the largest crowd assembled in Charleston, Swain county, for years met to hear our candidates on the State ticket. Judge Fowle held his audience spellbound for two hours in a speech of a high order of merit, eligiting frequent and tremendous applause. The result will be a great Democratic gain in Swain. The Judge, by his courtly bearing and suavity of manner, won hosts of friends. Col. Davidson and Maj. Finger also made interesting speeches. Altogether it was a gala day for the D-mocracy.

LOUISBURG, N. C., Aug. 11, 1888. The issues in the present campaign are, "Shall the whites control the State, and Reduction of Taxation ?" While the writer claims to be as anxious as any one to do all in his of intemperance, as a Democrat, the Republicans, which all Democrats

Tax reduction has put 'one eighth bottles of quinine at fifteen cents, instead of 50 or 60 cents, and we corresponding reduction on all articles used by the masses, which jury to the manufacturer or laborer. Whether taxes shall be reduced, so as to give the greatest relief to the taxpayer, or whether taxes shall be reduced, so as to do the least possible harm to subsidized industries, is the two parties. There will be a vast deal of talk pro and con between this time and the Presidential election, but the voter who shall fasten in his memory the above clear statement of the real issue, need never lose his hearing. PROHIBITIONIST.
