GUILFORD. The Democratic County Convention Yesterday. GREENSBORO, N. C., Aug. 18.—The largest Democratic convention that ever assembled in Guilford county met here today at 12 o'clock m. and nominated the following strong ticket: For the Senate, D. F. Caldwell, for the House, Dr. J. A. McLean and R. A. Kennett; registrar of deeds, W. G. Sapp; treasurer, A. G. Kirkman; coroner, Dr. R. W. Tate; surveyor, J. G. Gambol. The convention was presided over by Prof. M. H. Holt, of Oak Ridge, and was, without doubt, the largest and most enthusiastic assemblage of Democrats ever seen here. The ticket is a strong one, indeed, and foreshadows a glorious victory in November.

THE MILITARY CONFERENCE. THE APPOINTMENT OF DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE. SHELBY, N. C., Aug. 18.—The conference adjourned today. Routine business only was transacted. Thirty-one hundred dollars was raised for the mission in Oregon. J. S. Martin, D. Matt Thompson, L. J. Howell, L. D. Smith were chosen delegates to the General Conference, J. W. A. Paine and R. B. Miller alternates. Bishop Duncan and President Crowell preached yesterday and will preach tomorrow. The next conference meets at Gastonia.

BUNNIE. The Democratic County Convention. ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 18.—The Democratic County Convention today nominated for the House, M. E. Carter and J. S. T. Baird; for sheriff, D. L. Reynolds; registrar of deeds, J. J. Mackey; coroner, W. D. Hilliard; surveyor, H. H. Starnes. The proceedings were characterized by harmony and enthusiasm.

COL. WADDELL AT SALISBURY. HIS SPEECH A DEAD LEVEL STRETCH OF GOOD SENSE. SALISBURY, N. C., Aug. 18.—Hon. A. M. Waddell spoke here today to a large and in every way an attentive audience. His speech was a magnificent, dead-level stretch of sense and truth. He made votes.

Breaks Jail. MOORE, N. C., Aug. 18.—Two prisoners broke jail at Pittsboro last night, Mack Miller and Wm. Minter, colored. One of them had been transferred from Alamance jail to Pittsboro on account of threats of lynching.

More Suits Against the Thunders. LENOX, Aug. 18.—Pastor members of the Irish parliamentary party have announced their intention of bringing suits against the Times. The object is to maul the paper for costs.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY. OF A UNION PACIFIC TRAIN—THE ROBBERS DRIVEN OFF. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18.—A special to the Post Dispatch from Cheyenne, Wyoming, says: An attempt was made at two o'clock this morning by masked men to rob the Union Pacific east-bound overland passenger train. At Dana station near Rawlins three masked men covered the engineer with revolvers and compelled him to throw up his hands. Breakman Frank Tillman grappled with one of the robbers, the express messenger came to the rescue and the robbers were put to flight after thirty or forty shots had been exchanged. Tillman was seriously wounded, the former shot in the hip and arm and the latter in the side. One robber was dropped but was carried off by his comrades. The sheriff of Carbon Co. with a posse is in pursuit.

Military Conspiracy in Spain. LONDON, Aug. 18.—Advised from Spain say a military conspiracy has been discovered at Madrid. A cavalry officer and several sergeants and privates have been arrested. A strict watch is being kept upon suspected men in the garrisons at Saagossa and Lerida.

A Just Judgment. At the present term of Johnston Superior Court a negro named Burwell Battle has been tried and convicted before Judge Avery upon an indictment for shooting into a train on the North Carolina Railroad, near Pine Level. The court sentenced him to imprisonment in the penitentiary for eight years. This is a just and wholesome judgment and, we hope, will serve as a warning. No punishment is too severe for a wretch who fires into a train filled with unsuspecting travelers.

Military Religious Services. The chaplain of the Governor's Guard, Rev. L. L. Nash, will conduct special military religious services for the company this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Central Methodist church, corner of Person and Morgan streets. These monthly services to the company have been very interesting and large congregations have always attended them. The Guard will attend in full dress uniform and under strict military discipline and occupy the front seats in the church. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

ALL IS NOT LOVELY. AT REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS IN NEW YORK. N. Y. Cor. Cincinnati Enquirer.

Judge James Grant, of Iowa, was a visitor at the National Democratic Committee's Headquarters today. He spoke enthusiastically of the situation in the West, and said that the Democrats in California are working the Chinese question with great effect. Judge Grant said that the people of Iowa are for tariff reform. The internal dissensions at Republican headquarters have become very bitter. It is all caused by Blaine, his schemes and the ambition of his personal friends whom he is backing. Some of the party gathered. It seems that Mr. Blaine has offered to speak all over the country and demands that he shall be sent to the Western States. The Western members of the National Committee from Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan say they won't have him because there is a pronounced sentiment for tariff reform in their States. There is an objection, moreover, in the minds of many Republican National Committee members to Blaine's going to Indiana. They say that if this is done it will obscure Harrison, and it is far from being a prominent figure in the canvass. When Mr. Blaine was here he stated that the letter brought to him from Harrison by the latter's partner, W. H. H. Miller, contained an invitation to him to come to Indiana. Possibly General Harrison would not appreciate the position he would be placed in should Blaine accept the invitation. But his friends here do, and come what may they are determined to prevent Blaine from going to that State this fall. The situation is getting worse and worse every day, and the breach in the Republican ranks here apparently become so wide that they cannot be bridged.

Beautiful Marriage. GREENVILLE, N. C., Aug. 16th.

PERKINS-MOORE.—This evening at 9 o'clock a beautiful marriage was witnessed in the Baptist church of this place. Mr. J. W. Perkins, one of Greenville's most popular and handsome young men, was wedded to Miss Helen Moore, the lovely and accomplished daughter of the late Marcellus Moore. Mrs. A. M. Moore graciously presided at the organ and skillfully rendered the wedding march as the couples appeared in the following order: Mr. J. W. Higgins and Mr. J. C. Tyson, Mr. R. D. Cherry and Mr. W. O. Warren, Mr. S. T. Hooker and Mr. Bernard Greene, M. R. W. King and Mr. Frank Wilson. Then came the bride with Miss Lizzie Perkins, the beautiful sister of the groom, who turned to the left, and she was accompanied by Mr. Harley Laughlinhouse, advanced to the right and each couple marched up the respective aisles, being followed by the appointed ushers, who were Dr. F. W. Brown, I. A. Sugg, Charles Skinner and G. B. King. The bride and groom joined in front of the church altar and there, in the presence of loving kindred and admiring friends, were made husband and wife. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Wildman in an impressive and most beautiful manner. After the marriage a reception was given at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, J. D. Murphy, Esq., where numerous friends of the happy pair gathered to express congratulations. They were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents. The bride is a favorite in the social circles of Greenville. She is admired by all. The groom is one of our cleverest young men. As a medical student under the firm of Drs. O'Hagan & Brown he has won many compliments from them for his aptitude and progress in the study of medicine, and his future in that profession is indeed promising. The whole community looks upon this happy union of lives with feelings of fond admiration and wishes for them every joy and comfort this life affords.

More About Cambridge and Its Colleges—How the Students Live. BY REV. E. H. BENTLEY.

These are numerous, extensive handsome and costly. The modern buildings are of a unique and original style, high, quadrangular, and the courts within containing beautiful grass plots. These buildings are courts and Trinity Hall. The combination of architecture and beauty and magnificence of these structures may be compared when we visit them to the chapel of St. John's of the same city, which is one of the finest as an example, while the other buildings, begun by Henry VIII and Cardinal Wolsey, in 1547, cost three millions of money and were destroyed by a competent authority.

NEW YORK, August 18.—Officers of the street-cleaning Patrol ran alongside the barge E. Myers this morning and arrested 106 persons witnessing a prize fight between La Blanche, the champion and John Varley, who reported the fight had just ended in Varley's favor. THE TABERNACLE MEETING. A REPORT FROM THE REV. H. B. BENTLEY. RETIREMENT COLLEGE, Aug. 18.—Yesterday was Encampment day. Today the services proper began with an address from the president, Rev. W. P. Williams, of Davidson College. His text was "The Kingdom of God is within you," and others are announced for Sunday, tomorrow, and a great day is expected.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS. RETIREMENT COLLEGE, N. C., August 18th, 1888. To the Members of the Local Mission Conference of North Carolina.

DEAR BROTHERS: Eighteen years of our existence as a conference are numbered with the past, and we meet today in our 19th annual session. We should be, and I trust are, devoutly thankful to the Great Head of the church for the blessings of the past and for the bright hopes of the present and future. I am glad to meet you today, dear brethren, and greet you from all parts of our beloved Commonwealth, and trust that we shall, during our conference and tabernacle meeting, have a little foretaste of the joys that await us when we meet to part no more. I trust that you, not only members of the conference, but all who attend these meetings, realize the fact that they are full of precious possibilities. What is the grand object of this conference? It is to meet and greet our friends and have "a good social time"; nay, verily "good that is all right and proper, with certain limits." I am persuaded, brethren, that higher motives and grander objects were in our minds, and to present a glorious harvest of saved sinners to God as a "Thank-Offering."

While I see some, and am glad to see them, whom I have not met in conference before, I miss some who are far from home, among them is Father England, who one year ago was with us full of the Holy Ghost and power from on high.

The "Fiery Chariot" came almost in sight for him during our last conference, and he said "if it came near me he was ready to mount it, but if the Master had any more work for him, he was willing to stay and do it." Well, his work was not quite done then, but it is now, and well done. We shall miss his wise counsels, Gospel preaching and fervent prayers during this and future sessions of our conference, but our loss is his eternal gain.

His sword was in his hand, Still warm with recent fight, Ready that moment, at command, Through rock and steel to snait.

"Soldier of Christ, well done!" Praised be thy new employ! And while eternal glory run, Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

In compliance with your resolutions passed at our last conference during the month of May last, I appointed an efficient man in each Presiding Elder's district to hold district advisory meetings, and the Raleigh and Statesville Christian Advocate, as well as some of the Holston and Virginia conference papers kindly published them, also the programmatic and meetings arranged by Drs. Abernethy and Brannon. I also wrote a personal letter to each delegate, urging them to attend this session or to appoint an alternate. To what extent those appointments and requests have been complied with, the Bishop will show. I also wrote to Bishop Key and Rev. Sam. P. Jones inviting them to attend these meetings. Each of them responded promptly and with us, previous engagements rendered it impracticable for them to do so. I saw Bishop Dineen at the Statesville District Conference and he promised me to be here a day or two next week, unless business called him back to Spartanburg from the Shelby District Conference. We may be disappointed, but we shall not be disappointed in meeting the Great Head of the church, if we are citizens of this State. Maj. D. W. Ramsaur, of Littleton, and B. P. Clifton, Esq. of Louisville, recently deceased. It is now nearly eighteen years since the Life Insurance Company of Virginia entered our State and identified itself with our interests and people. During that time the company has paid to policy holders over seven hundred thousand dollars and has defrauded no man of a single dollar. It affords us pleasure always to chronicle the good deeds of a company so uniformly prompt and liberal in all its settlements.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 18.—August Johnson, a Dane, came to the county hospital Thursday to consult the doctors about a loathsome skin disease from which he was suffering. After careful examination the physicians decided that the patient was suffering from tubercular leprosy, and he was placed in an isolated compartment of the contagious ward.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 18.—The latest novelty in Chicago's criminal record is a trio of female sand baggers. Early this morning Minnie Dole, a hotel pick-pocket and shop-lifter, and the wife of an expert burglar, accompanied by two other women, well known to the police, stopped a well-dressed gentleman in front of the Brevort House on Madison street and attempted to rob him. Two of the women seized him, while the third struck him several times in the face with brass knuckles. The man shouted for help, and an officer heard him and went to the rescue. At sight of the officer a cab-driver put two of the women into his cab and started away at a rapid pace. Minnie Dole made her escape through an alley. The officer followed the cab and ordered the driver to stop, but he refused. The officer finally got into a buggy and caught the cab. The women and driver were placed under arrest. On the way to the station the women offered the officer $100 to allow them to go free, but the bribe was refused.

MIR WAS A STRATEGIST.

BY THE CLERK WAS A COOL ONE, TOO. A story ready for your ear. Measure for Measure, Act IV, Ec. 1. All store people know "the woman in search of a tumbler." She lives in Philadelphia, she lives in Harrisburg, she lives in Reading, she lives in Wilmington, she lives in Camden; in fact, she lives everywhere. That she lives in Boston is humorously attested by Arlo Bates, who writing from that city to the Providence Journal, says: "She went into a big dry goods house the other day to buy material for a gown. She selected, after a good deal of fussing, a gingham costing 12 cents a yard. 'How many yards are there in this piece?' she asked. 'There are eleven,' the clerk answered, after counting. 'I will take ten.' 'That is the whole piece, but she insisted that he should cut off ten yards, and this was accordingly done. 'That is a remnant, I suppose,' she said interrogatively, taking up the odd yard as he folded the goods. 'Yes, ma'am.' 'You sold remnants cheaper, don't you?' 'Sometimes,' the clerk said innocently. 'What will you take for this?' 'Twelve cents.' 'But that was just what I paid for the piece. 'Yes, but I haven't any authority to mark goods down.' 'Couldn't you take the cash boy to find the man that does mark them down, so as to see what he would take?' the customer asked anxiously. 'Just now,' the clerk replied, 'he is at his dinner, and I don't think he'll be in today.' 'And you couldn't mark it down yourself and tell him about it?' 'No,' the clerk said, smiling aggravatingly. 'I couldn't, really.' 'Well,' the woman said, with a sigh, 'then I am dreadful sorry I had it cut for I'll have to have that yard away even if I do have to pay 12 cents for it. Ten yards wouldn't possibly do. But I ain't used to paying full price for remnants.'"
