CONGRESS. PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY IN SENATE AND HOUSE

THE FISHERIES TREATY IN OPEN EXECUTIVE SESSION OF THE SENATE—OTHER NEWS.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, July 27.—SENATE—Mr. Sherman gave notice that, as soon as the sundry civil appropriation bill should be disposed of, he would insist on getting the fisheries treaty out of the way, and he hoped to do so early next week.

For public buildings at Greenville, S. C., $100,000 (completion); at Jacksonville, Fla., $80,000 (completion); at Savannah, $150,000 (completion).

Mr. Beck suggested that there should be two strong miles kept at each life saving station to draw the boats to the beach, and Mr. Voorhees gave notice of an amendment appropriating $20,000 for that purpose.

An amendment to strike out of the item for the Bureau of Engraving and Printing the proviso that there shall not be any increase in the number of steam plate printing machines in that bureau provoked considerable opposition on the part of Messrs. Blair, Hawley and others.

On a vote being reached, Mr. Beck called for a division, but as there was no quorum present he withdrew the call and let the matter go by default.

Among the other amendments reported and agreed to were the following: Increasing the appropriation for repairs of light-houses, &c., from $300,000 to $325,000.

When the paragraphs in relation to the new library building were reached (on page 63) the Senate, without action on them, at 5:30 adjourned till tomorrow at 11 a. m.

Mr. Mason, of Indiana, asked consent that the order assigning tonight's session for the consideration of private pension bills be so modified as to admit of the consideration of general pension legislation, but objection was made.

Mr. Townsend, of Illinois, from the committee on military affairs, reported back the army appropriation bill with the Senate amendments, and it was referred to committee of the whole.

On Tuesday night of last week, 18th inst., the wine house of T. J. Steele, Esq., located at his vineyard about three miles from town, was consumed by fire and all the contents thereof destroyed, consisting of about 800 gallons of wine and 500 gallons of vinegar.

Admiral Luce says there is much less drunkenness in the navy now than there was forty years ago, when he entered the service.

A DESPERATE FEUD. TWO CONTENDING FACTIONS AT WAR IN KANSAS.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. LIBERAL KANSAS, July 27.—The following particulars have been received from a resident of Hugoton regarding the terrible encounter between the Hugoton and Wooddale men in Stevens county: Sam Robinson, county marshal of Hugoton, and M. Cooke, of the same town, went to the Dadd ranch, near Pony Creek, yesterday, accompanied by their wives, to look up some cattle which they were trying to buy.

At the close of Mr. Sanbury's speech the fisheries treaty went over without action and the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the fisheries treaty in open executive session and was addressed by Mr. Sanbury in favor of its ratification.

There were several men-of-war, the Essex, the Palos having just left; one Frenchman, the Aspic, one Russian cruiser, two Japanese and one Chinese war vessel in port at the time.

SEUL. EMEUTE IN THE COREAN CAPITAL.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. SEUL, July 27.—The emeute in the capital of Korea, on June 20, are given in the account that it began in the form of an alleged riot directed against foreigners and which had weight owing to the dose ignorance of the people of the Japan. The Gazette says: Some evilly disposed citizens spread the report that American missionaries in the country had purchased a number of Korean children and after killing them had boiled them down for medicines.
