point of no quorum, and for a half an hour the tellers stood in their places.

Mr. Spinola, of New York, ironically thanked the Republican side for filibustering the resolution out of time. For the third time, to his amazement it had met with objection from that side which claimed to be the guardian of the veteran.

Mr. Buchanan, of New Jersey, remarked: "And in justice to this side you might add that the opposition stands almost alone and unaided."

Mr. Farquhar, of New York, said that the resolution came originally from this side. The hour of 5 o'clock having arrived at this point the Speaker declared the House adjourned. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18 .- It is learned that Representative Burrows was moved to object to the consideration of the two Gettysburg resolu-tions in the House by a desire to avoid any recognition by the United States Government of the "Army of Northern Virginia. He intends to offer a resolution in the House tomorrow to provide necessary means for celebration without committing what he regards as a fault.

DEPEW TO GO INTO THE CONTEST AT CHICAGO. By Telegraph to the News and Observer CHICAGO, Ill., June 18.—Chauncey M. Depew finished his survey of the situation last night and determined to permit his name to go before the convention. He announced this conclusion to Senator Hiscock, Mr. Phelps and several other gentlemen. Although Mr. Depew was understood to be a candidate from the first, he had not until that moment formally announced to his friends that he would seek or accept the nomination. So much has been said about the feeling against Depew in the granger to suspend the rules and pass the States being so strong that his candicacy would be hopeless that Depew desired to find out for himself what that feeling was. Yesterday he received such assurances from Minnesota and other States which had before been reckoned as against him that he finally decided to go into the contest. When Mr. Depew's determination was made known a meeting of the New York delegation was called and any reconsideration whatever. the matter laid before the body, which the whole strength of the delegation. SKIRMISHING

ON THE BATTLE GROUND IN CHICAGO.

PRELIMINARY TO THE GREAT FIGHT BESIN NING TODAY-THE BUTTON-HOLING -OTHER NEWS.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. CHICAGO, Ill., June 18 .- The skirmishing p. eliminary to the great battle which will be formally opened in the convention was unusually active and aggressive in the hotel corridors in November next. At the mention this mo ning. At an early hour of Cleveland and thu man be merrily groups of politicians were congregated in he tobbies, talking over the situation, and though there was nothing definite which he friends of any candidate could use as a basis for their enthusiasm predictions and counter-predictions were loudly and vigorously indulged in. The doors of the headquarters of the various State delegations stood invitingly open and within eager badge-bedecked gentlemen stood ready to seize upon any passing delegate and impress upon him the desirability, if not the absolute necessity, of the Republican convention nominating this or that favorite son in order to bring assured success at the polls in November next.

At an early hour the decks of the Iowa headquarters were cleared for action and Gen. Henderson was soon on the scene directing operations. The announcement of Depew's candidacy seemed but to have invigorated the Allison forces. They predict that this convention in its present uncertain condition is a peculiarly auspicious one for the "reserve" candidates, of whom they say their favorite is the strongest.

The Republican national committee met at noon to select a temporary chairman for the convention. M M. Estee, of California, and John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, were the only names presented. The vote was a tie. Chairman Jones cast the deciding vote in favor of Thurston. The nomination was then made unani-

In the matter of the contesting delegations from Maryland it was decided to lay the whole subject upon the table. The result will be to admit the regular delegates recommended by Gary, a member of the national committee from that State. The Virginia contest involving the seating of sixteen anti-Mahone district delegates were reopened by Blair, of Virginia, moving for a reconsideration.

Messrs. Elkins and Lawson, of New York, joined in opposing strenuously The reconsideration was defeated a vote of 26 to 11. When the action of the committee on temporary chairmanship was announced the Californians, thoroughly unused to defeat, were simply dumbfounded. Their opponents, however, were not less surprised, the closeness of the vote being almost wholly unexpected.

The concensus of opinion from the people in the corridors was that Mr. Estee would have won on his position as an acti-monopoly candidate, but the friends of too many favorite candidates for the Presidency would be largely against such pronounced recognition of an out and out Blaine delegation as the men from the Pacific slope. It was a verdict which secured a readtion against the Californians too previously shouting for Blaine. The Chicago men, who will make the nominating speeches, have been decided upon. At the caucus of the New York delegation today it was decided that Depew should be placed in nom-ination by ex-Senator Warner Miller, of New York. The speech, in second-nitely whether to have a seconding speech or not. Sherman will be nominated by D. H. Hastings, Adjutant General of he State of Pennsylvania. Gov. Foraker, of Ohio, will second the nomination. The speech placing Mr. Alger, of Michigan, in nomination will be made by Robt. E. Frazier, of Detroit. W. P. Hepburn, of Clarinda, Iowa, will nominate Senator Allison of that State. Mr. Harrison's nomination will be in the hands of ex-Gov. A. G. Porter, of Indiana. The name of Mayor Fitler, of Philadelphia, will be placed in nomination by Charles Emery Smith, of the Philadelphia Press. There will be no seconding
