A SENSATION.

SCOTT PARTIN PORTER IS AN HEIR

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM IRELAND—HE IS WELL KNOWN AND AN HEIR TO A FORTUNE

The following special dispatch sent from London to the New York World under date of August 12, will be of great interest in connection with the man who by reason of his recent apparent double individuality, has come to be called "Scott Porter."

It is probable that a letter now on its way to America, from Consul Platt at Queenstown, will give Robert Porter, from a family and connection with the name of Porter, a most remarkable and unusual evidence.

The World correspondent cabled the facts briefly to the World yesterday, but the story in detail is a strange one.

Thirteen years ago Scott Partin, living near Raleigh, murdered his wife and child. The police never caught him. A few days ago a letter was received from Porter by his sister in Queenstown, stating that he was under arrest in Ireland, charged with the murder of his wife and child.

Photograph of Partin and his wife and child were shown to a most remarkable resemblance between the men. To make the case more extraordinary, the Prosecuting Attorney of Raleigh wrote that five distinct body marks on Partin, such as the loss of a middle finger, the location of moles and cuts, were found on the man under arrest.

Porter's sister lives in the family homestead a few miles from Cork, South Ireland, well known in the British peerage, and is connected by marriage with Dr. Tanner, M. P. In 1873, Robert Porter, emigrated to America. Two years later he wrote letters to Ireland from Fort Preble, near Portland, Me., saying that he was in the United States Army. These letters are still undestroyed, and one of them is dated on the day of the murder, though also marked as being sent from a place several hundred miles from where the murder was committed.

Consul Platt says that there is no doubt that the writing is the same as that of the man now in prison at Raleigh. The Consul has verified every statement written by Porter since his arrest to the British Minister at Washington. In 1887 Porter ceased writing to friends in Ireland, and his relatives believed him dead. He has been advertised for in vain as heir to land and money. The letter to his sister announcing his arrest, was accompanied by a photograph, and his sister, with other people, explains that the loss of his middle finger on one hand can easily be verified by the records of the War Department. Before he joined the United States Army he worked in Charles Flood's piano factory at Halifax.

The case has aroused unusual interest in the south of Ireland, and many prominent people are interested in securing Porter's release.

It seems that the matter above referred to as on the way here from Consul Platt, of Ireland, is in reply to Solicitor Argo's letter of inquiry. On receiving the evidence of Porter's identity from the United States Army, Solicitor Argo immediately released Porter without waiting to hear from the Consul of Ireland.

News was received here yesterday that since leaving here Porter had been seen in Mark's Creek Township and operated as a salaried man, but acting as an insane person. He was seen by the caretaker Debnam and eye-witnesses who saw him with his wife and child and said they were "after him."

He seems to be haunted with the idea that the avengers of Scott Partin's murdered wife are on his trail. He was not allowed admittance, however, and went to several other houses in the neighborhood searing people out of their wits. At one place threats were made to shoot him if he did not go off.

It seems from all accounts that Porter is insane and the news of his good fortune and great family connections in Ireland has come too late to benefit him.

A BIG FIRE IN NEW YORK.

The Convention of the Sacred Heart Destroyed.

New York, Aug. 14.—The greater portion of the immense building known as the Convention of the Sacred Heart lay in ruins at daylight. A fire broke out at 8 o'clock last night and swept everything before it. The total loss cannot fall short of $400,000 and the property was insured for $200,000.

The fire was due not to any neglect of the fire department, but to the fact that water could not be obtained. The nearest hydrant was two blocks away, down a steep hill. The buildings were on a high knoll, and considerable time elapsed before the hose could be laid. Even then the requisite force could not be obtained.

In the meantime the buildings occupied land two blocks long and one block in depth. The buildings consisted of a school, a church, a parsonage, a school, free school, music hall. All were destroyed, including forty pianos and a valuable library. Thousands of dollars' worth of vestments were burned. Mother Duffy, treasurer, was too much excited to give any account of the origin of the fire when seen this morning. All the inmates of the buildings are safe, so far as known. They were cared for at Manhattan College. By 2 o'clock this morning all the walls had fallen in except those of the chapel and that went down soon after. It is said that the convent will not be again erected in the same place, but further up town.

FOUR AT THE TENNESSEE RIVER.

His Speeches in the West—The Enthusiasm He Excited Wherever He Goes.

CHARLESTON, N. C., Aug. 11.—Judge Fowle's canvass has now reached the Tennessee River. His audiences have been very large—larger perhaps than those at the joint Scales-York canvass four years ago.

His speeches make a fine impression. Earnest, conservative and strong, he leaves each county in better condition. I have never seen the spirit of the Democrats higher. I think the prospect is bright for a largely increased Democratic vote in the trans-montane counties. Particularly in this so-called "hot" section of the State.

THE HATFIELDS AND MCGOYS.

FURTHER TROUBLE BREWING IN KENTUCKY.

CHATTERTOWN, Ky., August 14.—There is trouble again in the county between Hatfield and McGoy. Frank Phillips, sheriff of Pike county, who made the former arrests and whose daring deeds made him famous, seems to be the coveted prize of West Virginia, who seems destined to get his scalp. The trial of Hatfield was set for Pikeville yesterday. Last week Phillips was out through the county securing witnesses, and when in the neighborhood of Beter, the scene of the former bloody encounter, he was approached by three men who claimed to be detectives and who demanded his surrender. Phillips replied by whipping out his revolver and opening fire on his captives. He shot the belt off one Alexander, well known here, and secured his three revolvers. No one was hurt in the melee. The three retreated minus their hats, weapons, &c. The next day they returned with nine recruits in search of Phillips and his body-guard, and the West Virginians were again repulsed. Sunday, the Hatfield squad to the number of sixty passed the mouth of Peter Creek, and Capt Hatfield told an old man there that he had better leave, as they were going to head a squabble between the Hatfields and McGoy, the latter being forty-five strong and lying in wait for the enemies. After the escape of the Hatfield party it was discovered that the McGoy's were killed and two wounded, while three of the McGoy's were slightly wounded. The end is not yet, but the Kentuckians have the best of them inasmuch as they are thoroughly organized and well armed.

CHATHAM DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

PITTSBORO, N. C., Aug. 14.—The convention was called to order by T. B. Womack, Esq., chairman of the executive committee. A call of the townships showed all to be represented. Hon. D. W. Bain, being present was called on and made a most telling, plain and practical speech, which would do good to be repeated on every stump in the State.

A permanent organization was effected by the election of J. A. Alston, as chairman, and J. J. Jenkins and Dr. P. B. Hatch, as secretaries.

The two-thirds rule was abrogated by a vote of 74 to 24.

Eight names were presented to the convention for the House of Representatives, and of the first ballot, E. D. Wilson, of New Hope and J. M. Edwards, of the Gulf were nominated. L. R. Ezline was then nominated on the first ballot for register of deeds. The ticket was completed by the nomination of S. W. Brewer, the present incumbent, for sheriff; W. S. Petty for coroner; R. B. Clegg, for surveyor.

All Democrats who will attend were chosen as delegates to the Senatorial convention, which meets at Henley's on Thursday, Sept. 13.

Speeches were then made by the candidates, C. R. Scott, A. H. Merritt, J. G. Rencher, H. A. London, T. B. Womack, and others.

The convention was the most harmonious in years; the ticket is a strong one, and will certainly be elected.

GOLDSBORO.

The Case of Yellow Fever—Possibly Another Murder Case.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Aug. 14, '88.—The sensation caused in your city relative to Goldsboro having yellow fever is sensational indeed. It is true there is a young man here from Florida with a mild form of the disease, and direct to the committee his parents, one and a half miles in the country, on arrival here Saturday, well and hearty. There can be no danger. Goldsboro is too much inland and too cleanly a town for such a disease to fester on.

What is likely to develop into another murder case occurred in a disreputable house near the city on Sunday. One young man struck another over the head with a beer bottle, fracturing his skull, and the probabilities are that the latter will die. Should he die that will make two murders in six weeks.

YELLOW FEVER.

THE DREAD DISEASE OF FLORENCE.

WILD ALARM AT ST. AUGUSTINE—A BATTERED FEELING IN JACKSONVILLE—OTHER NEWS.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 14.—The latest news from Tampa is to the effect that there are four suspicious cases of sickness there, and three cases of yellow fever, being in the month in which the waterman died a month ago. Menatee has two cases and Plant City one. St. Augustine is still widely alarmed for some reason or other and 2,000 persons have left there in the last two days. The feeling here is better today as the disease seems so mild.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 14.—Three persons supposed to have yellow fever passed through Louisville this morning en route from Jacksonville, Fla., to their homes in Ohio. They went to Jacksonville last spring for their health and, when yellow fever broke out by energetic measures and robust misrepresentations made to the quarantine officials, made their escape. They were accompanied by an official of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, who was also in the infected district, and making his escape. He has not yet shown any symptoms of the fever, although he was for a time with Lon Tuttle, passenger agent of the Louisville & Nashville, for Jacksonville Friday. The official's wife and others supposed to have been less dangerously exposed were also in the party. When they left Jacksonville Saturday none of them were ill, and the only fear was that they would not be able to get through the lines. Before they reached Georgia, however, one case had developed and the victim was put off at a farm three miles south of Way Cross. The party was stopped at several quarantine stations, but everywhere denied that they had been exposed to fever. They report that such measures as are possible are being taken to relieve the situation at Jacksonville, but the board of health is partially demoralized and lacks money and material to fight the epidemic. The sanitary condition of Jacksonville and Florida is not so bad as supposed, but with the epidemic fairly started and the heat ranging from 96 to 100, nothing can protect the fever ravages before frost.
