This is a sure cash crop, large profits and quick returns with one-tenth of the labor required for cotton. The di-rections for planting fruit trees will answer for the grape by adding half a gallon of bone dust mixed well with the soil. Corn field peas should be planted between the rows; this crop shales and enriches the land, and pays all expenses of the grape until the vines are in full bearing. The distance to plant the vines varies according to the notion of the grower, say six feet by eight, two branches to the vine. With grapes at ten cents per pound you can draw your own conclusions. I point with pride to the far-famed Tokay Vineyard, near Fayetteville. Here are more than one hundred acres under the highest state of cultivation. This vineyard is justly celebrated for its fine fruit and delicious wines, and is the largest in the South. It is an honor to the State, and reflects credit on all concerned. Ere two decades shall have passed, the vintage of North Carolins will vie in value and importance with her cotton crop of the present day, and will be watched with interest by the outside word. The scuppernong deserves more than passing notice. Found by the early settlers on Roanoke Island, it has been transplanted to the inland with success, many of the vines covering half an acre of ground. In color it closely resembles the golden chasselos, but it is three times as large. It comes in clusters, not bunches. It is not unusual for a wagon load to be taken from one arbor; the fruit sells for $1 to $1.50 per bushel. I know this will sound fabulous to persons outside the State, and to Europeans, but if you doubt what is here stated visit the Old North in August and see for yourself. THE SITUATION IN NEW JERSEY, NORTH CAROLINA AND

WEST VIRGINIA. Washington Cor. Baltimore Sun.

Sepator Vance has returned Washington from Newark, N. J. where he addressed a meeting of manufacturers and operatives last Friday evening on the farm question. He states that a very large crowd mathered to hear him, and judging from their enthusiastic applause they were in sympathy with him on the subject. He afterwards discussed the political situation with many of the leading Jersey manufacturers, and while they may all have been Democrats, they assured him that Cleveland and Thurman, with tariff reform as the issue, would carry the State in spite the members of the House who wanted to of Republican claims to the contrary. proceed with their business and get | The Jersey men are fully aroused on through with this bill before the dog- the subject and they will probaby days, who were tired of hearing these consider carefully the proposition which now confronts them, whether it will be best for their interests to contribute large sums of money to carry on the protection campaign or It to submit to a moderate reduction in their profits. This is the problem which is presented to the manufacturers in the three Eastern States where the hardest fighting is expected, New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. NO FEAR FOR NORTH CABOLINA In reply to the claim made by cerain enthusiastic Republicans hat there is a probability of Harrison and Morton carrying the Old North State on the internal revenue issue, Senator Vance says that he has no fears on shat score. He predic's that at the proper time an amendment will be made to the Mills bill providing for the abolition of the tobacco tax and a substantial reduction in the tax on of Arkansas, a duty of four-tenths of a cent per pound was imposed on iron or steel, flat, with longitudinal ribs for the manufacture of fencing. The honest farmers of North Carolina have their little stills, hundreds of them with a capacity of less than ten gallons, which they use to work up their superfluous fruit into brandy rather than have it rot on their hands, just as people in other sections put up preserves. Much of this fruit brandy is manufactured for the individual consumption of the farmers making it. If such an amend ment is not inserted in the bill before it leaves the House, it will certainly be introduced and probably adopted when the measure reaches the Senate. Senator Ransom concurs in the opinion expressed by his colleague that there is but little danger of North Carolina going Republican at the next election. He says that State is safely Democratic, but it will not do for the party to become over-confident and quietly fold their hands and swait the result. Hard work and plenty of it will be required in North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia and all along the line.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Dr. Kings New Life Pills, Bucklen' Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We'do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfac-tory results do do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Lee, Johnson & Co., druggists.
