

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness.

NEW ARRIVALS. WOOLCOTT & SON, 14 East Martin Street.

5,000 yds. Extra quality printed lawns, at 5c a yard, worth 7 1/2.

400 Jerseys. from 50c. New Shades of Ribbon.

1,000. dies black hose, 10c a pair. A new lot of.

White Goods. in plain and checked.

500 Dozen. At 10c a dozen. EDWARD FASNACH, JEWELER AND OPTICIAN.

Our Optical Department. Embroes an endless variety of lenses which together with our practical experience enables us to correct almost any error of refraction in Myopia, Presbyopia, Hypermetropia, (far sight), Astigmatism, (weak sight), and Strabismus, (crossed eyes), and giving prompt relief from that distressing malady which often accompanies imperfect vision.

Did Dockery, Harris, Eaves & Co. secure any money wherewith to purchase or attempt to purchase votes in North Carolina? It will be seen sooner or later.

Wonder if Dockery & Co. made any impression on the national committee, tapped the Morton bar to any extent, secured any "soap" for the corruption of North Carolina voters? We shall see.

Did Brother Levi, who changed his name to Morton, and who is now the money-bag annex to the Republican ticket, respond to any extent to the appeal for funds, "soap", bundle of Dockery, Harris and Eaves? It would be interesting to know.

SENATOR QUAY'S election as chairman of the Republican national committee is rather remarkable since the gentleman in question was Sherman's special friend and manager at Chicago and managed to secure only the defeat of his candidate, but it indicates that the Pennsylvania idea of the highest possible tariff taxation of the many for the benefit of a few is still to be the ruling idea of the Republican party.

THE FIFTH DISTRICT. James T. Morehead the Nominator—Buxton and Williams Withdraw.

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 12.—At 9 o'clock this morning the convention reassembled and proceeded to ballot until the 17th ballot was reached, when Mr. C. B. Watson, of Forsyth, withdrew the name of Mr. J. J. Burton, of Forsyth, and the chairman of the Granville delegation withdrew the name of Hon. A. H. A. Williams, of Granville, with the request that the nomination of Col. James T. Morehead, of Guilford, be made unanimous, which was ratified with a whoop.

After Col. Morehead's nomination was confirmed, R. B. Glenn placed in nomination J. H. Dobson, of Surry, for elector of the Fifth district. On motion Mr. Dobson's nomination was made by acclamation.

Mr. Cox of New York, called the attention of the House to the great necessity of this resolution to correct abuses now existing.

There was an abnormal immigration to this country by men persuaded to come here by false and fraudulent pretenses. Italians were coming into this country at the rate of eighty thousand a year under influences that should be inquired into.

Mr. Morrow of California, was glad that the House at last comprehended the evil besetting the country from unrestricted immigration.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

CONGRESS. PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

NIGHT SESSIONS FOR PENSION BILLS—THE MATTER OF IMMIGRATION. OTHER NEWS.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, July 12.—SENATE.—The resolution to print extra copies of the report of the committee on pensions in the case of seven vetoed pension bills was the text for some political discussion.

Messrs. Hawley and Blair criticized the language of the President's veto message, scarcely one of which, they said, but that was discourteous to congress.

Mr. Boothman, of Ohio, said that the placing of wool on the free list would tend to propagate trusts.

Mr. Dockery, of Missouri, asserted that there was no political party in the country which was hostile to American interests and he questioned the sincerity of the gentlemen on the other side when they charged the Democratic party with desiring to inaugurate English systems in this republic.

Mr. Ford, of Michigan, from the committee on military affairs, reported back the resolution for the appointment of a special committee to investigate alleged evasions of the contract labor law.

Mr. Oates, of Alabama, spoke of the importance of the subject-matter of the inquiry and thought the committee should be composed of the best men in the House.

In reply to a question by Mr. Vandiver, of California, Mr. Ford stated that the resolution was broad enough in scope to cover the subject of any evasion of the law against Chinese immigration.

Mr. Cox, of New York, called the attention of the House to the great necessity of this resolution to correct abuses now existing.

There was an abnormal immigration to this country by men persuaded to come here by false and fraudulent pretenses. Italians were coming into this country at the rate of eighty thousand a year under influences that should be inquired into.

Mr. Morrow of California, was glad that the House at last comprehended the evil besetting the country from unrestricted immigration.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

list, cutting down the revenue $5,000,000 from these two articles of necessity. Then he would reduce letter postage to one cent and take off the exorbitant charges to the farmers for postage on seeds, plants and bulbs.

Mr. McKinnay of New Hampshire spoke of the value of sheep growing for the purpose of improving poor land. There were three profits from sheep: first, from their wool, second, from their mutton, and third, from their fertilizing properties.

Mr. Caswell, of Wisconsin, protested against free wool as having the effect of destroying the sheep-raising industry in his State. That industry depended on protection and encouragement.

Mr. Boothman, of Ohio, said that the placing of wool on the free list would tend to propagate trusts.

Mr. Dockery, of Missouri, asserted that there was no political party in the country which was hostile to American interests and he questioned the sincerity of the gentlemen on the other side when they charged the Democratic party with desiring to inaugurate English systems in this republic.

Mr. Ford, of Michigan, from the committee on military affairs, reported back the resolution for the appointment of a special committee to investigate alleged evasions of the contract labor law.

Mr. Oates, of Alabama, spoke of the importance of the subject-matter of the inquiry and thought the committee should be composed of the best men in the House.

In reply to a question by Mr. Vandiver, of California, Mr. Ford stated that the resolution was broad enough in scope to cover the subject of any evasion of the law against Chinese immigration.

Mr. Cox, of New York, called the attention of the House to the great necessity of this resolution to correct abuses now existing.

There was an abnormal immigration to this country by men persuaded to come here by false and fraudulent pretenses. Italians were coming into this country at the rate of eighty thousand a year under influences that should be inquired into.

Mr. Morrow of California, was glad that the House at last comprehended the evil besetting the country from unrestricted immigration.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

Mr. Taylor—Did you think it would pass the Senate? Mr. Breckenridge—I can hardly say I did, because it is a Republican Senate. I only hoped that it would see the error of its ways and would do this good thing to the disappointment of both sides of the House.

Mr. Kennedy, of Ohio, directed his speech to the consideration of the methods followed by the Democratic party in carrying elections in the South, declaring that they were carried by fraud, outrage and intimidation.

Pending further debate the committee rose and the House at 5 o'clock adjourned till 8 o'clock p. m., the evening session to be for the consideration of various private pension bills to which opposition has been shown in Friday evening's sessions.

Mr. Boothman, of Ohio, said that the placing of wool on the free list would tend to propagate trusts.

Mr. Dockery, of Missouri, asserted that there was no political party in the country which was hostile to American interests and he questioned the sincerity of the gentlemen on the other side when they charged the Democratic party with desiring to inaugurate English systems in this republic.

Mr. Ford, of Michigan, from the committee on military affairs, reported back the resolution for the appointment of a special committee to investigate alleged evasions of the contract labor law.

Mr. Oates, of Alabama, spoke of the importance of the subject-matter of the inquiry and thought the committee should be composed of the best men in the House.

In reply to a question by Mr. Vandiver, of California, Mr. Ford stated that the resolution was broad enough in scope to cover the subject of any evasion of the law against Chinese immigration.

Mr. Cox, of New York, called the attention of the House to the great necessity of this resolution to correct abuses now existing.

There was an abnormal immigration to this country by men persuaded to come here by false and fraudulent pretenses. Italians were coming into this country at the rate of eighty thousand a year under influences that should be inquired into.

Mr. Morrow of California, was glad that the House at last comprehended the evil besetting the country from unrestricted immigration.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, said that if under free wool there would be a reduction in the cost of material, the farmer must suffer by it.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT ON THE VIRGINIA MIDLAND.

THE THROUGH SOUTHERN TRAIN GOES THROUGH A TREESTLE—FIVE KILLED AND FORTY WOUNDED—OTHER NEWS.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., July 12.—A terrible accident occurred on the Virginia Midland Railroad early this morning. The through southern train that left here at 11:25 last night went through a trestle between Orange Court House and Barboursville a distance of fifteen feet, killing five persons outright and wounding upwards of forty, some severely.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., July 12.—Express train No. 52 left Orange Court House south bound on time at 1:50 this morning. Conductor C. P. Taylor, engineer Watkins and fireman Kelly. About a mile south of Orange is a trestle forty-eight feet high which the railroad company was engaged in filling in.

All the lights were extinguished in the fall. As soon as the accident occurred the engineer, who was but slightly injured, walked back to Orange and telegraphed for assistance.

Mr. Parrott, of Albemarle county, postal clerk, was badly injured. J. A. West and J. L. Walther of Washington, D. C., postal clerks, were badly injured.

Mr. Parrott, of Albemarle county, postal clerk, was badly injured. J. A. West and J. L. Walther of Washington, D. C., postal clerks, were badly injured.

Mr. Parrott, of Albemarle county, postal clerk, was badly injured. J. A. West and J. L. Walther of Washington, D. C., postal clerks, were badly injured.

Mr. Parrott, of Albemarle county, postal clerk, was badly injured. J. A. West and J. L. Walther of Washington, D. C., postal clerks, were badly injured.

Mr. Parrott, of Albemarle county, postal clerk, was badly injured. J. A. West and J. L. Walther of Washington, D. C., postal clerks, were badly injured.

Mr. Parrott, of Albemarle county, postal clerk, was badly injured. J. A. West and J. L. Walther of Washington, D. C., postal clerks, were badly injured.

Mr. Parrott, of Albemarle county, postal clerk, was badly injured. J. A. West and J. L. Walther of Washington, D. C., postal clerks, were badly injured.

Mr. Parrott, of Albemarle county, postal clerk, was badly injured. J. A. West and J. L. Walther of Washington, D. C., postal clerks, were badly injured.

Mr. Parrott, of Albemarle county, postal clerk, was badly injured. J. A. West and J. L. Walther of Washington, D. C., postal clerks, were badly injured.

THE WATERS GETTING BACK INTO THEIR NATURAL CHANNELS.

THE GREAT DAMAGE DONE BY THE FLOOD—THE LOSSES IN CROPS, ETC.—OTHER NEWS.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 12.—The waters that have been sweeping the valley of the Monongahela and the waters of its tributaries for the last sixty hours are again falling into their natural channels.

Reginald Francklyn has long been an intimate friend of Mr. Fred Gebhardt, and when the wedding cards were issued he asked that one be sent to the Lily on Gebhardt's account.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

THE WATERS GETTING BACK INTO THEIR NATURAL CHANNELS.

THE GREAT DAMAGE DONE BY THE FLOOD—THE LOSSES IN CROPS, ETC.—OTHER NEWS.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 12.—The waters that have been sweeping the valley of the Monongahela and the waters of its tributaries for the last sixty hours are again falling into their natural channels.

Reginald Francklyn has long been an intimate friend of Mr. Fred Gebhardt, and when the wedding cards were issued he asked that one be sent to the Lily on Gebhardt's account.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

On a smaller scale, the State of Alabama is somewhat in the fix of the national government. It has a surplus on hand. The balance in the State treasury after paying July interest is $570,000.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER. FULL WEIGHT PURE. MOST PERFECT MADE. Its superior excellence proven in millions of homes for more than a quarter of a century.